McInnis Sworn In As New Supervisor

Soon after John F. McInnis took office as supervisor for the first (San Rafael) Supervisorial District today, he asked top priority investigation of the long-troubled data processing department and urged better relations by all county departments with the public.

Other supervisors generally agreed with McInnis, but further discussion was put over until next Tuesday.

McInnis said that from press reports and comments of those familiar with the problem, the operation of the county data processing department "appears to be beyond understanding."

McInnis and Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen are to attend a three-day conference at the International Business Machines plant near San Jose starting tomorrow.

On dealings with the public, McInnis said he has heard of cases where applicants for such things as building permits have been "not only baffled, but also put off and ultimately infuriated." He blamed this on growth of county departments and a resultant independent attitude on the part of the various departments.

He said one of the main goals should be in seeing that members of the public are treated "quietly, pleasantly and effectively."

McInnis, replacing Byron W. Leydecker who did not seek reelection to the board, was appointed today as county representative to the Assn. of Bay Area Governments, replacing Supervisor Peter H. Behr; to thet Bay Area Transportation Study Commission as an alternate delegate, and to the city-county services committee.

Storer New Chairman Of Supervisors

Thomas T Storer was named chairman and Ernest N. Kettenhofer vice chairman of the Marin County Board of Supervisors today.

Soon after taking the chairman's seat, Storer spoke of the things he would like to see accomplished in the new year.

"Above all I would like to see this board set an example in the conduct of public hearings and propriety," he said. Other supervisors agreed, and Supervisor Peter H. Behr urged that members refrain from making personal comments about each other and never question the reason for a man's vote.

Storer cited planning of the airport and settlement of the debate of Bolinas Lagoon among the things he hopes are done in 1967. He said he favored keeping the lagoon as unchanged as possible, with any development in keeping with the surroundings and "at a minimum."

He also hoped for settlement of the Route 17 alignment, saying he would favor something less than freeway standards and a road that did

SUCCUMBS AT DALLAS HOSPITAL

Moved From Jail Three Weeks Ago For Treatment

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jack Ruby, the slayer of accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, died today in Parkland Hospital, where he had been suffering from cancer since Dec. 9.

Ruby was moved to the hospital after complaining of an illness which jail doctors had been treating as a bad cold for three weeks.

At the hospital, his illness was first diagnosed as pneumonia and then as cancer which had spread into the lymph glands, lungs and pancreas. X-ray and surgery would do no good, doctors said.

A product of the Chicago slums, Ruby was little known even in Dallas until he stepped in front of the nation's television cameras with a snubnosed revolver and shot Oswald in the Dallas County Jail basement.

That was on Nov. 24, 1963, and the one-time Chicago tough kid had gained the world renown friends said he always had wanted.

He spent the rest of his life behind bars.

In Chicago today, Elmer Gertz, one of his lawyers, said Ruby "looked like a man of 80 years" when Gertz saw him just before Christmas. Ruby was 55.

In Ruby's room when he died were his brother, Earl Ruby of Detroit; his sister, Eva Grant of Dallas, and Eileen Kaminsky, another sister from Chicago.

Visitors were rare after Ruby was jailed. He was inaccessible except to his family, lawyers and investigators.

One visitor in the county jail was Chief Justice Earl Warren, who was present when Ruby was given a lie detector (polygraph) test. In the test, Ruby denied that there was any conspiracy connecting him with the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Ruby denied knowing Oswald, and he denied personally knowing Dallas Police Patrolman J.D. Tippit whom Oswald also was accused of shooting to death on an Oak Cliff Street

Neighboring Aid Refused In Home Fire

Fire gutted a home in the Terra Linda section of San Rafael yesterday, doing damage estimated at $42,000 and adding sparks to the burning question of whether Marin would better be served by a single county-wide fire protection service.

The blaze, which had burned undetected for some time, was well under way when San Rafael firemen got the call at 1 p.m., and the home of the Gerald L. Thompsons at 915 Del Ganado Road was "badly gone" when fire fighters arrived, according to Battalion Chief Robert H. Rogers.

The one-story four-bedroom, Eichler-built house was "gutted from one end to the other," Rogers said. He estimated damage at $28,000 to the building and $14,000 to the contents.

The Thompsons had left home at about 11 or 11:30 a.m. They returned shortly after 2 p.m. to find the interior a charred skeleton.

The fire, of undetermined origin, "burned for some time before it broke out and we got phone calls on it," Rogers said. "It appears to have started in the kitchen area, somewhere near the stove."

A cat and three or four birds perished, but the family dog, which was outside, survived, Rogers said.

Terra Linda Fire Chief George Walser said today that the fire report was first phoned to his station, although the home was within San Rafael city limits by about a block.

"We relayed the report to San Rafael and offered assistance," Walser said. "The assistance was refused by the San Rafael dispatcher."

Walser estimated that his men could have reached the Thompson home in about a minute, and said it took two San Rafael fire trucks six minutes to arrive from San Rafael's station

Red Defection Makes Record

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — U.S. officials announced today that a record 20,242 Viet Cong defected in 1966 with the biggest surge coming in the final two months of the year.

A U.S. spokesman said the 1966 total was nearly double the 11,124 who left the Communist ranks during 1965 and was the highest number in the four years since South Vietnam began the Chieu Hoi — Open Arms — program to win over Viet Cong adherents.

In combat developments, only minor ground skirmishes were reported. In the air there were more bombing strikes against North Vietnam, two raids by B-52 heavy bombers in South Vietnam and a third in the demilitarized zone.

Jubilant U.S. Phantom-jet pilots told a news conference in Saigon how they knocked seven of North Vietnam's fastest MIGs out of the skies north of Ha-

Newly Married Couple Dies In Coast Wreck

Fatalities First Of New Year

A newly married Marin City couple died at the foot of a Stinson Beach cliff on New Year's Day to become the first 1967 traffic victims in Marin County.

The bodies of Walter William and Maria Fleming Keller were not found until 11 a.m. yesterday. Then their wrecked car was discovered at the base of the cliff beside Shoreline Highway by Gregory Sullivan, 20, of 10 Tioga Lane, Greenbrae, whose cousin lost his life when his car went off the same sheer coast line—only a short distance from where the Kellers died—in November, 1965.

Death of the couple orphaned Mrs. Keller's three children by a previous marriage — Dennis Paul Fleming, 13; Linda Marie Fleming, 11, and Daniel Fleming, 7.

TAKE CHILDREN

Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Salcido of 11-A Taylor Street, San Rafael, took the children in their care, and Mrs. Salcido said today they hope to be allowed to keep them. She said she and Mrs. Keller had been close friends for 11 years and "I helped her raise the children."

Keller, 32, and his wife, 35, married only about a month ago.

On Sunday, they and their children and dog called at the Salcidos for a visit. About 11 a.m., they took the children back to their home at 385 Drake Avenue, Marin City, and said they planned to go for a ride.

BECOME WORRIED

When they did not return, the Salcidos became worried and took the children to their San Rafael home. They were there when young Sullivan made his grisly discovery yesterday.

Sullivan's cousin was James Veal of Stinson Beach, whose car went off the cliff Nov. 12,

1966 Traffic Deaths At 28

Marin County traffic claimed its 28th victim of 1966 Saturday with the death of Mrs. Mary Leona Brice of Novato.

Mrs. Brice died in Novato Hospital of injuries suffered in an automobile accident Thursday.

Her death was the 28th and last from Marin County traffic accidents during 1966. The previous year, 31 were killed in traffic in Marin.

Mrs. Brice suffered head and internal imjuries and an arm fracture in a two-car collision on Highway 101 about three miles north of Novato Thursday. According to the California Highway Patrol, she drove onto Highway 101 from a side road and her car was hit by one driven by Aneece Wiley Hassen,

Washed Up Bodies Dakin Family Members

LA PAZ, Mexico (AP)—Officials here said today five bodies have been found washed up on a beach about 20 miles north of this Baja California port, and identified them as those of Richard Y. Dakin, a San Francisco businessman, his wife, their son Roger, Roger's wife and their small son.

One source said that apparently the control tower operator, who does not speak English, misunderstood requests for landing and that the plane then crashed into the sea north of here in bad weather.

Incorrect reports from La Paz officials yesterday said the wreckage of the plane had been sighted in mountains north of here. Later officials confirmed reports from Hamilton Air Force Base, that the plane had crashed in the sea.

The Dakins disappeared Dec. 21 en route from San Diego to a holiday in La Paz aboard a twin-engine Lockheed Lodestar. Aboard were Mr. and Mrs. Roger B. Dakin of 21 Tanfield Road, Tiburon and four of their five children, Alexandria, 16; Zachary, 15; Matthew, 5, and Roger Jr., 4 months. Their ifith child, Samuel Dakin, 12, was on a ski holiday in Switzerland with family friends.

Also aboard were Dakin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Y. Dakin of San Francisco, former Belvedere residents, and pilot Elton C. Stone and co-pilot Dennis Seitz, both of Alameda. The senior Dakin was reported to have been considering purchase of the ill-fated Lodestar for the family importing business.

The five bodies were said to have been washed ashore. Five others are missing — those of three Dakin children and two crew members, including the pilot.

Removal of the bodies was delayed by bad weather, which prevented either fishing boats or those of the Coast Guard from landing, and failure of the agent of the public ministry to give permission for removal of the bodies.

Sources here also said pieces of the plane had been washed ashore on the narrow beach.

Immediately after the six bodies were sighted, a ground party made an unsuccessful attempt to reach the remote beach, but was frustrated by the rugged terrain, where low-lying areas are mostly desert and the only significant vegetation is cactus.

SACRAMENTO — Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, was named yesterday to serve again as minority leader in the state Senate.

He was also appointed a member of the important Senate Rules Committee.

Queen Caught In A Crisis

LONDON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II was caught up in a crisis of conscience today over her first cousin' desire to marry "the mother of his illegitimate son" after his wife divorces him.

Earl Harewood

An announcement yesterday by attorneys for the Earl of Harewood, 43 and 18th in line of succession to the throne, came as a bombshell to the British public and uncovered one of the best-kept royal secrets.

The statement said Harewood's Austrian-born countess is suing him for divorce on grounds of adultery with Patricia Tuckwell, a dark-haired Australian divorcee who once worked as his secretary.

Miss Tuckwell

The attorneys said the earl would not defend his wife's suit, that "he and Miss Tuckwell would wish to marry if and when they are legally free to do so," and that Miss Tuckwell had a son by him in July 1964.

That put the queen in a predicament.

Under the Royal Marriages Act of 1772, all members of the royal family descended from King George II must have the monarch's permission to marry. And the Church of England—of which the queen is temporal head and "Defender of the Faith"—is opposed to the remarriage of anyone whose partner is still living, the key factor in Princess Margaret's decision in 1955 not to marry Group Capt. Peter Townsend.

Sources close to the court believe church leaders may advise the queen against consenting to her cousin's remarriage.

Police Open Fire

MASERU, Lesotho (AP) — Police opened fire early today to drive off an estimatex 50 armed Africans who attacked the police station at Leribe, in northern Lesotho, a senior police officer reported. It was the second attack on a police station within a week by followers of King Meshoeshoe II, 29, who is involved in a power struggle with Chief Leabua Jonathan, the 52-year-old prime minister, who placed him under house arrest last Wednesday.

Lesotho, a tiny nation of only 11,716 square miles and about 880,000 people, is surrounded by South Africa.

LAS PALMAS, Canary Islands (AP)— Briton Mike Coles has left the Canary Islands in an attempt to make a solo transatlantic voyage to Barbados in a 5.5-meter single sail fiber glass boat. Coles, a former crew member on the British liner "Athlone Castle," sailed from Las Palmas in his boat "La Paca."

Back To Book

Trial Stated In Slaying

Jury trial for Dorothy Nell Miller, 23, charged with the Sept. 2 murder in Manzanita of Mrs. Bernadine Nettles, was scheduled on the master calendar in Marin Superior Court today for 10 a.m. tomorrow.

The case, before Judge Thomas F. Keating, is expected to last five days. The defendant, of 69 Cole Drive, Marin City, allegedly stabbed Mrs. Nettles to death during an argument at Oaktree restaurant.

Mrs. Nettles, 29, resided at 239 Drake Avenue, Marin City.

George Washington was six feet two inches tall.

'Just Society' Asked By Gov. Rockefeller

Romney gave no inaugural day hint on possible presidential ambitions for 1963. But Rockefeller's inaugural address carried national political overtones.

He, along with several other Republican governors took their oaths yesterday. The other governirs included Don W. Samuelson of Idaho, Harold Levander of Minnesota, David F. Cargo of New Mexico, Warren P. Knowles of Wisconsin, Stan Hathaway of Wyoming and Ronald Reagan of California.

Romney, 59, the first Michigan governor elected to a third term, called for a government directed "by those who put the public trust above all personal consideration."

Then, in what some interpreted as a jab at President Johnson's "Great Society," he said "the people recognize th eliminations of efforts to improve the lives of men and their society by material means alone."

"The people feel the stifling consequences of over-centralization, conformity, manipulated consensus and arbitrary unchecked power, whether public or private," he added at the Lansing ceremony.

Rockefeller, 58, who projected the "Just Society" concept at his Albany, N.Y., inaugural, often has renounced any 1968 presidential ambitions. But he spoke of federal domestic programs he said "raised the aspirations and aroused the hopes of many citizens, only to produce grave disappointments."

"I believe," he said, "it is high time for Congress to take at least a first step in providing unencumbered funds to the states." He explained that states, with their knowledge of local problems, are in a better position to say how federal aid should be spent at the local level.

Rockefeller described his "Just Society" as one in which "government is courageous, power is benign, learning is abundant, prosperity is general, order is serene, law is honored, compassion is practiced and brotherhood is lived."

Ford Meeting 10 Safety Standards

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. told the federal government today, as General Motors did Saturday, that it could meet only 10 of 23 proposed safety standards for 1968 cars.

Ford's official position was disclosed in a letter to Dr. William Haddon Jr. the nation's highway safety administrator.

Ford said it could meet seven other standards, if Haddon eased or adjusted his proposed standards, but that the remaining six could not possibly be met in 1968 cars.

The Ford position was almost identical with that taken Saturday by GM, first of the auto companies to issue a formal reply to the Haddon proposals.

Haddon, in making his first 23 proposals in early December, gave the auto industry until today to file any comments, complaints or suggestions before he issued the final standards which become effective Jan. 31 for 1968 cars.

Haddon said Saturday that he would withhold comment on the replies of the various auto companies until all have been received and he has had a chance to study them.

Reagan Appoints New Road Chief

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gorden C. Luce, San Diego savings and loan executive, today was named the $27,500 a year chief of the State Highway Transportation Agency.

Luce will later become one of three top level executive directors if the legislature approves Gov. Reagan's reorganization plan, a spokesman for the governor said.

Bircher Says Sign Ruined By Vandals

Eulon O. Stanley, 100 Montego Key, Bel Marin Keys, reported that vandals ruined a large sign redaing, "Save Our Republic, Impeach Earl Warren," atop his car, sheriff's officers said today.

Stanley, who told deputies he is a John Birch Society member, said the car was parked at the heliport in Manzanita during the weekend when the $70 sign was smeared with black paint.

Driver 74, Treated In Alto Collision

James Barnard Gorman, 74, of 664 Tanbark Terrace, Terra Linda, was treated for minor injuries at Marin General Hospital yesterday after his car collided with another on Alto Hill.

His northbound car drifted on Highway 101 at 4:45 p. m. into one driven by John Paul McHugh, 44, of San Francisco, then veered across two lanes and hit the center barrier, the California Highway Patrol reported.

350 Strikers Dismissed At Two Hospitals

OAKLAND (AP) — Alameda County has dismissed 350 hospital workers who struck two public hospitals for higher wages.

The hospitals, while seeking to fill the vacancies created, have closed some wards and are accepting only emergency and severe cases as new admissions.

The dismissed workers are members of the AFL-CIO East Bay Municipal Employees Union Local 380, which srtuck three days ago in defiance of a court order forbidding any strike action against the public hospitals, Highland in Oakland and Fairmont in San Leandro.

Nelson cited a section of the civil service code which requires that employees reporting sickness must, within three days, present to hospitals a physician's note confirming their illness.

The hospital workers — representing such categories as orderlies, food workers and nurse's aides—continued picketing despite warnings by the district attorney's office that they face possible fines of $500 each and jail sentences of five days.

They declined to say they were on strike, and union officials termed the picket lines merely "peacefui citizens, standing around."

A spokesman at Highland said that since the strike seven wards had been closed and the usual 300-patient load reduced to 90. But he added, "we are experiencing no difficulty."

At Fairmont, a spokesman said, "we are well organized now."

Hospital officials, who said they received a deluge of phone calls from job seekers, told all prospective employees to contact the county civil service commission.

Auto Passenger Treated For Cuts

Nancy Gurley, 28, of San Francisco was treated at Marin General Hospital Saturday for a leg cut suffered in a Sausalito traffic accident.

The California Highway Patrol reported Miss Gurley was riding in a car driven by David Richard Getz, 26, of Lagunitas which collided with one driven by Donald Lee Bellar, 26, of 1 Ebbtide Avenue, Sausalito, at Bridgeway and Gate Six Road at 8:20 p.m.

Arrest Made In Stabbing

A Marin City man, Otis Cleveland Gaines Jr., 30, was arrested by sheriff's officers yesterday for the pocket knife stabbing of his brother, Nick Gaines, 27, of Los Angeles.

The victim was admitted at Marin General Hospital for treatment of a single stab wound of the stomach. His condition today was fair.

Otis Gaines, of 999 Drake Avenue, was booked in county jail for assault with a deadly weapon, released on his own recognizance, to be arraigned in Marin Municipal Court this afternoon.

Sheriff's Capt. Carl Sears said the brothers became involved in a family argument.

Sweeping Hike In Mail Cost Likely In '67

By PETER S. NAGAN
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON—You will probably be paying more to mail your letters before 1967 is over. What's more, publishers will be hit by heavier charges for delivery of magazines, and businessmen for their catalogues and other printed matted.

Higher postal rates have been proposed to President Johnson for inclusion in his new budget for the fiscal year 1968, which goes to Congress in about three weeks.

Postmaster Gen. Lawrence F. O'Brien said recently no definite decision had been made. But the arithmetic supporting increases is hard to refute.

The fact is that the Post Office Department is running $1.2 billion in the red and will need $400 million just to see it through the current fiscal year ending June 30.

Congressmen and other government officials are unhappy about the prospect of higher rates. They don't like to raise mail charges because virtually every voter is aware of the cost of stamps.

But if something is not done about the gap between postal income and outgo the overall federal deficit—already heading for a huge figure—will be even greater. And th administration seeks to avoid this.

Except for parcel post, on which rates were raised in 1966, the contemplated increases would go across the board.

The 5 cent rate on first-class mail would be raised to 6 cents and the present 8 cent charge for airmail would go up to nine. This would remove almost half the department's annual deficit.

Second-class mail, on newspapers and magazines, would have to be raised too, as would third-class rates on catalogues, advertising and "junk" mail. It is a political axiom that if the public's mail cost is raised, so is business's.

The effective date of any increases cannot be pinpointed. Much will depend on the speed of Congress in enacting postal increases.

Toy Weapon's Beam Brings On Police

Four carloads of policemen burst into the house. There was Kim, still firing the toy weapon, which "shoots" a beam of light neighbors had mistaken for a burglar's flashlight.

Sweeping Hike In Mail Cost Likely In '67

By PETER S. NAGAN
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON—You will probably be paying more to mail your letters before 1967 is over. What's more, publishers will be hit by heavier charges for delivery of magazines, and businessmen for their catalogues and other printed matted.

Higher postal rates have been proposed to President Johnson for inclusion in his new budget for the fiscal year 1968, which goes to Congress in about three weeks.

Postmaster Gen. Lawrence F. O'Brien said recently no definite decision had been made. But the arithmetic supporting increases is hard to refute.

The fact is that the Post Office Department is running $1.2 billion in the red and will need $400 million just to see it through the current fiscal year ending June 30.

Congressmen and other government officials are unhappy about the prospect of higher rates. They don't like to raise mail charges because virtually every voter is aware of the cost of stamps.

But if something is not done about the gap between postal income and outgo the overall federal deficit—already heading for a huge figure—will be even greater. And th administration seeks to avoid this.

Except for parcel post, on which rates were raised in 1966, the contemplated increases would go across the board.

The 5 cent rate on first-class mail would be raised to 6 cents and the present 8 cent charge for airmail would go up to nine. This would remove almost half the department's annual deficit.

Second-class mail, on newspapers and magazines, would have to be raised too, as would third-class rates on catalogues, advertising and "junk" mail. It is a political axiom that if the public's mail cost is raised, so is business's.

The effective date of any increases cannot be pinpointed. Much will depend on the speed of Congress in enacting postal increases.

Toy Weapon's Beam Brings On Police

LEICESTER, England (UPI)—Kim Wainwright, 9, lay abed last night, mowing down Martians with the space gun he got for Christmas. Then came the real invasion.

Four carloads of policemen burst into the house. There was Kim, still firing the toy weapon, which "shoots" a beam of light neighbors had mistaken for a burglar's flashlight.

FIRE

No. 3 on the east side of Highway 101.

Walser said the house was well involved in flame when the first report was made, so the time differential probably would not have been crucial in this case. "Nevertheless," he said, "we think this is a problem."

San Rafael Fire Chief Vance Trivett took sharp issue with Walser's implied criticism of the handling of the situation. Trivett said, "I was on the (Manuel T.) Freitas Parkway, almost to the fire, when I heard Walser broadcast that there was a fire on Del Ganado."

Trivett noted that insurance policies of the county's numerous departments prevent them responding to fires in another jurisdiction unless called by the department having jurisdiction. Trivett said it was the responsibility of the San Rafael Fire Department to decide if it required assistance and in this case there was no need for Terra Linda's help.

Trivett acknowledged that a single county-wide service "would eliminate jurisdictions" in the county which make it impossible sometimes for a fire station nearest a fire to respond.

He said, however, there were excellent arguments for and against the proposed county-wide district. "There are the economic arguments" that districts which have invested heavily in equipment would lose control of it. He also said it can be argued that those who now have excellent service might find it lowered in quality to meet demands of areas now having poor service.

Most incorporated areas have gone on record, through their city councils and other bodies, opposing such a county-wide district.

FATAL

1965. His body was never found.

Patrolmen found the wreckage of the car—with the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Keller and their large black dog beside it—between 400 and 500 feet down the steep face of the cliff.

Both Kellers died instantly, said County Coroner Donovan O. Cooke, who descended to the base of the cliff to inspect the bodies on his first day in office. Both had multiple fractures, including fractured skulls.

Among volunteers from the Stinson Beach Fire Department who also descended to the crash scene was Joseph Veal of San Francisco, a brother of the driver who lost his life there in November, 1965.

County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom and a four-man county fire department rescue squad succeeded in raising the bodies by rope to a point well below the highway which they reached in a rescue truck.

Coroner and highway patrolmen said they believed the bodies had lain on the rocks since about dusk on Sunday.

Keller was a serviceman for J and J Appliance Co. of San Rafael. He has no know relative. Nearest relatives of Mrs. Keller are believed to be in Mexico.

Bill To Repeal Open Housing Act Introduced

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A bill to repeal the controversial Rumford Open Housing Act was introduced today, the first measure to be offered in the 1967 legislature.

The measure was designated Assembly Bill 1.

Badham won the honor of introducing the session's first bill because his name comes first in the alphabetical roll call.

Meanwhile, Reagan was putting the finishing touches on his inaugural address which he plans to deliver Thursday morning on the west steps of the Capitol Building.

In his first speech to the legislature yesterday, Reagan asked for authority to begin a do-it-yourself reorganization of the executive branch of state government, apparently to concentrate more authority in the governor's office. (See swearing in picture on page 8.)

Sen. Jack Schrade, R-San Diego, was named to the powerful Senate Rules Committee, the only change in the membership of the five-man group from the 1966 session.

Her husband, Terra Linda physician Dr. Robert Bruce Stewart, "was thrilled," said Mrs. Stewart. The baby, their second son, is still unnamed. He arrived eight days earlier than expected.

Another late qualifier for the tax reduction was Gary Edward Carlson, first child of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Carlson of 57 Hillcrest Drive, San Rafael. Gary was born Saturday at Marin General Hospital at 2:32 p.m., weighing 9 pounds 15 ounces and two weeks overdue.

"We were very relieved," said Ruth Carlson, "we sure wanted our tax deduction."

Airman Stabbed During Holdup

A Hamilton Air Force Base airman was stabbed in the chest in a holdup early Saturday in San Francisco.

A/3C Manuel M. Holgin and A/2C Phillip Carter, both of the 78th Support Squadron at Hamilton, who live on the base, were in the Filmore District at 3:30 a.m. when they were robbed by four male Negroes, according to San Francisco police.

Carter was knocked unconscious ana robbed of $60, and Holgin was stabbed in the chest and robbed of $8, they told police.

39, of Santa Rosa. The impact spun the Brice car around and threw her to the highway.

Mrs. Brice, who was 64, was the widow of Norman Brice, a partner in Brice Brothers markets.

A native of Eureka, she lived in Ferndale, Humboldt County, for about 25 years, and moved to Novato following her husband's death in 1962. She resided at 1103 Second Street, next door to her son, James Prater, owner of Novato TV.

She is survived by three sons, James, Earl D. Prater of Point Arena, Mendocino County, and Delbert Lawhead of Rio Dell, Humboldt County; a sister, Elizabeth Stockel of Eureka; two brothers, John C. Kemp of Ferndale and Delos E Kemp of Ceres. Stanislaus County, and 11 grandchildren.

Funeral was scheduled today at Marin Funeral Home in Novato, with burial in Marin Memorial Gardens, Novato.

He also called for a hard look at spending county money to support chambers of commerce, and the possibility of the county department of economic development being moved "into the private sector."

Storer further asked that county departments "tighten their belts" and seek no more in next year's budget than has been allocated in this fiscal year, that joint sessions be held with the planning commission for better understanding and that cooperation and financial support be sought from the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District.

Kettenhofen declared that it would take most of the day to discuss the points that Storer raised and he did not want his silence interpreted as tacit agreement.

Storer replaced last year's chairman Byron W. Leydecker, who did not seek re-election to the board.

Storer was named to the Local Agency Formation Commission and the Marin Economic Opportunity Council, replacing Leydecker in both cases.

Airman Injured; Car Falls On Him

S/Sgt. Albert Ponsock of the 4661st Combat Support Group at Hamilton Air Force Base was in satisfactory condition today in Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco with a head wound received last Friday when his car fell on him, according to officials at Hamilton.

Sergeant Pomsock reportedly was working on his car at his home in Petaluma when the jack slipped and the car dropped, hitting him on the head.

OBITUARIES

Attorney John G. Reisner Dies

John G. Riesner of Corte Madera, a San Francisco attorney who never missed a day's work in his life, died of a heart atack in his sleep at home Saturday. He was 84.

Reisner continued to practice law at his offices in the Grant Building at 1095 Market Street until his death. In recent years he had confined his practice to probates and wills, but was known and respected in courts throughout the country.

Private funeral will be tomorrow under the direction of Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael. Friends may call at the mortuary until 9 p. m. today.

A native of Illinois, Reisner had lived in California for 60 years, 28 of them in Marin County. His wife of 54 years, Mabel I. Reisner, was a realty-broker until an automobile accident incapacitated her three years ago. The Reisner home is at 50 Redwood Avenue, Corte Madera.

Reisner was a member of the Bar Assn., of California, the Loyal Order of the Moose, Fraternal Order of Eagles, Order of Hermann Sons, and Independent Order of Odd Fellows, all in San Francisco; also of the Republican Central Club of San Francisco, the Pacific Rod and Gun Club, Associated Sportsmen of California, Steuben Society of America, National Congress of Parent-Teacher Assns., and Marin Rod and Gun Club, and was a committeeman for Boy Scouts of America.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, John G. Reisner Jr., of Belvedere and William A. Reisner of San Rafael; a daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Bond of Corte Madera; two brothers, Fred Reisner of Charleston, Ill., and Charles Reisner of Long Beach, Wash.; a sister, Margaret Honey of Rochester, Ill.; a grandson, and two granddaughters.

RENE J. CANONICA

Funeral for Rene J. Canonica, father of Mrs. John F. Maillard of Tiburon, will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Magendie and Malfonti Funeral Home, 1340 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco.

Canonica, 62, founder of Rainbow Painting and Decorating Co. of San Francisco, died Sunday in a San Francisco hospital after suffering a heart attack.

A native of Switzerland, he came to San Francisco in 1927, where he established his Rainbow company. He was a member of the Painting and Decorating Contractors Assn. of San Francisco and other trade organizations.

He was also a member of Il Cenacola, Italian cultural club; La Parfait Union 17, Orient of San Francisco; Islam Temple of the Shrine; California Bodies Scottish Rite; Lafayette Club; Olympic Club; Golden Gate Breakfast Club; Swiss Club of San Francisco, and United Swiss Society.

He is survived by his wife, Maria Canonica of San Francisco; a son, Rene A. Canonica of San Francisco; his daughter, Mrs. Maillard, and one grandson.

Burial will be in Olivet Cemetery in Colma.

PAUL TREANTON

Paul L. Treanton of San Anselmo, a member of one of Marin county's oldest families, died Saturday in a Monterey hospital at 97.

Requeim Mass will be offered Thursday at 9:30 a.m. at St. Raphael's Church, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Mount Tamalpias Parlor 64, Native Sons of the Golden West, will hold memorial services tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. at the Harry M Williams Mortuary, San Rafael, Rosary will be recited at the mortuary at 8 p.m.

Born in 1869 at Ross Landing (now Kentfield), Treanton was the son of Capt. Paul Treanton, a native of France who settled in Marin in the late 1850s. His father operated barges that hauled bricks and lumber from Marin to San Francisco.

Paul Treanton was a machinist and mining engineer and installed mining machinery in the Mother Lode country and Shasta areas of California for many years.

In 1920 he returned to Marin and opened Kentfield's first service station. In 1923 he joined the San Rafael Police Department and was a night sergeant until 1932. He worked as a master machinist at Marinship during World War II, retiring after the war at 76.

His wife, Ida E. Treanton, died in 1947, and in recent years he had made his home with his son, V. E. (Bill) Treanton at 40 Magnolia Avenue, San Anselmo. He enjoyed good health until he suffered a stroke a year ago.

He had been a member of Mount Tamalpais Parlor 64 of the Native Sons of the Golden West for 79 years, the longest-term member of the order in the state, and last year was named honorary grand marshal of the statewide parade.

He is survivied by his sons, two daughters, Mrs Jane Briley of Marina, Monterey County, and Mrs. Catherine Hauth of Tulsa, Okla.; 11 grandchildren, 31 great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren.

RALPH W. CHAFFEE

Funeral for Ralph W. Chaffee, founder of the San Francisco packaging company that bears his name and father of Mrs. William W. Hints of Novato, will be held at 1 p.m. tomorrow at Gantner-Felder-Kenny Chapel, 1965 Market Street, San Francisco.

A native of Bison, Kan., he was educated in that state, coming to San Francisco in 1924, where he was manager of Acme Steel Co. until 1941, when he established the Ralph Chaffee Co., which manufactures and sells the plastic package sealing equipment which he invented.

He remained active in the firm until his final illness. His son-in-law, William W. Hints, long in charge of the production end of the business, will assume the presidency of the company.

Chaffee was a member of Far West Lodge 673, Free and Accepted Masons, and a past counselor of Golden Gate Council 80, United Commercial Travelers.

Chaffee is survived by his wife, Bessie Chaffee; his daughter, Mrs. Hints; a brother, Thomas Chaffee of Garden Grove, Orange County; a sister, Fannie Bull of Auburn, Wash., and two grandsons.

Private inurnment will be at Olivet Memorial Park, Colma.

HAROLD DAVIS

Funeral will be at 9:30 am Friday at Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael. Burial will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno.

He was a native of Indiana, and moved to Marin with his family in 1964.

He is survived by his wife, Runa Davis, and a son, Charles Davis, of Corte Madera, and a daughter, Mrs. Gale Lamb of San Rafael.

Memorial service for Richard Lockhart French of Kent Woodlands will be Thursday at 4 p.m. at St. John's Episcopal Church in Ross.

French, 45, manager of Wells Fargo Bank's New Montgomery Street branch in San Francisco, was killed accidentally Friday while cleaning a gun at his home at 8 Buckeye Way.

He is survived by his wife, Joan; three children living at home, Cindy, Shelly and Richard French; two married daughters, Mrs. Robert Burton of Fallbrook, San Diego County, and Mrs. Thomas Cole of Berkeley, and his mother, Mrs. Edith French of San Francisco.

JAY A. FISKE

Funeral for Jay Allen (Bud) Fiske Jr., 57, of 137 Reed Boulevard, Strawberry, will be held at 1 p.m. Friday at the Godeau Funeral Home, 41 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco.

Fiske, proprietor of the Bud Fiske Radio-TV Co., San Francisco, died unexpectedly at a local hospital Sunday. He had suffered two previous heart attacks but had recovered sufficiently to return home for the holidays, then returned to the hospital for further care.

A pioneed in radio and television, Fiske was reported to be the first local resident to install a radio in his car.

He was a native of New York City. He moved with his family to San Francisco and was graduated from Lowell High School. He then entered the radio service and installation field and was proprietor of his own firm for 25 years.

Fiske was a resident of Strawberry for 18 years and was a member of the Marina Merchants Assn. in San Francisco for 25 years.

He served in the Army during World War II and the Korean War, achieving the rank of captain in ordinance. He was awarded the Legion of Merit.

Surviving are his wife, Geraldine, and three sons, Jay Allen Fiske III, Michael Fiske and Donald Fiske of Strawberry; a daughter, Mrs. Barbara Larson of San Francisco; his mother, Ethel Watkins of San Francisco; two brothers, John Fiske of Little Rock, Ark., and Roger Fiske of Peoria, Ill., and four grandchildren.

Burial will be in Golden Gate National Cemetery, San Bruno. Friends may call at Godeau Funeral Home after 4 p.m. tomorrow.

JOHN V. KRIEL

Funeral for John Vogel Kriel, former San Anselmo resident and proprietor of the San Anselmo Meat Market, died Sunday in Modesto at the age of 82 after a long illness.

A native of Henderson, Ky., Kriel came to California shortly after the turn of the century and lived in San Anselmo from 1924 to 1942. He was co-proprietor of the meat market during those years. His last partner was the late James Biagini of San Rafael.

He was a member, while living in Marin, of the San Anselmo Lions Club, San Rafael Elks Lodge and Marin County Retail Meat Dealers Assn., serving as association president in 1935-36.

He is survived by his wife, Margaret Drewes Kriel of Modesto; a son, John Drewes,Kriel of Greenbrae; a daughter, Mrs. Earl Presnell of Modesto, seven grandchildren, and 16 great-grandchildren.

A Requiem Mass will be offered at St. Stanislaus Roman Catholic Church in Modesto at 9 a.m. tomorrow. Burial will be in Modesto.

RUINS TO COME HOME TO—Mrs. Gerald Thompson arrived home at 915 Del Gando Road, San Rafael, yesterday to find these ruins—what was left of the home she had left two hours earlier. Battalion Chief Robert H. Rogers of San Rafael Fire Department sought unsuccessfully in the ruins for a clue to cause of the blaze.

FIRE

No. 3 on the east side of Highway 101.

Walser said the house was well involved in flame when the first report was made, so the time differential probably would not have been crucial in this case. "Nevertheless," he said, "we think this is a problem."

San Rafael Fire Chief Vance Trivett took sharp issue with Walser's implied criticism of the handling of the situation. Trivett said, "I was on the (Manuel T.) Freitas Parkway, almost to the fire, when I heard Walser broadcast that there was a fire on Del Ganado."

Trivett noted that insurance policies of the county's numerous departments prevent them responding to fires in another jurisdiction unless called by the department having jurisdiction. Trivett said it was the responsibility of the San Rafael Fire Department to decide if it required assistance and in this case there was no need for Terra Linda's help.

Trivett acknowledged that a single county-wide service "would eliminate jurisdictions" in the county which make it impossible sometimes for a fire station nearest a fire to respond.

He said, however, there were excellent arguments for and against the proposed county-wide district. "There are the economic arguments" that districts which have invested heavily in equipment would lose control of it. He also said it can be argued that those who now have excellent service might find it lowered in quality to meet demands of areas now having poor service.

Most incorporated areas have gone on record, through their city councils and other bodies, opposing such a county-wide district.

FATAL

1965. His body was never found.

Patrolmen found the wreckage of the car—with the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Keller and their large black dog beside it—between 400 and 500 feet down the steep face of the cliff.

Both Kellers died instantly, said County Coroner Donovan O. Cooke, who descended to the base of the cliff to inspect the bodies on his first day in office. Both had multiple fractures, including fractured skulls.

Among volunteers from the Stinson Beach Fire Department who also descended to the crash scene was Joseph Veal of San Francisco, a brother of the driver who lost his life there in November, 1965.

County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom and a four-man county fire department rescue squad succeeded in raising the bodies by rope to a point well below the highway which they reached in a rescue truck.

Coroner and highway patrolmen said they believed the bodies had lain on the rocks since about dusk on Sunday.

Keller was a serviceman for J and J Appliance Co. of San Rafael. He has no know relative. Nearest relatives of Mrs. Keller are believed to be in Mexico.

Bill To Repeal Open Housing Act Introduced

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A bill to repeal the controversial Rumford Open Housing Act was introduced today, the first measure to be offered in the 1967 legislature.

The measure was designated Assembly Bill 1.

Badham won the honor of introducing the session's first bill because his name comes first in the alphabetical roll call.

Meanwhile, Reagan was putting the finishing touches on his inaugural address which he plans to deliver Thursday morning on the west steps of the Capitol Building.

In his first speech to the legislature yesterday, Reagan asked for authority to begin a do-it-yourself reorganization of the executive branch of state government, apparently to concentrate more authority in the governor's office. (See swearing in picture on page 8.)

Sen. Jack Schrade, R-San Diego, was named to the powerful Senate Rules Committee, the only change in the membership of the five-man group from the 1966 session.

Her husband, Terra Linda physician Dr. Robert Bruce Stewart, "was thrilled," said Mrs. Stewart. The baby, their second son, is still unnamed. He arrived eight days earlier than expected.

Another late qualifier for the tax reduction was Gary Edward Carlson, first child of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Carlson of 57 Hillcrest Drive, San Rafael. Gary was born Saturday at Marin General Hospital at 2:32 p.m., weighing 9 pounds 15 ounces and two weeks overdue.

"We were very relieved," said Ruth Carlson, "we sure wanted our tax deduction."

Airman Stabbed During Holdup

A Hamilton Air Force Base airman was stabbed in the chest in a holdup early Saturday in San Francisco.

A/3C Manuel M. Holgin and A/2C Phillip Carter, both of the 78th Support Squadron at Hamilton, who live on the base, were in the Filmore District at 3:30 a.m. when they were robbed by four male Negroes, according to San Francisco police.

Carter was knocked unconscious and robbed of $60, and Holgin was stabbed in the chest and robbed of $8, they told police.

39, of Santa Rosa. The impact spun the Brice car around and threw her to the highway.

Mrs. Brice, who was 64, was the widow of Norman Brice, a partner in Brice Brothers markets.

A native of Eureka, she lived in Ferndale, Humboldt County, for about 25 years, and moved to Novato following her husband's death in 1962. She resided at 1103 Second Street, next door to her son, James Prater, owner of Novato TV.

She is survived by three sons, James, Earl D. Prater of Point Arena, Mendocino County, and Delbert Lawhead of Rio Dell, Humboldt County; a sister, Elizabeth Stockel of Eureka; two brothers, John C. Kemp of Ferndale and Delos E Kemp of Ceres. Stanislaus County, and 11 grandchildren.

Funeral was scheduled today at Marin Funeral Home in Novato, with burial in Marin Memorial Gardens, Novato.

STORER

He also called for a hard look at spending county money to support chambers of commerce, and the possibility of the county department of economic development being moved "into the private sector."

Storer further asked that county departments "tighten their belts" and seek no more in next year's budget than has been allocated in this fiscal year, that joint sessions be held with the planning commission for better understanding and that cooperation and financial support be sought from the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District.

Kettenhofen declared that it would take most of the day to discuss the points that Storer raised and he did not want his silence interpreted as tacit agreement.

Storer replaced last year's chairman Byron W. Leydecker, who did not seek re-election to the board.

Storer was named to the Local Agency Formation Commission and the Marin Economic Opportunity Council, replacing Leydecker in both cases.

Airman Injured; Car Falls On Him

S/Sgt. Albert Ponsock of the 4661st Combat Support Group at Hamilton Air Force Base was in satisfactory condition today in Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco with a head wound received last Friday when his car fell on him, according to officials at Hamilton.

Sergeant Pomsock reportedly was working on his car at his home in Petaluma when the jack slipped and the car dropped, hitting him on the head.

Canonica, 62, founder of Rainbow Painting and Decorating Co. of San Francisco, died Sunday in a San Francisco hospital after suffering a heart attack.

A native of Switzerland, he came to San Francisco in 1927, where he established his Rainbow company. He was a member of the Painting and Decorating Contractors Assn. of San Francisco and other trade organizations.

He was also a member of Il Cenacola, Italian cultural club; La Parfait Union 17, Orient of San Francisco; Islam Temple of the Shrine; California Bodies Scottish Rite; Lafayette Club; Olympic Club; Golden Gate Breakfast Club; Swiss Club of San Francisco, and United Swiss Society.

He is survived by his wife, Maria Canonica of San Francisco; a son, Rene A. Canonica of San Francisco; his daughter, Mrs. Maillard, and one grandson.

Burial will be in Olivet Cemetery in Colma.

PAUL TREANTON

Paul L. Treanton of San Anselmo, a member of one of Marin county's oldest families, died Saturday in a Monterey hospital at 97.

Requeim Mass will be offered Thursday at 9:30 a.m. at St. Raphael's Church, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Mount Tamalpias Parlor 64, Native Sons of the Golden West, will hold memorial services tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. at the Harry M Williams Mortuary, San Rafael, Rosary will be recited at the mortuary at 8 p.m.

Born in 1869 at Ross Landing (now Kentfield), Treanton was the son of Capt. Paul Treanton, a native of France who settled in Marin in the late 1850s. His father operated barges that hauled bricks and lumber from Marin to San Francisco.

Paul Treanton was a machinist and mining engineer and installed mining machinery in the Mother Lode country and Shasta areas of California for many years.

In 1920 he returned to Marin and opened Kentfield's first service station. In 1923 he joined the San Rafael Police Department and was a night sergeant until 1932. He worked as a master machinist at Marinship during World War II, retiring after the war at 76.

His wife, Ida E. Treanton, died in 1947, and in recent years he had made his home with his son, V. E. (Bill) Treanton at 40 Magnolia Avenue, San Anselmo. He enjoyed good health until he suffered a stroke a year ago.

He had been a member of Mount Tamalpais Parlor 64 of the Native Sons of the Golden West for 79 years, the longest-term member of the order in the state, and last year was named honorary grand marshal of the statewide parade.

He is survivied by his sons, two daughters, Mrs Jane Briley of Marina, Monterey County, and Mrs. Catherine Hauth of Tulsa, Okla.; 11 grandchildren, 31 great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren.

RALPH W. CHAFFEE

Funeral for Ralph W. Chaffee, founder of the San Francisco packaging company that bears his name and father of Mrs. William W. Hints of Novato, will be held at 1 p.m. tomorrow at Gantner-Felder-Kenny Chapel, 1965 Market Street, San Francisco.

A native of Bison, Kan., he was educated in that state, coming to San Francisco in 1924, where he was manager of Acme Steel Co. until 1941, when he established the Ralph Chaffee Co., which manufactures and sells the plastic package sealing equipment which he invented.

He remained active in the firm until his final illness. His son-in-law, William W. Hints, long in charge of the production end of the business, will assume the presidency of the company.

Chaffee was a member of Far West Lodge 673, Free and Accepted Masons, and a past counselor of Golden Gate Council 80, United Commercial Travelers.

Troops Out After New Bomb Incidents

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Armed troops stood guard outside government buildings in Jordan today after 10 new bomb incidents in the capital of Amman, and reports reaching Beirut said a terrorist ring had been arrested in Saudi Arabia.

Bomb explosions in the two countries signalled increased terrorist activity against the regimes of Jordan's King Hussein and Saudi Arabia's King Faisal, the two moderate monarchs of the Arab world.

Reliable reports said a bomb rocked the government radio station in Amman last Friday, damaging a studio and cutting off transmissions for about five minutes.

Two other explosions damaged the radio station Wednesday, and demolition experts discovered seven mroe bombs planted inside the building on the outskirts of the capital, the reports said.

There were no casualties from any of the explosives, the reports added.

Jordanian soldiers were posted at government buildings. Witnesses said everyone entering them was searched so thoroughly that even women's hairdos were combed out for explosives.

There was no confirmation of reports from the Israeli side of Jerusalem that two explosions went off in the Jordanian sector of the city Sunday night.

Earlier reports from Jordan said the bomb blasts last Tuesday damaged the wall of the Soviet Embassy in Amman and West Germany's Goethe Cultural Institute, and another bomb went off near the Ministry of Information.

In Saudi Arabia, according to unconfirmed reports, 33 members of a Yemeni terrorist ring were arrested after three bomb explosions in Riyadh, the capital. The ring presumably was working against Saudi support for the royalist forces in Yemen's suspended civil war, in which Egyptian troops support the republican regime.

The Socialist regime in Syria and the Palestine Liberation Organization based in Cairo have called for the overthrow of King Hussein. They charge his regime has not fulfilled its commitments to a unified Arab military defense plan against Israel, and the Palestine Liberation Organization demands that its troops be stationed in Jordan. Hussein, with two thirds of his population Palestinian, has refused to admit the PLO for fear Palestinian feelings against Israel will get out of control.

Soldier Taken From Bridge

"Leave me alone. I don't want to go to Vietnam," cried a soldier clinging to the rail of Golden Gate Bridge today as California Highway Patrol officers approached at 1:25 a.m.

Michael Lee Brauntz, 21, of Hayward continued to shout "go away and leave me alone" as officers James L. Smith and Lawrence L. Drudge grabbed him and pulled him away from the railing.

As the bridge office the patrol learned that Brauntz was scheduled to ship out tomorrow to Vietnam. He was turned over to military police.

San Anselmo Aide Is Held Needed

Directors of the San Anselmo Homes Assn. have reaffirmed their belief that San Anselmo needs a city administration, Mrs. Anne West, association president, said today.

Four councilmen expressed uncertainty as to the need for a new city administrator, as Administrator Douglas J. Flautt's resignation became effective Friday.

Association directors feel that a "city administrator is essential to the efficient conduct of the city's business," Mrs. West said.

Helen Nelson Resigns Her Consumer Post

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California Consumer Counsel Helen Nelson of Mill Valley submitted her resignation to Gov.-elect Reagan Saturday and told him she hopes the office is retained by the new administration.

Mrs. Nelson has held the post, paying $18,000 a year, since it was created by the legislature in the fall of 1959.

She submitted the resignation after receiving a letter Friday night from Thomas Reed, Reagan's appointment secretary, asking that she resign effective Monday, when Reagan took office.

Reagan indicated during the election campaign he thought the office might not be necessary. Aides of the Republican governor-elect have been studying the office's operation.

Mrs. Nelson, an economist from Mill Valley, said she has no definite plans, but would like to continue in the field of consumer advice.

The counsel has served as the consumer's watchdog against unscrupulous business practices.

Council Will Fill Several Vacancies

The Corte Madera Town Council will make appointments to the Corte Madera Planning and Park and Recreation Commissions today at 7:30 p.m. at Town Hall.

A proposal from the park and recreation commission that a planner be hired to plan a wilderness park in Mariners Highlands will be considered, and the council will hear plans for use of the Muzzi property as a fill disposal area for flood control.

Teener's Snowball Stops A Train

KEYPORT, N.Y. (UPI)—A snowball thrown by a teen-ager stopped a 69-car freight train, police said yesterday.

Authorities said the snowball hit engineer William Carroll in the face, cutting him above the eye. He instictively slammed on the emergency brake and the train screeched to a stop, snapping a coupling that took 45 minutes to repair. The youth got away.

Driver Hurt When Vehicle Hits Tree

Thomas G. Coffee, 17, of 131 Oak Manor Drive, Fairfax, suffered head cuts when his eastbound car veered off the roadway and struck a tree at 165 Van Winkle Drive, Sleepy Hollow, at 12:25 p.m. Saturday, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Coffee was partially thrown out of his car by the impact, officers said. He was taken to Marin General Hospital where he was reported in good condition today.

Tanker Reports No Present Sinking Danger

NANTUCKET, Mass. (UPI)—The Liberian oil tanker Failiaka, with a 30-man crew aboard, early today reported its "bridge overboard" in gale-whipped high seas about 400 miles east southeast of this resort island. It later radioed there "was no immediate danger of sinking."

Radio communication was lost with the 624-foot tanker shortly after an SOS was sounded but it was resumed several hours later when the ship's radio operator switched to a battery-operated emergency radio.

"They said they were in no immediate danger of sinking," a spokesman at Coast Guard search and rescue headquarters in Boston said. "It appears now they'll just need assistance getting in to port."

One injury was reported. The ship's master, or captain, suffered a broken arm when a mammoth wave rose out of the gale-swept north Atlantic and crashed across the bridge of the tanker.

"It's pretty rough out there. The seas are up to about 20 to 25 feet and there are gale winds," he added. "If a wave hit their bridge—and we can only speculate—it probably had to be 30 to 50 feet high," the spokesman said.

A Coast Guard plane from Quonset Point, R.I., was sent to the scene and a Canadian plane bound from Halifax, Nova Scotia, to England had been diverted to the scene. The destroyer St. Laurent was dispatched from Halifax to join the Coast Guard Cutter Vigilant from Provincetown on the tip of Cape Cod and two merchant vessels in the area.

Peking 'State Of Union' Report Reveals Big Ideological Split

HONG KONG (UPI)—Militant Red Guard youths marching on Peking by the tens of thousands today claimed to have turned mainland China into a "great school of Mao Tse-tung's thought."

The Red Guard declaration contrasted notably with the Chinese Communist party's surprising new year's admission that a sharp ideological division remains between party and nation as 1967 begins.

A highly unusual and candid "state of the union" report issued by the party's ruling central committee said party Chairman Mao Tse-tung still faces much opposition and indicated the long and bitter power struggle is far from finished. It also confirmed Mao survived a takeover attempt by top aides in early 1966.

Chou Yang, former deputy director of the party's propaganda department, today was singled out as the ringleader of an anti-party plot to oust Mao with a "Hungarian-type revolution."

A massive article published in three of the Peking's regime's leading newspapers, including the Peoples Daily, said Chou "has been arrested."

It was believed the first time Red Chinese authorities have publicly admitted any of Mao's opponents have been formally arrested. Many are known to be under some type of house arrest and some have been vilified by Red Guards.

The article revealed considerable detail of the Chinese power struggle never before disclosed publicly or officially.

It admitted what has been known for years—that a serious party split developed when Mao's "big leap forward" began in 1958.

Chou for several months has been publicly attacked as anti-Maoist more than any other person in Red China. He has been referred to as the chief culprit in the anti-Maoist plot. But today's story said the plotting goes back 15 years.

The editorial outlined a four-part Maoist program for 1967. The last and most significant part called for "elimination of all anti-Mao elements."

The other three include:

Expansion of new "revolutionary groups" under direction of the party's "cultural revolution committee." This apparently is to try to build a new party nucleus while the old organization with anti-Maoist "power holders" is being destroyed.

A directive to intellectuals to comply with Mao's long-standing instructions to go to farms and factories and feel the nation's pulse and to let their works of literature and art conform with party policy.

Wide public debate on key issues with the understanding "different ideas of the people should be debated under the command flag of Mao Tse-tung's thought..."

Hosewife Shot In Richmond Home

RICHMOND (UPI) — Mrs. Willie Leed Davis Jones, 37, a Richmond housewife, was shot to death in her home yesterday and her sister-in-law was arrested and charged with the slaying.

Police said the sister-in-law, Roxie Lindsay, 42, also of Richmond, admitted firing the fatal bullet during an argument with Mrs. Jones.

Heat Used To Make Electricity In Cell

A battery which produces electricity from heat energy was patented last week under patent number 3, 294, 585, by Seymour Senderoff at the Union Carbide Corp., and assigned to that company.

The cell produces current as a result of a difference in temperatures between two inputs of heated gas. The two gas inputs operate at temperatures of 500 and 900 degrees C.

Britain Ignores U.S., Plans Fertilizer Plant For Cuba

LONDON (AP) — The British government is reported ready to guarantee the sale of a $28-million fertilizer plant to Cuba despite pressure from Washington.

Official sources said U. S. authorities had asked London to stop the sale by refusing Fidel Castro's government the five-year credit it needs for the deal.

But the sale is expected to go through despite hints that it might lessen American support for economic sanctions against Britain's rebelious colony, Rhodesia.

A Foreign Office spokesman said: "The government's policy on trade with Cuba is to allow it to proceed normally, free of government interference, except as concerns the export of strategic goods."

Asked about the attitude of the U. S. government to the deal, the spokesman said: "The Americans have from time to time reminded us of their attitude toward trade by Western countries with Cuba — and specifically toward the granting of government-insured credits for such trade."

The United States made a similar, unsuccessful attempt to stop the sale of British buses to Cuba three years ago. Much bad feeling was generated by that deal.

The fertilizer plant is being manufactured by Simon-Carves, an engineering company in Cheshire. A spokesman for the government's Export Credit Guarantee Department said: "There would seem to be no reason why we could not underwrite the deal."

Castro, in a speech in Havana yesterday celebrating the eighth anniversary of his defeat of dictator Fulgencio Batista, expressed belief the British government would go through with the deal despite "much pressure" from the United States.

The Cuban prime minister said other countries also want to sell Cuba fertilizer plants, "and we plan to install at least three during the next four years."

Castro asked European countries "not to be misled by imperialists and monopolists" and said Europeans have "little to lose and much to gain" from revolutions in Latin America.

Castro said that other Cuban officials should play a bigger role in the future, make some of the speeches, conduct some of the ceremonies and carry out other functions that have been left to him.

"Not that I'm tired, but the revolution is of all the people," he said.

Castro's remarks roused some speculation that the regime may be moving away from the personal rule that he has exercised to a collective form of leadership.

"It's pretty rough out there. The seas are up to about 20 to 25 feet and there are gale winds," he added. "If a wave hit their bridge—and we can only speculate—it probably had to be 30 to 50 feet high," the spokesman said.

A Coast Guard plane from Quonset Point, R.I., was sent to the scene and a Canadian plane bound from Halifax, Nova Scotia, to England had been diverted to the scene. The destroyer St. Laurent was dispatched from Halifax to join the Coast Guard Cutter Vigilant from Provincetown on the tip of Cape Cod and two merchant vessels in the area.

Peking 'State Of Union' Report Reveals Big Ideological Split

HONG KONG (UPI)—Militant Red Guard youths marching on Peking by the tens of thousands today claimed to have turned mainland China into a "great school of Mao Tse-tung's thought."

The Red Guard declaration contrasted notably with the Chinese Communist party's surprising new year's admission that a sharp ideological division remains between party and nation as 1967 begins.

A highly unusual and candid "state of the union" report issued by the party's ruling central committee said party Chairman Mao Tse-tung still faces much opposition and indicated the long and bitter power struggle is far from finished. It also confirmed Mao survived a takeover attempt by top aides in early 1966.

Chou Yang, former deputy director of the party's propaganda department, today was singled out as the ringleader of an anti-party plot to oust Mao with a "Hungarian-type revolution."

A massive article published in three of the Peking's regime's leading newspapers, including the Peoples Daily, said Chou "has been arrested."

It was believed the first time Red Chinese authorities have publicly admitted any of Mao's opponents have been formally arrested. Many are known to be under some type of house arrest and some have been vilified by Red Guards.

The article revealed considerable detail of the Chinese power struggle never before disclosed publicly or officially.

It admitted what has been known for years—that a serious party split developed when Mao's "big leap forward" began in 1958.

Chou for several months has been publicly attacked as anti-Maoist more than any other person in Red China. He has been referred to as the chief culprit in the anti-Maoist plot. But today's story said the plotting goes back 15 years.

The editorial outlined a four-part Maoist program for 1967. The last and most significant part called for "elimination of all anti-Mao elements."

The other three include:

Expansion of new "revolutionary groups" under direction of the party's "cultural revolution committee." This apparently is to try to build a new party nucleus while the old organization with anti-Maoist "power holders" is being destroyed.

A directive to intellectuals to comply with Mao's long-standing instructions to go to farms and factories and feel the nation's pulse and to let their works of literature and art conform with party policy.

Wide public debate on key issues with the understanding "different ideas of the people should be debated under the command flag of Mao Tse-tung's thought..."

Hosewife Shot In Richmond Home

RICHMOND (UPI) — Mrs. Willie Leed Davis Jones, 37, a Richmond housewife, was shot to death in her home yesterday and her sister-in-law was arrested and charged with the slaying.

Police said the sister-in-law, Roxie Lindsay, 42, also of Richmond, admitted firing the fatal bullet during an argument with Mrs. Jones.

Heat Used To Make Electricity In Cell

A battery which produces electricity from heat energy was patented last week under patent number 3, 294, 585, by Seymour Senderoff at the Union Carbide Corp., and assigned to that company.

The cell produces current as a result of a difference in temperatures between two inputs of heated gas. The two gas inputs operate at temperatures of 500 and 900 degrees C.

LONDON (AP) — The British government is reported ready to guarantee the sale of a $28-million fertilizer plant to Cuba despite pressure from Washington.

Official sources said U. S. authorities had asked London to stop the sale by refusing Fidel Castro's government the five-year credit it needs for the deal.

But the sale is expected to go through despite hints that it might lessen American support for economic sanctions against Britain's rebelious colony, Rhodesia.

A Foreign Office spokesman said: "The government's policy on trade with Cuba is to allow it to proceed normally, free of government interference, except as concerns the export of strategic goods."

Asked about the attitude of the U. S. government to the deal, the spokesman said: "The Americans have from time to time reminded us of their attitude toward trade by Western countries with Cuba — and specifically toward the granting of government-insured credits for such trade."

The United States made a similar, unsuccessful attempt to stop the sale of British buses to Cuba three years ago. Much bad feeling was generated by that deal.

The fertilizer plant is being manufactured by Simon-Carves, an engineering company in Cheshire. A spokesman for the government's Export Credit Guarantee Department said: "There would seem to be no reason why we could not underwrite the deal."

Castro, in a speech in Havana yesterday celebrating the eighth anniversary of his defeat of dictator Fulgencio Batista, expressed belief the British government would go through with the deal despite "much pressure" from the United States.

The Cuban prime minister said other countries also want to sell Cuba fertilizer plants, "and we plan to install at least three during the next four years."

Castro asked European countries "not to be misled by imperialists and monopolists" and said Europeans have "little to lose and much to gain" from revolutions in Latin America.

Castro said that other Cuban officials should play a bigger role in the future, make some of the speeches, conduct some of the ceremonies and carry out other functions that have been left to him.

"Not that I'm tired, but the revolution is of all the people," he said.

Castro's remarks roused some speculation that the regime may be moving away from the personal rule that he has exercised to a collective form of leadership.

Boy, 14, Charged In Three Deaths

ORANGE, Tex. (AP) — A judge may decide today if 14-year-old Ronnie Lee Ozio, accused of three New Year's Day killings, should be declared a juvenile delinquent.

Two witnesses told authorities the 5-foot, 100-pound youth riddled his father, grandmother and stepmother-to-be with blulets from a .22-caliber rifle. One of the witnesses was stabbed in the back with a butcher knife.

Under Texas law, young Ozio could not be tried on a murder charge until his 17th birthday.

Girl Inmates Taken From Home

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—Police today sought two young men who forced their way into the Maricopa County detention home here yesterday and fled with four teen-age girl inmates.

The gunmen confronted the matrons with pistols, secured the girls' release and fled in a raid on the detention home which lasted only five to 10 minutes. No one was injured.

Chief Probation Officer James McLaughlin said both men were armed with .38-caliber pistols.

Hit-Run Reported

Victor H. Rowe, 100 Homestead Boulevard, Homestead Valley, reported Sunday to Mill Valley police that a white 1956 Chevrolet hit his car early in the morning on Miller Avenue, then drove away.

Underground Work Slated By Utilities

Pacific Gas and Electric Co. and Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. have agreed to underground utilities along the recently widened portion of Lucas Valley Road, complying with a recently adopted county ordinance.

For several months the utility companies challenged the ordinance, which requires the undergrounding where road widening work is done.

Three weeks ago County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney told county supervisors he intended to bring criminal action against the companies if the did not comply, or seek a civil court injunction or restraining order to settle the dispute.

Maloney had letters today from both companies saying they would underground the lines at their own expense.

Veteran Home Official Killed

NAPA (UPI)—Roger E. McKenna, 69, of the Yountville Veterans Home, was killed last night when his car collided with another vehicle on Highway 29.

Highway patrolmen said McKenna's vehicle plowed into the rear of a car driven by John M. Malone, 17, Napa. Officers said Malone was stopped, waiting to make a left turn. The mishap occurred about midway between Napa and Yountville.

Underground Work Slated By Utilities

Pacific Gas and Electric Co. and Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. have agreed to underground utilities along the recently widened portion of Lucas Valley Road, complying with a recently adopted county ordinance.

For several months the utility companies challenged the ordinance, which requires the undergrounding where road widening work is done.

Three weeks ago County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney told county supervisors he intended to bring criminal action against the companies if the did not comply, or seek a civil court injunction or restraining order to settle the dispute.

Maloney had letters today from both companies saying they would underground the lines at their own expense.

Veteran Home Official Killed

NAPA (UPI)—Roger E. McKenna, 69, of the Yountville Veterans Home, was killed last night when his car collided with another vehicle on Highway 29.

Highway patrolmen said McKenna's vehicle plowed into the rear of a car driven by John M. Malone, 17, Napa. Officers said Malone was stopped, waiting to make a left turn. The mishap occurred about midway between Napa and Yountville.

soon after President Kennedy was killed.

Since being taken to the hospital, Ruby had insisted on another lie detector test in an effort to prove there was no conspiracy. Experts and doctors said the advanced state of his cancer prevented the test from having validity.

Ruby had been only semisuccessful when he shot Oswald and was thrown to the floor by Dallas police.

At 52, Ruby was known as the operator of the Carousel Club, a tough guy who acted as his own bouncer and would throw you out if you "looked at the girls wrong" and a "Damon Runyon type who would give you the shirt off his back."

He usually carried a pistol, friends said, but had never been known to use it until he darted between Oswald's police escorts and shot him once in the abdomen.

Ruby, friends and enemies alike agreed, was a man who wanted to attain "class," a word he used frequently in describing people who impressed him.

George Senator, who shared an Oak Cliff apartment with Ruby when the Oswald killing occurred, said Ruby never took any part in politics. "I doubt if he ever voted much," Senator said.

But when Ruby was asked whey he killed Oswald, he said it was to spare Mrs. John F. Kennedy the anguish of having to go back to Dallas for Oswald's murder trial.

He wanted peace for Mrs. Kennedy, he said.

One of his sisters said, "Jack died peacefully." She said she had visited Ruby at 9 a.m. and at that time he was sleeping peacefully. Mrs. Grant, Earl Ruby and Dallas lawyer Phil Burleson had visited him.

After Ruby made his statement to the Warren Commission representatives, there was still doubt in many minds.

When books and periodicals began dwelling on the point, and some said flatly that Ruby knew Oswald, that Ruby was a friend of Tippit and that the assassination was planned by a huge group of conspirators, Ruby asked the second lie detector test.

Then only over the last weekend, it was revealed that one of Ruby's last acts was to record another statement denying any conspiracy.

Earl Ruby, said Gertz, took a small recorder into the hospital room for Jack to use and tell his story — the story he died with.

A Dallas jury sentenced Ruby to death after a stormy, month-long trial before Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown in March 1964. But the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals overturned the conviction last October.

A new trial was scheduled for Wichita Fallas, Tex., tentatively in February, but from the first day of his hospitalization there had been doubt that Ruby ever again would see a courtroom.

London Renews Bid For Vietnam Peace

LONDON (UPI) — Britain made an urgent new appeal to Hanoi today to join the United States and South Vietnam in three-power talks aimed at bringing a cease fire to Vietnam.

The appeal came in a statement issued by the Foreign Office shortly after Hanoi rejected a weekend peace talk proposal by British Foreign Secretary George Brown.

The foreign office said the government of North Vietnam has the key to peace in its hands. By agreeing to peace talks the Hanoi government will commit itself "simply and solely to joining efforts to lift the burden of war from their country," the foreign office said.

"We still hope they will do so."

Today's statement was issued just 24 hours after a sharp, almost insulting rebuff from Hanoi appeared to have killed the cease fire initiative launched by the labor government on Friday.

The proposal was that Washington, Hanoi and Saigon name representatives at once to cease fire talks to be held in Hong Kong or any other suitable British territory. The United States and South Vietnam accepted.

No formal reply has been received from the North Vietnam government but a broadcast yesterday by Radio Hanoi appeared to kill the proposal. It said Brown's proposal and previous U. S. proposals for talks were "as alike as two peas" and accused Brown of collusion. It also demanded the Viet Cong be included in any talks.

noi in less than 14 minutes yesterday afternoon.

"We outflew, outshot and outfought them," said Air Force Col. Robin Olds, 44, of Washington, D.C., the husband of former movie star Ella Raines, who led some 80 jet fighters and fighter-bombers in the biggest air battle of the war.

Olds, a veteran of 24 and one-half kills in World War II, said the dogfights "lasted no more than 12 to 14 minutes but covered at least miles of that sky."

Olds led 14 flights of F4-C Phantoms and six flights of F105 Thunderchiefs against a sky full of MIGs above the major MIG air base at Phuc Yen, north od Hanoi.

Pilots' reports indicated all the Communist planes shot down were the advanced-type MIG-21s, the Soviet-designed delta-wing interceptors which can fly 1,500 miles an hour. Lt. Gen. William W. Momyer, commander of the U.S. 7th Air Force, said he believed the North Vietnamese air force of 75 to 100 jets lost about half its supply of MIG-21s Monday. The bulk of the force are older, slower MIG-17s.

LOW BACK AND LEG PAIN

An estimated half million people will be disabled this year by . . . SPINAL DEFECTS WHICH CAUSE LOW BACK AND LEG PAIN.

CHIROPRACTIC RESEARCH . . . indicates that most low back and associated leg pains are caused by truly mechanical defects in the alignment of one or more segments of the spine.

A spinal segment may be displaced by a FALL, ACCIDENT, BACK STRAIN or by CHRONIC POSTURE DECAY. . . . When a spinal segment is displaced the supporting muscles and ligaments may be painfully stretched or torn causing ACUTE and DISABLING BACK PAIN.

The spinal nerves which supply the legs pass through the openings between adjacent segments of the lower spine. . . . When one of the segments is displaced the nerves to the legs might be pinched or irritated. . . . The result is nerve pain which extends down the leg.

Experience has shown that individuals with acute and chronic low back and associated leg pain respond extremely well to the specialized care offered by the Chiropractic profession.

If you find that you are now taking more and more aspirin, if you can't sit in one position for more than a few minutes without your lower back hurting, then now is the time to make a change.

If you or any of your friends are suffering from this condition, I invite you to come into our office for a consultation.

The Hermann Chiropratic Office is equipped with the latest Chiropractic instruments for precision and accuracy and uses the latest modern methods of correction. The efficiency and results of this modern science, when properly employed, will amaze you. If your condition has resisted your efforts to cure it . . . or if you are tired of living with your condition, phone us for an appointment.

Idaho Roasted Leg of Lamb!

One 5-or 6-lb. Leg of Lamb (Bone In)

- ⅛ CUP MELTED BUTTER
- ¼ CUP OLIVE OIL
- SALT & PEPPER TO TASTE
- ¼ CUP OF WHITE DINNER WINE
- PINCH OF OREGANO, THYME AND ROSEMARY

PREPARATION: Have our butcher loosen aitchbone and tie. Insert spit through leg of lamb (our butcher will show you how). Adjust spit so that meat is close to heat source (med. heat). Combine all ingredients. Let lamb cook approximately 40 minutes, then baste frequently with marinade.

Let leg of lamb set 10 minutes before carving.
• Leg of lamb may also be done in the oven using roasting pan and rack! Use same procedure as above!

Serves 6 to 8 people!
Serve with a Paul Masson Chablis

Driver Injured As Car Hits Pole

A San Francisco driver suffered multiple cuts and head injuries when his car struck a State Division of Highways pole at Highways 101 and 17, San Rafael, at 2:30 a.m. Sunday, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Injured was John Joseph Cooney, 26, of 575 Crestlake Drive, who was reported in good condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Officers said that Cooney was driving north when his car veered to the right off the roadway and into the pole.

Though there is still time to plant spring flowering, bulbs they will flower somewhat later than those planted earlier in the fall.

Snow, Frigid Temperatures Hit West's Mountain Areas

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Snow and frigid temperatures rode into mountain areas of the West today on 70 mile an hours winds, causing severe drifting and hazardous driving in parts of Montana and Utah.

A group of skiers in the Alta, Utah, area apparently took advantage of avalanche warnings in Little Cottonwood Canyon to extend their skiing vacation, after between 12 and 27 inches fell in the area Sunday night.

Forest service personnel yesterday used 105 mm howitzers and 775 mm recoiless rifles to blast potential avalanches. A spokesman said the skiers at a lodge now trapped by the snow had plenty of opportunity to get out before snow closed the road, but added that a one-way road probably would be cut to the lodge early today.

The cold temperatures were widespread as far south as Texas and Arizona, with usually warm Phoenix recording 47 degrees at 2 a.m. EST.

The thermometer dipped below freezing in much of the mountain area and plummeted to near the zero mark across much of Utah and Nevada.

A cold front stretching from the upper Great Lakes to the southern plains brought snow along that line, with more than an inch reported at Moline, Ill., within a six-hour period ending today.

But the wintry weather appeared to abate somewhat elsewhere in the nation. Rain, heavy in some places, fell in the Southeast.

The rain was expected to move into the middle Atlantic states today while the cold weather moved eastward from the West to the southern plains and Midwest.

Bayshore Fatality

Four Jump Clear Of Burning Boat

The 48-foot cabin cruiser Barnacle burned and sank off Point San Pablo on the Richmond side of the bay at 9:30 a.m. yesterday.

The four persons aboard jumped clear and were brought by Coast Guard cutter to the Tradewind Yacht Harbor on the San Rafael Canal. They were Fred Manley of Daly City and Edward Regan of San Francisco, co-owners of the boat, and Pat and Ellen Regan of San Francisco.

Cause of the fire was undetermined, according to a Coast Guard spokesman. Value of the craft was not reported, he said.

Consumption of carbohydrates in diets in the United States has declined in the last 30 years, chiefly as a result of a reduction in the use of starchy foods such as potatoes and cereal grains.

Woman Is Treated After Kitchen Fire

Mrs. Helen K. Roberts of 1 Blue Rock Court, Corte Madera, was treated at Marin General Hospital for smoke inhallation after a fire started in her kitchen yesterday at 5:39 p.m.

The cause of the fire, which caused $500 damage to the floor and walls of the kitchen, was not known.

Man Intercepted At Bridge Plaza

Warned by a telephone call from his wife that he had left a suicide note at home, California Highway Patrol intercepted John Joseph Rainford, 61 of Sebastopol at Golden Bridge toll plaza Sunday at 9:30 a.m.

Patrol Officer Donald R. McDaniel said Rainford appeared calm but was held on request of his wife and taken to San Francisco General Hospital for observation.

Institute On Educationally Handicapped Slated Jan. 14

A one-day institute on the application of learning theory to the problems of the educationally handicapped will be held Jan. 14 in Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary auditorium on Strawberry Point.

Sponsored by Fairfax, Larkspur and Mill Valley Elementary, Novato Unified, San Rafael Elementary and High School and Tamalpais High School districts and the Marin County Superintendent of Schools, the institute will feature four lectures.

Ivar Lovaas, associate professor of psychology at University of California at Los Angeles and a consultant to Pacific, Camarillo, Patton and Porterville state hospitals, will speak on "Behavior Therapy Treatment of Psychotic Children."

Frank M. Hewett will address the group on "Public School Application of Behavior Modification Theory." Hewitt is assistant professor of medical psychology in the school of education; director of the neuropsychiatric institute school, and acting chairman of the department of special education at University of California at Los Angeles.

In the afternoon, Robert Schwitzgebel will speak on "Behavior Therapy and Behavior Disorders." Schwitzgebel is assistant professor in the department of psychology at University of California at Los Angeles.

Arnol Lazarus will give the final lecture on "Behavior Therapy and Basic Dimensions." He is director of the Behavioral Therapy Institute in Sausalito. In February, he will become professor of psychology at Temple University Medical School in Philadelphia.

The four speakers will participate in a panel discussion at 4:15 p.m.

India Starvation Figure Estimated

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Rep. Richard L. Ottinger, D-N.Y., says 10 million children in India face starvation by April unless the United States acts to alleviate famine conditions.

He said he will ask President Johnson to take three steps to alleviate critical food shortages in the Indian states of Bihar and Uttar Pradesh.

Rebel Coach Named To Vandy Position

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Bobby Proctor, defensive backfield coach at Mississippi State for the past three seasons, was named to the Vanderbilt University football coaching staff yesterday.

Bill Pace, who recently came here from Arkansas as head coach, said Proctor, 35, a native of Wynne, Ark., is joining his staff.

Driver Injured As Car Hits Pole

A San Francisco driver suffered multiple cuts and head injuries when his car struck a State Division of Highways pole at Highways 101 and 17, San Rafael, at 2:30 a.m. Sunday, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Injured was John Joseph Cooney, 26, of 575 Crestlake Drive, who was reported in good condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Officers said that Cooney was driving north when his car veered to the right off the roadway and into the pole.

Though there is still time to plant spring flowering, bulbs they will flower somewhat later than those planted earlier in the fall.

Snow, Frigid Temperatures Hit West's Mountain Areas

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Snow and frigid temperatures rode into mountain areas of the West today on 70 mile an hours winds, causing severe drifting and hazardous driving in parts of Montana and Utah.

A group of skiers in the Alta, Utah, area apparently took advantage of avalanche warnings in Little Cottonwood Canyon to extend their skiing vacation, after between 12 and 27 inches fell in the area Sunday night.

Forest service personnel yesterday used 105 mm howitzers and 775 mm recoiless rifles to blast potential avalanches. A spokesman said the skiers at a lodge now trapped by the snow had plenty of opportunity to get out before snow closed the road, but added that a one-way road probably would be cut to the lodge early today.

The cold temperatures were widespread as far south as Texas and Arizona, with usually warm Phoenix recording 47 degrees at 2 a.m. EST.

The thermometer dipped below freezing in much of the mountain area and plummeted to near the zero mark across much of Utah and Nevada.

A cold front stretching from the upper Great Lakes to the southern plains brought snow along that line, with more than an inch reported at Moline, Ill., within a six-hour period ending today.

But the wintry weather appeared to abate somewhat elsewhere in the nation. Rain, heavy in some places, fell in the Southeast.

The rain was expected to move into the middle Atlantic states today while the cold weather moved eastward from the West to the southern plains and Midwest.

Bayshore Fatality

Four Jump Clear Of Burning Boat

The 48-foot cabin cruiser Barnacle burned and sank off Point San Pablo on the Richmond side of the bay at 9:30 a.m. yesterday.

The four persons aboard jumped clear and were brought by Coast Guard cutter to the Tradewind Yacht Harbor on the San Rafael Canal. They were Fred Manley of Daly City and Edward Regan of San Francisco, co-owners of the boat, and Pat and Ellen Regan of San Francisco.

Cause of the fire was undetermined, according to a Coast Guard spokesman. Value of the craft was not reported, he said.

Consumption of carbohydrates in diets in the United States has declined in the last 30 years, chiefly as a result of a reduction in the use of starchy foods such as potatoes and cereal grains.

Woman Is Treated After Kitchen Fire

Mrs. Helen K. Roberts of 1 Blue Rock Court, Corte Madera, was treated at Marin General Hospital for smoke inhallation after a fire started in her kitchen yesterday at 5:39 p.m.

The cause of the fire, which caused $500 damage to the floor and walls of the kitchen, was not known.

Man Intercepted At Bridge Plaza

Warned by a telephone call from his wife that he had left a suicide note at home, California Highway Patrol intercepted John Joseph Rainford, 61 of Sebastopol at Golden Bridge toll plaza Sunday at 9:30 a.m.

Patrol Officer Donald R. McDaniel said Rainford appeared calm but was held on request of his wife and taken to San Francisco General Hospital for observation.

Tennis Court Plan Before Board Tonight

The Fairfax Park and Recreation Commission will consider a proposal to build two tennis courts at Fairfax School when it meets at 8 p.m. today at the Farifax Women's Club.

The Fairfax School District board has agreed to allow the city to build the courts on school property, but no agreement has been signed.

The commission will receive letters of application from Roger E. Fields and Roger J. Gaetjen for the seat vacated by former commissioner Frank Salvisberg.

Public Works Director Richard J. Nelson will report on manitenance and planting at the Fairfax Pavilion, and on the cost of creating a putting green on vacant city-owned property off Bank Street near the baseball park.

Pet Pig Shoots 'Hunter,' 16

SIOUX RAPIDS, Iowa (AP) — Richard Haldin Jr., 16, was in a hospital today after he was shot by his pet pig.

Haldin said he saw a rabbit in the farmyard yesterday, got his .22-caliber rifle and started after it.

He stopped to open a gate and leaned the rifle against the fence as his pet pig "Molly" rushed up. The pig brushed against the rifle and it fired, the bullet hitting Haldin in the right shoulder.

He was reported in good condition.

Six Marinites Will Be Aboard Ship Golden Bear

Six Marin County youths will be aboard the training ship Golden Bear when she sails from Vallejo Friday on a three-month training cruise to South America.

Among 250 midshipmen from the California Maritime Academy at Vallejo, the students are preparing for careers as licensed officers in the United States Merchant Marine.

Marin midshipmen include:

John R. Murk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rolph H. Murk of 35 Mercury Avenue, Tiburon; Patrick M. O'Flaherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. O'Flaherty of 8 Eucalyptus Road, Belvedere; Paul D. Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Day of 561 Idylberry Road, Lucas Valley; Hugh T. Jacks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Jacks of Upper Road, Ross; George B. Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Wallace of 6 Crest Road, Ross; and Michael G. Frideger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Frideger of 175 Prospect Avenue, San Anselmo.

The Golden Bear will visit Galapagos, Ecuador; Valparaiso, Chile; Callao, Peru; Balboa, Canal Zone; Acapulco, Mexico; San Diego and Long Beach, returning to Vallejo on March 14.

Three Killed In Fire In Hotel

LOS ANGELES (UPI) —Fire swept through a pensioner's hotel in the Westlake area last night, killing three men and injuring 10 other persons.

The blaze, which did between $75,000 and $100,000 damage to the old brick and frame Post Hotel also left 80 other residents at least temporarily homeless.

The Red Cross was asked to help shelter the victims, many of them elderly.

New Training Agency Sought

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Two Negro legislators plan to introduce a bill to establish a new department of training that would fight the problem of hardcore unemployment.

Sen. Mervyn M. Dymally and Assemblyman Bill Greene, both Los Angeles Democrats, said yesterday the legislation would not require new funds but would place all money the state spends on training into one pool.

Dymally and Greene said their plan, aimed at getting people off the streets and into jobs immediately, has been endorsed by representatives of private industry.

Boating Accident Body Is Recovered

EUREKA (UPI) — The body of Art Ragsdale, who died in a boating accident at Big Lagoon, was found on a beach yesterday by Humboldt County Sheriff's deputies.

Ragsdale, 60, of Blue Lake, drowned Sunday when his aluminum outboard boat apparently overturned while he was fishing on rough and choppy water.

Institute On Educationally Handicapped Slated Jan. 14

A one-day institute on the application of learning theory to the problems of the educationally handicapped will be held Jan. 14 in Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary auditorium on Strawberry Point.

Sponsored by Fairfax, Larkspur and Mill Valley Elementary, Novato Unified, San Rafael Elementary and High School and Tamalpais High School districts and the Marin County Superintendent of Schools, the institute will feature four lectures.

Ivar Lovaas, associate professor of psychology at University of California at Los Angeles and a consultant to Pacific, Camarillo, Patton and Porterville state hospitals, will speak on "Behavior Therapy Treatment of Psychotic Children."

Frank M. Hewett will address the group on "Public School Application of Behavior Modification Theory." Hewitt is assistant professor of medical psychology in the school of education; director of the neuropsychiatric institute school, and acting chairman of the department of special education at University of California at Los Angeles.

In the afternoon, Robert Schwitzgebel will speak on "Behavior Therapy and Behavior Disorders." Schwitzgebel is assistant professor in the department of psychology at University of California at Los Angeles.

Arnol Lazarus will give the final lecture on "Behavior Therapy and Basic Dimensions." He is director of the Behavioral Therapy Institute in Sausalito. in February, he will become professor of psychology at Temple University Medical School in Philadelphia.

The four speakers will participate in a panel discussion at 4:15 p.m.

India Starvation Figure Estimated

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Rep. Richard L. Ottinger, D-N.Y., says 10 million children in India face starvation by April unless the United States acts to alleviate famine conditions.

He said he will ask President Johnson to take three steps to alleviate critical food shortages in the Indian states of Bihar and Uttar Pradesh.

Rebel Coach Named To Vandy Position

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Bobby Proctor, defensive backfield coach at Mississippi State for the past three seasons, was named to the Vanderbilt University football coaching staff yesterday.

Bill Pace, who recently came here from Arkansas as head coach, said Proctor, 35, a native of Wynne, Ark., is joining his staff.

Homestead School's Plight On Agenda

Housing until summer for two classes at Mill Valley School District's Homestead School will be considered tomorrow by district trustees at a special meeting at 8 p.m. at Homestead School.

The two fourth grade classes at the school started double sessions today, and the fifth grade will meet in the library. A portable classroom has been ordered to house one class, and is expected to be installed by the end of January.

Supt. G. R. McConnell's proposals for temporary housing of the classes range from acquisition of a second portable to transfer of fifth and sixth grade pupils to another school, probably Alto-Edna Maguire.

The unexpected deficiency of two classrooms resulted from an order last Tuesday to close the old two-classroom building at the school. Structural engineers found earlier this month that it failed to meet state earthquake-resistance standards.

Also on the agenda is appointment of three members of a screening committee to help select a new superintendent to replace McConnell, who will leave the district June 30. Final selection will be by trustees.

Trustees have set the minimum salary for a new superintendent at $17,500, and agreed to offer a four-year contract. McConnell's present salary is $19,002.

Driver Suffers Auto Injuries

Harry Irving Diller, 54, of 55 Forbes Avenue, San Anselmo, was treated at Marin General Hospital for minor injuries suffered in a traffic accident at 6:25 a.m. Sunday in San Francisco.

California Highway Patrol reported that Diller, driving south on Funston Avenue, crossed the center divider into the northbound lanes and collided with a car driven by Paul Eugene Hardy, 27, of Albany. Diller was treated for cuts on his scalp and legs and chest bruises.

Girl Is Missing

A 15-year-old Mill Valley girl reported missing Thursday morning, returned home Friday afternoon, police reported today. Janet Carol Walton, 20 Elaine Avenue, returned home voluntarily, police said, after a trip to Santa Cruz.

Annual Tree Burning Set Friday Night

A community Christmas tree burning will be held in Belvedere Friday on Lagoon Road Park across from Maybridge Road beginning at 7 p.m.

Mayor John R. Moore will welcome residents to the Twelfth Night ceremony, which has been a tradition in Belvedere for several years.

Belvedere police and firemen will be on hand to control traffic and flames from dry Christmas trees.

Trees may be left on the site any time before the burning, according to the Belvedere Parks and Recreation Commission.

A choral group from Del Mar School, Tiburon, will sing carols under direction of Hyman Krongard.

Wood Frame House Destroyed By Fire

Fire destroyed a two-room wood frame home at Belvedere Avenue and Shoreline Hoghway in Stinson Beach Saturday evening.

Cause of the fire, reported at 6 p.m., was undetermined. About 20 volunteer firemen fought the blaze for about an hour.

LSD Is Linked To Span Incident

A man who appeared under the influence of LSD was taken from the Golden Gate Bridge toll lanes Saturday at 1:25 a. m. by California Highway Patrol officers who feared he might try to jump from the bridge.

Officer George J. Sharp observed Gilbert Gault, 24, in his car starting straight ahead with a dazed look. As patrol officers asked him to step from his car, he stared at them, finally got out. Reaching in his pocket, he pulled out a fistful of money and threw it into the air.

At Mission Emergency Hospital in San Francisco, a doctor said Gault was under the influence of the drug LSD. He was kept at San Francisco General Hospital for observation.

Vandals At School

Vandals entered Coleman School at 140 Rafael Drive, San Rafael, Saturday and scattered stationery equipment around the classroom of Mrs. Norman Erickson. Entry was through an unlicked door, police said.

Tennis Court Plan Before Board Tonight

The Fairfax Park and Recreation Commission will consider a proposal to build two tennis courts at Fairfax School when it meets at 8 p.m. today at the Farifax Women's Club.

The Fairfax School District board has agreed to allow the city to build the courts on school property, but no agreement has been signed.

The commission will receive letters of application from Roger E. Fields and Roger J. Gaetjen for the seat vacated by former commissioner Frank Salvisberg.

Public Works Director Richard J. Nelson will report on manitenance and planting at the Fairfax Pavilion, and on the cost of creating a putting green on vacant city-owned property off Bank Street near the baseball park.

Pet Pig Shoots 'Hunter,' 16

SIOUX RAPIDS, Iowa (AP) — Richard Haldin Jr., 16, was in a hospital today after he was shot by his pet pig.

Haldin said he saw a rabbit in the farmyard yesterday, got his .22-caliber rifle and started after it.

He stopped to open a gate and leaned the rifle against the fence as his pet pig "Molly" rushed up. The pig brushed against the rifle and it fired, the bullet hitting Haldin in the right shoulder.

He was reported in good condition.

Six Marinites Will Be Aboard Ship Golden Bear

Six Marin County youths will be aboard the training ship Golden Bear when she sails from Vallejo Friday on a three-month training cruise to South America.

Among 250 midshipmen from the California Maritime Academy at Vallejo, the students are preparing for careers as licensed officers in the United States Merchant Marine.

Marin midshipmen include:

John R. Murk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rolph H. Murk of 35 Mercury Avenue, Tiburon; Patrick M. O'Flaherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. O'Flaherty of 8 Eucalyptus Road, Belvedere; Paul D. Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Day of 561 Idylberry Road, Lucas Valley; Hugh T. Jacks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Jacks of Upper Road, Ross; George B. Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Wallace of 6 Crest Road, Ross; and Michael G. Frideger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Frideger of 175 Prospect Avenue, San Anselmo.

The Golden Bear will visit Galapagos, Ecuador; Valparaiso, Chile; Callao, Peru; Balboa, Canal Zone; Acapulco, Mexico; San Diego and Long Beach, returning to Vallejo on March 14.

Three Killed In Fire In Hotel

LOS ANGELES (UPI) —Fire swept through a pensioner's hotel in the Westlake area last night, killing three men and injuring 10 other persons.

The blaze, which did between $75,000 and $100,000 damage to the old brick and frame Post Hotel also left 80 other residents at least temporarily homeless.

New Training Agency Sought

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Two Negro legislators plan to introduce a bill to establish a new department of training that would fight the problem of hardcore unemployment.

Sen. Mervyn M. Dymally and Assemblyman Bill Greene, both Los Angeles Democrats, said yesterday the legislation would not require new funds but would place all money the state spends on training into one pool.

Dymally and Greene said their plan, aimed at getting people off the streets and into jobs immediately, has been endorsed by representatives of private industry.

Boating Accident Body Is Recovered

EUREKA (UPI) — The body of Art Ragsdale, who died in a boating accident at Big Lagoon, was found on a beach yesterday by Humboldt County Sheriff's deputies.

Ragsdale, 60, of Blue Lake, drowned Sunday when his aluminum outboard boat apparently overturned while he was fishing on rough and choppy water.

Economists Urged To Lend Hand In Fight Against Crime World

By SCIENCE SERVICE

WASHINGTON — Economists, concerned with the "upperworld" of respectable business, have neglected the study of the application of economic laws to the criminal underworld.

And their insights might have a radical effect on "crime" and criminals, according to Dr. T. C. Schelling, Harvard University professor of economics.

From the economists' view, "a large part of organized crime is the selling of commodities and services contrary to law. This includes dope, prostitution, gambling, liquor under prohibition, pornography and stolen goods."

The law itself forces certain goods into the black market, Dr. Schelling notes. "Essentially the question is whether (the law's) goal of somewhat limiting the consumption of narcotics, gambling, prostitution, abortion or anything else that is forced by law into the black market is or is not outweighed by the costs to society of creating a criminal industry.

In an address before the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science, Dr. Schelling advocated a "strategic" approach to the problems of crime, instead of the current tactical methods aimed at catching and punishing individual criminals.

The black markets, he pointed out, protect criminals from legitimate competitors, provide an incentive to corrupt police, and teach their customers contempt for the law.

"The greatest gambling enterprise in the United States," Dr. Schelling declared, "has not been significantly touched by organized crime. That is the stock market . . . Ordinary gambling ought to be one of the hardest industries to monopolize because almost anybody can compete . . . If ordinary brokerage firms were encouraged to take accounts and buy and sell bets by telephone for their customers, it is hard to see how racketeers could get any kind of grip on it."

Move Launched On Filibusters

WASHINGTON (AP) — Six senators — three Democrats and three Republicans — have launched a move to facilitate ending Senate filibusters.

In a letter to their colleagues seeking support, the senators said a change in Senate Rule 22 "must be secured that, while protecting the right of full debate, will enable a majority of senators ultimately to resolve an issue by voting."

The letter was sent by Democrats Joseph S. Clark of Pennsylvania, Philip A. Hart of Michigan and William Proxmire of Wisconsin and Republicans Clifford P. Case of New Jersey, Jacob K. Javits of New York and Thomas H. Kuchel of California.

Transistor Patent Issued On Zinc Use

A method of producing zinc oxide semiconductor material for transistor applications was patented last week by William D. Kingerly and Reid A. Mickelsen, and assigned to the Atomic Energy Commission, which supported the research. The patent is number 3, 294,660.

The novel material can be used to operate at higher temperatures than the conventional germanium and silicon semiconductors. Because of a greater energy gap between the valence band and the conduction band, currens leakage within the material is decreased.

Cuts Own Salary —Campaign Promise

GALVESTON, Tex. (UPI)—C. Ray Holbrook was sworn in yesterday as county judge. His first official act was to cut his salary from $18,000 to $16,200 a year.

Disney Is Mourned

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A resolution mourning the death of showman Walt Disney was adopted by the Senate yesterday. The measure was introduced by Sen. Robert S. Stevens, R-Los Angeles.

Homestead School's Plight On Agenda

Housing until summer for two classes at Mill Valley School District's Homestead School will be considered tomorrow by district trustees at a special meeting at 8 p.m. at Homestead School.

The two fourth grade classes at the school started double sessions today, and the fifth grade will meet in the library. A portable classroom has been ordered to house one class, and is expected to be installed by the end of January.

Supt. G. R. McConnell's proposals for temporary housing of the classes range from acquisition of a second portable to transfer of fifth and sixth grade pupils to another school, probably Alto-Edna Maguire.

The unexpected deficiency of two classrooms resulted from an order last Tuesday to close the old two-classroom building at the school. Structural engineers found earlier this month that it failed to meet state earthquake-resistance standards.

Also on the agenda is appointment of three members of a screening committee to help select a new superintendent to replace McConnell, who will leave the district June 30. Final selection will be by trustees.

Trustees have set the minimum salary for a new superintendent at $17,500, and agreed to offer a four-year contract. McConnell's present salary is $19,002.

Driver Suffers Auto Injuries

Harry Irving Diller, 54, of 55 Forbes Avenue, San Anselmo, was treated at Marin General Hospital for minor injuries suffered in a traffic accident at 6:25 a.m. Sunday in San Francisco.

California Highway Patrol reported that Diller, driving south on Funston Avenue, crossed the center divider into the northbound lanes and collided with a car driven by Paul Eugene Hardy, 27, of Albany. Diller was treated for cuts on his scalp and legs and chest bruises.

Girl Is Missing

A 15-year-old Mill Valley girl reported missing Thursday morning, returned home Friday afternoon, police reported today. Janet Carol Walton, 20 Elaine Avenue, returned home voluntarily, police said, after a trip to Santa Cruz.

Annual Tree Burning Set Friday Night

A community Christmas tree burning will be held in Belvedere Friday on Lagoon Road Park across from Maybridge Road beginning at 7 p.m.

Mayor John R. Moore will welcome residents to the Twelfth Night ceremony, which has been a tradition in Belvedere for several years.

Belvedere police and firemen will be on hand to control traffic and flames from dry Christmas trees.

Trees may be left on the site any time before the burning, according to the Belvedere Parks and Recreation Commission.

A choral group from Del Mar School, Tiburon, will sing carols under direction of Hyman Krongard.

Wood Frame House Destroyed By Fire

Fire destroyed a two-room wood frame home at Belvedere Avenue and Shoreline Hoghway in Stinson Beach Saturday evening.

Cause of the fire, reported at 6 p.m., was undetermined. About 20 volunteer firemen fought the blaze for about an hour.

LSD Is Linked To Span Incident

A man who appeared under the influence of LSD was taken from the Golden Gate Bridge toll lanes Saturday at 1:25 a. m. by California Highway Patrol officers who feared he might try to jump from the bridge.

Officer George J. Sharp observed Gilbert Gault, 24, in his car starting straight ahead with a dazed look. As patrol officers asked him to step from his car, he stared at them, finally got out. Reaching in his pocket, he pulled out a fistful of money and threw it into the air.

At Mission Emergency Hospital in San Francisco, a doctor said Gault was under the influence of the drug LSD. He was kept at San Francisco General Hospital for observation.

Vandals At School

Vandals entered Coleman School at 140 Rafael Drive, San Rafael, Saturday and scattered stationery equipment around the classroom of Mrs. Norman Erickson. Entry was through an unlicked door, police said.

Annexation Proposal On Agency's Agenda

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission will consider the proposed West Marin annexation to the North Marin County Water District Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at Civic Center.

Commission executive officer John F. Barrows will recommend approval of the annexation, which includes Olema, Point Reyes Station and Inverness. The territory was within Marin Municipal Water District's sphere of expansion, but residents petitioned for annexation to the North Marin District because of lack of action by MMWD.

Also on Thursday's agenda is consideration of the petition of Ghilotti and Maggiora to annex their 32 acres on the south side of Highway 17 near the San Rafael-Richmond Bridge in the City of San Rafael.

The commission also will consider the annexation of land, including a junior high school site, southwest of Wilson Avenue and Center Road to the City of Novato.

Farmers Injured

PRAGUE (AP) — More than 50,000 cooperative farmers in Czechoslovakia suffered injuries at their jobs last year, missing as many working days as if 4,500 farmers had not worked all year, the Central Commission of Inspection and Statistics reported.

Labor-Management Meeting Scheduled

WASHINGTON (AP) The Federal Mediation and Concilation Service will meet with its mediators Jan. 9 to discuss what it anticipates will be a rough year in labor-management relations.

The National Right-to-Work Committee, meanwhile, announced it will seek this year a federal law requiring labor unions to bargain only for their own members.

A New Year's Bullet Hole

Homer Gray of 442 West Live Oak Drive, Tamalpais Valley, wondered what was going on when he found a bullet hole in the hood of his car and a spent 30 caliber bullet New Year's morning.

After checking, Sheriff's Deputy Ernest Nielsen reported that the bullet had entered from a high angle "almost straight down."

This, he said, indicated a random shot taken into the sky by a New Year's celebrant.

"Due to an overabundance of suspects, no further action was taken," Nielsen reported.

Deadline Near For Astronauts

The academy, recruiting astronauts for the National Aeronautic and Space Administration, says more than 400 scientists and engineers have applied.

Public Hearing Scheduled On San Pedro Road Plans

A public hearing before both the San Rafael City Council and Marin County Board of Supervisors will be held at 8 p.m. next Monday at San Rafael City Hall on the second phase of San Pedro Road widening.

The County Public Works Department has designed two alternate alignments for the job that will widen the present two-lane road to a four-lane, divided road between Porto Bello and a point 300 feet east of Margarita Drive.

Councilmen and supervisors want to find out at the hearing what the public preference is on the alternates.

The first, known as the Central Alignment, would take property from both sides of the present road for widening. Engineer John Baker of the county public works department said this would cost about $625,000 for land acquisition and construction.

This plan would not require relocation of any homes.

The second plan, estimated at $815,000 for acquisition and construction, is called the Southern Alignment. It would take all the necessary land from the southern side of the present route and would require relocation of four homes in Marin Vista subdivision, Baker said.

Maps of both plans went on display in the City Hall foyer today and will remain there until the hearing tomorrow. A county public works department engineer will be at the City Hall from 1 to 5 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. to answer questions.

The southern side of the road is within the city limits, while the road itself and land on the north side are in county territory, Baker said.

Red Tourism

PRAGUE (AP)—Over two million persons visited Czechoslovakia this tourist season, the news agency CTK reported recently, saying 1.5 million came from Communist nations and 513,000 from Western countries, an increase of 21 per cent from last year.

Furniture polish has been labeled the most dangerous household item a child can accidentally swallow because it causes severe complications in the lungs and central nervous system.

Newmen's Plane Is Delayed

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) -- Engine trouble delayed for more than an hour last night a Pan American World Airways plane carrying White House reporters to Washington from Texas.

The big DC-9 put into Houston International Airport more than an hour after taking off from Bergstrom Air Force Base at Austin.

Pilot Eugene Monahan cut off the No. 2 engine when it began shooting sparks. He had hoped to land at New Orleans but turned back to Houston because of bad weather.

Several fire trucks met the plane, but Monahan made a smooth landing.

Increased Passenger Cont Is Predicted

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The city Department of Airports predicts a passenger count of 19 million at International Airport during 1967.

A spokesman said yesterday the forecast is based on the figures compiled last year, when the passenger count was about 15.4 million.

Economists Urged To Lend Hand In Fight Against Crime World

By SCIENCE SERVICE

WASHINGTON — Economists, concerned with the "upper-world" of respectable business, have neglected the study of the application of economic laws to the criminal underworld.

And their insights might have a radical effect on "crime" and criminals, according to Dr. T. C. Schelling, Harvard University professor of economics.

From the economists' view, "a large part of organized crime is the selling of commodities and services contrary to law. This includes dope, prostitution, gambling, liquor under prohibition, pornography and stolen goods."

The law itself forces certain goods into the black market, Dr. Schelling notes. "Essentially the question is whether (the law's) goal of somewhat limiting the consumption of narcotics, gambling, prostitution, abortion or anything else that is forced by law into the black market is or is not outweighed by the costs to society of creating a criminal industry.

In an address before the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science, Dr. Schelling advocated a "strategic" approach to the problems of crime, instead of the current tactical methods aimed at catching and punishing individual criminals.

The black markets, he pointed out, protect criminals from legitimate competitors, provide an incentive to corrupt police, and teach their customers contempt for the law.

"The greatest gambling enterprise in the United States," Dr. Schelling declared, "has not been significantly touched by organized crime. That is the stock market . . . Ordinary gambling ought to be one of the hardest industries to monopolize because almost anybody can compete . . . If ordinary brokerage firms were encouraged to take accounts and buy and sell bets by telephone for their customers, it is hard to see how racketeers could get any kind of grip on it."

Move Launched On Filibusters

WASHINGTON (AP) — Six senators — three Democrats and three Republicans — have launched a move to facilitate ending Senate filibusters.

In a letter to their colleagues seeking support, the senators said a change in Senate Rule 22 "must be secured that, while protecting the right of full debate, will enable a majority of senators ultimately to resolve an issue by voting."

The letter was sent by Democrats Joseph S. Clark of Pennsylvania, Philip A. Hart of Michigan and William Proxmire of Wisconsin and Republicans Clifford P. Case of New Jersey, Jacob K. Javits of New York and Thomas H. Kuchel of California.

Transistor Patent Issued On Zinc Use

A method of producing zinc oxide semiconductor material for transistor applications was patented last week by William D. Kingerly and Reid A. Mickelsen, and assigned to the Atomic Energy Commission, which supported the research. The patent is number 3, 294,660.

The novel material can be used to operate at higher temperatures than the conventional germanium and silicon semiconductors. Because of a greater energy gap between the valence band and the conduction band, currens leakage within the material is decreased.

Cuts Own Salary —Campaign Promise

GALVESTON, Tex. (UPI)—C. Ray Holbrook was sworn in yesterday as county judge. His first official act was to cut his salary from $18,000 to $16,200 a year.

Disney Is Mourned

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A resolution mourning the death of showman Walt Disney was adopted by the Senate yesterday. The measure was introduced by Sen. Robert S. Stevens, R-Los Angeles.

THE PEOPLE'S SCHOOLS

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

How Do Voters Judge Their Candidates For School Boards?

The time has rolled around again when a few citizens begin scurrying about to promote candidates for district school boards. In some counties, in fact, the first aspirants have already taken out nomination papers, for the law sets no opening date for taking out the papers. It can be done any time.

FIRST DATE for filing the completed petitions with county superintendents is Jan. 9. The filing period continues to March 3. Elections will be April 18. These dates apply except for city school boards in chartered cities.

What kind of candidates will be seeking positions on the 1,300-odd school district boards in California, come April 18? And how will the voters be able to judge them?

The California Teachers Assn. a couple years ago published a list of qualifications for "the ideal school board candidate." For what they are worth, here are the things the CTA believes such a candidate would have:

1. An unselfish interest in the public schools, the community and every child.

2. The ability to think independently and objectively about a problem.

3. The ability and desire to work cooperatively with other board members, even when his opinions are at times in the minority.

4. A record of the kind of leadership that will represent the district as a whole rather than a record identifying him with a particular group, cause, or geographical area.

5. A willingness to give the necessary time to this important position.

6. The capability of recognizing and distinguishing the jurisdictional power and functions of the school board and administration.

7. A clear recognition of the close relationship between high quality personnel and excellence of educational quality so that he will stress policies and practices which contribute to high standards and high morale.

8. The courage and ability to explain and enforce a rule which is proper but not popular.

9. An understanding that leadership often involves efforts to re-direct public opinion into more constructive channels.

10. A layman's relationship to education.

11. The habit of withholding judgment on critical issues until all pertinent facts are available.

12. A respect for the knowledge and opinions of those with specialized preparation.

13. The belief that the school professional staff is a partner in the educational enterprise.

14. The ability to carry on cheerfully when public appreciation of his efforts seems to be lacking.

15. A record which has demonstrated consistently that he has a respect for others' opinions and for the dignity of each individual.

Anyone filling all 15 of these qualifications would indeed be a paragon.

He might, however,' not be very effective as a school board member.

IT WOULD APPEAR that some understanding of the operation of schools, and of public administration generally, might deserve a place near the top of the list of qualifications for an ideal school board candidate.

School district operations are complicated, and if the newly elected board member must learn them all "from scratch," a great deal of his four-year term is going to be spent in the process. Further, if he has no knowledge of the operation of government at the local level, he may find himself trapped into practices contrary to accepted governmental practices. It has happened to many a school trustee.

THE CANDIDATE who starts acquainting himself by attending board meetings a month or two before election can scarcely be expected to know what it is all about. It would appear that, along with integrity, good intentions, etc., a knowledge of government and schools obtained over the years would be essential for the ideal school board candidate.

It may be, too, that some of the 15 qualifications listed by the CTA are not of overwhelming importance, except in the eyes of the teachers' organization.

Sound-Sealing Used On Plastic

WASHINGTON(SS) — A method of sealing plastic sheets by means of high-frequency sound energy was patented this week by Seymour Linsley and Joseph Di Meglio and assigned to Branson Instruments Inc.

The device—patent 3,294,616—has the advantage of applying the sealing energy continuously to the plastic surfaces to be sealed, rather than being applied intermittently as in previous ultrasonic sealers. It has been used to seal an inner plastic liner through a three-ply kraft paper sack.

Ultrasonic sealing devices are used on plastic which do not join well with heat, such as Mylar and some of the polypropylenes. The process is also being applied to the welding of rigid plastic materials.

F.A. Mesmer, a 19th Century Austrian physician, is considered to be the father of hypnotism, using a method believed to involve animal magnetism.

Annexation Proposal On Agency's Agenda

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission will consider the proposed West Marin annexation to the North Marin County Water District Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at Civic Center.

Commission executive officer John F. Barrows will recommend approval of the annexation, which includes Olema, Point Reyes Station and Inverness. The territory was within Marin Municipal Water District's sphere of expansion, but residents petitioned for annexation to the North Marin District because of lack of action by MMWD.

Also on Thursday's agenda is consideration of the petition of Ghilotti and Maggiora to annex their 32 acres on the south side of Highway 17 near the San Rafael-Richmond Bridge in the City of San Rafael.

The commission also will consider the annexation of land, including a junior high school site, southwest of Wilson Avenue and Center Road to the City of Novato.

Farmers Injured

PRAGUE (AP) — More than 50,000 cooperative farmers in Czechoslovakia suffered injuries at their jobs last year, missing as many working days as if 4,500 farmers had not worked all year, the Central Commission of Inspection and Statistics reported.

Labor-Management Meeting Scheduled

WASHINGTON (AP) The Federal Mediation and Concilation Service will meet with its mediators Jan. 9 to discuss what it anticipates will be a rough year in labor-management relations.

The National Right-to-Work Committee, meanwhile, announced it will seek this year a federal law requiring labor unions to bargain only for their own members.

A New Year's Bullet Hole

Homer Gray of 442 West Live Oak Drive, Tamalpais Valley, wondered what was going on when he found a bullet hole in the hood of his car and a spent 30 caliber bullet New Year's morning.

After checking, Sheriff's Deputy Ernest Nielsen reported that the bullet had entered from a high angle "almost straight down."

This, he said, indicated a random shot taken into the sky by a New Year's celebrant.

"Due to an overabundance of suspects, no further action was taken," Nielsen reported.

Deadline Near For Astronauts

The academy, recruiting astronauts for the National Aeronautic and Space Administration, says more than 400 scientists and engineers have applied.

Public Hearing Scheduled On San Pedro Road Plans

A public hearing before both the San Rafael City Council and Marin County Board of Supervisors will be held at 8 p.m. next Monday at San Rafael City Hall on the second phase of San Pedro Road widening.

The County Public Works Department has designed two alternate alignments for the job that will widen the present two-lane road to a four-lane, divided road between Porto Bello and a point 300 feet east of Margarita Drive.

Councilmen and supervisors want to find out at the hearing what the public preference is on the alternates.

The first, known as the Central Alignment, would take property from both sides of the present road for widening. Engineer John Baker of the county public works department said this would cost about $625,000 for land acquisition and construction.

This plan would not require relocation of any homes.

The second plan, estimated at $815,000 for acquisition and construction, is called the Southern Alignment. It would take all the necessary land from the southern side of the present route and would require relocation of four homes in Marin Vista subdivision, Baker said.

Maps of both plans went on display in the City Hall foyer today and will remain there until the hearing tomorrow. A county public works department engineer will be at the City Hall from 1 to 5 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. to answer questions.

The southern side of the road is within the city limits, while the road itself and land on the north side are in county territory, Baker said.

Red Tourism

PRAGUE (AP)—Over two million persons visited Czechoslovakia this tourist season, the news agency CTK reported recently, saying 1.5 million came from Communist nations and 513,000 from Western countries, an increase of 21 per cent from last year.

Furniture polish has been labeled the most dangerous household item a child can accidentally swallow because it causes severe complications in the lungs and central nervous system.

Newmen's Plane Is Delayed

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Engine trouble delayed for more than an hour last night a Pan American World Airways plane carrying White House reporters to Washington from Texas.

The big DC-9 put into Houston International Airport more than an hour after taking off from Bergstrom Air Force Base at Austin.

Pilot Eugene Monahan cut off the No. 2 engine when it began shooting sparks. He had hoped to land at New Orleans but turned back to Houston because of bad weather.

Several fire trucks met the plane, but Monahan made a smooth landing.

Increased Passenger Cont Is Predicted

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The city Department of Airports predicts a passenger count of 19 million at International Airport during 1967.

A spokesman said yesterday the forecast is based on the figures compiled last year, when the passenger count was about 15.4 million.

Montana Boy Dies Of Kidney Ailment

Kenneth Frank, the 17-year-old Montana boy whose life 17 Marin County residents offered to save with their own kidneys, died yesterday in Great Falls, Mont.

Shortly before Christmas, the boy's father, Herman Frank of San Rafael, pleaded through the Independent-Journal for someone to donate a kidney.

Nephritis, a kidney disease suffered by his son for two years, had attacked and destroyed both of Kenneth's kidneys. Doctors gave him only six months to live.

Within two days, 17 Marin residents had called Frank at his 120 Spring Grove Avenue home to offer their kidneys. Countless others called to offer blood or just wish Frank well.

Doctors who worked on Kenneth, though, never examined a prospective Marin donor. "They were just about to start processing the donors when the boy went into a coma. He died six hours later," Frank reported.

He said he does not know why doctors waited so long before looking at prospective donors outside the boy's immediate family "unless they knew something they wouldn't tell us."

Frank said he will attend his son's funeral in Kalispell, Mont., Thursday. He had not seen the boy in four years, but talked with him by telephone the day before he died.

"I want to thank everyone here in Marin for all they did and all they offered to do," Frank said.

New Operator In Data Office Is Turned Down

Marin County Supervisors today rejected a request by the county data processing department for permission to hire another fulltime computer operator at $3,390 for the rest of the fiscal year.

Edward M. Nissen of that department said addition of the operator would save an equal amount of money in overtime and extra hire pay.

Supervisor John F. McInnis told Nissen an emergency would have to be shown before he would vote a change in the budget.

"You come in here with a request for another man but without the data to show the need for that man," he said.

The board tabled the request.

Major Given Medal For His Viet Service

Major Franklin, 34, was cited for exceptionally meritorious conduct while serving as commanding officer of the 17th Aviation Company, Air Mobile Fixed Wing, 1st Cavalry Division (Airmobile) in Vietnam from June 1965 until August 1966.

The citation said he "complete organized, trained and led the first CV-2B "Caribou" company to South Vietnam via the mid-Pacific flight route, planned and supervised around-the-clock flying in support of troops in Vietnam, and directed the smooth and orderly transfer of the Army's "Caribou" operations and assets in Vietnam to the Air Force.

Today's ceremonies were watched by his wife Maggie and their children, Jayne, Scott and Joseph. They live at 427 Miller Creek Road in Marinwood.

Courthouse Restriction May Be Lifted

By RICHARD LYTTLE

Marin County supervisors today appeared ready to lift the restriction written into the courthouse bid agreement two weeks ago that calls for the courthouse building and annex to remain at least five years from time of sale.

The property will go to bid Feb. 14, and the board has until next Tuesday to make changes in the bid document.

Supervisors agreed to discuss the future of the courthouse property with members of the San Rafael City Council at a meeting at the city hall next Monday night. That meeting has been scheduled as a joint hearing by supervisors and councilmen on the second phase of widening of San Pedro Road. The courthouse discussion will come after the hearing.

The courthouse matter came up today when Board Chairman Thomas T. Storer said he would like to see a joint session with the council to improve understanding. Supervisor Peter H. Behr said he would welcome this and would like to lift any restriction on future use in the sales document because San Rafael businessmen had protested any restriction.

Supervisor William A. Gnoss agreed with Behr. Supervisor John F. McInnis, participating in his first session, heartily endorsed a joint meeting.

Several weeks ago Harry H. Heifetz offered to buy the courthouse property for $900,000, saying he would be willing to keep the buildings and lawn as they are in perpetuity.

County Administrator Alan Bruce reported today that Richard Woods, representing another interested buyer, has written to request lifting of restrictions.

Police Probe Shooting Of Larkspur Man

A Larkspur man was shot in the abdomen and the right leg at his home Sunday at 4:26 a.m., according to Larkspur police.

M/Sgt. Donald Allen, 41, of 458 Via Hidalgo, Larkspur, was in good condition today at Letterman General Hospital, San Francisco, and Larkspur police were investigating the circumstances surrounding the shooting.

When officers Alisdair W. MacDonald and Richard Madigan arrived at Allen's home Sunday morning, Allen gave them a .22 caliber pistol and showed them the two bullet wounds on his body, Police Chief Howard Clark said.

Allen said he and his wife, Dolores Allen, 36, had an argument. But he gave several contradictory stories on how the shooting occured, Clark said.

Auto Returned With $20 Bill

Someone did a little do-it-yourself Rent-A-Car business with Mathew P. Dillingham's $8,000 sports car.

Dillingham's 1966 Cobra disappeared from the garage of his home at 3 Rose Avenue, Mill Valley Sunday. It was returned yesterday, parked 40 yards away—with a $20 bill on the front seat.

Mill Valley police reported the motor still warm, the car undamaged except for the ignition wires which had been hot wired. The borrower had driven 15 miles for his $20.

Mink Coat Taken At Holiday Party

Mrs. Mary B. McBride of 12 Surrey Lane, San Rafael, had a New Year's Eve celebration turn sour.

She told police that, while she was attending a party at the Olympia Club, 919 Lea Drive, Saturday night, someone stole her mink coat from a closet near the club entrance. She valued it at $2,600.

January 3, 1967

Dear Friends:

1966 was a year to remember in the savings and loan business. Tight money, a depressed residential real estate market, highest savings rates in our generation, and lower earnings influenced the Federal government to adopt rate controls, raise insurance of accounts to $15,000, and stiffen supervisory powers.

1966 has been an unusual year for us. Our savings increased 3%, after five years of average 17% gains. Our savings rate jumped from 4.85% to 5.25% while our average loan portfolio rate increased only from 6.24% to 6.30%. The resulting cost squeeze cut earnings, but reduced operating expenses allowed us to end the year with an increase of 4% in our general reserves and surplus.

Already, 1967 looks better to us. Money is less tight. We are taking in more savings, we are making more loans. The real estate market shows signs of picking up as unsold house inventories disappear, and buyers read that costs of new homes may go higher. 1967 should be a more normal year for Citizens. Here is our program going into the first quarter:

- Your savings will continue at 5-1/4% per annum;
- Compounding will be daily;
- Funds received by the 10th will earn from the first;
- Funds received after the 10th will earn from date received;
- Funds withdrawn before the end of the quarter will earn to date of withdrawal if in for three months.

We may remember 1966 most as the year the Federal government established rate controls, bringing stability to the savings market.

Cordially,

F. Marion Donahoe

THE PEOPLE'S SCHOOLS

By BRYCE W. ANDERSON

How Do Voters Judge Their Candidates For School Boards?

The time has rolled around again when a few citizens begin scurrying about to promote candidates for district school boards. In some counties, in fact, the first aspirants have already taken out nomination papers, for the law sets no opening date for taking out the papers. It can be done any time.

FIRST DATE for filing the completed petitions with county superintendents is Jan. 9. The filing period continues to March 3. Elections will be April 18. These dates apply except for city school boards in chartered cities.

What kind of candidates will be seeking positions on the 1,300-odd school district boards in California, come April 18? And how will the voters be able to judge them?

The California Teachers Assn. a couple years ago published a list of qualifications for "the ideal school board candidate." For what they are worth, here are the things the CTA believes such a candidate would have:

1. An unselfish interest in the public schools, the community and every child.
2. The ability to think independently and objectively about a problem.
3. The ability and desire to work cooperatively with other board members, even when his opinions are at times in the minority.
4. A record of the kind of leadership that will represent the district as a whole rather than a record identifying him with a particular group, cause, or geographical area.
5. A willingness to give the necessary time to this important position.
6. The capability of recognizing and distinguishing the jurisdictional power and functions of the school board and administration.
7. A clear recognition of the close relationship between high quality personnel and excellence of educational quality so that he will stress policies and practices which contribute to high standards and high morale.
8. The courage and ability to explain and enforce a rule which is proper but not popular.
9. An understanding that leadership often involves efforts to re-direct public opinion into more constructive channels.
10. A layman's relationship to education.
11. The habit of withholding judgment on critical issues until all pertinent facts are available.
12. A respect for the knowledge and opinions of those with specialized preparation.
13. The belief that the school professional staff is a partner in the educational enterprise.
14. The ability to carry on cheerfully when public appreciation of his efforts seems to be lacking.
15. A record which has demonstrated consistently that he has a respect for others' opinions and for the dignity of each individual.

Anyone filling all 15 of these qualifications would indeed be a paragon.

He might, however, not be very effective as a school board member.

IT WOULD APPEAR that some understanding of the operation of schools, and of public administration generally, might deserve a place near the top of the list of qualifications for an ideal school board candidate.

School district operations are complicated, and if the newly elected board member must learn them all "from scratch," a great deal of his four-year term is going to be spent in the process. Further, if he has no knowledge of the operation of government at the local level, he may find himself trapped into practices contrary to accepted governmental practices. It has happened to many a school trustee.

THE CANDIDATE who starts acquainting himself by attending board meetings a month or two before election can scarcely be expected to know what it is all about. It would appear that, along with integrity, good intentions, etc., a knowledge of government and schools obtained over the years would be essential for the ideal school board candidate.

It may be, too, that some of the 15 qualifications listed by the CTA are not of overwhelming importance, except in the eyes of the teachers' organization.

Sound-Sealing Used On Plastic

WASHINGTON(SS) — A method of sealing plastic sheets by means of high-frequency sound energy was patented this week by Seymour Linsley and Joseph Di Meglio and assigned to Branson Instruments Inc.

The device—patent 3,294,616—has the advantage of applying the sealing energy continuously to the plastic surfaces to be sealed, rather than being applied intermittently as in previous ultrasonic sealers. It has been used to seal an inner plastic liner through a three-ply kraft paper sack.

Ultrasonic sealing devices are used on plastic which do not join well with heat, such as Mylar and some of the polypropylenes. The process is also being applied to the welding of rigid plastic materials.

F.A. Mesmer, a 19th Century Austrian physician, is considered to be the father of hypnotism, using a method believed to involve animal magnetism.

Montana Boy Dies Of Kidney Ailment

Kenneth Frank, the 17-year-old Montana boy whose life 17 Marin County residents offered to save with their own kidneys, died yesterday in Great Falls, Mont.

Shortly before Christmas, the boy's father, Herman Frank of San Rafael, pleaded through the Independent-Journal for someone to donate a kidney.

Nephritis, a kidney disease suffered by his son for two years, had attacked and destroyed both of Kenneth's kidneys. Doctors gave him only six months to live.

Within two days, 17 Marin residents had called Frank at his 120 Spring Grove Avenue home to offer their kidneys. Countless others called to offer blood or just wish Frank well.

Doctors who worked on Kenneth, though, never examined a prospective Marin donor. "They were just about to start processing the donors when the boy went into a coma. He died six hours later," Frank reported.

He said he does not know why doctors waited so long before looking at prospective donors outside the boy's immediate family "unless they knew something they wouldn't tell us."

Frank said he will attend his son's funeral in Kalispell, Mont., Thursday. He had not seen the boy in four years, but talked with him by telephone the day before he died.

"I want to thank everyone here in Marin for all they did and all they offered to do," Frank said.

New Operator In Data Office Is Turned Down

Marin County Supervisors today rejected a request by the county data processing department for permission to hire another fulltime computer operator at $3,390 for the rest of the fiscal year.

Edward M. Nissen of that department said addition of the operator would save an equal amount of money in overtime and extra hire pay.

Supervisor John F. McInnis told Nissen an emergency would have to be shown before he would vote a change in the budget.

"You come in here with a request for another man but without the data to show the need for that man," he said.

The board tabled the request.

Major Given Medal For His Viet Service

Major Franklin, 34, was cited for exceptionally meritorious conduct while serving as commanding officer of the 17th Aviation Company, Air Mobile Fixed Wing, 1st Cavalry Division (Airmobile) in Vietnam from June 1965 until August 1966.

The citation said he "complete organized, trained and led the first CV-2B "Caribou" company to South Vietnam via the mid-Pacific flight route, planned and supervised around-the-clock flying in support of troops in Vietnam, and directed the smooth and orderly transfer of the Army's "Caribou" operations and assets in Vietnam to the Air Force.

Today's ceremonies were watched by his wife Maggie and their children, Jayne, Scott and Joseph. They live at 427 Miller Creek Road in Marinwood.

Courthouse Restriction May Be Lifted

By RICHARD LYTTLE

Marin County supervisors today appeared ready to lift the restriction written into the courthouse bid agreement two weeks ago that calls for the courthouse building and annex to remain at least five years from time of sale.

The property will go to bid Feb. 14, and the board has until next Tuesday to make changes in the bid document.

Supervisors agreed to discuss the future of the courthouse property with members of the San Rafael City Council at a meeting at the city hall next Monday night. That meeting has been scheduled as a joint hearing by supervisors and councilmen on the second phase of widening of San Pedro Road. The courthouse discussion will come after the hearing.

The courthouse matter came up today when Board Chairman Thomas T. Storer said he would like to see a joint session with the council to improve understanding. Supervisor Peter H. Behr said he would welcome this and would like to lift any restriction on future use in the sales document because San Rafael businessmen had protested any restriction.

Supervisor William A. Gnoss agreed with Behr. Supervisor John F. McInnis, participating in his first session, heartily endorsed a joint meeting.

Several weeks ago Harry H. Heifetz offered to buy the courthouse property for $900,000, saying he would be willing to keep the buildings and lawn as they are in perpetuity.

County Administrator Alan Bruce reported today that Richard Woods, representing another interested buyer, has written to request lifting of restrictions.

Police Probe Shooting Of Larkspur Man

A Larkspur man was shot in the abdomen and the right leg at his home Sunday at 4:26 a.m., according to Larkspur police.

M/Sgt. Donald Allen, 41, of 458 Via Hidalgo, Larkspur, was in good condition today at Letterman General Hospital, San Francisco, and Larkspur police were investigating the circumstances surrounding the shooting.

When officers Alisdair W. MacDonald and Richard Madigan arrived at Allen's home Sunday morning, Allen gave them a .22 caliber pistol and showed them the two bullet wounds on his body, Police Chief Howard Clark said.

Allen said he and his wife, Dolores Allen, 36, had an argument. But he gave several contradictory stories on how the shooting occured, Clark said.

Allen is assigned to the 1151st Special Action squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Auto Returned With $20 Bill

Someone did a little do-it-yourself Rent-A-Car business with Mathew P. Dillingham's $8,000 sports car.

Dillingham's 1966 Cobra disappeared from the garage of his home at 3 Rose Avenue, Mill Valley Sunday. It was returned yesterday, parked 40 yards away—with a $20 bill on the front seat.

Mill Valley police reported the motor still warm, the car undamaged except for the ignition wires which had been hot wired. The borrower had driven 15 miles for his $20.

Mink Coat Taken At Holiday Party

Mrs. Mary B. McBride of 12 Surrey Lane, San Rafael, had a New Year's Eve celebration turn sour.

She told police that, while she was attending a party at the Olympia Club, 919 Lea Drive, Saturday night, someone stole her mink coat from a closet near the club entrance. She valued it at $2,600.

CITIZENS FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION

700 MARKET STREET AT KEARNY • SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA 94102 • TELEPHONE 982-1400

January 3, 1967

Dear Friends:

1966 was a year to remember in the savings and loan business. Tight money, a depressed residential real estate market, highest savings rates in our generation, and lower earnings influenced the Federal government to adopt rate controls, raise insurance of accounts to $15,000, and stiffen supervisory powers.

1966 has been an unusual year for us. Our savings increased 3%, after five years of average 17% gains. Our savings rate jumped from 4.85% to 5.25% while our average loan portfolio rate increased only from 6.24% to 6.30%. The resulting cost squeeze cut earnings, but reduced operating expenses allowed us to end the year with an increase of 4% in our general reserves and surplus.

Already, 1967 looks better to us. Money is less tight. We are taking in more savings, we are making more loans. The real estate market shows signs of picking up as unsold house inventories disappear, and buyers read that costs of new homes may go higher. 1967 should be a more normal year for Citizens. Here is our program going into the first quarter:

- Your savings will continue at 5-1/4% per annum;
- Compounding will be daily;
- Funds received by the 10th will earn from the first;
- Funds received after the 10th will earn from date received;
- Funds withdrawn before the end of the quarter will earn to date of withdrawal if in for three months.

We may remember 1966 most as the year the Federal government established rate controls, bringing stability to the savings market.

Cordially,

F. Marion Donahoe

FOR CHIC

Fashion Resolutions For '67

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—It's resolution time and don't forget it, if you would be among among the chic members of your set.

These suggested resolutions for the new year may not land you on that annual international list of best-dressed women that takes great wealth as well as great style, but they'll help to make a prettier, more confident you in '67.

RESOLVED THAT I WILL:

—Be a slave only to those fashions which become me and will not be pushed into purchase of something that deep within me I know is not my type. If the legs and the figure aren't the shapeliest and youngest, I'll let the mini-skirt belong to others.

—Once and for all I will figure out the styles that do become most, draw the most compliments from others, and plan my wardrobe accordingly. But I'll always take a look at the new trends, rather than get in a fashion rut.

—Follow a fad only if I can afford the fun, realizing that elegance comes in part from a well-planned and lasting wardrobe of good quality of cut and fabrics. Occasional indulgence in a new hair color, a new hairstyle, boots or lacy stockings do give a lift and do not splinter the pocketbook.

—FOLLOW FAITHFULLY the maxim that cleanlinessis next to Godliness and apply it not only to body but all clothes, keeping them carefully cleaned and pressed.

—Never say, "I'm too tired" at the close of the day and fail to cleanse the accumulation of makeup off either with that old fashioned soap and water method or with one of the cleansing lotions or creams. The chemists have done wonders for skin care.

—Use makeup with discretion, realizing that cosmetics are to enhance what nature gave me, not make me a caricature.

—Make sure that a sweet tooth or other food longing does not preclude the basics of good diet and good health. We are what we eat and I will include foods balanced to meet the daily needs—milk and cheese, meat, poultry, fish and eggs, vegetables and fruits, breads and cereals.

—NO LONGER PRETEND that the scales are off balance or that the thickening and sagging around the midsection are only temporary. If cutting calories is necessary, I shall begin immediately instead of "I'll really start tomorrow."

—Add some sort of daily exercise to my life, whether of the sitting-up type or a two-mile walk.

—Know that there'll be occasional lapses in the good intentions department, but if most are kept, a more modish '67 awaits.

THAT TWINKLER

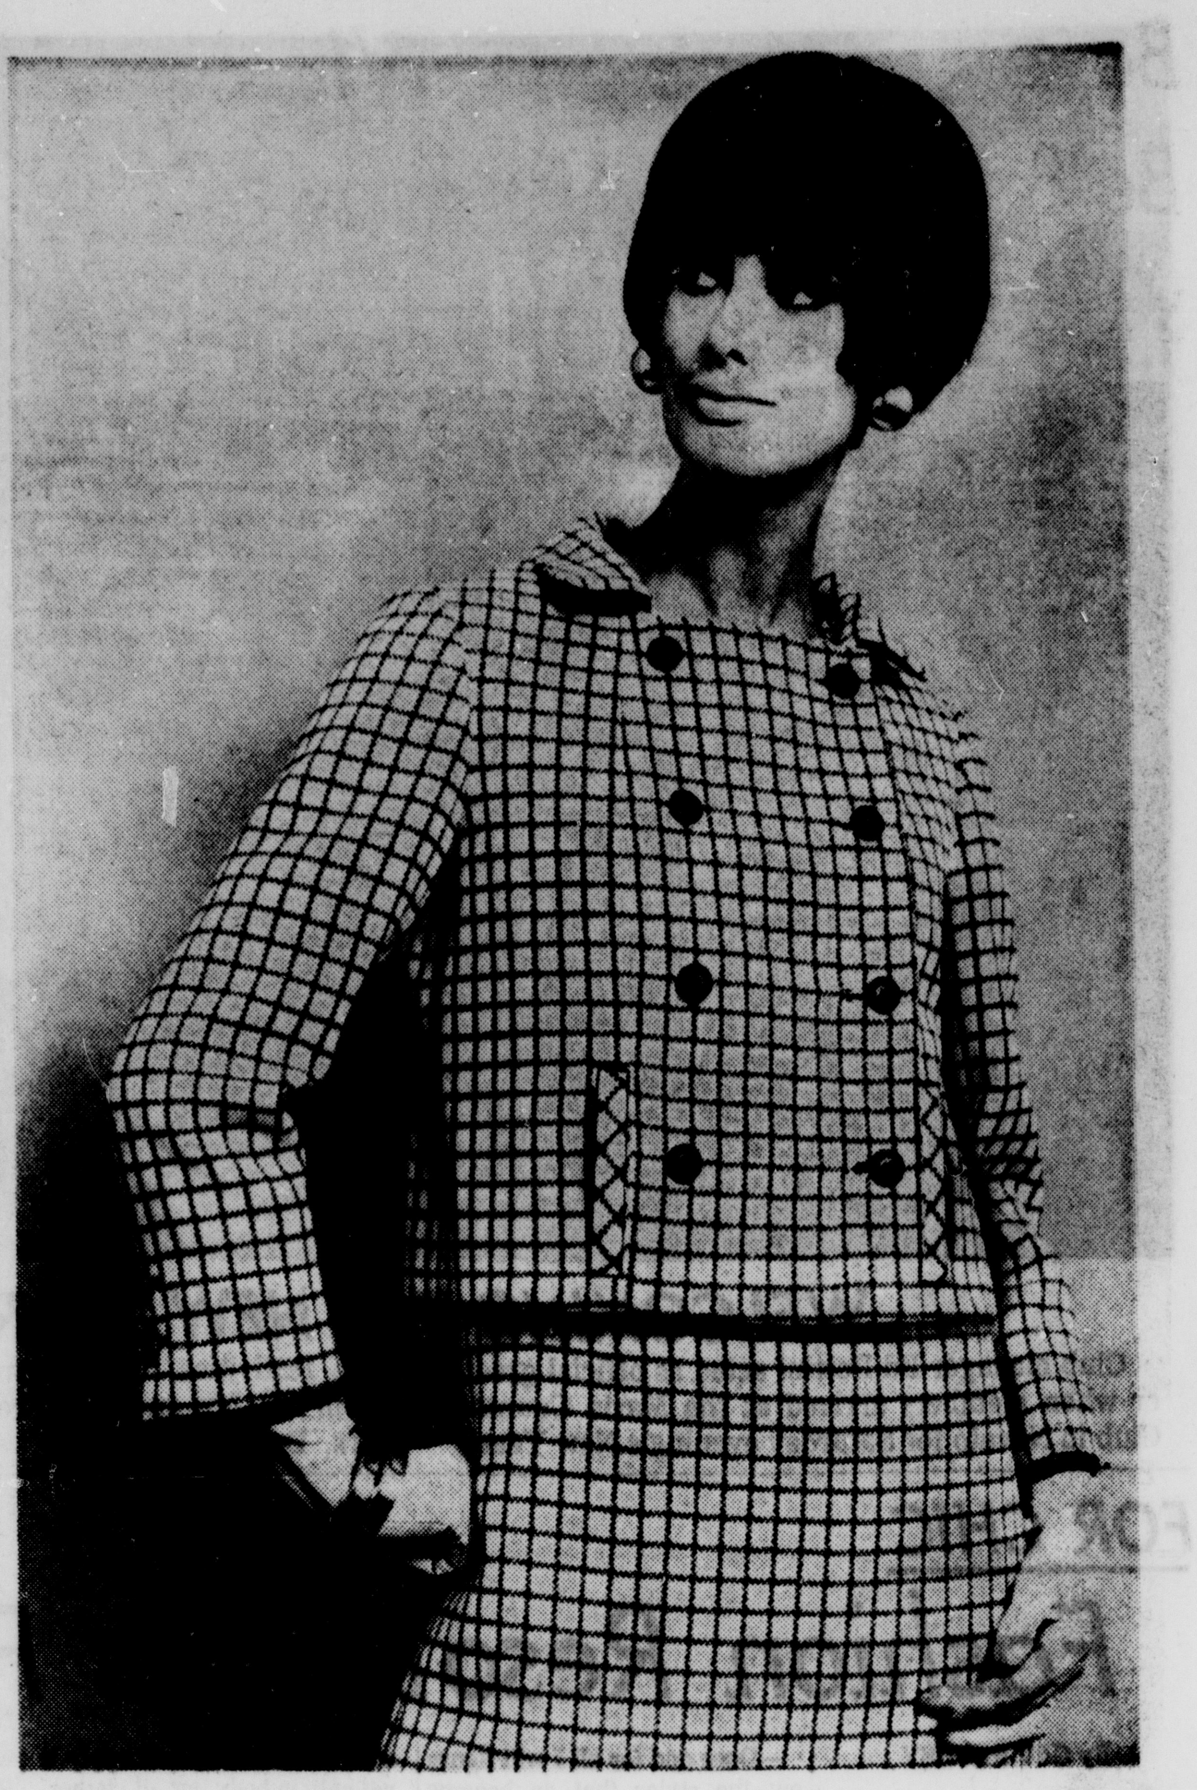
BEN REIG SAUCY SUIT

An infusion of youth comes to the typical elegance of a Ben Reig suit, done in navy and white shadow plaid wool with trim in-line jacket with notched collar. The skirt is double pleated to give it saucy movement.



WINDOW PANE LOOK

A lively costume in navy and white with a square neckline is a part of the American fashion scene for spring '67 as seen in this Jack Sarnoff design. The slim jacket is double breasted, and worn over a short sleeve skimmer. The A-line skirt allows freedom of movement.

FOR CHIC

Fashion Resolutions For '67

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—It's resolution time and don't forget it, if you would be among among the chic members of your set.

These suggested resolutions for the new year may not land you on that annual international list of best-dressed women that takes great wealth as well as great style, but they'll help to make a prettier, more confident you in '67.

RESOLVED THAT I WILL:

—Be a slave only to those fashions which become me and will not be pushed into purchase of something that deep within me I know is not my type. If the legs and the figure aren't the shapeliest and youngest, I'll let the mini-skirt belong to others.

—Once and for all I will figure out the styles that do become most, draw the most compliments from others, and plan my wardrobe accordingly. But I'll always take a look at the new trends, rather than get in a fashion rut.

—Follow a fad only if I can afford the fun, realizing that elegance comes in part from a well-planned and lasting wardrobe of good quality of cut and fabrics. Occasional indulgence in a new hair color, a new hairstyle, boots or lacy stockings do give a lift and do not splinter the pocketbook.

—FOLLOW FAITHFULLY the maxim that cleanlinessis next to Godliness and apply it not only to body but all clothes, keeping them carefully cleaned and pressed.

—Never say, "I'm too tired" at the close of the day and fail to cleanse the accumulation of makeup off either with that old fashioned soap and water method or with one of the cleansing lotions or creams. The chemists have done wonders for skin care.

—Use makeup with discretion, realizing that cosmetics are to enhance what nature gave me, not make me a caricature.

—Make sure that a sweet tooth or other food longing does not preclude the basics of good diet and good health. We are what we eat and I will include foods balanced to meet the daily needs—milk and cheese, meat, poultry, fish and eggs, vegetables and fruits, breads and cereals.

—NO LONGER PRETEND that the scales are off balance or that the thickening and sagging around the midsection are only temporary. If cutting calories is necessary, I shall begin immediately instead of "I'll really start tomorrow."

—Add some sort of daily exercise to my life, whether of the sitting-up type or a two-mile walk.

—Know that there'll be occasional lapses in the good intentions department, but if most are kept, a more modish '67 awaits.

Beverly Jean Sadler Will Be Bride Of Roy W. Prowell

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Sadler of Greenbrae have announced the engagement of their daughter, Beverly Jean, to Roy Walters Prowell Jr. of Pebble Beach at a family gathering at their home.

The bride-elect is the granddaughter of Mrs. A. M. Sadler of San Francisco and William S. Ashby of San Francisco, is the sister of Robert N. Sadler of San Jose.

Beverly was graduated from Redwood High School and attended University of California. She is presently attending the University of California Medical Center in San Francisco where she is a member of the California Club and is president of her senior dental hygiene class. She will receive her degree from the School of Dental Hygiene next June.

Walt is the son of Prof. and Mrs. Roy Walters Prowell of Pebble Beach and the brother of Mrs. Jack Arnold of Mill Valley.

The future bridegroom was graduated from Carmel High School after spending his junior year at the U.S. Air Force High School in Ankara, Turkey. He attended University of California at Davis where he was affiliated with Theta Xi fraternity and is now an orthodontics major in the Dental School at the University of California Medical Center, San Francisco. He is also a Regents' Scholar and a member of Psi Omega Dental fraternity.

Wedding plans are being made for next summer.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Here's A Fellow Who Just Sits Around All Day And Finds Fault

DEAR HELEN:

I know you shouldn't trust everybody, and that being a Pollyanna is corny, but how about people who see the worst in everything?

No matter who it is or what a person has done, this fellow knocks him down. He thinks everybody is out for what he can get and nobody does anything just to be kind or because he likes you. He says the people who join the Peace Corps only want a free tour of the world and something they can talk about to impress people or get themselves a good job later on.

He says all politicians are crooked and all parents "use" their kids one way or another, like pushing them into a big-name college so they can brag. He sneers at the people who aren't in the "in" crowd, and says those who are, are snobs.

He just sits around all day and finds fault. The only person he seems to like is himself. What's with a guy like that? Am I as naive as he tells me I am because I think most people try to do what's right? —SEMI-POLLYANNA.

DEAR S.P.:

You're much more right than your sour friend who, underneath, probably hates himself most of all. Unless someone can change his attitude — it may take an expert counselor — he's headed for a miserable, possibly dangerous, life.

Keep on being a "Semi-Pollyanna," but with your eyes open. I like this observation made by a friend: "If we knew all the facts, we'd find that almost everybody is better than he has any right to be, under the circumstances." Makes a lot of sense, doesn't it? — H.

DEAR HELEN:

Do you get many letters from teens who have thought about committing suicide? I get so depressed and worried and kind of pushed and pulled in my mind that I think about how peaceful it would be if I never again had to fight my parents or wonder why I am disliked, and can never do anything right.

Of course I'd never kill myself because even when I'm "down" I know I'll be "up" again and things aren't really that bad — I'm just dramatizing. But I worry about my thoughts of suicide. Am I normal?—WORRIER

DEAR WORRIER:

Almost everyone has thoughts of suicide at one time or another, especially if he "thinks inward" and can't talk out his problems — or believes no one cares enough to listen. Most such people are like you: temporarily "down" but aware their depressions will lift. You'll get over these feelings much faster if you find someone to discuss them with you.

For that matter, you can handle your depressions a lot better when you learn what really causes them. Try "pouring it out" to a sympathetic adult listener — a relative, your counselor, religious advisor, a wise friend . . . or write it out to an advice columnist. You'd be surprised how this helps, even if you never mail the letter!

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help you. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

MR. AND MRS. ROSCOE GILBERT PETERSON

Peterson-Nevil Rite Set In Marin

Trinity Lutheran Church in San Rafael was the setting of Dec. 24 for the 1 o'clock wedding of Barbara Jean Nevil of San Francisco and Roscoe Gilbert Peterson of Berkeley.

The Rev. Dr. A. C. Nitz, church pastor and former pastor of the Nevils in San Francisco, performed the ceremony.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at Forest Hills Clubhouse in San Francisco. The couple left on a wedding trip to Phoenix, Ariz., and will reside in Oakland on their return.

Roscoe, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Peterson of Billings, Mont., was graduated from University of Utah and is an account representative with International Business Machines. He worked on the county government system installed at the Marin Civic Center.

Barbara was graduated from Lincoln High School in San Francisco and University of California where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. She is a systems engineer with IBM.

Symphony Members, Families Will View Dress Rehearsals

The San Francisco Symphony Foundation will present the first of two full-scale dress rehearsals of the San Francisco Symphony, under the direction of Josef Krips on Saturday, for members and their families.

The youth-oriented benefit of the Foundation begins at 10 a.m. and will feature special displays of orchestral instruments and selected books from the San Francisco Public Library's Music and Art Department.

Working under the direction of chairman Mrs. Richard Caesar of San Francisco are committee chairmen Alan Harvey of Pacifica, instrumental display; Mrs. Patrick Fahey of Daly City, library display; Mrs. Carl G. Brown Jr. of Ross, refreshments, and Miss Paula Haller, San Francisco, hosts and hostesses.

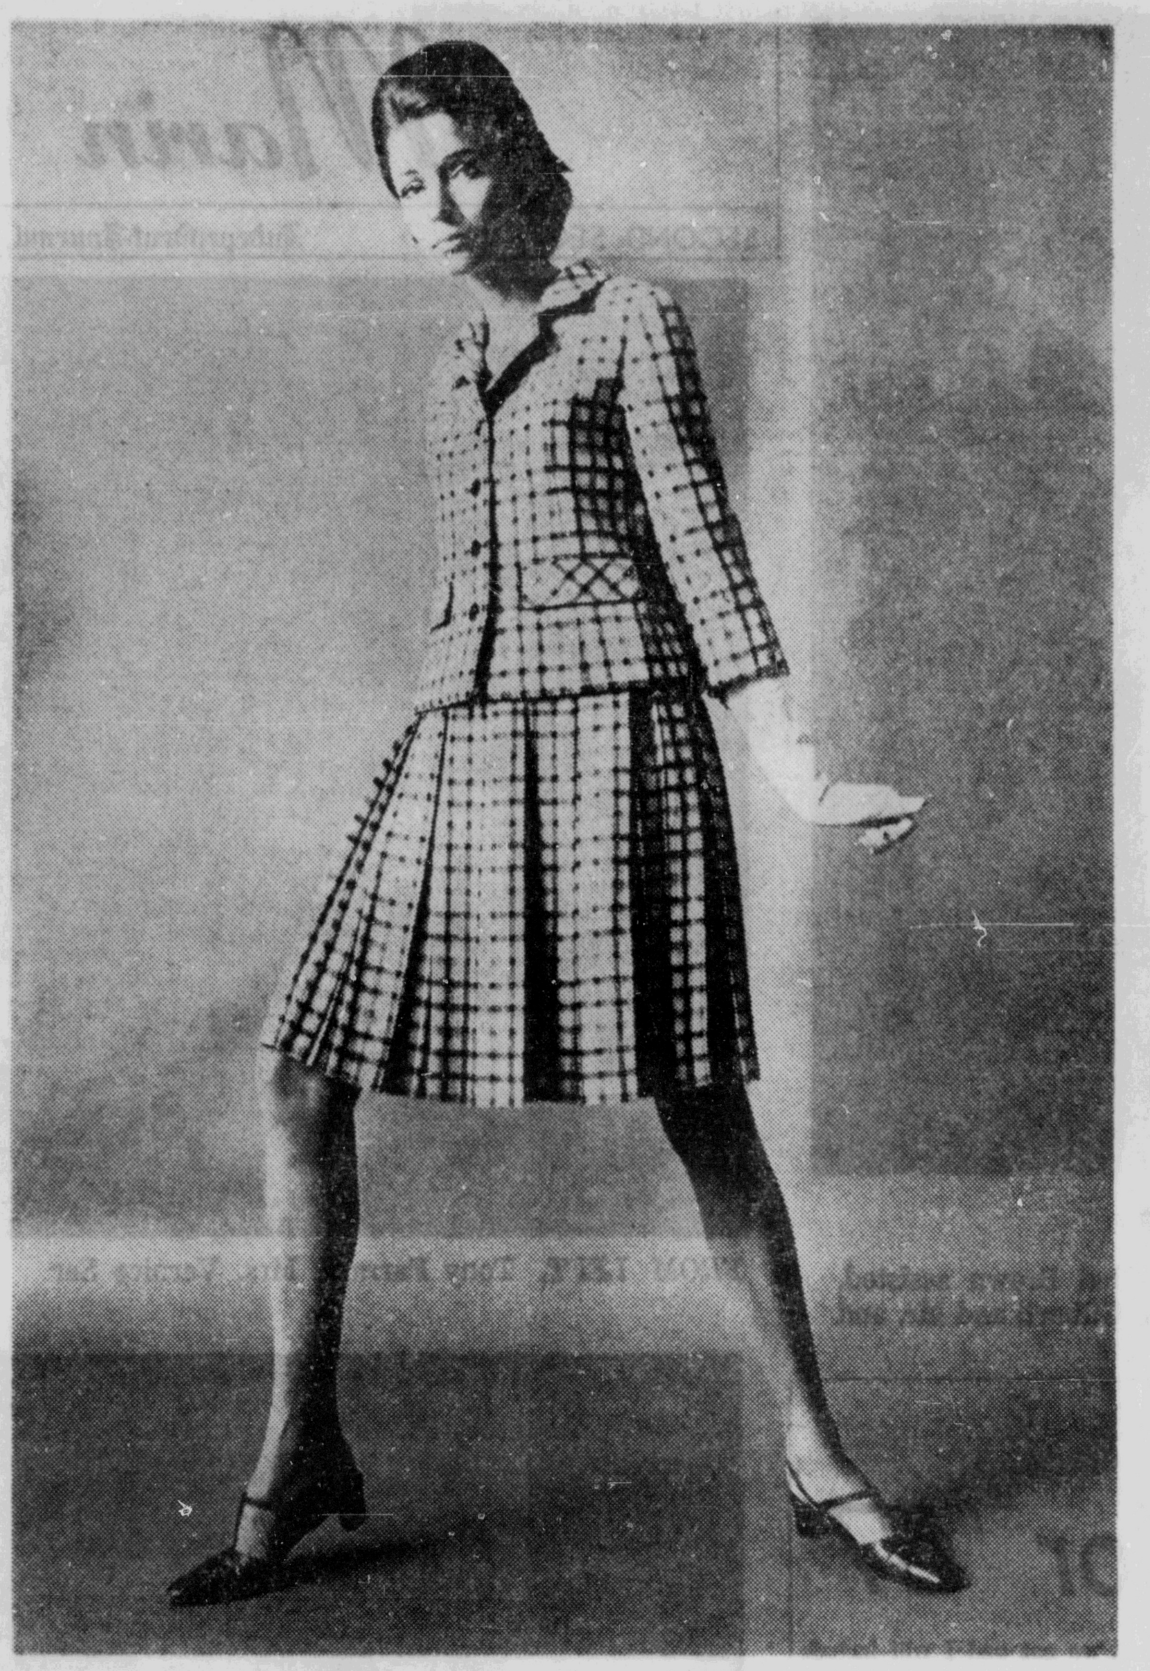
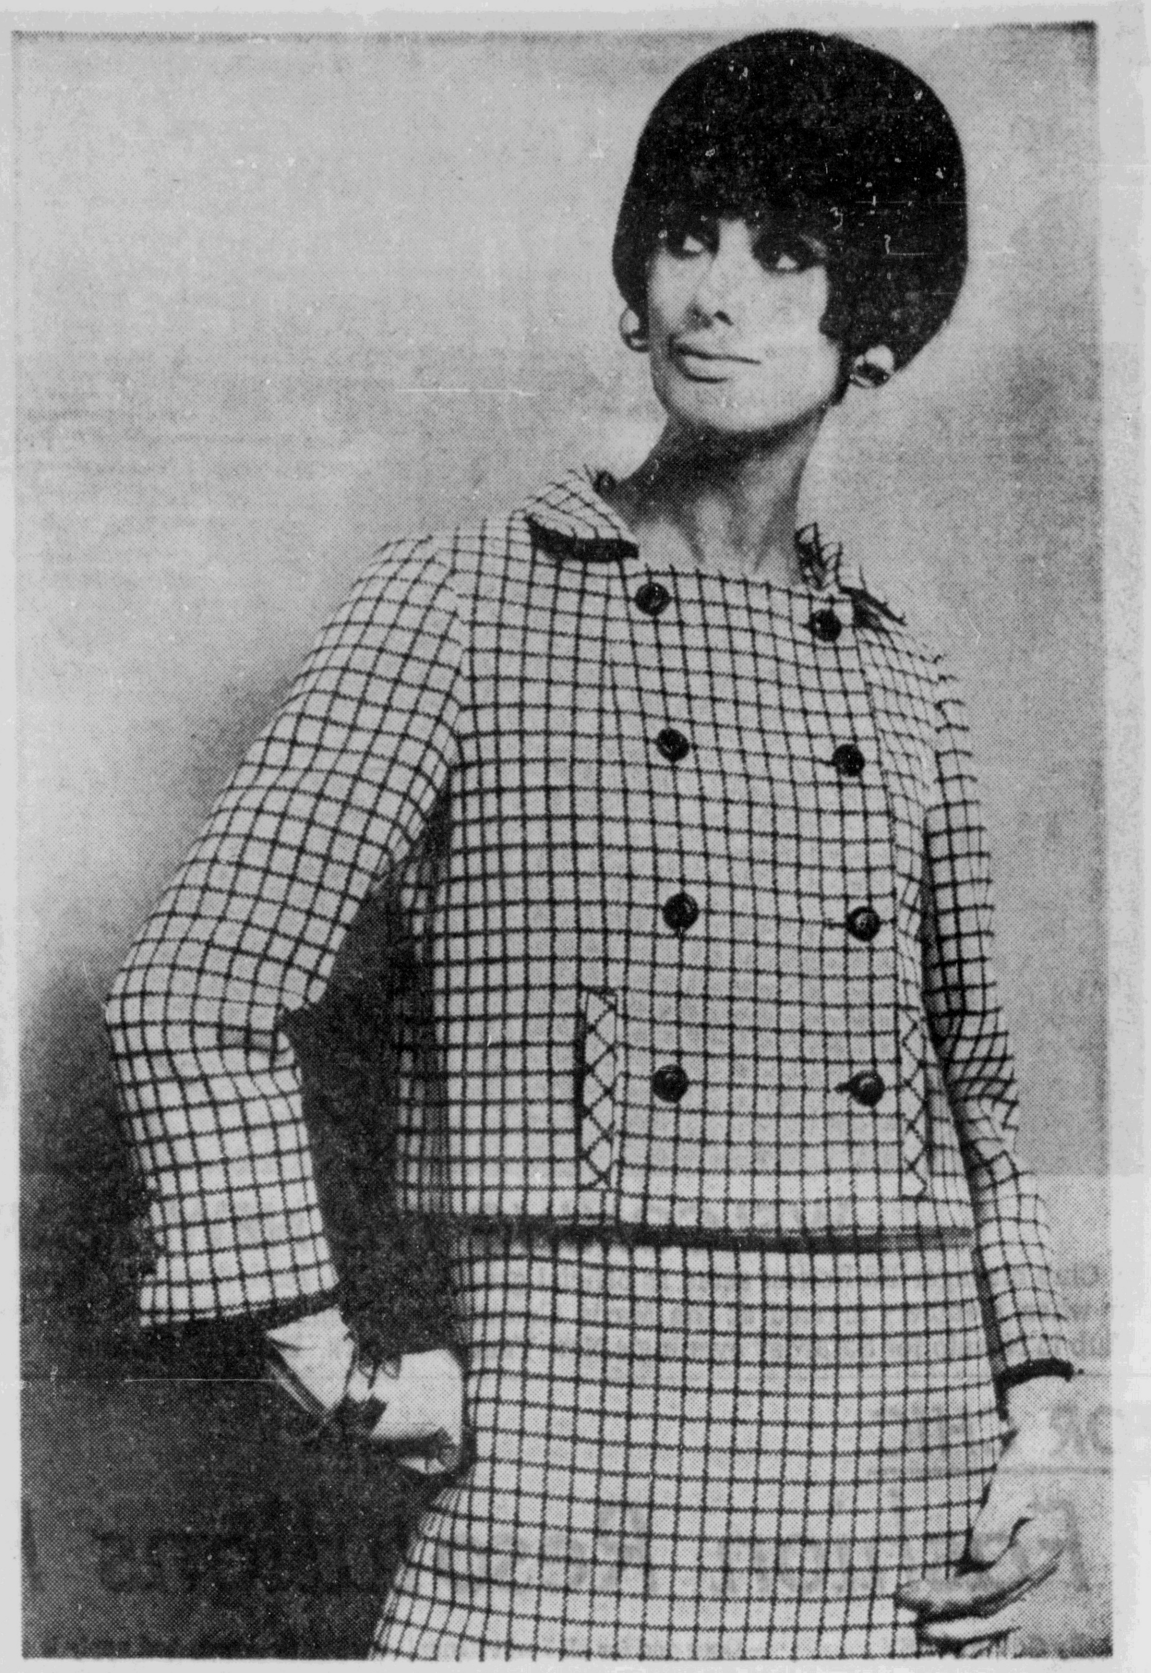
THAT TWINKLER

New York couturier fashions being unveiled this week in New York by Brandell include this completely beaded silk l'organza that glints and glidders from little sleeves to the hem, making a fluidly shaped dance dress. Appreciative audience is Broadway producer David Black.



BEN REIG SAUCY SUIT

An infusion of youth comes to the typical elegance of a Ben Reig suit, done in navy and white shadow plaid wool with trim in-line jacket with notched collar. The skirt is double pleated to give it saucy movement.



WINDOW PANE LOOK

A lively costume in navy and white with a square neckline is a part of the American fashion scene for spring '67 as seen in this Jack Sarnoff design. The slim jacket is double breasted, and worn over a short sleeve skimmer. The A-line skirt allows freedom of movement.

THE BIG ROSES PARADE PRIZE

This float, entered by South Pasadena, won the sweepstakes prize as the most beautiful of all in the Tournament of Roses parade at Pasadena. It was titled "A Voyage to Atlantis," and featured eight Grecian maidens on bounding porpoises and a giant clam shell in the parade yesterday. (AP Wirephoto)

Lynda, George Believed Hiding In Mexico City

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—Lynda Bird Johnson and actor-boyfriend George Hamilton were believed to be in hiding in Mexico City today.

Lynda and Hamilton left Acapulco, the jet-set resort where they spent a week's holiday, by car late yesterday afternoon. The U. S. Embassy in Mexico City confirmed they were headed for the capital, 250 miles to the north, and expected to arrive some time late last night.

The embassy said it was "not at liberty" to say where the pair will be staying.

But it was believed they were to be guests of U. S. Ambassador Fulton Freeman.

Lynda rang in the New Year with a big kiss for Hamilton at a lavish jet-set rock and roll party in Acapulco. Among the other guests were movie star John Wayne, the Henry Fords, and actor Peter Lawford, former brother-in-law of the late President John F. Kennedy.

State Pay Raise Bill Introduced

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A bill to give state employees pay raises ranging from 6 to 31 per cent was introduced in the Assembly today.

The bill by Assemblyman Edwin Z'berg, D-Sacramento, would appropriate $73.8 million for the raises, which would be effective July 1. The bill was sponsored by the 110,500-member California State Employees' Association.

The measure includes $4.6 million for state college nonacademic employes and $6.7 million for University of California nonacademic employes.

A similar bill was introduced in the Senate today.

There are about four million beef cattle in California.

Cuban Exile Reports Invasion Plan Killed

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — A Cuban exile said today that a vest-pocket invasion of Haiti, designed to eventually lead to a war against Fidel Castro, was squelched by the arrest of a heavily armed band of Latin exiles and American adventurers.

However, the chief of the operation, Rolando Masferrer, controversial onetime aide of Cuban dictator Fulgencio Batista, said 50 commandoes got away in a boat before customs agents made the arrests in a raid at a beachfront home in the middle of the Florida Keys last night.

But one of the company commanders said he escaped the roundup by crawling away in the darkness and hitching a ride to Miami.

The commander, Aton Constanzo Palau, later detailed the battle plans, which he said involved about 75 Cuban exiles, 30 Haitian exiles and 28 Americans.

He said 20 exiles already had been sneaked into Haiti and were supposed to attack and seize the airport at Cape Haitian this week.

Five propeller-driven planes would then use the airport as a base to bomb the garrison adjacent to the presidential palace at Port-au-Prince, Constanzo said.

The remainder of the little army was to land at Port-au-Prince, rally the rebels already in Haiti and replace dictator Francois Duvalier with Father Jean Baptiste Georges, Constanzo said.

Within 30 days the invaders hoped to build an army strong enough to strike across the narrow Windward Passage and overthrow Prime Minister Fidel Castro, Constanzo said.

The marshal's office listed 19 in custody in Key West—including a woman—and 51 in custody in Miami.

Among those in Key West was Father Georges, a former Haitian priest who was once education minister under Duvalier.

Customs agents, who had staked out the staging area in the Keys for days, moved in last night about 8:30 p.m.

Four to a car, 15 agents raced down a lonely road from Key Vaca, just north of Marathon, to Cocoa Plum Beach.

Poland Plans No More Flammable Dolls To U.S.

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — The director of the Polish firm that shipped in flammable dolls to the United States says the U.S. market in the future will get only dolls made with materials that won't burn.

Jan Ziemski of the Polish Coopexim Foreign Trade Trust said yesterday that the dolls have been shipped to the United States for 12 years and no complaints were received until late last year.

He said it was only recently and after "repeated requests" that the Polish Ministry of Chemical Industry has been able to supply non-combustible synthetics to the cooperative toy workshops.

Samples of the new, nonflammable materials which are used for the face and hair of the dolls, have been sent to New York for inspection, he said.

Marin firemen reported a total of 59 of the dolls turned in to them since the danger was revealed last week.

San Anselmo and Terra Linda led with 12. Corte Madera firemen received six, and Novato, Tiburon, Fairfax, and Marinwood, five each. Three each were turned in to Larkspur and Tamalpais Valley firemen, and one each to Alto-Richardson Bay, Ross and Kentfield firemen.

Terra Linda Fire Chief George Walser said that his men tell the doll owners they have two choices, either taken them back to the store where they were purchased to get a refund or else leave them with firemen to be destroyed.

When the dolls have been sent as presents from out of state, the owners usually decided to have them destroyed, Chief Chief Walser said.

In 1872, Thomas Edison became the first man to patent an electric typewriter.

Child Beating Charge Draws Plea Of Guilty

Eugene A. Boehm, 21, pleaded guilty in Marin Superior Court today to a felony charge of child beating in the Aug. 18 death of the 16-month-old son of his common-law wife.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson then dismissed a charge of murder, on recommendation of Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales. The judge said the recommendation was justified in view of the other plea.

He scheduled sentencing for Feb. 6.

Boehm, originally scheduled for jury trial Jan. 16 on the two charges, beat Timothy Wayne Buckley, son of Mrs. Roberta Marie Buckley, at 70 Lucky Drive Greenbrae, where the trio lived.

Dr. Arthur R. Ablin, one of three physicians at Marin General Hospital who attempted to save the child's life, described it as the worst beating of the kind he had ever seen.

Boehm, an unemployed furniture finisher, had claimed the child was injured in falling from a table in the home and from the seat of a car.

A felony complaint against Mrs. Buckley, charged with failure to inform police of the beating, was dismissed in Marin Municipal Court because she had been granted immunity in Marin Superior Court from prosecution on testimony she gave at Boehm's preliminary hearing.

DRAMA REVIEW

Company Captures Moliere Just Right

By KARL BARRON

SAN FRANCISCO — In the minds of some theater people, Moliere has taken on almost the halo of Shakespeare—that is, there is a cult which feels that Moliere can be played only with a sort of dandified reverence.

Praises be that the National Repertory Theater and director Jack Sydow are not of this cult. In the Miles Malleson adaptation of "The Imaginary Invalid," which opened NRT'S season at the Curran last night, the great French playwright is presented with no holds barred, and its a great evening of theater.

The play is a farce, satirizing the doctors of Moliere's period (and ours?) who prey upon the hypochondriacs—who are always with us. Not even Monsieur Argan, the invalid, is fooled as he describes the medical men: "They cling together like the leeches they are."

Around Argan's non-existent illness is built a silly plot to marry his daughter to a doctor she doesn't wish to marry, and her step-mother's desire to leech Argan's wealth away from him.

In lesser hands than NRT, the play can be a huge bore. Here it is fantastically good theater which sings with the joy of living and loving.

The reason for the stellar company is a paradox. Unlike last year's company, there are no stars, but instead a tightly knit group of excellent actors, almost all with repertory background, and all with obvious theatrical dedication and tremendous enjoyment of what they're doing.

Argan, who is on stage for all but a few seconds of the show, is portrayed zestfully by G. Wood. From the opening scene of toting up his apothecary bills to the closing dance with the entire cast in absurd costumes, he is a joy to watch. Whether taking his own pulse, thwacking at Toinette, the maid, with his cane, or sagging dolefully into his chair with an imminent (and always imaginary) heart attack, Wood maintains a character to his very fingertips.

Running him a close second is Sloane Shelton as Toinette. Miss Shelton bounces about the stage as though she she rubber balls in her shoes, stirs his medicine with a finger turns gestures behind his back into frantic gnat-chasing when detected, and tops it playing a whole scene with herself in disguise. She's completely delightful.

Other outstanding work comes from Danholm Elliott and Geddeth Smith as Dr. Diaforus and his son; Jeanne Hepple as Argan's avaricious wife; Louis Turenne as Bonnefoy the lawyer, and Joan Bassie and John Church as the young lovers.

Drawing a well deserved hand for his single frenetic scene was Geoff Garland as Dr. Purgon. Garland plays him as sort of strutting penguin who never ceases to move, yet never allows the movement to pall.

Ingenious use of original music by Dean Fuller to introduce new characters adds to the pace of the play, and the single set by Will Steven Armstrong, which features row upon row of medicine bottles, is charming.

Sydow has directed with acute tightness, seizing on every opportunity for comedy which Moliere offers, and adding a good bit of his own.

Other plays in this season's bill are Eugene O'Neill's "A Touch of Poet" and Noel Coward's "Tonight At 8:30." The one-acters from Coward's nine play gem are "Ways and Means," "Still Life," and "Fumed Oak."

They will be presented in repertory nightly except Sunday at 8:30, with matinees at 2:30 on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, through Jan. 21.

Battery Is Stolen

A battery valued at $20 was stolen from her car parked in the garage of her home at 116 Mission Avenue, San Rafael, Marion W. Nichols told police Friday.

Every year, 100,000 cubic miles of water is evaporated from the earth's surface.

Annual Show Held For Prison Inmates

About 2,800 San Quentin Prison inmates sat for five and one-half hours in the institution's north dining hall yesterday as Bay Area performers presented the prison's 52nd annual New Year's Day "Show of Stars."

The show, organized by San Francisco entrepeneur William Van Ornum, ran from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Treated For Overdose

Barbara Ann Gonzales, 32, of 44 Jade Court, At. 4. Novato, was treated yesterday at Novato Hospital from an overdose of sleeping tablets, according to Novato police.

Beverly Jean Sadler Will Be Bride Of Roy W. Prowell

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Sadler of Greenbrae have announced the engagement of their daughter, Beverly Jean, to Roy Walters Prowell Jr. of Pebble Beach at a family gathering at their home.

The bride-elect is the granddaughter of Mrs. A. M. Sadler of San Francisco and William S. Ashby of San Francisco, is the sister of Robert N. Sadler of San Jose.

Beverly was graduated from Redwood High School and attended University of California. She is presently attending the University of California Medical Center in San Francisco where she is a member of the California Club and is president of her senior dental hygiene class. She will receive her degree from the School of Dental Hygiene next June.

Walt is the son of Prof. and Mrs. Roy Walters Prowell of Pebble Beach and the brother of Mrs. Jack Arnold of Mill Valley.

The future bridegroom was graduated from Carmel High School after spending his junior year at the U.S. Air Force High School in Ankara, Turkey. He attended University of California at Davis where he was affiliated with Theta Xi fraternity and is now an orthodontics major in the Dental School at the University of California Medical Center, San Francisco. He is also a Regents' Scholar and a member of Psi Omega Dental fraternity.

Wedding plans are being made for next summer.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Here's A Fellow Who Just Sits Around All Day And Finds Fault

DEAR HELEN:

I know you shouldn't trust everybody, and that being a Pollyanna is corny, but how about people who see the worst in everything?

No matter who it is or what a person has done, this fellow knocks him down. He thinks everybody is out for what he can get and nobody does anything just to be kind or because he likes you. He says the people who join the Peace Corps only want a free tour of the world and something they can talk about to impress people or get themselves a good job later on.

He says all politicians are crooked and all parents "use" their kids one way or another, like pushing them into a big-name college so they can brag. He sneers at the people who aren't in the "in" crowd, and says those who are, are snobs.

He just sits around all day and finds fault. The only person he seems to like is himself. What's with a guy like that? Am I as naive as he tells me I am because I think most people try to do what's right? —SEMI-POLLYANNA.

DEAR S.P.:

You're much more right than your sour friend who, underneath, probably hates himself most of all. Unless someone can change his attitude — it may take an expert counselor — he's headed for a miserable, possibly dangerous, life.

Keep on being a "Semi-Pollyanna," but with your eyes open. I like this observation made by a friend: "If we knew all the facts, we'd find that almost everybody is better than he has any right to be, under the circumstances." Makes a lot of sense, doesn't it? — H.

DEAR HELEN:

Do you get many letters from teens who have thought about committing suicide? I get so depressed and worried and kind of pushed and pulled in my mind that I think about how peaceful it would be if I never again had to fight my parents or wonder why I am disliked, and can never do anything right.

Of course I'd never kill myself because even when I'm "down" I know I'll be "up" again and things aren't really that bad — I'm just dramatizing. But I worry about my thoughts of suicide. Am I normal?—WORRIER

DEAR WORRIER:

Almost everyone has thoughts of suicide at one time or another, especially if he "thinks inward" and can't talk out his problems — or believes no one cares enough to listen. Most such people are like you: temporarily "down" but aware their depressions will lift. You'll get over these feelings much faster if you find someone to discuss them with you.

For that matter, you can handle your depressions a lot better when you learn what really causes them. Try "pouring it out" to a sympathetic adult listener — a relative, your counselor, religious advisor, a wise friend . . . or write it out to an advice columnist. You'd be surprised how this helps, even if you never mail the letter!

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help you. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

Peterson-Nevil Rite Set In Marin

Trinity Lutheran Church in San Rafael was the setting of Dec. 24 for the 1 o'clock wedding of Barbara Jean Nevil of San Francisco and Roscoe Gilbert Peterson of Berkeley.

The Rev. Dr. A. C. Nitz, church pastor and former pastor of the Nevils in San Francisco, performed the ceremony.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at Forest Hills Clubhouse in San Francisco. The couple left on a wedding trip to Phoenix, Ariz., and will reside in Oakland on their return.

Roscoe, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Peterson of Billings, Mont., was graduated from University of Utah and is an account representative with International Business Machines. He worked on the county government system installed at the Marin Civic Center.

Barbara was graduated from Lincoln High School in San Francisco and University of California where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. She is a systems engineer with IBM.

Symphony Members, Families Will View Dress Rehearsals

The San Francisco Symphony Foundation will present the first of two full-scale dress rehearsals of the San Francisco Symphony, under the direction of Josef Krips on Saturday, for members and their families.

The youth-oriented benefit of the Foundation begins at 10 a.m. and will feature special displays of orchestral instruments and selected books from the San Francisco Public Library's Music and Art Department.

Working under the direction of chairman Mrs. Richard Caesar of San Francisco are committee chairmen Alan Harvey of Pacifica, instrumental display; Mrs. Patrick Fahey of Daly City, library display; Mrs. Carl G. Brown Jr. of Ross, refreshments, and Miss Paula Haller, San Francisco, hosts and hostesses.

AUDUBON FRIEND—Richard Miller of San Anselmo displayed a few of the stamp books collected by his 4-H Club to buy land for the Audubon Canyon Ranch.

Ross Valley 4-H Club Contributes Audubon Land

When the Audubon Society achieves debt-free ownership of its 567-acre Audubon Canyon Ranch near Bolinas early this year, two of those acres will have been contributed by the enterprising Ross Valley 4-H Club.

Under the leadership of its 17-year-old president, Richard Miller of San Anselmo, the club has collected enough Blue Chip stamps over the past two years to make the $800-an-acre gift to the society.

"We were going for a third acre," Richard said yesterday, "but the society has all its land now. Instead, we'll use the stamps we collect to help build, maintain and staff the society's planned nature-education center at the canyon."

Richard, a senior at Sir Francis Drake High School and a 4-H'er for seven years, said the project got started two years ago, when he and fellow club members were on a "forage field trip" and visited the canyon. "We learned they were buying the land, and it seemed a worthy cause," he said.

It was the club's leader, Mrs. Brian Youngclaus of Fairfax, who solved the problem of raising money, suggesting the stamps which Blue Chip Stamp Co. will redeem at $2 a book for charitable organizations. At $800 an acre, the club members collected 800 books to make its two-acre gift, a total of 960,000 stamps.

Everyone who has sent in a book, or even a few stamps has received a thank-you letter from the club. That's "not only good manners, it's good business," said Richard. "It encourages people to send more." Some, he said, have sent in about 10 or 12 times. The biggest contributor was the one who sent 30 books worth about $60, he said.

With the land-buying project behind them, the club members are even more enthusiastic about the society's nature - education center, which Richard described as "a place for school kids and others to go and learn."

The $215 banked last month from redemption of 107.5 books is now earmarked for the center. Anyone interested in helping the club with this project, Richard said, may send their Blue Chip stamps to the Ross Valley 4-H Club, c/o the Marin County Agriculture Department, Civic Center, San Rafael.

Crash Kills Two Near Vallejo

VALLEJO (UPI) — A Vallejo couple was killed last night in a three-car collision on Highway 37 just west of here.

Julius Salner, 64, concertmaster of the Vallejo Symphony Orchestra, and his wife, Ruby, 65, were killed when their car veered across the center of the highway.

Highway patrolmen said Salner's car collided head-on with a vehicle driven by Frederick Hansen, 30, Palo Alto. Hansen and his wife, Marilyn, 27, suffered serious injuries and were hospitalized. A third car plowed into the vehicles, but the driver was not hurt.

The Hunters Point Naval Shipyard in San Francisco has the only dry-dock on the West Coast capable of handling the Navy's largest aircraft carriers.

Lynda, George Believed Hiding In Mexico City

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—Lynda Bird Johnson and actor-boyfriend George Hamilton were believed to be in hiding in Mexico City today.

Lynda and Hamilton left Acapulco, the jet-set resort where they spent a week's holiday, by car late yesterday afternoon. The U. S. Embassy in Mexico City confirmed they were headed for the capital, 250 miles to the north, and expected to arrive some time late last night.

The embassy said it was "not at liberty" to say where the pair will be staying.

But it was believed they were to be guests of U. S. Ambassador Fulton Freeman.

Lynda rang in the New Year with a big kiss for Hamilton at a lavish jet-set rock and roll party in Acapulco. Among the other guests were movie star John Wayne, the Henry Fords, and actor Peter Lawford, former brother-in-law of the late President John F. Kennedy.

State Pay Raise Bill Introduced

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A bill to give state employees pay raises ranging from 6 to 31 per cent was introduced in the Assembly today.

The bill by Assemblyman Edwin Z'berg, D-Sacramento, would appropriate $73.8 million for the raises, which would be effective July 1. The bill was sponsored by the 110,500-member California State Employees' Association.

The measure includes $4.6 million for state college nonacademic employes and $6.7 million for University of California nonacademic employes.

A similar bill was introduced in the Senate today.

There are about four million beef cattle in California.

Cuban Exile Reports Invasion Plan Killed

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — A Cuban exile said today that a vest-pocket invasion of Haiti, designed to eventually lead to a war against Fidel Castro, was squelched by the arrest of a heavily armed band of Latin exiles and American adventurers.

However, the chief of the operation, Rolando Masferrer, controversial onetime aide of Cuban dictator Fulgencio Batista, said 50 commandoes got away in a boat before customs agents made the arrests in a raid at a beachfront home in the middle of the Florida Keys last night.

But one of the company commanders said he escaped the roundup by crawling away in the darkness and hitching a ride to Miami.

The commander, Aton Constanzo Palau, later detailed the battle plans, which he said involved about 75 Cuban exiles, 30 Haitian exiles and 28 Americans.

He said 20 exiles already had been sneaked into Haiti and were supposed to attack and seize the airport at Cape Haitian this week.

Five propeller-driven planes would then use the airport as a base to bomb the garrison adjacent to the presidential palace at Port-au-Prince, Constanzo said.

The remainder of the little army was to land at Port-au-Prince, rally the rebels already in Haiti and replace dictator Francois Duvalier with Father Jean Baptiste Georges, Constanzo said.

Within 30 days the invaders hoped to build an army strong enough to strike across the narrow Windward Passage and overthrow Prime Minister Fidel Castro, Constanzo said.

The marshal's office listed 19 in custody in Key West—including a woman—and 51 in custody in Miami.

Among those in Key West was Father Georges, a former Haitian priest who was once education minister under Duvalier.

Customs agents, who had staked out the staging area in the Keys for days, moved in last night about 8:30 p.m.

Four to a car, 15 agents raced down a lonely road from Key Vaca, just north of Marathon, to Cocoa Plum Beach.

Poland Plans No More Flammable Dolls To U.S.

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — The director of the Polish firm that shipped in flammable dolls to the United States says the U.S. market in the future will get only dolls made with materials that won't burn.

Jan Ziemski of the Polish Coopexim Foreign Trade Trust said yesterday that the dolls have been shipped to the United States for 12 years and no complaints were received until late last year.

He said it was only recently and after "repeated requests" that the Polish Ministry of Chemical Industry has been able to supply non-combustible synthetics to the cooperative toy workshops.

Samples of the new, nonflammable materials which are used for the face and hair of the dolls, have been sent to New York for inspection, he said.

Marin firemen reported a total of 59 of the dolls turned in to them since the danger was revealed last week.

San Anselmo and Terra Linda led with 12. Corte Madera firemen received six, and Novato, Tiburon, Fairfax, and Marinwood, five each. Three each were turned in to Larkspur and Tamalpais Valley firemen, and one each to Alto-Richardson Bay, Ross and Kentfield firemen.

Terra Linda Fire Chief George Walser said that his men tell the doll owners they have two choices, either taken them back to the store where they were purchased to get a refund or else leave them with firemen to be destroyed.

When the dolls have been sent as presents from out of state, the owners usually decided to have them destroyed, Chief Chief Walser said.

In 1872, Thomas Edison became the first man to patent an electric typewriter.

Child Beating Charge Draws Plea Of Guilty

Eugene A. Boehm, 21, pleaded guilty in Marin Superior Court today to a felony charge of child beating in the Aug. 18 death of the 16-month-old son of his common-law wife.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson then dismissed a charge of murder, on recommendation of Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales. The judge said the recommendation was justified in view of the other plea.

He scheduled sentencing for Feb. 6.

Boehm, originally scheduled for jury trial Jan. 16 on the two charges, beat Timothy Wayne Buckley, son of Mrs. Roberta Marie Buckley, at 70 Lucky Drive Greenbrae, where the trio lived.

Dr. Arthur R. Ablin, one of three physicians at Marin General Hospital who attempted to save the child's life, described it as the worst beating of the kind he had ever seen.

Boehm, an unemployed furniture finisher, had claimed the child was injured in falling from a table in the home and from the seat of a car.

A felony complaint against Mrs. Buckley, charged with failure to inform police of the beating, was dismissed in Marin Municipal Court because she had been granted immunity in Marin Superior Court from prosecution on testimony she gave at Boehm's preliminary hearing.

DRAMA REVIEW

Company Captures Moliere Just Right

By KARL BARRON

SAN FRANCISCO — In the minds of some theater people, Moliere has taken on almost the halo of Shakespeare—that is, there is a cult which feels that Moliere can be played only with a sort of dandified reverence.

Praises be that the National Repertory Theater and director Jack Sydow are not of this cult. In the Miles Malleson adaptation of "The Imaginary Invalid," which opened NRT'S season at the Curran last night, the great French playwright is presented with no holds barred, and its a great evening of theater.

The play is a farce, satirizing the doctors of Moliere's period (and ours?) who prey upon the hypochondriacs—who are always with us. Not even Monsieur Argan, the invalid, is fooled as he describes the medical men: "They cling together like the leeches they are."

Around Argan's non-existent illness is built a silly plot to marry his daughter to a doctor she doesn't wish to marry, and her step-mother's desire to leech Argan's wealth away from him.

In lesser hands than NRT, the play can be a huge bore. Here it is fantastically good theater which sings with the joy of living and loving.

The reason for the stellar company is a paradox. Unlike last year's company, there are no stars, but instead a tightly knit group of excellent actors, almost all with repertory background, and all with obvious theatrical dedication and tremendous enjoyment of what they're doing.

Argan, who is on stage for all but a few seconds of the show, is portrayed zestfully by G. Wood. From the opening scene of toting up his apothecary bills to the closing dance with the entire cast in absurd costumes, he is a joy to watch. Whether taking his own pulse, thwacking at Toinette, the maid, with his cane, or sagging dolefully into his chair with an imminent (and always imaginary) heart attack, Wood maintains a character to his very fingertips.

Running him a close second is Sloane Shelton as Toinette. Miss Shelton bounces about the stage as though she she rubber balls in her shoes, stirs his medicine with a finger turns gestures behind his back into frantic gnat-chasing when detected, and tops it playing a whole scene with herself in disguise. She's completely delightful.

Other outstanding work comes from Danholm Elliott and Geddeth Smith as Dr. Diaforus and his son; Jeanne Hepple as Argan's avaricious wife; Louis Turenne as Bonnefoy the lawyer, and Joan Bassie and John Church as the young lovers.

Drawing a well deserved hand for his single frenetic scene was Geoff Garland as Dr. Purgon. Garland plays him as sort of strutting penguin who never ceases to move, yet never allows the movement to pall.

Others contributing to the fine ensemble work are Patricia Guinan, John Straub, and Les Barkdull.

Ingenious use of original music by Dean Fuller to introduce new characters adds to the pace of the play, and the single set by Will Steven Armstrong, which features row upon row of medicine bottles, is charming.

Sydow has directed with acute tightness, seizing on every opportunity for comedy which Moliere offers, and adding a good bit of his own.

Other plays in this season's bill are Eugene O'Neill's "A Touch of Poet" and Noel Coward's "Tonight At 8:30." The one-acters from Coward's nine play gem are "Ways and Means," "Still Life," and "Fumed Oak."

They will be presented in repertory nightly except Sunday at 8:30, with matinees at 2:30 on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, through Jan. 21.

Annual Show Held For Prison Inmates

About 2,800 San Quentin Prison inmates sat for five and one-half hours in the institution's north dining hall yesterday as Bay Area performers presented the prison's 52nd annual New Year's Day "Show of Stars."

The show, organized by San Francisco entrepeneur William Van Ornum, ran from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Treated For Overdose

Barbara Ann Gonzales, 32, of 44 Jade Court, At. 4. Novato, was treated yesterday at Novato Hospital from an overdose of sleeping tablets, according to Novato police.

AUDUBON FRIEND—Richard Miller of San Anselmo displayed a few of the stamp books collected by his 4-H Club to buy land for the Audubon Canyon Ranch.

Ross Valley 4-H Club Contributes Audubon Land

When the Audubon Society achieves debt-free ownership of its 567-acre Audubon Canyon Ranch near Bolinas early this year, two of those acres will have been contributed by the enterprising Ross Valley 4-H Club.

Under the leadership of its 17-year-old president, Richard Miller of San Anselmo, the club has collected enough Blue Chip stamps over the past two years to make the $800-an-acre gift to the society.

"We were going for a third acre," Richard said yesterday, "but the society has all its land now. Instead, we'll use the stamps we collect to help build, maintain and staff the society's planned nature-education center at the canyon."

Richard, a senior at Sir Francis Drake High School and a 4-H'er for seven years, said the project got started two years ago, when he and fellow club members were on a "forage field trip" and visited the canyon. "We learned they were buying the land, and it seemed a worthy cause," he said.

It was the club's leader, Mrs. Brian Youngclaus of Fairfax, who solved the problem of raising money, suggesting the stamps which Blue Chip Stamp Co. will redeem at $2 a book for charitable organizations. At $800 an acre, the club members collected 800 books to make its two-acre gift, a total of 960,000 stamps.

Everyone who has sent in a book, or even a few stamps has received a thank-you letter from the club. That's "not only good manners, it's good business," said Richard. "It encourages people to send more." Some, he said, have sent in about 10 or 12 times. The biggest contributor was the one who sent 30 books worth about $60, he said.

With the land-buying project behind them, the club members are even more enthusiastic about the society's nature-education center, which Richard described as "a place for school kids and others to go and learn."

The $215 banked last month from redemption of 107.5 books is now earmarked for the center. Anyone interested in helping the club with this project, Richard said, may send their Blue Chip stamps to the Ross Valley 4-H Club, c/o the Marin County Agriculture Department, Civic Center, San Rafael.

Crash Kills Two Near Vallejo

VALLEJO (UPI) — A Vallejo couple was killed last night in a three-car collision on Highway 37 just west of here.

Julius Salner, 64, concertmaster of the Vallejo Symphony Orchestra, and his wife, Ruby, 65, were killed when their car veered across the center of the highway.

Highway patrolmen said Salner's car collided head-on with a vehicle driven by Frederick Hansen, 30, Palo Alto. Hansen and his wife, Marilyn, 27, suffered serious injuries and were hospitalized. A third car plowed into the vehicles, but the driver was not hurt.

The Hunters Point Naval Shipyard in San Francisco has the only dry-dock on the West Coast capable of handling the Navy's largest aircraft carriers.

Utility Use Reported Up, Rates Down

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A state Public Utilities Commission report for the last fiscal year showed the number of utility users increased as utility rates decreased.

In the report released yesterday the PUC said rates to customers had been reduced by more $13.7 million during the period ending last June 30.

Increases of $4.9 million were granted to some utility companies including Pacific Telephone which won a $3.6 million chunk. However, much of Pacific Telephone's rate increase was for directory advertising which does not affect most customers.

Telephone companies in general were the most active of the major utilities, according to the report. A 6.2 per cent increase in the number of phones raised the state's total to 10.5 million.

The gas customers increased 2.8 per cent to 5.2 million while electricity customers increased 3.7 per cent to 4.85 million.

The PUC's decisions to maintain the present level of train service in the state were also recorded in the report. The commission refused to allow Southern Pacific to eliminate the Lark, the overnight train between Los Angeles and San Francisco. A request to terminate the San Joaquin Daylight at Bakersfield instead of Los Angeles was also refused.

The commission also ordered the Northwestern Pacific to resume passenger service between Willits and Eureka.

School Delay Report Is Due

Fairafx School District trustees will receive a report on rain-caused delays in site development at the new White Hill School when the board meets at 7:45 p.m. today in the district offices at 58 Park Road.

The board will receive a request from music director J. D. Nichols to approve plans for Fairfax students to participate in three Bay Area music festivals in April. Nichols wants to take a clarinet quartet and a woodwind quartet to Sebastopol April 1, a chorus to Tiburon April 22, and a band to Napa April 29.

Trustee Fay Jensen will report on the California School Boards Assn. conference Dec. 7-10 in San Diego.

Appropriation Bill Introduced

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — An urgency appropriation bill has been introduced in the legislature to extend education aid to about 1,000 widows and children of dead and disabled veterans who have been denied benefits because of a shortage of funds.

Sen. J. Eugene McAteer, D-San Francisco, yesterday introduced the measure, which he said would add $457,000 to the current budget.

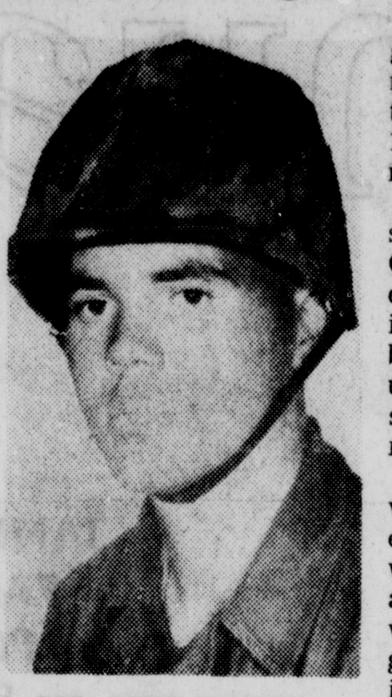
Light For Dog Costly For Home

LEVELLAND, Tex. (UPI)—It cost Martin Alsup $2,000 to put an electric light in a dog house to keep his Chihuahua warm.

Defective wiring started a fire which spread to Alsup's home and caused $2,000 damage. The dog, found hiding under a bed, was revived by firemen.

Cartoon With Sgt. Mike Starts In Today's Edition Of The I-J



SGT. MIKE HODGSON
His cartoons start

"First I fire warning shots; then I fire at them."

So wrote Mike Hodgson of a Vietnam skirmish. His cartoon feature, With Sgt. Mike, starts today in the Independent-Journal.

Hodgson is a typical American boy — he was under 18 when he enlisted in the Marines—who suddenly found himself in Vietnam along with a lot of other American boys.

He went to high school in Sacramento where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hodgson, live with two other children, a younger brother and sister.

His schoolmates recall him as a quiet, reserved youth who didn't drink or smoke. He was just a normal American kid with a regular haircut and sports trousers that were neither too baggy nor too tight. His hobbies were racing slot cars, collecting stamps and fishing the American river with time out to sing in the school glee club and his church choir.

As a boy Hodgson was always rather handy with a pen and sold some sketches to businessmen in Sacramento. He had a girl and he wanted to be married so he persuaded his parents to let him join the Marines in 1964 as a means of saving the necessary money.

Boot camp was followed by special training at California's Camp Pendleton and the wedding date was set during leave in February, 1965. Three weeks before the ceremony was scheduled his fiancee and childhood sweetheart was killed in an automobile accident.

He was still grief stricken when he arrived in Vietnam after a training stopover in Okinawa. An expert rifleman he was advanced to corporal in Okinawa and a few weeks ago was given an on-the-spot sergeancy in Vietnam.

Although Hodgson has been in four major operations in Vietnam he turned to cartooning — to help him forget what was not to be. He did his cartoons on scratch pads and turned them out wherever he happened to be —a pup tent or a fox hole. He enclosed them in letters home to prove to his parents, as much as anything, that he was on the beam.

The rest is history. Other people saw them and soon several syndicates were asking for the privilege of handling them.

Hodgson's strongest following is among the fighting men of his company. They tell him their gripes — enlisted men always have plenty — and he depicts them, and they love what he does.

Race Tradition To Be Preserved

BALTIMORE (AP) — The jockey-and-horse weathervane which topped the Members' Clubhouse at Pimlico Race Course for almost a century, will be preserved when a new structure is built to replace the clubhouse razed by fire on June 6.

The jockey on the weathervane was painted in the colors worn by the Preakness winner.

The blue-and-white colors of Mike Ford, carried by Kauai King in the 1966 Preakness, were still discernible on the weathervane after the blaze destroyed the Baltimore landmark.

Youth Found Safe In Cave

GLENNVILLE (UPI) — A Bakersfield youth, reported missing while hiking with friends at caves in a desolate area of Tulare County, was found early today in good condition.

Kern County sheriff's deputies launched a search for Maurice Maixner, 18, when his companions reported him missing at 11 p.m. yesterday. They had been exploring the Crystal Caves, 40 miles northeast of here, earlier.

Packers Eye Jackpot In Jan. 15 Super Bowl Game

Independent Journal Sports

FOURTH SECTION Tues., Jan. 3, 1967 29

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The Green Bay Packers, apparently sound of wind and limb after winning their fourth National Football League championship in six years, relaxed today amid the whiteness of Wisconsin's winter wonderland.

But the thoughts of some members were green:

—The green of the turf in Los Angeles Coliseum where they will meet the Kansas City Chiefs, champions of the American Football League, in the Super Bowl Jan. 15.

—The green of $15,000 guaranteed each man on the winning team in that game while each loser gets $7,500.

Each Packer earned an estimated $8,500 for defeating the Dallas Cowboys 34-27 in a thriller at Dallas Sunday for the NFL crown.

Packer Coach Vince Lombardi has called a meeting of the team for tomorrow. A club spokesman said workouts for the Super Bowl game will start Thursday.

The title game at Dallas, as exciting a contest as any in NFL annals, began with the Packers apparently headed for a rout and ended with Cowboys storming the goal line in an effort to push the game into sudden death overtime.

Green Bay took the opening kickoff and marched down the field, scoring on a 17-yard pass from Bart Starr to Elijah Pitts—the first of Starr's four touchdown aerials of the day. On the following kickoff Jim Grabowski picked up a Dallas fumble and galloped 18 yards for another touchdown.

The Cowboys, not losing their poise, tied the score at 14 in the first quarter and the grueling game proceeded on about even terms until the Packers worked to a 34-20 lead with only five minutes before the final gun.

But Dallas quarterback Don Meredith fired a 68-yard touchdown bomb to Frank Clarke and it was a new game.

Dallas gained momentum and

Chiefs Shrug Off The Underdog Role

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Chiefs were beginning to come down out of the clouds today, but still were savoring the way they grabbed the American Football League championship.

There were some mistakes in the Buffalo game, and Stram said at the time the errors would wait a while with the score 31-7.

The waiting period is over The Chiefs can't afford mistakes against the Packers.

The Chiefs won't dally that long.

"We'll leave for Long Beach Wednesday morning and work out Wednesday afternoon at Veterans Field," Stram said. "I've talked to George Allen (Los Angeles Rams' coach) and he says the facilities there are fine."

When told that oddsmakers had established the Chiefs as eight-pointed underdogs in the big money game, Stram brushed it off.

"I have no particular interest in such things," he said.

He said he had talked to Coach Vince Lombardi of the Packers.

"We agreed to exchange three films," Stram said. "We had our choice of the ones we wanted."

Stram chose Green Bay's games against Cleveland, Minnesota and the championship battle against Dallas. He said he had a special reason for the selections, but wouldn't reveal it.

Lombardi picked films of the Chiefs' games with New York, San Diego and the championship tilt in Buffalo.

The Chiefs are all in good shape except Fred Arbanas, all-league tight end, and Denny Biodrowski, relief guard.

A Rough Weekend For The West; East Had Three-Hour Head Start

ENOUGH!—Phew! Pardon my videosyncrasies today but I've had enough football to last me for the rest of the year. And the frightening thing about it is that there are still two more weekends of bowl games; and the 1967 hasn't even started yet!

I never thought I'd see the day that I would be bowled over by too much football but early in the third quarter of last night's Orange Bowl—by that time up to my navel in reverses, draw plays, quick openers, traps, blitzes, etc—I snapped off the idiot box, retired to the Hay Bowl under living covers, and dreamed I went to the Nightmare Bowl in my Maidenform shoulder pads.

I STARTED off the long weekend innocently enough by attending the East-West game and spent the rest of the weekend trying to scheme a way to divert the Mississippi River. The boys from East of that geographical dividing line were so superior that at halftime I tried to switch channels until it dawned on me I was there. Then I went home and hid my 10-gallon hat, chaps, six-shooters and other western toys that Santa had left in my stocking.

San Francisco's presentation of How The West Was Lost, played under a brilliant sunShrine, was so disappointing that everyone went out that night and got drunk. It was a good thing it was New Year's Eve.

THE WEST scored its first down at 3:41 p.m., which isn't bad except the game started at 1:45. The visitors looked like they were playing in the Eastern Standard Time zone because they were about three hours ahead of us.

Busiest guy in Kezar was Michigan State's Dick Kenney, the bare-foot place kicker by way of Hawaii, who toed the ball 15 times, counting kickoffs, conversions and field goals.

I TRIED to scout 49er draftee Don Parker, the fine defensive end from Virginia, but the East spent so much time on offense the poor guy developed bottom bunions from warming the bench. However, I can report he had a very dirty uniform at the end of the game, which is always a good sign.

SUNDAY'S NFL championship proved to be the weekend's most exciting game as the Packers barely escaped a mighty upset. But, like their city's police department, the Dallas Cowboys made too many mistakes.

NEXT BEST game was yesterday's Rose Bowl in the tiny Hamlet of Pasadena which developed into a modern day version of Two-Be-Or-Not-Two-Be, That-Is-A-Thorny-Question. USC Coach John McKay's decision to gamble for the two-point conversion rather than settle for a tie showed a lot of class. That's the ONLY way to die, and besides, a tie just wouldn't look good on those maroon jerseys.

The Trojans, by the way, deserve an apology from every columnist who ridiculed their selection for the bowl. Today's luncheon menu in sports departments across the land is crow. Make mine Old.

MOST IMPRESSIVE college team over the weekend was Alabama in the Sugar Bowl. The 'Bammies also were the politest gridders for helping the outclassed Nebraskans to their feet after each tackle. But, then again, Alabama has a woman governor.

For sheer beauty on the Color Boob Tube, the Orange Bowl was the juiciest spectacle and I hated to quit before the end.

But like I said before, by that I'd had it. And I can hardly wait for the upcoming Hula, Senior, Playoff and Super Bowls. I'm a glutton for pun-ishment.

Purdue Winner By 14-13

By FRANK O'REILLY

PASADENA (AP — Purdue and Southern California, undistinguished throughout the season, remained consistent to the end, playing an undistinguished 60 minutes before 101,455 in the Rose Bowl.

Purdue won, 14-13 but USC provided the dramatics yesterday, scoring with 2:28 remaining and going for a two-point conversion, only to miss and lose the gamble.

Purdue Coach Jack Mollenkopf, whose Boilermakers were making their first start in the Rose Bowl, said: "This was my most satisfying victory."

But at the same time, Mollenkopf conceded: "We have moved the ball better."

Purdue, with star quarterback Bob Griese failing to baffle the rugged USC defense, compiled only 244 yards in total offense. Griese hit for 10 of 18 passes and 139 yards, but four completions came on a first-quarter drive stopped on the USC five-yard line.

Griese later directed Purdue touchdown marches of 57 and 37 yards, and fullback Perry Williams plunged across from the one and two yard lines.

THE OTHER BOWLS

Said Griese: "It was a great win, a great thing for the team, but I don't think I played a particularly good game."

Purdue came to Pasadena with an 8-2 record, including losses to the two outstanding teams it faced — Notre Dame and Michigan State.

Michigan State dominated an abnormally weak Big Ten, but the Spartans were here a year ago and Big Ten teams are ineligible to repeat in the Rose Bowl.

Southern California lost three of its last four regular season games, climaxing the year with a 51-0 humilation by Notre Dame. The Trojans' 14-7 loss to UCLA cast a shadow on their bid, granted because USC had one more Pacific-8 Conference win than the Bruins.

GRIESE CONTAINED

The Trojan defense contained Griese and the Purdue running game for the most part, but the offense, despite 323 total yards, failed on two critical occasions within sight of the goal line.

USC scored on halfback Don McCall's one-yard run and quarterback Troy Winslow's 19-yard pass to flanker Rod Sherman in the final minutes.

Said USC Coach John McKay: "I told my team I was proud of them. I think we played about as well as we can play."

But McKay conceded: "I can't say I'm satisfied. We were playing to win."

With Purdue's margin 14-13, McKay called a pass for the deciding two-point attempt. Winslow rolled to his right and threw toward halfback Jim Lawrence in the end zone. But Purdue back George Catavolos cut in front of the receiver and picked off the crucial throw.

McKay has no second thoughts: "I talked to the kids

Warriors In For A Tough Home Stand

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Warriors begin a tough round of home games tonight and the pivotal point seems to be the still-questionable status of injured Rick Barry.

Coaches of the top team in the Western Division of the National Basketball Assn. did not say today whether Barry would play against the Boston Celtics tonight, 8:30 o'clock, at Civic Auditorium.

The high-scoring Barry has been out with injuries to both ankles, although he is reported to be improving rapidly.

The Celtics, although trailing Philadelphia by seven games in the Eastern Division, have a 27-9 season record and are 3-0 this year over the Warriors.

Thursday the Warriors will grapple with the improving Los Angeles Lakers at the Oakland Coliseum Arena. The Warriors are 4-0 over Los Angeles this season but may have a tougher time now that Elgin Baylor and Jerry West are completely healthy.

Friday the Warriors return to Civic Auditorium to play the St. Louis Hawks, second in the Western Division. And Saturday it's the Celtics again.

GRAND PRIX CHAMP

Fast '67 Start For Mexico's Rodriguez

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Pedro Rodriguez avoided problems that forced out his chief competitors and three former world champions and held on to win the South African Grand Prix yesterday.

The steady driving Mexican, in his Cooper Maserati, thus picked up nine points in the world championship standings in the first event of the 1967 racing season.

Rodriguez was one of only eight of the 18 Formula One starters to finish the 80-lap, 203.5-mile race on the Kyalami circuit. His time was two hours, five minutes 45.9 seconds, an average speed of 97.095 miles per hour.

John Love of Rhodesia, who relinquished the lead with seven laps remaining because of a fuel stop in his Coventry Climax, finished 26.4 seconds behind. John Surtees of England was third in a Honda.

Denny Hulme of New Zealand was fourth in his Repco Brabham after leading into the 60th lap before forced to stop for a brake fluid leak.

Defending world champion Jack Brabham of Australia finished sixth in his Repco Brabham after ignition trouble put him in the pits in the 41st lap when he trailed only Hulme.

Two other former champions, Graham Hill of England and Jim Clark of Scotland, both failed to last 22 laps because of mechanical trouble.

Bantam King Retains His World Title

NAGOYA, Japan, (AP) — Masahiko (Fighting) Harada of Japan made his third successful defense of his world bantamweight boxing championship today, pounding out a close but unanimous decision over Jose Medel of Mexico in a 15-round fight.

There were no knockdowns but Harada pressed the action most of the way, opening cuts over both the challenger's eyes. Medel cut Harada over the left eye in the fourth round and then was penalized one point for thumbing the cut in the 10th

That, however, did not affect the decision. Without deducting the penalty point, Japanese Ref-

Utility Use Reported Up, Rates Down

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A state Public Utilities Commission report for the last fiscal year showed the number of utility users increased as utility rates decreased.

In the report released yesterday the PUC said rates to customers had been reduced by more $13.7 million during the period ending last June 30.

Increases of $4.9 million were granted to some utility companies including Pacific Telephone which won a $3.6 million chunk. However, much of Pacific Telephone's rate increase was for directory advertising which does not affect most customers.

Telephone companies in general were the most active of the major utilities, according to the report. A 6.2 per cent increase in the number of phones raised the state's total to 10.5 million.

The gas customers increased 2.8 per cent to 5.2 million while electricity customers increased 3.7 per cent to 4.85 million.

The PUC's decisions to maintain the present level of train service in the state were also recorded in the report. The commission refused to allow Southern Pacific to eliminate the Lark, the overnight train between Los Angeles and San Francisco. A request to terminate the San Joaquin Daylight at Bakersfield instead of Los Angeles was also refused.

The commission also ordered the Northwestern Pacific to resume passenger service between Willits and Eureka.

Light For Dog Costly For Home

LEVELLAND, Tex. (UPI)—It cost Martin Alsup $2,000 to put an electric light in a dog house to keep his Chihuahua warm.

Defective wiring started a fire which spread to Alsup's home and caused $2,000 damage. The dog, found hiding under a bed, was revived by firemen.

Cartoon With Sgt. Mike Starts In Today's Edition Of The I-J

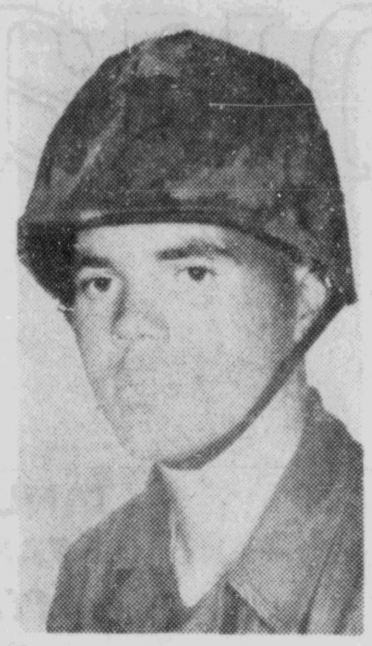
"First I fire warning shots; then I fire at them."

So wrote Mike Hodgson of a Vietnam skirmish. His cartoon feature, With Sgt. Mike, starts today in the Independent-Journal.

Hodgson is a typical American boy — he was under 18 when he enlisted in the Marines—who suddenly found himself in Vietnam along with a lot of other American boys.

He went to high school in Sacramento where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hodgson, live with two other children, a younger brother and sister.

His schoolmates recall him as a quiet, reserved youth who didn't drink or smoke. He was just a normal American kid with a regular haircut and sports trousers that were neither too baggy nor too tight. His hobbies were racing slot cars, collecting stamps and fishing the American river with time out to sing in the school glee club and his church choir.



SGT. MIKE HODGSON
His cartoons start

As a boy Hodgson was always rather handy with a pen and sold some sketches to businessmen in Sacramento. He had a girl and he wanted to be married so he persuaded his parents to let him join the Marines in 1964 as a means of saving the necessary money.

Boot camp was followed by special training at California's Camp Pendleton and the wedding date was set during leave in February, 1965. Three weeks before the ceremony was scheduled his fiancee and childhood sweetheart was killed in an automobile accident.

He was still grief stricken when he arrived in Vietnam after a training stopover in Okinawa. An expert rifleman he was advanced to corporal in Okinawa and a few weeks ago was given an on-the-spot sergeancy in Vietnam.

Although Hodgson has been in four major operations in Vietnam he turned to cartooning — to help him forget what was not to be. He did his cartoons on scratch pads and turned them out wherever he happened to be —a pup tent or a fox hole. He enclosed them in letters home to prove to his parents, as much as anything, that he was on the beam.

The rest is history. Other people saw them and soon several syndicates were asking for the privilege of handling them.

Hodgson's strongest following is among the fighting men of his company. They tell him their gripes — enlisted men always have plenty — and he depicts them, and they love what he does.

Race Tradition To Be Preserved

BALTIMORE (AP) — The jockey-and-horse weathervane which topped the Members' Clubhouse at Pimlico Race Course for almost a century, will be preserved when a new structure is built to replace the clubhouse razed by fire on June 6.

The jockey on the weathervane was painted in the colors worn by the Preakness winner.

The blue-and-white colors of Mike Ford, carried by Kauai King in the 1966 Preakness, were still discernible on the weathervane after the blaze destroyed the Baltimore landmark.

Youth Found Safe In Cave

GLENNVILLE (UPI) — A Bakersfield youth, reported missing while hiking with friends at caves in a desolate area of Tulare County, was found early today in good condition.

Kern County sheriff's deputies launched a search for Maurice Maixner, 18, when his companions reported him missing at 11 p.m. yesterday. They had been exploring the Crystal Caves, 40 miles northeast of here, earlier.

School Delay Report Is Due

Fairafx School District trustees will receive a report on rain-caused delays in site development at the new White Hill School when the board meets at 7:45 p.m. today in the district offices at 58 Park Road.

The board will receive a request from music director J. D. Nichols to approve plans for Fairfax students to participate in three Bay Area music festivals in April. Nichols wants to take a clarinet quartet and a woodwind quartet to Sebastopol April 1, a chorus to Tiburon April 22, and a band to Napa April 29.

Trustee Fay Jensen will report on the California School Boards Assn. conference Dec. 7-10 in San Diego.

Appropriation Bill Introduced

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — An urgency appropriation bill has been introduced in the legislature to extend education aid to about 1,000 widows and children of dead and disabled veterans who have been denied benefits because of a shortage of funds.

Sen. J. Eugene McAteer, D-San Francisco, yesterday introduced the measure, which he said would add $457,000 to the current budget.

Soph Sensation Paces Florida To Orange Bowl Win

By RON SPEER

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Coach Ray Graves says Florida's football team finally has proven it belongs in the big time, and the Gators have a young halfback who should be able to keep them there for the next couple of years.

The Gators have had only one losing season in seven years under Graves, but they never have won a Southeastern Conference title and until last night never had won in a big bowl except at the Gator Bowl.

"A lot of people wondered if Florida was a big enough team for this kind of a bowl game, and I think we showed we are," Graves said after the Gators whipped Georgia Tech 27-12 in the Orange Bowl.

The victory gave Florida a 9-2 record for the season, and although the Gators lose Heisman Trophy winner Steve Spurrier, they have a youngster who may be able to take his place.

Smith rushed for a record 187 yards and raced 94 yards for the winning touchdown on the longest run from scrimmage in Orange Bowl history.

"Smith has been a good runner for us all year," Graves said after the victory. "About 15 times he has been within one shoe of going all the way, and this time he finally did it.

"That run couldn't have come at a better time," added Graves, who said that Spurrier had a sore arm and had missed practice because of distractions brought on by his Heisman award.

"Steve is still a great ball player, and he put that ball in the end zone for us just before the half when we really needed to get on that scoreboard," Graves said.

Trailing 6-0, Spurrier sent the Gators on a 66-yard drive capped by Graham McKeel's one-yard scoring plunge which tied the score, and Wayne Barfield kicked the point to put the Gators in front to stay.

Smith contributed his record touchdown dash in the third quarter, and the Gators wrapped it up in the last period with McKeel scoring again on a plunge and Harmon Wages passing five yards for a touchdown to Jack Coons.

Georgia Tech, which scored in the first quarter on a surge capped by Kim King's 10-yard scoring toss to Craig Baynham, cut the gap in the fourth quarter when reserve quarterback Larry Good scooted 25 yards for the last Tech touchdown.

Graves and Tech Coach Bobby Dodd both praised the Gators' defenses, which picked off four passes.

"Our defense played a great game," Graves said. "The pass rush was tremendous, and the secondary play was the best we have had in a long time."

Dodd, whose team completed only four of 22 passes for a total of 128 yards, said, "Florida's defense hurt us. It's a lot better than people thought.

"But I've said all along Florida's defense was the best part of their game."

Dodd, who was Graves' former teacher when the Florida coach worked at Tech, said the running of Smith was what beat the Yellow Jackets.

"Smith hurt us more than Spurrier did. Smith was terrific," Dodd said, "and he will be great later on."

Graves, whose teams were blanked the last three times they played Tech, said he thought the Gators' rugged pregame workouts paid off.

"I think we were in better condition," he said. "We got stronger as the game went on, and we came back to win."

Dodd, whose loss was only the fourth in 13 post-season games, said he was not yet ready to retire as Tech coach, although he left the impression he may step down in the future.

Asked about speculation that the game might be his last after 22 seasons at Tech's head coach, Dodd said, "When I decide to retire it will be properly announced."

The defeat left the eighth-ranked Yellow Jackets with a 9-2 mark for the season.

Medel Loses Nod In World Title Bout

eree K. Kato scored the bout 74-68 for Harada, and both Japanese judges, Haruo Ishiwatarido and K. Kashiwagi, had it for Harade 73-68 and 72-69.

The Associated Press had Harada the winner 72-71 without the one point penalty.

Both Lopez Sanchez, the Mexican's manager, and Medel agreed with the decision while questioning the penalty.

"Harade won without question on points," said Sanchez. "We didn't like the penalty point but that's the way the referee saw it and it can't be helped."

Medel, who at first secluded himself in his dressing room, finally came out and indicated satisfaction with the decision, saying simply, "It's okay."

As for the penalty point, Medel said, "I don't know why this was done."

When told it was for thumbing, Medel said that Harade had done the same.

Harada, who wrested the 118-pound title from Brazil's Eder Jofre May 18, 1965, brought his record to 46-3-3 with his third successful title defense. Medel weighed 117¼ pounds, Harada 117¾.

Super Star Sparks Alabama

Perkins Is Hero In Sugar Bowl

By BEN THOMAS

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Nebraska's roly-poly Bob Devaney is going to have nightmares for a long time about Alabama's All-America end Ray Perkins.

The superb Alabama athlete — Bear Bryant calls him a "superstar" — spoiled not one but two bowl trips for Devaney and his Cornhuskers.

Perkins' last game as an amateur came yesterday in the 33rd Sugar Bowl Classic. Bryant's tiny Crimson Tide, outweighed 25-35 pounds per man, uncorked an awesome offense and a devastating defense to crush Nebraska 34-7.

Only one time in his 10 years as a college coach did a team ever score more points on a Devaney club.

Oklahoma State defeated Devaney's Cornhuskers 34-7 in 1962-his first season at the Nebraska helm. Devaney's 1957 Wyoming team, his first year there, was defeated 39-6 by Oklahoma State.

"Perkins hurt us more than anyone else," said Devaney after the crushing defeat.

On 'Bama's first play after receiving the kickoff, Perkins hauled in an aerial from Kenny (Snake) Stabler that covered 45 yards. It put the third-ranked Red Elephants on the Nebraska 27 and seven plays later Alabama had its first touchdown.

"We felt like we wanted to test them deep right away," said Stabler, a left-handed junior quarterback. "So I sent Ray down the left side on what we call a go route.

"He just ran under control for about 10 yards, faked inside and took off. I just laid the ball up there."

Devaney said it was no surprise because he had warned his players to expect the bomb on the first play and had 6-foot-1 Kay Carstens, a 190-pounder, covering Perkins man-for-man.

"Carstens is our fastest defensive back," said Devaney. "He let Perkins get a step on him and Stabler happened to throw a perfect pass."

WANTED REVENGE

A year ago, in Miami's Orange Bowl, the 6-1, 188-pound Perkins snared nine passes for 195 yards as Alabama whipped Nebrasks 39-28. Devaney and his Big Red wanted revenge in the Sugar Bowl match this year.

After the Sugar Bowl Perkins — told once by doctors he would never play again after a head injury as a freshman — signed a contract to play with the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League.

Perkins is ticketed to be the eventual replacement for the aging Raymond Berry.

"We don't give out information about how much Johnny Unitas makes and we don't give it out about our new signees," said Don Kellett, executive vice president of the Colts.

But a reliable source said the pact calls for Perkins to receive $250,000 and a three-year no-cut contract.

Perkins, redshirted his sophomore year because of the head injury, was drafted by the Colts and the American League Boston Patriots a year ago as a future.

He collected seven passes-all from Stabler — in the Sugar Bowl and accounted for 178 yards.

MOST VALUABLE

The slender Stabler nosed out Perkins for the most valuable player award. Stabler accounted for 218 yards passing, completing 12 of 18 tosses, and was also the game's rusher with 38 yards.

" I thought it was my best game," said Stabler. "I think we could have beaten Notre Dame today."

Alabama wound up the regular season as the nation's only major college eleven with an unbeaten, untied record. But the Tide was denied its third consecutive national championship in The Associated Press poll.

Alabama finished third behind Notre Dame No. 1, and Michigan State, No. 2, the teams that played a 10-10 tie.

That means the Bear thinks they're better than his 1961, 1964 or 1965 squads, which won the national championship.

The Bryant legend was given another boost when his team came on the field for the kickoff. After three days of rain, it stopped minutes before game time and the sun actually peeked through the overcast for a few minutes.

"We prayed for rain," said Devaney. "We should have prayed for a driving rain."

Here's how the scoring went:

—Stabler skirted left end for 14 yards and a touchdown after a 42-yard strike to Perkins.

—Steve Davis kicked a 30-yard field goal after Nebraska's Harry Wilson fumbled and Charles Harris scooped the ball up for 'Bama. This gave the Tide a 17-0 lead when the first quarter ended.

—Nebraska, faced with its first shutout in 56 games, got on the scoreboard on the first play of the fourth quarter when Churchich passed nine yards to Dick Davis.

—Stabler passed to Perkins for 45 yards and a touchdown to wrap up the scoring and Davis kicked his third extra point-giving him 10 for the day, the most by a single player in the game.

Not to be overlooked was the defensive play of Johns, a 6-1, 175-pound junior defensive back. He intercepted three passes to equal the record by Mississippi's Raymond Brown in the 1958 Sugar Bowl.

Georgia '11' Overpowers SMU Squad

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Georgia's football team, rated the best seen in Dallas in the collegiate season, flew home Sunday with a check forthcoming for $125,000 because the Bulldogs blasted Southern Methodist 24-9 in the Cotton Bowl.

Coach Vince Dooley said SMU made a fine game of it Saturday byt Coach Hayden Fry of Southern Methodisr had a different version—"They whipped us in every phase of the game."

Since Georgia led by as many as 15 points most of the time, Fry's version seemed to hit the nail more on the head.

The Southwest Conference, which furnishes its champion each year, wasn't exactly happy about it. It was the second straight year the conference lost in its own game.

The two teams each got $230,000. Georgia keeps $115,000 and then distribution of the remainder among members of the Southeastern Conference.

Southern Methodist retained $100,000 and figured in a split of the remainder with other members of the Southern Conference.

Stram Denies He Degraded Packers

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A statement quoting him as saying the Kansas City Chiefs would tear the Green Bay Packers apart in the pro football super bowl is "ridiculous," Coach Hank Stram of the Chiefs said today.

"I didn't say that to anyone," Stram said. "Obviously, I would never say such a thing."

Little Strengthens His Draft Status

The bow-legged Sayracuse halfback was the individual star of the game and the most frequent topic of conversation, although Tennessee's smaller but quicker team won 18-12.

When the professionals hold their draft, Little is certain to be a high selection. So will Gary Bugenhagen, a all-America tackle from Syracuse who led blocking for the 330-yard combined production of Little and fullback Larry Csonka.

One of Tennessee's stars, end Austin Denney, already has joined the pros. He was a future selection last year-reflecting his redshirt status which put him one season behind his college class. Denny signed with the Dallas Cowboys an hour after the Gator Bowl.

But some of the stars of the Gator Bowl, which thrilled a record 60,312 crowd plus a national television audience, will be back to give their teams a nucleus for next season.

The most notable is Dewey Warren, Tennessee quarterback who threw touchdown passes of 24 yards to Kennedy and two yards to wingback Richmond Flowers, completing 17 of 29 for 244 lards.

Tennessee loses end Johnny Mills, who caught eight passes for 86 yards, and all-America linebacker Paul Naumoff in addition to Denny.

For Syracuse, Csonka, the pile driving fullback, has another year. So does quarterback Rick Cassata, hobbled by a knee injury in the game.

Little's rushing record of 216 yards erased a Gator Bowl mark that stood since 1948, when Lu Gambino of Maryland ran 175 yards in a 20-20 tie against Georgia.

Another record was broken Gary Wright kicked two field goals for Tennessee's first six points. Four players had kicked one field goal each in a Gator Bowl game and shared the old record.

Strong Russ Dominate World Hockey

WINNIPEG, Manitoba (AP) — "The way the Russians were shooting at me you'd think we were at war," sighed a perspiring Carl Wetzel.

The 28-year-old ex-professional, who tried out with Detroit in the National Hockey League in 1964, turned aside 43 shots by the precision-passing Russians in their first game of the centennial world hockey tournament yesterday.

But seven got by and the defending champion Soviets had an easy 7-1 victory and a tie for first place with Canada in the four-team, round-robin tournament.

Canada beat Czechoslovakia 5-3 Sunday and is the next opponent of the United States today.

"The Russians opened up strongly and they showed a good control of the puck," said Wetzel, who stopped 21 of 24 first period shots and 37 of 44 in the first two stanzas.

"I had a busy night, but I am still not happy with my performance. When you let seven goals go by you, you just don't feel happy about the way you're doing your job."

U.S. Coach John Mariucci called his opponents the strongest Russian team he had ever seen. He felt they would "hold their own in the National Hockey League."

Packers Eye Jackpot In Jan. 15 Super Bowl Game

Independent-Journal Sports

FOURTH SECTION Tues., Jan. 3, 1967 29

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The Green Bay Packers, apparently sound of wind and limb after winning their fourth National Football League championship in six years, relaxed today amid the whiteness of Wisconsin's winter wonderland.

But the thoughts of some members were green:

—The green of the turf in Los Angeles Coliseum where they will meet the Kansas City Chiefs, champions of the American Football League, in the Super Bowl Jan. 15.

—The green of $15,000 guaranteed each man on the winning team in that game while each loser gets $7,500.

Each Packer earned an estimated $8,500 for defeating the Dallas Cowboys 34-27 in a thriller at Dallas Sunday for the NFL crown.

Packer Coach Vince Lombardi has called a meeting of the team for tomorrow. A club spokesman said workouts for the Super Bowl game will start Thursday.

The title game at Dallas, as exciting a contest as any in NFL annals, began with the Packers apparently headed for a rout and ended with Cowboys storming the goal line in an effort to push the game into sudden death overtime.

Green Bay took the opening kickoff and marched down the field, scoring on a 17-yard pass from Bart Starr to Elijah Pitts—the first of Starr's four touchdown aerials of the day. On the following kickoff Jim Grabowski picked up a Dallas fumble and galloped 18 yards for another touchdown.

The Cowboys, not losing their poise, tied the score at 14 in the first quarter and the grueling game proceeded on about even terms until the Packers worked to a 34-20 lead with only five minutes before the final gun.

But Dallas quarterback Don Meredith fired a 68-yard touchdown bomb to Frank Clarke and it was a new game.

Dallas gained momentum and

Chiefs Shrug Off The Underdog Role

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Chiefs were beginning to come down out of the clouds today, but still were savoring the way they grabbed the American Football League championship.

There were some mistakes in the Buffalo game, and Stram said at the time the errors would wait a while with the score 31-7.

The waiting period is over. The Chiefs can't afford mistakes against the Packers.

The Chiefs won't dally that long.

"We'll leave for Long Beach Wednesday morning and work out Wednesday afternoon at Veterans Field," Stram said. "I've talked to George Allen (Los Angeles Rams' coach) and he says the facilities there are fine."

When told that oddsmakers had established the Chiefs as eight-pointed underdogs in the big money game, Stram brushed it off.

"I have no particular interest in such things," he said.

He said he had talked to Coach Vince Lombardi of the Packers.

"We agreed to exchange three films," Stram said. "We had our choice of the ones we wanted."

Stram chose Green Bay's games against Cleveland, Minnesota and the championship battle against Dallas. He said he had a special reason for the selections, but wouldn't reveal it.

Lombardi picked films of the Chiefs' games with New York, San Diego and the championship tilt in Buffalo.

The Chiefs are all in good shape except Fred Arbanas, all-league tight end, and Denny Biodrowski, relief guard.

A Rough Weekend For The West; East Had Three-Hour Head Start

ENOUGH!—Phew! Pardon my videosyncrasies today but I've had enough football to last me for the rest of the year. And the frightening thing about it is that there are still two more weekends of bowl games; and the 1967 hasn't even started yet!

I never thought I'd see the day that I would be bowled over by too much football but early in the third quarter of last night's Orange Bowl—by that time up to my navel in reverses, draw plays, quick openers, traps, blitzes, etc—I snapped off the idiot box, retired to the Hay Bowl under living covers, and dreamed I went to the Nightmare Bowl in my Maidenform shoulder pads.

I STARTED off the long weekend innocently enough by attending the East-West game and spent the rest of the weekend trying to scheme a way to divert the Mississippi River. The boys from East of that geographical dividing line were so superior that at halftime I tried to switch channels until it dawned on me I was there. Then I went home and hid my 10-gallon hat, chaps, six-shooters and other western toys that Santa had left in my stocking.

San Francisco's presentation of How The West Was Lost, played under a brilliant sunShrine, was so disappointing that everyone went out that night and got drunk. It was a good thing it was New Year's Eve.

THE WEST scored its first down at 3:41 p.m., which isn't bad except the game started at 1:45. The visitors looked like they were playing in the Eastern Standard Time zone because they were about three hours ahead of us.

Busiest guy in Kezar was Michigan State's Dick Kenney, the bare-foot place kicker by way of Hawaii, who toed the ball 15 times, counting kickoffs, conversions and field goals.

I TRIED to scout 49er draftee Don Parker, the fine defensive end from Virginia, but the East spent so much time on offense the poor guy developed bottom bunions from warming the bench. However, I can report he had a very dirty uniform at the end of the game, which is always a good sign.

SUNDAY'S NFL championship proved to be the weekend's most exciting game as the Packers barely escaped a mighty upset. But, like their city's police department, the Dallas Cowboys made too many mistakes.

NEXT BEST game was yesterday's Rose Bowl in the tiny Hamlet of Pasadena which developed into a modern day version of Two-Be-Or-Not-Two-Be, That-Is-A-Thorny-Question. USC Coach John McKay's decision to gamble for the two-point conversion rather than settle for a tie showed a lot of class. That's the ONLY way to die, and besides, a tie just wouldn't look good on those maroon jerseys.

The Trojans, by the way, deserve an apology from every columnist who ridiculed their selection for the bowl. Today's luncheon menu in sports departments across the land is crow. Make mine Old.

MOST IMPRESSIVE college team over the weekend was Alabama in the Sugar Bowl. The 'Bammies also were the politest gridders for helping the outclassed Nebraskans to their feet after each tackle. But, then again, Alabama has a woman governor.

For sheer beauty on the Color Boob Tube, the Orange Bowl was the juiciest spectacle and I hated to quit before the end.

But like I said before, by that I'd had it. And I can hardly wait for the upcoming Hula, Senior, Playoff and Super Bowls. I'm a glutton for pun-ishment.

Purdue Winner By 14-13

By FRANK O'REILLY

PASADENA (AP — Purdue and Southern California, undistinguished throughout the season, remained consistent to the end, playing an undistinguished 60 minutes before 101,455 in the Rose Bowl.

Purdue won, 14-13 but USC provided the dramatics yesterday, scoring with 2:28 remaining and going for a two-point conversion, only to miss and lose the gamble.

Purdue Coach Jack Mollenkopf, whose Boilermakers were making their first start in the Rose Bowl, said: "This was my most satisfying victory."

But at the same time, Mollenkopf conceded: "We have moved the ball better."

Purdue, with star quarterback Bob Griese failing to baffle the rugged USC defense, compiled only 244 yards in total offense. Griese hit for 10 of 18 passes and 139 yards, but four completions came on a first-quarter drive stopped on the USC five-yard line.

Griese later directed Purdue touchdown marches of 57 and 37 yards, and fullback Perry Williams plunged across from the one and two yard lines.

THE OTHER BOWLS

Said Griese: "It was a great win, a great thing for the team, but I don't think I played a particularly good game."

Purdue came to Pasadena with an 8-2 record, including losses to the two outstanding teams it faced — Notre Dame and Michigan State.

Michigan State dominated an abnormally weak Big Ten, but the Spartans were here a year ago and Big Ten teams are ineligible to repeat in the Rose Bowl.

Southern California lost three of its last four regular season games, climaxing the year with a 51-0 humilation by Notre Dame. The Trojans' 14-7 loss to UCLA cast a shadow on their bid, granted because USC had one more Pacific-8 Conference win than the Bruins.

GRIESE CONTAINED

The Trojan defense contained Griese and the Purdue running game for the most part, but the offense, despite 323 total yards, failed on two critical occasions within sight of the goal line.

USC scored on halfback Don McCall's one-yard run and quarterback Troy Winslow's 19-yard pass to flanker Rod Sherman in the final minutes.

Said USC Coach John McKay: "I told my team I was proud of them. I think we played about as well as we can play."

But McKay conceded: "I can't say I'm satisfied. We were playing to win."

With Purdue's margin 14-13, McKay called a pass for the deciding two-point attempt. Winslow rolled to his right and threw toward halfback Jim Lawrence in the end zone. But Purdue back George Catavolos cut in front of the receiver and picked off the crucial throw.

McKay has no second thoughts: "I talked to the kids

Warriors In For A Tough Home Stand

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Warriors begin a tough round of home games tonight and the pivotal point seems to be the still-questionable status of injured Rick Barry.

Coaches of the top team in the Western Division of the National Basketball Assn. did not say today whether Barry would play against the Boston Celtics tonight, 8:30 o'clock, at Civic Auditorium.

The high-scoring Barry has been out with injuries to both ankles, although he is reported to be improving rapidly.

The Celtics, although trailing Philadelphia by seven games in the Eastern Division, have a 27-9 season record and are 3-0 this year over the Warriors.

Thursday the Warriors will grapple with the improving Los Angeles Lakers at the Oakland Coliseum Arena. The Warriors are 4-0 over Los Angeles this season but may have a tougher time now that Elgin Baylor and Jerry West are completely healthy.

Friday the Warriors return to Civic Auditorium to play the St. Louis Hawks, second in the Western Division. And Saturday it's the Celtics again.

The Warriors currently have a fat 6½-game bulge in the Western Division.

GRAND PRIX CHAMP

Fast '67 Start For Mexico's Rodriguez

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Pedro Rodriguez avoided problems that forced out his chief competitors and three former world champions and held on to win the South African Grand Prix yesterday.

The steady driving Mexican, in his Cooper Maserati, thus picked up nine points in the world championship standings in the first event of the 1967 racing season.

Rodriguez was one of only eight of the 18 Formula One starters to finish the 80-lap, 203.5-mile race on the Kyalami circuit. His time was two hours, five minutes 45.9 seconds, an average speed of 97.095 miles per hour.

John Love of Rhodesia, who relinquished the lead with seven laps remaining because of a fuel stop in his Coventry Climax, finished 26.4 seconds behind. John Surtees of England was third in a Honda.

Denny Hulme of New Zealand was fourth in his Repco Brabham after leading into the 60th lap before forced to stop for a brake fluid leak.

Defending world champion Jack Brabham of Australia finished sixth in his Repco Brabham after ignition trouble put him in the pits in the 41st lap when he trailed only Hulme.

Two other former champions, Graham Hill of England and Jim Clark of Scotland, both failed to last 22 laps because of mechanical trouble.

Bantam King Retains His World Title

NAGOYA, Japan, (AP) — Masahiko (Fighting) Harada of Japan made his third successful defense of his world bantamweight boxing championship today, pounding out a close but unanimous decision over Jose Medel of Mexico in a 15-round fight.

There were no knockdowns but Harada pressed the action most of the way, opening cuts over both the challenger's eyes. Medel cut Harada over the left eye in the fourth round and then was penalized one point for thumbing the cut in the 10th

That, however, did not affect the decision. Without deducting the penalty point, Japanese Ref-

OLD PROS' DAY OFF—Zeke Bradkowski, left, and Bart Starr, quarterbacks for the Green Bay Packers, relax at Starr's home by indulging in something less strenuous than TD strikes as they take aim for a little pool. of the left shoulder, but Stram said he will be able to take part in the workouts and will be ready for the game.

"I'll play if Lamar Hunt (Chiefs' owner) has to buy me a new shoulder," Arbanas delared.

Biodrowski has lame ankles, just as he did two weeks before the Buffalo game. But he was ready for the title ontest and is expeted to be set for the Packer game.

While Green Bay had to fight off the determined Dallas Cowboys for a 34-27 victory and the NFL title Sunday, the Chiefs made a surprising rout of their battle at Buffalo.

The Buffalo Bills gained only 40 net yards rushing and were not inside the Chiefs' 48 in the second half.

Kansas City's Jerrell Wilson grabbed a Buffalo fumble on the opening kickoff and three plays later the Chiefs had a touchdown. That set the tempo.

Buffalo kept its poise and was driving for a touchdown that would have tied the score at 14-14 in the last minute of the first half.

From the 11, quarterback Jack Kemp fired a pass toward Bob Crockett, wide open in the end zone after defender Willie Mitchell slipped and fell.

That set up a field goal that made the halftime score 17-7, instead of 14-14. The Chiefs went on from there.

Stram put some new wrinkles in his offense and defense for Buffalo but he doesn't think he will for Green Bay.

"We changed against Buffalo because they've played against us so long they can read our formations as soon as we line up," Stram said. "We won't have the same problem against the Packers."

with 2½ minutes remaining had a first down on the Packer two-yard line.

It was fourth down, 28 seconds and still two yards to go after Green Bay's defense held firm. Meredith rolled out to pass but Dave Robinson broke through and got a hand on Meredith, who managed to pull away and get rid of the ball.

Tom Brown, a former major league baseball player, leaped high and intercepted for the Packers in the end zone.

That was the money play of the game, and Green Bay ran out the clock.

"It was the biggest play I ever made," Brown said. "Don had to throw the ball. It was fourth down . . . when I saw that ball coming on that pass, it looked, oh, so nice . . ."

The Kansas City Coach Hank Stram was quoted as saying his team will "tear apart" the Packers on Jan. 15.

Told of this, Lombardi said, "Good for Stram. If he said anything else, I wouldn't have any respect for him."

"With the Super Bowl ahead of us, winning this game was more important than ever. The money is unquestionably a big thing. But it's really more than that.

"We wanted to be in it. We like to think that we've been the symbol of the NFL over the last few years. And we want to win it for the NFL."

LEO DUROCHER, Cubs: "No, no, you guys got it all wrong! What I said was, 'WISE guys finish last.' "

ART MODELL, Cleveland Browns: "Jim Brown turn actor? That's a hot one! What's he gonna play—British prime ministers? How many parts they got for a guy carrying a football?"

BILL DE WITT, Cincinnati Reds: "They'll give me Milt Pappas for Frank Robinson? Quick! Before they change their minds! They must be outta their heads!"

CLEVELAND WILLIAMS: "I may not beat Clay but I'll tell you one thing: he'll know he's been in a fight!"

CASEY STENGEL, PATRIARCH: "I am asked to define the World Series, well, you have one team which is able to run which is all they can do, only you can't commence to run till you get to first base which everyone has forgotten, and now you have this other team which is the only thing they are able to do is to hit home runs which is a play where you can walk if you want to and Babe Ruth never broke no clocks and—what? WELLINGTON MARA, NEW YORK GIANTS: "A merger between the two leagues? Never! Not so long as I draw breath! We worked too hard to get this game where it is. Right, George? And don't try to bribe me with a first draft quarterback. This is a matter of principle!"

BASEBALL COMMISSIONER WILLIAM D. ECKERT: "The grand old game continued to make outstanding progress during the old year and it is in this spirit that I want to wish each and every one of you a happy and prosperous 1897!"

And so I wish you all—a New Year!"

East Shrine Hero Talbott Favors Pro Baseball Life

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"We were told he wasn't much of a passer," related West coach John Ralston who received a big surprise when he watched North Carolina's Danny Talbott.

The quarterback hit the first 11 passes he threw, five each on two touchdown drives and another which led to a field goal, as the East jumped into a 17-0 lead en route to a 45-22 victory over the West at Kezar Stadium Saturday.

Even Duffy Daugherty, who coached the East, was surprised.

"We couldn't separate our quarterbacks in practice sessions and I told both Talbott and Benny Russell Louisville they would have an equal chance in the first half," Duffy said. "They did, but that Talbott connected for his first 11. That's a pretty good percentage, isn't it?"

The North Carolinian, who feel's he too small at 180 pounds for a pro football career so leans toward baseball, completed 18 of 24 throws for 211 yards and three touchdowns.

Point production for the East was the highest in the 42-year history of the Shrine charity game and the total of 67 also set a new record. Talbott's three touchdown tosses equaled the most ever for an East-West game.

He hit on plays covering 25 yards to Michigan State's Gene Washington, nine yards to Minnesota's Ken Last, and 14 to Michigan's Jack Clancy.

Notre Dame's Nick Eddy scored on two plays covering 49 yards each, the first a pass from Russell and the second a dash from scrimmage.

The West didn't get a first down until only five minutes were left in the third quarter and didn't score until the final period. East passers and runners piled up 513 yards for a record total and dominated the action before the crowd of 56,000 in Kezar Stadium.

Talbott received the William M. Coffman Trophy as the outstanding offensive player. Michigan State linebacker George Webster was awarded the Spaulding award as the best on defense even though he missed much of the second half with a rib injury.

"I don't think I deserved that much credit," said Talbott. "But I came here knowing I had my work cut out for me."

Daugherty termed the East squad the best he has ever coached in an all-star affair. Many of the players, but not including Talbott, now go to Hawaii for Friday night's Hula Bowl game.

Schollander Has Irish Swim Mark

BELFAST (AP) — Don Schollander of Santa Clara, Calif., competing in an international meet, set an Irish 400-meter freestyle swimming record yesterday in 4:29.7. The Olympic champion bettered the old mark by 16.1 seconds to beat Alan Kimber of England by two yards.

DEEP STEAM Wall to Wall Carpet Cleaning

This unique new process cleans deep and yet treats the finest carpet with loving care . . .

DEEP STEAM removes soil from both the pile of the carpet and the carpet backing. Since no brushes or scrubbing action are used, there is no distortion of the carpet pile. The powerful extraction action of the DEEP STEAM process lifts matted pile to "like new" appearance. The need of frequent professional cleaning is reduced because deeply embedded soil is removed and leaves no residue in the carpet fibers to collect dirt.

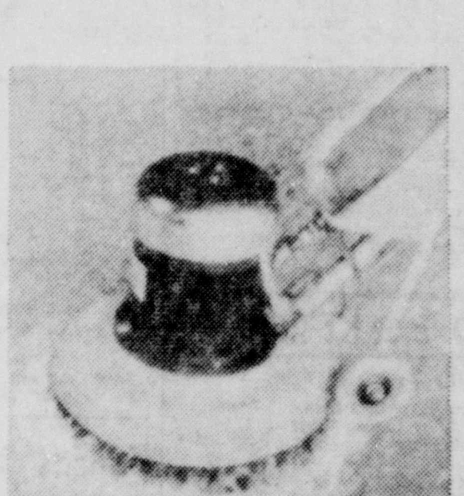
OLD



The old equipment with brushes, using liquid detergent or powder, scrubs the soil DEEPER into the fabric . . . and even with the help of a vacuum fails to remove soil or residue. The detergent or powder left in the fabric soon attracts more soil and it is not long before the soil works back to the surface. Soon your carpets appear more soiled than before!

THIS DEEP STEAM PROCESS IS GUARANTEED TO BE COMPLETELY SAFE ON ALL FABRICS UNDER ALL CONDITIONS!

The advantages of DEEP STEAM CLEANING are obvious!

By RON SPEER

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Coach Ray Graves says Florida's football team finally has proven it belongs in the big time, and the Gators have a young halfback who should be able to keep them there for the next couple of years.

The Gators have had only one losing season in seven years under Graves, but they never have won a Southeastern Conference title and until last night never had won in a big bowl except at the Gator Bowl.

"A lot of people wondered if Florida was a big enough team for this kind of a bowl game, and I think we showed we are," Graves said after the Gators whipped Georgia Tech 27-12 in the Orange Bowl.

The victory gave Florida a 9-2 record for the season, and although the Gators lose Heisman Trophy winner Steve Spurrier, they have a youngster who may be able to take his place.

Smith rushed for a record 187 yards and raced 94 yards for the winning touchdown on the longest run from scrimmage in Orange Bowl history.

"Smith has been a good runner for us all year," Graves said after the victory. "About 15 times he has been within one shoe of going all the way, and this time he finally did it.

"That run couldn't have come at a better time," added Graves, who said that Spurrier had a sore arm and had missed practice because of distractions brought on by his Heisman award.

"Steve is still a great ball player, and he put that ball in the end zone for us just before the half when we really needed to get on that scoreboard," Graves said.

Trailing 6-0, Spurrier sent the Gators on a 65-yard drive capped by Graham McKeel's one-yard scoring plunge which tied the score, and Wayne Barfield kicked the point to put the Gators in front to stay.

Smith contributed his record touchdown dash in the third quarter, and the Gators wrapped it up in the last period with McKeel scoring again on a plunge and Harmon Wages passing five yards for a touchdown to Jack Coons.

Georgia Tech, which scored in the first quarter on a surge capped by Kim King's 10-yard scoring toss to Craig Baynham, cut the gap in the fourth quarter when reserve quarterback Larry Good scooted 25 yards for the last Tech touchdown.

Graves and Tech Coach Bobby Dodd both praised the Gators' defenses, which picked off four passes.

"Our defense played a great game," Graves said. "The pass rush was tremendous, and the secondary play was the best we have had in a long time."

Dodd, whose team completed only four of 22 passes for a total of 128 yards, said, "Florida's defense hurt us. It's a lot better than people thought.

"But I've said all along Florida's defense was the best part of their game."

Dodd, who was Graves' former teacher when the Florida coach worked at Tech, said the running of Smith was what beat the Yellow Jackets.

"Smith hurt us more than Spurrier did. Smith was terrific," Dodd said, "and he will be great later on."

Graves, whose teams were blanked the last three times they played Tech, said he thought the Gators' rugged pregame workouts paid off.

"I think we were in better condition," he said. "We got stronger as the game went on, and we came back to win."

Dodd, whose loss was only the fourth in 13 post-season games, said he was not yet ready to retire as Tech coach, although he left the impression he may step down in the future.

Asked about speculation that the game might be his last after 22 seasons at Tech's head coach, Dodd said, "When I decide to retire it will be properly announced."

The defeat left the eighth-ranked Yellow Jackets with a 9-2 mark for the season.

eree K. Kato scored the bout 74-68 for Harada, and both Japanese judges, Haruo Ishiwatarido and K. Kashiwagi, had it for Harade 73-68 and 72-69.

The Associated Press had Harada the winner 72-71 without the one point penalty.

Both Lopez Sanchez, the Mexican's manager, and Medel agreed with the decision while questioning the penalty.

"Harade won without question on points," said Sanchez. "We didn't like the penalty point but that's the way the referee saw it and it can't be helped."

Medel, who at first secluded himself in his dressing room, finally came out and indicated satisfaction with the decision, saying simply, "It's okay."

As for the penalty point, Medel said, "I don't know why this was done."

When told it was for thumbing, Medel said that Harade had done the same.

Harada, who wrested the 118-pound title from Brazil's Eder Jofre May 18, 1965, brought his record to 46-3-3 with his third successful title defense. Medel weighed 117¼ pounds, Harada 117¾.

Super Star Sparks Alabama

Perkins Is Hero In Sugar Bowl

By BEN THOMAS

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Nebraska's roly-poly Bob Devaney is going to have nightmares for a long time about Alabama's All-America end Ray Perkins.

The superb Alabama athlete — Bear Bryant calls him a "superstar" — spoiled not one but two bowl trips for Devaney and his Cornhuskers.

Perkins' last game as an amateur came yesterday in the 33rd Sugar Bowl Classic. Bryant's tiny Crimson Tide, outweighed 25-35 pounds per man, uncorked an awesome offense and a devastating defense to crush Nebraska 34-7.

Only one time in his 10 years as a college coach did a team ever score more points on a Devaney club.

Oklahoma State defeated Devaney's Cornhuskers 34-7 in 1962-his first season at the Nebraska helm. Devaney's 1957 Wyoming team, his first year there, was defeated 39-6 by Oklahoma State.

"Perkins hurt us more than anyone else," said Devaney after the crushing defeat.

On 'Bama's first play after receiving the kickoff, Perkins hauled in an aerial from Kenny (Snake) Stabler that covered 45 yards. It put the third-ranked Red Elephants on the Nebraska 27 and seven plays later Alabama had its first touchdown.

"We felt like we wanted to test them deep right away," said Stabler, a left-handed junior quarterback. "So I sent Ray down the left side on what we call a go route.

"He just ran under control for about 10 yards, faked inside and took off. I just laid the ball up there."

Devaney said it was no surprise because he had warned his players to expect the bomb on the first play and had 6-foot-1 Kay Carstens, a 190-pounder, covering Perkins man-for-man.

"Carstens is our fastest defensive back," said Devaney. "He let Perkins get a step on him and Stabler happened to throw a perfect pass."

WANTED REVENGE

A year ago, in Miami's Orange Bowl, the 6-1, 188-pound Perkins snared nine passes for 195 yards as Alabama whipped Nebrasks 39-28. Devaney and his Big Red wanted revenge in the Sugar Bowl match this year.

After the Sugar Bowl Perkins — told once by doctors he would never play again after a head injury as a freshman — signed a contract to play with the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League.

Perkins is ticketed to be the eventual replacement for the aging Raymond Berry.

"We don't give out information about how much Johnny Unitas makes and we don't give it out about our new signees," said Don Kellett, executive vice president of the Colts.

But a reliable source said the pact calls for Perkins to receive $250,000 and a three-year no-cut contract.

Perkins, redshirted his sophomore year because of the head injury, was drafted by the Colts and the American League Boston Patriots a year ago as a future.

He collected seven passes-all from Stabler — in the Sugar Bowl and accounted for 178 yards.

MOST VALUABLE

The slender Stabler nosed out Perkins for the most valuable player award. Stabler accounted for 218 yards passing, completing 12 of 18 tosses, and was also the game's rusher with 38 yards.

"I thought it was my best game," said Stabler. "I think we could have beaten Notre Dame today."

Alabama wound up the regular season as the nation's only major college eleven with an unbeaten, untied record. But the Tide was denied its third consecutive national championship in The Associated Press poll.

Alabama finished third behind Notre Dame No. 1, and Michigan State, No. 2, the teams that played a 10-10 tie.

That means the Bear thinks they're better than his 1961, 1964 or 1965 squads, which won the national championship.

The Bryant legend was given another boost when his team came on the field for the kickoff. After three days of rain, it stopped minutes before game time and the sun actually peeked through the overcast for a few minutes.

"We prayed for rain," said Devaney. "We should have prayed for a driving rain."

Here's how the scoring went:

—Stabler skirted left end for 14 yards and a touchdown after a 42-yard strike to Perkins.

—Steve Davis kicked a 30-yard field goal after Nebraska's Harry Wilson fumbled and Charles Harris scooped the ball up for 'Bama. This gave the Tide a 17-0 lead when the first quarter ended.

—Nebraska, faced with its first shutout in 56 games, got on the scoreboard on the first play of the fourth quarter when Churchich passed nine yards to Dick Davis.

—Stabler passed to Perkins for 45 yards and a touchdown to wrap up the scoring and Davis kicked his third extra point-giving him 10 for the day, the most by a single player in the game.

Not to be overlooked was the defensive play of Johns, a 6-1, 175-pound junior defensive back. He intercepted three passes to equal the record by Mississippi's Raymond Brown in the 1958 Sugar Bowl.

AND HOW WAS YOUR DAY?—Nebraska quarterback Bob Churchich's day was just miserable as he and the Cornhuskers were thoroughly demolished by unbeaten and untied Alabama 34-7 in the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans yesterday. Georgia '11' Overpowers SMU Squad

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Georgia's football team, rated the best seen in Dallas in the collegiate season, flew home Sunday with a check forthcoming for $125,000 because the Bulldogs blasted Southern Methodist 24-9 in the Cotton Bowl.

Coach Vince Dooley said SMU made a fine game of it Saturday byt Coach Hayden Fry of Southern Methodisr had a different version—"They whipped us in every phase of the game."

Since Georgia led by as many as 15 points most of the time, Fry's version seemed to hit the nail more on the head.

The Southwest Conference, which furnishes its champion each year, wasn't exactly happy about it. It was the second straight year the conference lost in its own game.

The two teams each got $230,000. Georgia keeps $115,000 and then distribution of the remainder among members of the Southeastern Conference.

Southern Methodist retained $100,000 and figured in a split of the remainder with other members of the Southern Conference.

Stram Denies He Degraded Packers

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A statement quoting him as saying the Kansas City Chiefs would tear the Green Bay Packers apart in the pro football super bowl is "ridiculous," Coach Hank Stram of the Chiefs said today.

"I didn't say that to anyone," Stram said. "Obviously, I would never say such a thing."

GATOR BOWL

Little Strengthens His Draft Status

The bow-legged Sayracuse halfback was the individual star of the game and the most frequent topic of conversation, although Tennessee's smaller but quicker team won 18-12.

When the professionals hold their draft, Little is certain to be a high selection. So will Gary Bugenhagen, a all-America tackle from Syracuse who led blocking for the 330-yard combined production of Little and fullback Larry Csonka.

One of Tennessee's stars, end Austin Denney, already has joined the pros. He was a future selection last year-reflecting his redshirt status which put him one season behind his college class. Denny signed with the Dallas Cowboys an hour after the Gator Bowl.

But some of the stars of the Gator Bowl, which thrilled a record 60,312 crowd plus a national television audience, will be back to give their teams a nucleus for next season.

The most notable is Dewey Warren, Tennessee quarterback who threw touchdown passes of 24 yards to Kennedy and two yards to wingback Richmond Flowers, completing 17 of 29 for 244 lards.

Tennessee loses end Johnny Mills, who caught eight passes for 86 yards, and all-America linebacker Paul Naumoff in addition to Denny.

For Syracuse, Csonka, the pile driving fullback, has another year. So does quarterback Rick Cassata, hobbled by a knee injury in the game.

Little's rushing record of 216 yards erased a Gator Bowl mark that stood since 1948, when Lu Gambino of Maryland ran 175 yards in a 20-20 tie against Georgia.

Another record was broken Gary Wright kicked two field goals for Tennessee's first six points. Four players had kicked one field goal each in a Gator Bowl game and shared the old record.

Strong Russ Dominate World Hockey

WINNIPEG, Manitoba (AP) — "The way the Russians were shooting at me you'd think we were at war," sighed a perspiring Carl Wetzel.

The 28-year-old ex-professional, who tried out with Detroit in the National Hockey League in 1964, turned aside 43 shots by the precision-passing Russians in their first game of the centennial world hockey tournament yesterday.

But seven got by and the defending champion Soviets had an easy 7-1 victory and a tie for first place with Canada in the four-team, round-robin tournament.

Canada beat Czechoslovakia 5-3 Sunday and is the next opponent of the United States today.

"The Russians opened up strongly and they showed a good control of the puck," said Wetzel, who stopped 21 of 24 first period shots and 37 of 44 in the first two stanzas.

"I had a busy night, but I am still not happy with my performance. When you let seven goals go by you, you just don't feel happy about the way you're doing your job."

U.S. Coach John Mariucci called his opponents the strongest Russian team he had ever seen. He felt they would "hold their own in the National Hockey League."

MARIN LEAGUE OPENS FRIDAY

Ring-A-Ding Cage Race Is Predicted

Some of the pieces to what is beginning to look like a ring-a-ding jigsaw puzzle will start to fall into place this weekend as Marin County Athletic League conference basketball action starts in earnest with three loop battles on tap.

With no clear-cut favorite in sight, at least judging from pre-season records, MCAL foes will get an idea of how they'll fare against each other when pre-season favorite Tamalpais hosts surprising San Rafael, Marin Catholic takes on Novato and Terra Linda hosts Redwood.

Defending champion Drake takes a first-week bye from conference action but has two practice games to continue the sharpening up process.

Drake looms as a solid contender after back-to-back impressive victories over Salesian and Poly. The Pirates meet Santa Rosa at Santa Rosa today and tackle Salesian again at Drake Thursday.

Today is the last general warmup day for the remainder of MCAL teams as San Rafael visits high-scoring Petaluma, Terra Linda is at dangerous Vallejo and Novato takes on El Molino at Forestville.

The three conference lid-lifters should at least answer several questions. Tam should find out if its role as conference favorite is something more than just a sham and if its pre-season showing of 1-8 is nothing more than prolonged growing pains. The Indians will get a good test from San Rafael, owner of a 6-4 pre-season mark and one of the top defenses in the league.

Up-and-down Redwood, which was down in its most recent outing, could be in for trouble against a deceptive Terra Linda squad that has three scorers in double figure averages. The Giants have a 7-5 record to the Trojans' 3-6 but it could be a lot closer than records might indicate.

Marin Catholic's youthful go-go gang should have an easy time of it against Novato, which is experiencing a very off year with a 2-7 record. The Wildcats, with four starters in double figures, lack only height and not much else. They are 6-4 on the season.

This week's cage schedule:

Today

Drake at Santa Rosa, 4 p.m.

San Rafael at Petaluma, 4 p.m.

Terra Linda at Vallejo, 3:45 p.m.

Novato vs. El Molino at Forestville, 4 p.m.

Wednesday

Redwood at Westmoor, 3:15.

Thursday

Salesian at Drake, 3:45.

Friday

College of Marin vs. Siskiyous at Weed, 8 p.m.

Marin Catholic at Novato, 8:15 p.m.

San Rafael at Tamalpais, 8:15 p.m.

Redwood at Terra Linda, 8:15 p.m.

Saturday

College of Marin vs. Shasta at Redding, 8 p.m.

A TESTIMONIAL FOR THE GYM CUSTODIAN

Pete Camporelli, San Rafael High School gymnasium custodian who retired last November after 18 years on the job, will be honored Jan. 14 with a testimonial dinner.

The testimonial will be at Nave Lanes, with no host cocktails followed by dinner at 7:30 p.m. Price is $6 and includes dinner, tax, tip and gift. Wives of friends are welcome, but reservations must be called to Nave Lanes.

Serving on the committee are Sam DiVito, Dr. William Cook, Dick Read, Pete Limm, Bob Muster, Paul Miller, Ang Colombo, Carl "Red" Brown, and Bill and Rich Nave.

Camporelli, who started working at San Rafael High in 1948, never missed a Bulldogs' football game, and would watch and cheer from the sidelines. He also was a timer for the school's basketball games.

Marin Catholic Has Best Practice Mark

Marin Catholic High School's basketball team, with four starters averaging 10 points per game or better, has the best non-league win-loss percentage among Marin Athletic League teams.

The Wildcats have won six of their nine games so far this season.

Top scorer so far is Redwood High School's Andre Horn with 191 points in 11 games, an average of 17.3 per game. Next in line are Drake's Chet Carlisle, 15.7 average, and Redwood's Jack Fitzhenry, 15.3.

Santa Clara Succumbs To Creighton '5'

SAN JOSE (AP)—Santa Clara built up a nine-point second half lead, but then saw it chipped away as visiting Creighton from Nebraska scored a 79-78 college basketball victory last night.

A 15-foot hook shot by Creighton's Jim Powers sealed the Apaches' eighth win of the season against two losses. Santa Clara is now 4-5.

Creighton jumped to an 8-2 early lead, held a 39-36 half time advantage, before Santa Clara rallied to build a 60-51 lead with 11:44 remaining in the game. Then Creighton took over again and Wally Anderzunas' 20-foot jumper with 2:14 to go closed the gap to 78-77, setting up Powers' winning shot.

Powers and Anderzunas led Creighton scorers with 20 points each. Bud Ogden of Santa Clara led all scorers with 24 points and teammate Ron Lane added 18.

Kansas Runner Nabs 5,000-Meter In Brazil

SAN PAULO, Brazil (AP)—John Lawson of Kansas won the 5,000-meter run in 14.39 flat last night in an international track and field meet sponsored by the Federation Paulista de Atletismo.

Lawson beat Bernard Marroquin of France by about 50 yards.

Novato Five May Surprise A Few Teams

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Novato High School's basketball team isn't about to win any championship this year but new coach Bill Aires feels his boys may come up with a surprise or two before the race is over.

Aires, who coached the Hornets' Class B team last year, is trying varsity competition for the first time. He's replacing John Panagakis who now is assistant cage coach at College of Marin under Cal Riemcke.

There isn't a returning starter for Novato this year and the inexperience, then improvement, shows. After losing their first seven practice games, the Hornets came back with two straight wins.

"Our big problem has been shooting," said Aires. "We didn't crack 25 per cent in the first six games and barely 50 per cent from the free throw line. Since then we have been around 40 or 41 per cent from the floor."

STARTING FIVE

Two players on last year's varsity team, both reserves then, will be among the starting five, 6-3½ center Tom Herrnberger and 5-10 guard Harold Fain, both seniors. The other guard, 5-10 John Howard is also a senior but had to sit out most of last season with a broken arm. Joining Herrnberger up front will be forwards Bob Tait, a junior transfer student from El Camino High in San Francisco, and Steve McNally, a sophomore up from the "B" team. Tait is 6-2 and McNally 6-1.

Howard is doing most of Novato's scoring, averaging about 12 points per game.

The sixth man on the squad is guard Frank Perachiotti, a senior who sat out last year after playing "B" basketball as a sophomore. Aires was counting on guard Bob Anderson, No. 2 scorer in last year's MCAL Class B division, but he has been advised not to play by his physician because of a skin ailment.

HORNETS IMPROVING

"I'm glad we're playing a lot of practice games," said Aires. "We're improving quite a bit. We'll be better in the league than we were in the Drake Tournament." The Hornets lost all three of those tourney games, to Balboa, Drake and Terra Linda.

Aires feels it will be a well-balanced league, but picks Marin Catholic, Redwood, San Rafael and Tamalpais to fight it out for the title. "A team will be able to win it with as many as three losses," said Aires.

Novato winds up its practice slate today with a game against El Molino High in Forestville, then opens the league slate Friday night against Marin Catholic, at Novato.

Novato's practice game record:

Novato		Opponent
37	Hogan	55
45	Vallejo	80
45	Sonoma	65
42	Balboa	66
37	Drake	42
43	Terra Linda	61
43	Wooster	67
59	Hamilton City	39
52	Pleasant Valley	47
403	(2-7)	522

A. P. BASKETBALL RATINGS

UCLA Still No. 1; Three New Teams Join Top 10

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The top two teams in college basketball — UCLA and Louisville — held onto their positions by winning tournaments while three other teams — Providence, Kansas and Bradley — climbed into the Top 10 by doing the same thing.

The latest Associated Press poll — based on games through Saturday night and announced today — shows Providence in seventh place, Kansas in ninth and Bradley tied for 10th with another addition to the select group Mississippi State.

They replace St. John's, N.Y., and Vanderbilt, which each lost once last week, and Michigan State, which lost twice.

UCLA received 38 of the 39 first-place votes cast by a national panel of sports writers and broadcasters. The Bruins extended their record to 8-0 with three victories in the Los Angeles Classic.

Louisville won three games in the Quaker City tournament for an 11-0 mark while North Carolina, which received the other vote for first, remained third with two non-tournament triumphs for a 9-0 record.

The Top Ten, with first place votes in parentheses, season records and total points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

1 .UCLA (38) 8-0	389
2. Louisville 11-0	339
3. North Carolina (1) 9-0	309
4. New Mexico 0-1	215
5. Houston 11-1	168
6. Texas Western 8-2	108
7. Providence 8- 2	93
8. Cincinnati 8-1	92
9. Kansas 9-2	51
10. Bradley 9-2	44
Mississippi State 8-0	44

NORTH CAROLINA SURPRISED

Princeton's Mighty Upset

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The fastest guns in the East belong to Princeton and Coach Bill Van Breda Kolff has them firing on target.

The Tigers shot an amazing 65.5 per cent last night and knocked off third-ranked North Carolina 91-81 at Chapel Hill.

"This is a better team than the one Bill Bradley led to the NCAA finals two years ago," said Van Breda Kolff. "We have better balance than that team. Our kids like to shoot. They can shoot with anybody."

Princeton showed it could do that against the Tar Heels, who had won nine straight without a loss. The Tigers canned 35 of 55 shots from the floor and even North Carolina's 50 per cent average wasn't enough to keep up.

John Haarlow led the amazing accuracy show, hitting on 11 of 13 shots and finishing with 24 points. Joe Heiser added 19 and Chris Thomforde had 17.

Two other members of the Associated Press Top 10 won impressively while another was beaten.

Houston, ranked fifth, walloped Tennessee Tech 95-69 and New Mexico, fourth in the ratings, drubbed Denver 65-43.

Mississippi State, which made its debut in the poll by tying Bradley for No. 10, was beaten by Florida 63-54.

Larry Miller led North Carolina with 31 points but the Tar Heels missed the rebounding strength of 6-foot-11 sophomore Rusty Clark, who played only nine minutes because of intestinal flu.

Elvin Hayes poured in 26 points and grabbed a dozen rebounds, leading Houston to its romp over Tennessee Tech. The Cougars, who won their 10th straight and 12th in 13 starts, led by as many as 33 points and breezed to the victory.

New Mexico's aggressive defense limited Denver to 17 points in the second half and the Lobos ran their record to 10-1. Ben Monroe led the winners with 18 points and Mel Daniels added 16.

Previously unbeaten Mississippi State, which had won eight straight, couldn't handle Florida's height and the taller Gators beat the 10th ranked Bulldogs off the boards.

Florida snared 56 rebounds to 30 for the losers and David Miller's 19 points led the Gators' attack.

Dayton got 58 points from Glinder Torain and Don May in a 100-78 romp over Harvard. Torain scored 30 and May had 28 and 19 rebounds for the Flyers, who ran their record to 10-1.

Marquette shot a hot 58 per cent from the Floor and out-rebounded taller Brigham Young in an 81-70 victory. Bob Wolf led Marquette with 22 points while 6-foot-11 Craig Raymond had 20 for the losers.

"I never expect any team to beat us off the boards like that," said BYU Coach Stan Watts. Marquette grabbed 34 rebounds to 25 for the losers.

In other games, Rhode Island whacked Brown 81-59, Vanderbilt squeezed past Alabama 84-81, Georgia topped Mississippi 85-78 and Oklahoma City topped Texas Christian 92-83.

of the left shoulder, but Stram said he will be able to take part in the workouts and will be ready for the game.

"I'll play if Lamar Hunt (Chiefs' owner) has to buy me a new shoulder," Arbanas delared.

Biodrowski has lame ankles, just as he did two weeks before the Buffalo game. But he was ready for the title ontest and is expeted to be set for the Packer game.

While Green Bay had to fight off the determined Dallas Cowboys for a 34-27 victory and the NFL title Sunday, the Chiefs made a surprising rout of their battle at Buffalo.

The Buffalo Bills gained only 40 net yards rushing and were not inside the Chiefs' 48 in the second half.

Kansas City's Jerrell Wilson grabbed a Buffalo fumble on the opening kickoff and three plays later the Chiefs had a touchdown. That set the tempo.

Buffalo kept its poise and was driving for a touchdown that would have tied the score at 14-14 in the last minute of the first half.

From the 11, quarterback Jack Kemp fired a pass toward Bob Crockett, wide open in the end zone after defender Willie Mitchell slipped and fell.

That set up a field goal that made the halftime score 17-7, instead of 14-14. The Chiefs went on from there.

Stram put some new wrinkles in his offense and defense for Buffalo but he doesn't think he will for Green Bay.

"We changed against Buffalo because they've played against us so long they can read our formations as soon as we line up," Stram said. "We won't have the same problem against the Packers."

with 2½ minutes remaining had a first down on the Packer two-yard line.

It was fourth down, 28 seconds and still two yards to go after Green Bay's defense held firm. Meredith rolled out to pass but Dave Robinson broke through and got a hand on Meredith, who managed to pull away and get rid of the ball.

Tom Brown, a former major league baseball player, leaped high and intercepted for the Packers in the end zone.

That was the money play of the game, and Green Bay ran out the clock.

"It was the biggest play I ever made," Brown said. "Don had to throw the ball. It was fourth down . . . when I saw that ball coming on that pass, it looked, oh, so nice . . ."

The Kansas City Coach Hank Stram was quoted as saying his team will "tear apart" the Packers on Jan. 15.

Told of this, Lombardi said, "Good for Stram. If he said anything else, I wouldn't have any respect for him."

"With the Super Bowl ahead of us, winning this game was more important than ever. The money is unquestionably a big thing. But it's really more than that.

"We wanted to be in it. We like to think that we've been the symbol of the NFL over the last few years. And we want to win it for the NFL."

Great Quotes Of 1966: Durocher, DeWitt, Etc.

(With apologies to colleague Art Buchwald who beat me to the idea in print—but since I'm fresh out of interviews with lady bowlers or Egyptian hammer-throwers, I can't afford to throw away the notes—I bring you today "Great Quotes of 1966." If they didn't say them, they should have!)

Buzzie Bavasi,' Dodgers: "Koufax quit? Don't make me laugh! What's he gonna do, drive a truck?"

ARNOLD PALMER, at the National Open: "Never mind Casper's score. He can't catch me. What was Hogan's record in this thing?"

LEO DUROCHER, Cubs: "No, no, you guys got it all wrong! What I said was, 'WISE guys finish last.' "

ART MODELL, Cleveland Browns: "Jim Brown turn actor? That's a hot one! What's he gonna play—British prime ministers? How many parts they got for a guy carrying a football?"

BILL DE WITT, Cincinnati Reds: "They'll give me Milt Pappas for Frank Robinson? Quick! Before they change their minds! They must be outta their heads!"

CLEVELAND WILLIAMS: "I may not beat Clay but I'll tell you one thing: he'll know he's been in a fight!"

UNNAMED UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS ALUMNI GROUP: "Look, you slip the kids a few bucks to play football. Big deal! Who's gonna find out about it?"

CASEY STENGEL, PATRIARCH: "I am asked to define the World Series, well, you have one team which is able to run which is all they can do, only you can't commence to run till you get to first base which everyone has forgotten, and now you have this other team which is the only thing they are able to do is to hit home runs which is a play where you can walk if you want to and Babe Ruth never broke no clocks and—what? The 1966 World Series? I'm talking about the 1913 World Series. Now, if you'll excuse the interruption which Edna does all the time only now I am on second base and it's the third inning and Masterson is hiding the ball—what? Christy Masterson, the great pitcher, the Big Eight . . . don't you know nuthin?"

ANY ONE OF A DOZEN LATE SPRINT CAR DRIVERS: "Whattaya mean 'danger?' Look, I'm safer in that thing than you are on the freeway any day in the week."

STARTER AT THE INDIANAPOLIS 500: "A 13-car pileup at the start? Are you kidding? There's 33 of the best and safest drivers in the world out there on that track! What are ya, a Communist?"

PRESS BOX "EXPERT": "I tell ya, there's NO way SC can go to the Rose Bowl. UCLA beat 'em fair and square. So what if they're conference champions? A technicality. Besides, what if Notre Dame beats 'em 20-0 next week? How would THAT look in the Rose Bowl?"

FIGHT "EXPERT": "Well, I don't know about Dempsey and Louis, but when you rate the great champions you got to put Sonny Liston right up there. And don't overlook Primo Carnera."

DAN REEVES, RAMS: "Waste a draft choice on Mike Garrett? Why? He's too little for pro ball. We saw the pictures."

WELLINGTON MARA, NEW YORK GIANTS: "A merger between the two leagues? Never! Not so long as I draw breath! We worked too hard to get this game where it is. Right, George? And don't try to bribe me with a first draft quarterback. This is a matter of principle!"

MAURY WILLS: "Look, Walter, you seen one Japanese shrine, you seen 'em all. Just tell the Emperor I got homesick for some poi. Why make a big thing out of it?"

BASEBALL COMMISSIONER WILLIAM D. ECKERT: "The grand old game continued to make outstanding progress during the old year and it is in this spirit that I want to wish each and every one of you a happy and prosperous 1897!"

And so I wish you all—a New Year!"

East Shrine Hero Talbott Favors Pro Baseball Life

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"We were told he wasn't much of a passer," related West coach John Ralston who received a big surprise when he watched North Carolina's Danny Talbott.

The quarterback hit the first 11 passes he threw, five each on two touchdown drives and another which led to a field goal, as the East jumped into a 17-0 lead en route to a 45-22 victory over the West at Kezar Stadium Saturday.

Even Duffy Daugherty, who coached the East, was surprised.

"We couldn't separate our quarterbacks in practice sessions and I told both Talbott and Benny Russell Louisville they would have an equal chance in the first half," Duffy said. "They did, but that Talbott connected for his first 11. That's a pretty good percentage, isn't it?"

The North Carolinian, who feel's he too small at 180 pounds for a pro football career so leans toward baseball, completed 18 of 24 throws for 211 yards and three touchdowns.

Point production for the East was the highest in the 42-year history of the Shrine charity game and the total of 67 also set a new record. Talbott's three touchdown tosses equaled the most ever for an East-West game.

He hit on plays covering 25 yards to Michigan State's Gene Washington, nine yards to Minnesota's Ken Last, and 14 to Michigan's Jack Clancy.

Notre Dame's Nick Eddy scored on two plays covering 49 yards each, the first a pass from Russell and the second a dash from scrimmage.

The West didn't get a first down until only five minutes were left in the third quarter and didn't score until the final period. East passers and runners piled up 513 yards for a record total and dominated the action before the crowd of 56,000 in Kezar Stadium.

Talbott received the William M. Coffman Trophy as the outstanding offensive player, Michigan State linebacker George Webster was awarded the Spaulding award as the best on defense even though he missed much of the second half with a rib injury.

"I don't think I deserved that much credit," said Talbott. "But I came here knowing I had my work cut out for me."

Daugherty termed the East squad the best he has ever coached in an all-star affair. Many of the players, but not including Talbott, now go to Hawaii for Friday night's Hula Bowl game.

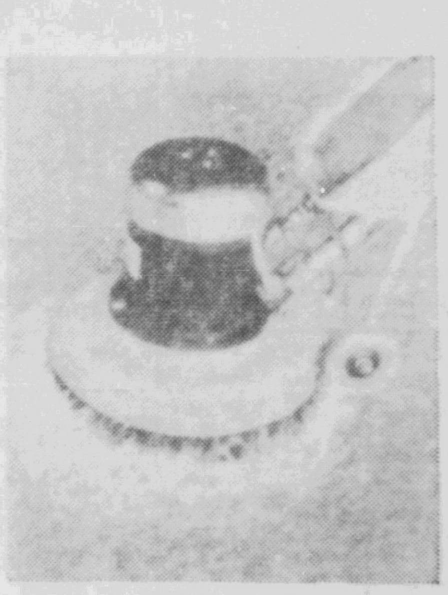
Schollander Has Irish Swim Mark

BELFAST (AP) — Don Schollander of Santa Clara, Calif., competing in an international meet, set an Irish 400-meter freestyle swimming record yesterday in 4:29.7. The Olympic champion bettered the old mark by 16.1 seconds to beat Alan Kimber of England by two yards.



NEW
DEEP STEAM Wall to Wall Carpet Cleaning
This unique new process cleans deep and yet treats the finest carpet with loving care . . .
NEW
DEEP STEAM removes soil from both the pile of the carpet and the carpet backing. Since no brushes or scrubbing action are used, there is no distortion of the carpet pile. The powerful extraction action of the DEEP STEAM process lifts matted pile to "like new" appearance. The need of frequent professional cleaning is reduced because deeply embedded soil is removed and leaves no residue in the carpet fibers to collect dirt.
OLD
The old equipment with brushes, using liquid detergent or powder, scrubs the soil DEEPER into the fabric . . . and even with the help of a vacuum fails to remove soil or residue. The detergent or powder left in the fabric soon attracts more soil and it is not long before the soil works back to the surface. Soon your carpets appear more soiled than before!
THIS DEEP STEAM PROCESS IS GUARANTEED TO BE COMPLETELY SAFE ON ALL FABRICS UNDER ALL CONDITIONS!

Market Shuts High In Debut Of 1967

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed higher today as it made its debut for 1967.

The market, however, was much stronger at the start than at the end. Trading began with a burst of buying which sent the list sharply higher. Then the pace slackened.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.5 million shares compared with 11.33 million Friday.

Prices rose at the opening in a burst of heavy trading then kept the better part of their gains as dealings slowed considerably.

The removal of yearend tax-loss selling took the brakes off prices which had been declining for the last four sessions of 1966. The 1967 market struck a bright note at the start.

Boeing loomed as the most active stock, boosted by an opening block of 100,000 shares on which it advanced 3⅛ to 68¾. The company's design for the supersonic air transport (SST) was chosen above Lockheed's. Boeing trimmed its rise by about a point. Lockheed sank about 4 points.

General Electric, picked to produce the engine for the SST, was up nearly 2. Fairchild Hiller, a major subcontractor for the SST, made a similar gain.

Beckman Instruments was off a fraction, recovering partially from a 1-point loss on a 55,500-share block.

Steels widened early gains. U.S. and Republic Steel advanced about 2, Bethlehem about 1½, Jones & Laughlin more than a point.

Xerox gained 7, Polaroid 4 and Du Pont 3.

Up about 2 were Zenith, Anaconda, Union Carbide, Control Data and Liggett & Myers.

Prices were mostly higher in active trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Baltimore was the first American city to replace its horse-drawn trolleys with electric streetcars, a change made in 1885.

Long-Term Stocks Among The Best

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "We are in our early 60s with plenty of cash reserves. We bought Gillette in 1951 and through stock splits we now own 1,200 shares. Should we add to this holding? Should we buy more stock now, such as Minnesota Mining & Mfg. and Flying Tiger? Our objective is both growth and income."

A. A.

A. I congratulate you on your strong position in Gillette. Your 900 per cent gain in this stock shows very clearly why buying for long-term growth is the best policy for most investors. You mention no other holding, so I assume that Gillette represents your entire portfolio. If that is so, I would not add more shares, but would gradually lessen my dependence on a single issue.

For this purpose, I suggest Cnsolidated Foods and American Home Products. Since the market outlook at present is pretty uncertain, I would not dip too heavily into cash reserves. Flying Tiger is too dependent on military business and is a stock for speculative gains rather than growth. Instead, I recommend Plough, Inc., a consumer stock.

Q. "I am a widow looking for more income. What do you think of Public Service Electric & Gas; Columbia Gas and Seaboard Air Line?" M. L.

A. I believe your first two choices are excellent income stocks. Their growth rate has been moderate, but Public Service and Columbia provide stability, safety and a good return. Both utilities provide satisfactory yields. Although Seaboard's dividend looks secure and a proposed merger with Atlantic Coast Line is encouraging, I would rather see you in a stronger, more stable situation such as Union Pacific, currently offering a substantially higher return.

Glass Containers Show Price Decline

NEW YORK (UPI) —The U.S. Department of Labor's price index for glass containers stands at 99.2, compared with 100 for the base period of 1957-59. During the intervening years the level has never exceeded 102 and has been as low as 96.5. In this same period the cost-of-living index rose 14 per cent.

According to Richard L. Cheney, executive director of the Glass Container Manufacturers Institute, industry advances in production machinery and technology have kept the bottle and jar highly competitive in the packaging market and made possible the record of price stability.

For Builders, 1966 Was Year Of Ups, Downs

By DAVE SMITH

NEW YORK (AP)—For builders, 1966 was the best of times and the worst of times. The construction industry as a whole set records, while one sector — home-building — entered its worst slump in two decades.

The U.S. Commerce Department estimated outlays for all construction at a record $75.9 billion, a sizable gain over the $68.5 billion spent in 1965.

But privately financed housing construction, expected to jump from 1965's 1,425,000 units to 1,515,000 in 1966, plummeted instead. The year's total of 1.2 million housing starts was that low only once before since World War II—in the 1957 recession.

And in October, the seasonally adjusted rate of housing starts dropped to 848,000, a 20-year low. The previous lowest annual rate of starts since World War II was 957,000, in November 1964.

The 1966 growth in dollar volume was larger than expected, despite the housing sag, partly because of a 32 per cent expansion in industrial construction, but also because of climbing building costs, economists said.

For 1967, they predict a slight boost to $76.1 billion in dollar volume but cuts in physical volume in building. In all, considering government efforts to bolster the housing market and cutbacks in public building, the Commerce Department says, "both private and public outlays will level off in the coming year."

The home-building recession was created, economists said, as a somewhat ironic by-product of a generally booming U.S. economy. Savings and loan firms, which normally underwrite about one-third of the nation's building mortgages, found safer investments elsewhere than among the smaller, higher-risk builders who normally form a large part of their clientele.

Scores of smaller builders went out of business as credit tightened on them, and the National Association of Home Builders estimated late in the year that one of every six contractors in the nation would be engaged in other work before the tight money situation eased in 1967.

Finland's Austerity Balances Its Trade

The trade deficit was cut 61.4 finnmarks (more than $20 million) in the first nine months of 1966. The export total for the period was 3.6 per cent over the corresponding period of 1965, while imports rose only 1.7 per cent.

Roy Peterson Opens Personal Service Co. In San Rafael

A new enterprise of Roy J. Peterson of Novato is Personal Service Co., handling a line of products such as rug cleaners, deodorants and sanitary preparations for sale direct to the consumer.

Peterson has set up an office at 503 D Street, San Rafael, from which point he expects to have representatives covering the entire county. And eventually he intends to spread his service throughout the Bay Area.

This is quite a departure from his previous activities as a blasting contractor. He has done blasting in Greenbrae, San Rafael, Marin County Civic Center and many other Marin areas and has worked with the government on atomic explosions.

LIGHTS OF SAN RAFAEL, INC., 118 Jacoby Street, San Rafael, has been appointed Marin County distributor for Virden Lighting Co., one of the largest firms of its kind in the country, and is now displaying table lamps in addition to other electrical fixtures. The firm is also featuring original paintings by Mary Ellen Wehrli and Judith Peyrat.

Winter

Gombia

S. LEROY WINTER of Kentfield has retired from Cal/Ink Division, Tenneco Chemicals, Inc. after 32 years of service with the company. He has been assistant vice president and manager of the San Francisco branch and previously managed the Salt Lake City office for a number of years.

Replacing him is another Marin man, Charles Gombia of Lucas Valley, with the company since 1933. For the past five years he has been sales supervisor for printing inks at the San Francisco office.

Palmer

Holter

A. LESLIE PALMER of Mill Valley has been appointed branch manager for P and O Lines in Miami. He has been the steamship company's tour and interline manager — in service with the firm for 12 years. After his tour of duty in Florida he plans to return to Mill Valley where he has lived for the past three years. His appointment is effective Jan. 9. His wife and family will join him in Florida in March.

PAUL C. HOLTER of Kent Woodlands has been appointed executive vice president of Drake Publications, San Francisco, which plans to open another office soon in Los Angeles. Holter was previously western sales manager of the NBC Radio network and before that was affiliated with KCBS, San Francisco and Avery-Knodel, Inc.

W. R. DAVENPORT of Lucas Valley has been appointed Northern California sales coordinator for Metro Transit Advertising. He was previously sales manager in San Francisco.

A SEMINAR for executives of companies planning or conducting business operations in Mexico will be presented by University of California Extension on Friday and Saturday, Jan. 20-21, at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco. The conference will feature three panels of Mexican business leaders and technical experts who will survey Mexico's economy, markets and resources. Meetings will be held all day Friday and through lunch on Saturday—both days from 9 a.m. Registration is $125 and should be made as early as possible through the U.C. Extension's business administration department in Berkeley, as the size of the class is limited.

A REPORT from the Better Business Bureau of San Francisco notes that there has been unauthorized billing in the North Bay area for "renewal" of an advertisement in a building trades directory. Union officials of the AFL-CIO Construction and Building Trades Council say there is no agreement with them to publish a directory. Check out any such billing before you pay it. I seem to recall that this has happened in Marin before.

MARIN LEAGUE OPENS FRIDAY

Ring-A-Ding Cage Race Is Predicted

Independent Journal Sports
32 Tues., Jan. 3, 1967

Some of the pieces to what is beginning to look like a ring-a-ding jigsaw puzzle will start to fall into place this weekend as Marin County Athletic League conference basketball action starts in earnest with three loop battles on tap.

With no clear-cut favorite in sight, at least judging from pre-season records, MCAL foes will get an idea of how they'll fare against each other when pre-season favorite Tamalpais hosts surprising San Rafael, Marin Catholic takes on Novato and Terra Linda hosts Redwood.

Defending champion Drake takes a first-week bye from conference action but has two practice games to continue the sharpening up process.

Drake looms as a solid contender after back-to-back impressive victories over Salesian and Poly. The Pirates meet Santa Rosa at Santa Rosa today and tackle Salesian again at Drake Thursday.

Today is the last general warmup day for the remainder of MCAL teams as San Rafael visits high-scoring Petaluma, Terra Linda is at dangerous Vallejo and Novato takes on El Molino at Forestville.

The three conference lid-lifters should at least answer several questions. Tam should find out if its role as conference favorite is something more than just a sham and if its pre-season showing of 1-8 is nothing more than prolonged growing pains. The Indians will get a good test from San Rafael, owner of a 6-4 pre-season mark and one of the top defenses in the league.

Up-and-down Redwood, which was down in its most recent outing, could be in for trouble against a deceptive Terra Linda squad that has three scorers in double figure averages. The Giants have a 7-5 record to the Trojans' 3-6 but it could be a lot closer than records might indicate.

Marin Catholic's youthful go-go gang should have an easy time of it against Novato, which is experiencing a very off year with a 2-7 record. The Wildcats, with four starters in double figures, lack only height and not much else. They are 6-4 on the season.

This week's cage schedule:

Today

Drake at Santa Rosa, 4 p.m.

San Rafael at Petaluma, 4 p.m.

Terra Linda at Vallejo, 3:45 p.m.

Novato vs. El Molino at Forestville, 4 p.m.

Wednesday

Redwood at Westmoor, 3:15.

Thursday

Salesian at Drake, 3:45.

Friday

College of Marin vs. Siskiyous at Weed, 8 p.m.

Marin Catholic at Novato, 8:15 p.m.

San Rafael at Tamalpais, 8:15 p.m.

Redwood at Terra Linda, 8:15 p.m.

Saturday

College of Marin vs. Shasta at Redding, 8 p.m.

A TESTIMONIAL FOR THE GYM CUSTODIAN

Pete Camporelli, San Rafael High School gymnasium custodian who retired last November after 18 years on the job, will be honored Jan. 14 with a testimonial dinner.

The testimonial will be at Nave Lanes, with no host cocktails followed by dinner at 7:30 p.m. Price is $6 and includes dinner, tax, tip and gift. Wives of friends are welcome, but reservations must be called to Nave Lanes.

Serving on the committee are Sam DiVito, Dr. William Cook, Dick Read, Pete Limm, Bob Muster, Paul Miller, Ang Colombo, Carl "Red" Brown, and Bill and Rich Nave.

Camporelli, who started working at San Rafael High in 1948, never missed a Bulldogs' football game, and would watch and cheer from the sidelines. He also was a timer for the school's basketball games.

Marin Catholic Has Best Practice Mark

Marin Catholic High School's basketball team, with four starters averaging 10 points per game or better, has the best non-league win-loss percentage among Marin Athletic League teams.

The Wildcats have won six of their nine games so far this season.

Top scorer so far is Redwood High School's Andre Horn with 191 points in 11 games, an average of 17.3 per game. Next in line are Drake's Chet Carlisle, 15.7 average, and Redwood's Jack Fitzhenry, 15.3.

Santa Clara Succumbs To Creighton '5'

SAN JOSE (AP)—Santa Clara built up a nine-point second half lead, but then saw it chipped away as visiting Creighton from Nebraska scored a 79-78 college basketball victory last night.

A 15-foot hook shot by Creighton's Jim Powers sealed the Apaches' eighth win of the season against two losses. Santa Clara is now 4-5.

Creighton jumped to an 8-2 early lead, held a 39-36 half time advantage, before Santa Clara rallied to build a 60-51 lead with 11:44 remaining in the game. Then Creighton took over again and Wally Anderzunas' 20-foot jumper with 2:14 to go closed the gap to 78-77, setting up Powers' winning shot.

Powers and Anderzunas led Creighton scorers with 20 points each. Bud Ogden of Santa Clara led all scorers with 24 points and teammate Ron Lane added 18.

Kansas Runner Nabs 5,000-Meter In Brazil

SAN PAULO, Brazil (AP)—John Lawson of Kansas won the 5,000-meter run in 14.39 flat last night in an international track and field meet sponsored by the Federation Paulista de Atletismo.

Lawson beat Bernard Marroquin of France by about 50 yards.

Novato Five May Surprise A Few Teams

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Novato High School's basketball team isn't about to win any championship this year but new coach Bill Aires feels his boys may come up with a surprise or two before the race is over.

Aires, who coached the Hornets' Class B team last year, is trying varsity competition for the first time. He's replacing John Panagakis who now is assistant cage coach at College of Marin under Cal Riemcke.

There isn't a returning starter for Novato this year and the inexperience, then improvement, shows. After losing their first seven practice games, the Hornets came back with two straight wins.

"Our big problem has been shooting," said Aires. "We didn't crack 25 per cent in the first six games and barely 50 per cent from the free throw line. Since then we have been around 40 or 41 per cent from the floor."

STARTING FIVE

Two players on last year's varsity team, both reserves then, will be among the starting five, 6-3½ center Tom Herrnberger and 5-10 guard Harold Fain, both seniors. The other guard, 5-10 John Howard is also a senior but had to sit out most of last season with a broken arm. Joining Herrnberger up front will be forwards Bob Tait, a junior transfer student from El Camino High in San Francisco, and Steve McNally, a sophomore up from the "B" team. Tait is 6-2 and McNally 6-1.

Howard is doing most of Novato's scoring, averaging about 12 points per game.

The sixth man on the squad is guard Frank Perachiotti, a senior who sat out last year after playing "B" basketball as a sophomore. Aires was counting on guard Bob Anderson, No. 2 scorer in last year's MCAL Class B division, but he has been advised not to play by his physician because of a skin ailment.

HORNETS IMPROVING

"I'm glad we're playing a lot of practice games," said Aires. "We're improving quite a bit. We'll be better in the league than we were in the Drake Tournament." The Hornets lost all three of those tourney games, to Balboa, Drake and Terra Linda.

Aires feels it will be a well-balanced league, but picks Marin Catholic, Redwood, San Rafael and Tamalpais to fight it out for the title. "A team will be able to win it with as many as three losses," said Aires.

Novato winds up its practice slate today with a game against El Molino High in Forestville, then opens the league slate Friday night against Marin Catholic, at Novato.

Novato's practice game record:

Novato		Opponent
37	Hogan	55
45	Vallejo	80
45	Sonoma	65
42	Balboa	66
37	Drake	42
43	Terra Linda	61
43	Wooster	67
59	Hamilton City	39
52	Pleasant Valley	47

A. P. BASKETBALL RATINGS

UCLA Still No. 1; Three New Teams Join Top 10

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The top two teams in college basketball — UCLA and Louisville — held onto their positions by winning tournaments while three other teams — Providence, Kansas and Bradley — climbed into the Top 10 by doing the same thing.

The latest Associated Press poll — based on games through Saturday night and announced today — shows Providence in seventh place, Kansas in ninth and Bradley tied for 10th with another addition to the select group Mississippi State.

They replace St. John's, N.Y., and Vanderbilt, which each lost once last week, and Michigan State, which lost twice.

UCLA received 38 of the 39 first-place votes cast by a national panel of sports writers and broadcasters. The Bruins extended their record to 8-0 with three victories in the Los Angeles Classic.

Louisville won three games in the Quaker City tournament for an 11-0 mark while North Carolina, which received the other vote for first, remained third with two non-tournament triumphs for a 9-0 record.

The Top Ten, with first place votes in parentheses, season records and total points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

1 .UCLA (38) 8-0	389
2. Louisville 11-0	339
3. North Carolina (1) 9-0	309
4. New Mexico 0-1	215
5. Houston 11-1	168
6. Texas Western 8-2	108
7. Providence 8- 2	93
8. Cincinnati 8-1	92
9. Kansas 9-2	51
10. Bradley 9-2	44
Mississippi State 8-0	44

NORTH CAROLINA SURPRISED

Princeton's Mighty Upset

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The fastest guns in the East belong to Princeton and Coach Bill Van Breda Kolff has them firing on target.

The Tigers shot an amazing 65.5 per cent last night and knocked off third-ranked North Carolina 91-81 at Chapel Hill.

"This is a better team than the one Bill Bradley led to the NCAA finals two years ago," said Van Breda Kolff. "We have better balance than that team. Our kids like to shoot. They can shoot with anybody."

Princeton showed it could do that against the Tar Heels, who had won nine straight without a loss. The Tigers canned 35 of 55 shots from the floor and even North Carolina's 50 per cent average wasn't enough to keep up.

John Haarlow led the amazing accuracy show, hitting on 11 of 13 shots and finishing with 24 points. Joe Heiser added 19 and Chris Thomforde had 17.

Two other members of the Associated Press Top 10 won impressively while another was beaten.

Houston, ranked fifth, walloped Tennessee Tech 95-69 and New Mexico, fourth in the ratings, drubbed Denver 65-43.

Mississippi State, which made its debut in the poll by tying Bradley for No. 10, was beaten by Florida 63-54.

Larry Miller led North Carolina with 31 points but the Tar Heels missed the rebounding strength of 6-foot-11 sophomore Rusty Clark, who played only nine minutes because of intestinal flu.

Elvin Hayes poured in 26 points and grabbed a dozen rebounds, leading Houston to its romp over Tennessee Tech. The Cougars, who won their 10th straight and 12th in 13 starts, led by as many as 33 points and breezed to the victory.

New Mexico's aggressive defense limited Denver to 17 points in the second half and the Lobos ran their record to 10-1. Ben Monroe led the winners with 18 points and Mel Daniels added 16.

Previously unbeaten Mississippi State, which had won eight straight, couldn't handle Florida's height and the taller Gators beat the 10th ranked Bulldogs off the boards.

Florida snared 56 rebounds to 30 for the losers and David Miller's 19 points led the Gators' attack.

Dayton got 58 points from Glinder Torain and Don May in a 100-78 romp over Harvard. Torain scored 30 and May had 28 and 19 rebounds for the Flyers, who ran their record to 10-1.

Marquette shot a hot 58 per cent from the Floor and out-rebounded taller Brigham Young in an 81-70 victory. Bob Wolf led Marquette with 22 points while 6-foot-11 Craig Raymond had 20 for the losers.

"I never expect any team to beat us off the boards like that," said BYU Coach Stan Watts. Marquette grabbed 34 rebounds to 25 for the losers.

Wayne Huckle, a sophomore topped Virginia 75-71. Chip Chase led the losers with 20.

In other games, Rhode Island whacked Brown 81-59, Vanderbilt squeezed past Alabama 84-81, Georgia topped Mississippi 85-78 and Oklahoma City topped Texas Christian 92-83.

THE PENNEY STORY

"One eye on quality; one on price"

By ROBERTA NASH

More often than not, in a store's newspaper advertising, the emphasis is on the price of merchandise, for this is the news that readers want to know.

But the Penney people want to be sure you understand that this emphasis on price in advertising does not represent the thinking within the Penney organization. The thing that makes Penney wheels go round is value, or what you get for that low price.

"We have to keep one eye on quality and the other on price," one of our buyers said to me. "Every sale we make today is designed to bring the customer back tomorrow."

Market Shuts High In Debut Of 1967

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed higher today as it made its debut for 1967.

The market, however, was much stronger at the start than at the end. Trading began with a burst of buying which sent the list sharply higher. Then the pace slackened.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.5 million shares compared with 11.33 million Friday.

Prices rose at the opening in a burst of heavy trading then kept the better part of their gains as dealings slowed considerably.

The removal of yearend tax-loss selling took the brakes off prices which had been declining for the last four sessions of 1966. The 1967 market struck a bright note at the start.

Boeing loomed as the most active stock, boosted by an opening block of 100,000 shares on which it advanced 3⅛ to 68¾. The company's design for the supersonic air transport (SST) was chosen above Lockheed's. Boeing trimmed its rise by about a point. Lockheed sank about 4 points.

General Electric, picked to produce the engine for the SST, was up nearly 2. Fairchild Hiller, a major subcontractor for the SST, made a similar gain.

Beckman Instruments was off a fraction, recovering partially from a 1-point loss on a 55,500-share block.

Steels widened early gains. U.S. and Republic Steel advanced about 2, Bethlehem about 1½, Jones & Laughlin more than a point.

Xerox gained 7, Polaroid 4 and Du Pont 3.

Up about 2 were Zenith, Anaconda, Union Carbide, Control Data and Liggett & Myers.

Prices were mostly higher in active trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Baltimore was the first American city to replace its horse-drawn trolleys with electric streetcars, a change made in 1885.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Long-Term Stocks Among The Best

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "We are in our early 60s with plenty of cash reserves. We bought Gillette in 1951 and through stock splits we now own 1,200 shares. Should we add to this holding? Should we buy more stock now, such as Minnesota Mining & Mfg. and Flying Tiger? Our objective is both growth and income." A. A.

A. I congratulate you on your strong position in Gillette. Your 900 per cent gain in this stock shows very clearly why buying for long-term growth is the best policy for most investors. You mention no other holding, so I assume that Gillette represents your entire portfolio. If that is so, I would not add more shares, but would gradually lessen my dependence on a single issue.

For this purpose, I suggest Cnsolidated Foods and American Home Products. Since the market outlook at present is pretty uncertain, I would not dip too heavily into cash reserves. Flying Tiger is too dependent on military business and is a stock for speculative gains rather than growth. Instead, I recommend Plough, Inc., a consumer stock.

Q. "I am a widow looking for more income. What do you think of Public Service Electric & Gas; Columbia Gas and Seaboard Air Line?" M. L.

A. I believe your first two choices are excellent income stocks. Their growth rate has been moderate, but Public Service and Columbia provide stability, safety and a good return. Both utilities provide satisfactory yields. Although Seaboard's dividend looks secure and a proposed merger with Atlantic Coast Line is encouraging, I would rather see you in a stronger, more stable situation such as Union Pacific, currently offering a substantially higher return.

Glass Containers Show Price Decline

NEW YORK (UPI) —The U.S. Department of Labor's price index for glass containers stands at 99.2, compared with 100 for the base period of 1957-59. During the intervening years the level has never exceeded 102 and has been as low as 96.5. In this same period the cost-of-living index rose 14 per cent.

According to Richard L. Cheney, executive director of the Glass Container Manufacturers Institute, industry advances in production machinery and technology have kept the bottle and jar highly competitive in the packaging market and made possible the record of price stability.

For Builders, 1966 Was Year Of Ups, Downs

By DAVE SMITH

NEW YORK (AP)—For builders, 1966 was the best of times and the worst of times. The construction industry as a whole set records, while one sector — home-building — entered its worst slump in two decades.

The U.S. Commerce Department estimated outlays for all construction at a record $75.9 billion, a sizable gain over the $68.5 billion spent in 1965.

But privately financed housing construction, expected to jump from 1965's 1,425,000 units to 1,515,000 in 1966, plummeted instead. The year's total of 1.2 million housing starts was that low only once before since World War II—in the 1957 recession.

And in October, the seasonally adjusted rate of housing starts dropped to 848,000, a 20-year low. The previous lowest annual rate of starts since World War II was 957,000, in November 1964.

The 1966 growth in dollar volume was larger than expected, despite the housing sag, partly because of a 32 per cent expansion in industrial construction, but also because of climbing building costs, economists said.

For 1967, they predict a slight boost to $76.1 billion in dollar volume but cuts in physical volume in building. In all, considering government efforts to bolster the housing market and cutbacks in public building, the Commerce Department says, "both private and public outlays will level off in the coming year."

The home-building recession was created, economists said, as a somewhat ironic by-product of a generally booming U.S. economy. Savings and loan firms, which normally underwrite about one-third of the nation's building mortgages, found safer investments elsewhere than among the smaller, higher-risk builders who normally form a large part of their clientele.

Scores of smaller builders went out of business as credit tightened on them, and the National Association of Home Builders estimated late in the year that one of every six contractors in the nation would be engaged in other work before the tight money situation eased in 1967.

Finland's Austerity Balances Its Trade

The trade deficit was cut 61.4 finnmarks (more than $20 million) in the first nine months of 1966. The export total for the period was 3.6 per cent over the corresponding period of 1965, while imports rose only 1.7 per cent.

Roy Peterson Opens Personal Service Co. In San Rafael

A new enterprise of Roy J. Peterson of Novato is Personal Service Co., handling a line of products such as rug cleaners, deodorants and sanitary preparations for sale direct to the consumer.

Peterson has set up an office at 503 D Street, San Rafael, from which point he expects to have representatives covering the entire county. And eventually he intends to spread his service throughout the Bay Area.

This is quite a departure from his previous activities as a blasting contractor. He has done blasting in Greenbrae, San Rafael, Marin County Civic Center and many other Marin areas and has worked with the government on atomic explosions.

LIGHTS OF SAN RAFAEL, INC., 118 Jacoby Street, San Rafael, has been appointed Marin County distributor for Virden Lighting Co., one of the largest firms of its kind in the country, and is now displaying table lamps in addition to other electrical fixtures. The firm is also featuring original paintings by Mary Ellen Wehrli and Judith Peyrat.

Winter

Gombia

S. LEROY WINTER of Kentfield has retired from Cal/Ink Division, Tenneco Chemicals, Inc. after 32 years of service with the company. He has been assistant vice president and manager of the San Francisco branch and previously managed the Salt Lake City office for a number of years.

Replacing him is another Marin man, Charles Gombia of Lucas Valley, with the company since 1933. For the past five years he has been sales supervisor for printing inks at the San Francisco office.

Palmer

Holter

A. LESLIE PALMER of Mill Valley has been appointed branch manager for P and O Lines in Miami. He has been the steamship company's tour and interline manager — in service with the firm for 12 years. After his tour of duty in Florida he plans to return to Mill Valley where he has lived for the past three years. His appointment is effective Jan. 9. His wife and family will join him in Florida in March.

PAUL C. HOLTER of Kent Woodlands has been appointed executive vice president of Drake Publications, San Francisco, which plans to open another office soon in Los Angeles. Holter was previously western sales manager of the NBC Radio network and before that was affiliated with KCBS, San Francisco and Avery-Knodel, Inc.

W. R. DAVENPORT of Lucas Valley has been appointed Northern California sales coordinator for Metro Transit Advertising. He was previously sales manager in San Francisco.

A SEMINAR for executives of companies planning or conducting business operations in Mexico will be presented by University of California Extension on Friday and Saturday, Jan. 20-21, at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco. The conference will feature three panels of Mexican business leaders and technical experts who will survey Mexico's economy, markets and resources. Meetings will be held all day Friday and through lunch on Saturday—both days from 9 a.m. Registration is $125 and should be made as early as possible through the U.C. Extension's business administration department in Berkeley, as the size of the class is limited.

A REPORT from the Better Business Bureau of San Francisco notes that there has been unauthorized billing in the North Bay area for "renewal" of an advertisement in a building trades directory. Union officials of the AFL-CIO Construction and Building Trades Council say there is no agreement with them to publish a directory. Check out any such billing before you pay it. I seem to recall that this has happened in Marin before.

THE PENNEY STORY

"One eye on quality; one on price"

By ROBERTA NASH

More often than not, in a store's newspaper advertising, the emphasis is on the price of merchandise, for this is the news that readers want to know.

But the Penney people want to be sure you understand that this emphasis on price in advertising does not represent the thinking within the Penney organization. The thing that makes Penney wheels go round is value, or what you get for that low price.

"We have to keep one eye on quality and the other on price," one of our buyers said to me. "Every sale we make today is designed to bring the customer back tomorrow."

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, Jan. 3, the third day of 1967 with 362 to follow.

The moon is in its last quarter. The morning stars are Jupiter and Mars. The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

Comedian and pianist Victor Borge was born on this day in 1909.

On this day in history:

In 1777, troops led by George Washington defeated three British regiments at the battle of Princeton, N.J.

In 1938, the March of Dimes campaign to fight infantile paralysis was organized.

In 1966, Marguerite Higgins, U.S. woman war correspondent, died at the age of 45, as the result of a "bug" she picked up in Vietnam.

A Thought for the Day — Humorist James Thurber said: "Humor is emotional chaos remembered in tranquility."

HOW TO PLAY
WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Mathematical Fiends May Not Always Pick The Proper Play

Some players take pride in computing that this play is better than that play by one-half of one per cent, or some such margin.

Opening lead — ♠ 4

The mathematical type would take the first trick with the ace of spades and lead out the ace of diamonds.

His best theoretical chance is to drop a singleton king of diamonds and then decide what to do about the clubs.

SMART PLAY

There is a fine chance that West will not play the king.

From West's point of view, it seems that East has the ace of clubs; and West wants his partner to take the first club and return a heart.

If West refuses the first club, South leads a spade to dummy and takes the diamond finesse. The rest is easy.

Even if West takes the first club, he will probably lead another spade rather than shift to hearts.

CONTINUES CLUBS

Dummy wins with the king of spades, and our practical declarer leads the ten of clubs from dummy.

This time East will probably play low, assuming that his partner has the ace of clubs.

After all, how can either defender assume that South has led the queen of clubs from A-Q-x?

South takes the ace of clubs and must hope for a 3-3 break in clubs. He can lead out the ace of diamonds to see if the king drops.

When it does not, he leads a club to the nine and cashes the last club to get rid of his losing heart.

Very few opponents would make a defensive error if they could see all of the cards.

In actual play, nine opponents out of ten would misdefend this sort of hand.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one diamond, and the next player passes.

You hold:

♠ K 7
♥ Q 6 4 2
♦ 5 4 2
♣ 10 9 4 3

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid one heart with a sensible, sound partner. Pass with the general run of partners.

You have only 5 points in high cards and you may wish to count something for the doubleton as long as you have three-card support for partner's diamonds.

This is just about enough for a borderline response with a conservative partner.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Never Point A Weapon Unless You Aim To Kill

In a gay, holiday mood, 7-year-old Denice Marie Sanders ran up to her father and said teasingly: "Shoot me, Daddy."

In the same spirit of play, the father picked up one of two .22 caliber pistols—the one loaded with blanks—and fired in the direction of his daughter. A live bullet hit her in the chest, and the little girl was dead in a few hours. The father had picked up the pistol loaded with live ammunition, thinking it was the one with the blanks.

This holiday tragedy occurred in Griffin, Ga. Similar tragedies involving guns are re-enacted in almost every other community throughout the country.

In Marin County, the number of incidents involving guns usually takes a sudden jump after Christmas. It's the time of year when youngsters are out in force, armed with pellet guns and 22's, which doting parents and a generous Santa Claus brought them for Christmas.

B-B guns and pellet guns are not given the respect they deserve. Pellets can cause blindness or permanent damage if they should strike an eye or shatter eyeglasses and send fragments into the eyeball.

And more important, the lack of respect for and carelessness in the handling of pellet guns is carried over when a youngster graduates into .22 rifles and more high-powered weapons.

That father in Georgia was setting a dismal example for youngsters when he agreed to point a weapon at his daughter, even if the weapon had been a plastic toy. He should have given his daughter a gentle reprimand for even suggesting gun play. Had he taken those precautions, she would undoubtedly be alive today. So would the hundreds of others who are killed and maimed in gun accidents each year.

Even those who play cops and robbers with toy weapons are not too young to be reminded of the dangers of guns.

And certainly, if they are to be entrusted with pellet guns and .22's, their parents should give them specific instructions: Never point the muzzle at any human being; never point toward passing cars, or even in the direction of a highway.

Any infraction of the rules of safety should bring immediate confiscation of the weapon.

A suburban community like Marin cannot afford to permit its young gun handlers to learn by trial and error. In the field of weapons safety, there should be no compromise.

The old Army sergeant's admonition to young trainees is still the soundest approach: "Never point your gun at another person unless you intend to kill him."

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

BOY, 18, SELF-TAUGHT ARTIST

A teen-ager who has never studied art sells his paintings to collectors and his advice is eagerly sought by other artists.

The 18-year-old boy, who has been painting seriously for only three years, found that his landscapes, seascapes and still-life oils are being appreciated by judges of art exhibits and art show patrons in New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

The talented high school senior credits a junior high teacher with developing his interest in art. "When I was 12, my seventh grade teacher gave me a piece of canvas. She was the best teacher I ever had, not only for developing my interest in art, but for opening up a lot of new doors. She was the greatest."

The efforts of teachers, parents and religious leaders to imbue young people with high ideals do pay off, even though direct results are seldom seen.

Cooperate with the Lord by making the most of the opportunities He provides to inspire boys and girls.

"Let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works." (Hebrews 10:24)

Help me, O divine Master, to open doors of vision and accomplishment for youth.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Monagan May Push His Plan To Keep Legislators Busy

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — No doubt a very unpopular fellow will be Assemblyman Robert Monagan, R-Stockton, should he pursue his expressed intention of demanding that legislators get to work for a change.

The San Joaquin legislator announced he intends to demand a five-day week, in view of the fact that the people voted legislators a raise in pay from $6,000 a year to $16,000.

For the last couple of years, legislative sessions have been held for the least time possible, in accordance with the rules of the two houses, which permitted recesses normally for not longer than three days.

THIS MEANT the legislature could assemble on a Monday afternoon, hold a brief session and prepare for work on Tuesday and Wednesday.

On Thursday, the general practice was to meet early in the morning, and adjourn for the weekend. This gave the legislators all of Friday, Saturday and Sunday, and the biggest part of Monday and Thursday off, leaving only Tuesdays and Wednesdays for serious work on the floors of the two houses.

IT HAS BEEN common observation around here for some time that the legislative matters affecting the state could be disposed of in a lot less time than normally is taken by the legislature. However, there are arguments both for and against ultra-sonic legislation.

Almost all legislators feel postponements of action are meritorious to give the people of the state, and their advocates at the legislature, sufficient time to offer their opinions on what should be done with proposed new and changed laws.

On the other side, the argument is made that no matter how long a time there is for consideration, the end result will be the same, and it might as well be disposed of immediately.

THE LEGISLATURE has been effective in working out comparison between the two schools of thought, and because of this compromise, better legislation results.

But the fact remains that the course of legislation could be speeded if legislators spent more time in committees and on the floor of the two houses.

In addition to requesting more time, Monagan also plans to request that most of the committee meetings be held here.

In the past, it has been the theory of some committees that the members should meet in various parts of the state to take problems to the people rather than have the people bring their problems to Sacramento.

ACTUALLY, MONAGAN points out, one of the cogent reasons for holding committee meetings in distant places is to collect mileage and expenses, which add to the legislative income.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Heathen Rites Part Of Christmas Lore

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In a workaday world, it is well known that we pause and give thought to reverential things, and celebrate the Nativity of Jesus Christ, a great spiritual leader.

Nobody knows, however, within a span of years, when Jesus was born. Even the ecclesiastics admit this. The Gospels say nothing about the day of Christ's birth, and the early Church did not celebrate it. In time, however, the Christians of Egypt came to regard the sixth of January as the date of the Nativity, and the custom gradually spread, until by the Fourth Century it was universally established in the East.

What led to the change of date from Jan. 6 to Dec. 25? A Syrian, himself a Christian, wrote: "The reason why the Fathers transferred the celebration of the sixth of January to the 25th of December was this. It was the custom of the heathen to celebrate, on the 25th of December, the birthday of the Sun, at which time they kindled lights in token of festivity. In these festivities the Christians also took part. When the doctors of the Church perceived this, they resolved that the true Nativity should be solemnized on that day."

The heathen origin of Christmas was tacitly admitted by Augustine, when he exhorted his Christian brethren not to celebrate that day, as did the heathen, because of the sun, but because of Him who made the sun. There is no doubt that other customs and beliefs of the Christian Church were borrowed from heathen religions, such as the Virgin birth and the Easter resurrection. This holds true of all religions. None had spontaneous birth; all evolved from older faiths. "Nihil ex nihilo" (Nothing comes from nothing).

Civil Liberties Union Cartoon Criticized

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your editorial cartoon of Dec. 22 caricaturing the American Civil Liberties Union as opposing Santa Claus is really inappropriate for a family newspaper. Aside from the blatant misrepresentation of the ACLU position, it would seem to be a negation of the public interest to heap scorn on a defense of the First Amendment to our Constitution. Regardless of intimidation attempts, the ACLU will continue to oppose all attempts to break down this wall of separation between church and state. The founding fathers of our country were fully aware of the corrupting and divisive influence of government intrusion into religious affairs and vice versa.

Despite the passions of the season, far-sighted men of goodwill must realize that bending the Constitution in this area can only serve to erode the civil liberties of all, including the majority.

Abortion Battle Betrayal Is Charged

Editor, Independent-Journal:

To Be Or Not To Be? (Abortion And Distortion!)

This is the burning question that remains unanswered in Marin County after a long and bitter encounter with evil and corruption in high office.

Evilness came into our community, not clandestinely or deceptively, but boldly and defiantly. It rode in well announced by eager trumpeters heralding the cry, 'what makes news makes money'! However, once the evil beast was uncovered for all to see and began to spew forth its fire and death, one of the trumpeters recoiled at this incredible curse and made an attempt to halt its advance by printing an appeal to both the citizens and the authorities to judge the monster as it in fact had asked to be judged—guilty! This warped monster admitted its malevolence, danger and incompatability with the community's laws for safety and decency.

In desperation, an alarmed delegation of citizens went a-knocking at the door of the Lord-High-Prosecutor. At first, he refused to hear the pleas of his electorate. But when a knight (with whom he had recently done battle) appeared at the palace gate to press for entry, the Prosecutor reluctantly admitted him and some few delegates lest a greater battle ensue and the office he held by the vote of his subjects be in jeopardy.

He said he was concerned about the monster in his midst, was shocked at the vulgarity and licentiousness and was amazed at the bold attempts to undermine the community's Hippocratic graduates by blatant quackery. Yet, on the eve of the third onslaught by the evil monster, the Prosecutor had not yet gathered sufficient evidence and/or spent sufficient time to speak to his electorate on the impending doom. This was really inexcusable, since for more than a fortnight he had at his disposal all the services of citizen paid sleuths and auditors. So, the monster moved on and over and in and through the community, gnashing and lashing and jeering while the Lord-High-Prosecutor cowered behind the fortress of his elected office and fiddled while the city was ravaged by the monster . . . Capitulation came, not by consent of the governed, but by betrayal at the hands of the Lord-High-Prosecutor! If the absolute power of this office is so great that it tends to corrupt, should we not act before that power corrupts absolutely?

Easier Abortions— Crime Vs. Nature?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In regards to the abortion issue it has been argued that "the right to control one's own body is a civil right." (In this case it's the right to kill.) The right to life takes precedence over this because it is the most basic right. This is why the law protects the unborn infant. The Supreme Court has acknowledged certain rights of these most helpless humans.

The Beilenson bill, a proposed alternative to the present protective laws provides no age limit as to when the unborn child can be destroyed. Conceivably a few days before birth would not be too late to get rid of this "burden to society."

This is a crime against nature and is against all principles of our culture and as such should be of concern to all segments of our society.

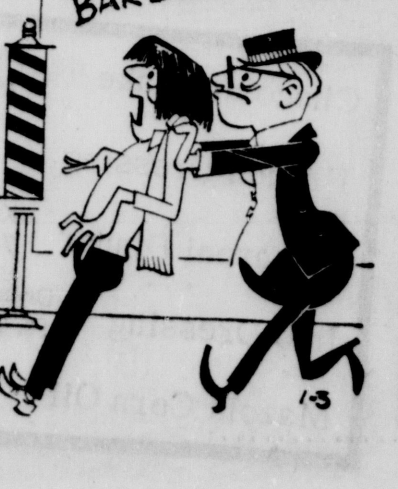
TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

THE FATHER of a teen-age boy, brooding over a double vodka on the rocks, admitted, "I couldn't take it any more, so I finally dragged the kid personally to my barber's and ordered, 'Give him a crew cut.' He did just that and so help me, I found I'D BEEN BRINGING UP SOMEBODY ELSE'S SON!"



RUSSELL HOLMAN has some more candidates for that dream ball team we mentioned some columns back: Prayers from the cardinals, Feathers from the Orioles, Claws from the Tigers, Gurgles from the Twins, Darning from the White Sox, and Doubletalk from the Senators.

SURPRISE DISCOVERY by an inquiring reporter: practically none of the hardy Maine lobstermen can swim a stroke. Their alibi, "The Atlantic is so darn cold up here that if you fall in it's more comfortable to drown than to try and swim or float."

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Ike's Proposed Federal Changes Are Exciting And Reasonable

These are not the adjectives which quickly come to mind in trying to describe the most popular and widely esteemed Republican leader of our time.

But how are you going to describe this restless, energetic conservative with humane instincts who calmly advocates a series of exciting proposals to change the Constitution and structure of the Federal government?

IKE APPARENTLY isn't afraid of change. We shouldn't be either. Here's what he proposes:

Make the terms of members of the House of Representatives four years instead of two, the election to be held the same year as the President's.

Put a 12-year limit on the maximum service of both Senators and Representatives.

Service for Federal judges, including the Supreme Court, should be limited to 20 years in the same court, and retirement on full pay should be automatic at 72.

THE NATIONAL elections should be held in late September and the President inaugurated Nov. 1, more than two months ahead of the convening of Congress.

Two new Cabinet posts should be created by Congress—Secretary for International Coordination and Secretary for Business Management, the latter being a more powerful Bureau of the Budget.

In setting out these suggestions in the January Reader's Digest "to make the government work better," General Eisenhower frankly says he is no expert. But he has credentials which only two others possess — President Johnson and former President Truman. Only these three can speak from experience and, as Ike says, he "lived with the problem" for eight years.

IT SEEMS TO ME that, for the most part, these proposals make a lot of sense. Ike's supporting arguments are not theoretical; they are all drawn from the way he found things from inside the White House.

On extending the terms for House members to four years, the two ex-Presidents agree. Mr. Truman made the same proposal a few months before he left the White House and President Johnson also favors it.

Ike's "most important argument" is that electing a four-year House on Presidential years would reduce the danger of divided government with Congress controlled by one party and the Presidency by the other.

SUCH AN arrangement, he contends, "would enhance party responsibility and bring about a far more efficient working relationship between the executive and legislative branches of government."

Ike is apparently alone, as far as the top political leaders of both parties are concerned, in advocating a 12-year limit on Senate and House Service. He believes such a limit would make Congress "more efficient, more realistic, more responsive to the needs of the nation" and he argues that it is better that public office not be viewed as a lifetime livelihood.

On the 20-year limitation on judicial service, General Eisenhower's view is that "when a man is removed permanently from the mainstream of life, his opinions and actions are likely to become inflexible." This is why he would have more judges serve shorter periods.

THE EISENHOWER proposal which is most persuasive of all to me is to advance the national elections so a President can be inaugurated earlier and thus give a new Administration a longer period to orient itself from inside the government, before having to lay out its State of the Union program to Congress. As it is now a new President has only two weeks in office before having to present a budget and a detailed legislative agenda.

Two weeks is woefully inadequate. I would think that the second Tuesday in October would be a good time for the election. This would keep the campaign out of the summer and would also encourage a shorter campaign — which would be a blessing.

You can see why Ike always called himself a "modern Republican." He's open to new ideas.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

U.S. Watches Soviet Buildup Near Hanoi

By ROBERT S. ALLEN
and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—Russia is putting more new missiles into North Vietnam.

In addition to numerous ground-to-air SA-2 missiles for use against U.S. planes, the Soviet is now delivering ground-to-sea coastal defense missiles, and speedy patrol boats armed with guided missiles.

U.S. reconnaissance planes have photographed the unloading of an estimated 50 coastal defense missiles in the past five weeks from Russian freighters at Haiphong, chief North Vietnam port.

One of the Soviet vessels was the Simferopol, a wide-hatch ship that carried missiles to Cuba prior to the 1962 crisis.

THE "CRUISE-TYPE" coastal defense missiles, with an estimated range of 30-40 nautical miles, have a warhead capable of sinking warships of any size with a direct hit.

Radar installations for guiding the missiles are under construction in several coastal areas. The building of similar sites in Cuba preceded by about four weeks the actual deployment of these coastal defense missiles.

The Soviet missile build-up is the reason behind the recent unannounced change in U.S. policy under which warships were barred from bombarding shore targets in North Vietnam unless first fired on.

AT THE URGENT request of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, President Johnson lifted this restriction. Now U.S. destroyers can shell these missiles radar installations in an effort to keep them from becoming operational.

In one attack, the USS John Craig and the USS Hammer fired more than 2,000 5-inch shells at such sites. Since then, there has been no more work on these installations.

In patroling the Tonkin Gulf, U.S. warships also are keeping a close watch for several Russian-built Komar patrol boats earlier spotted in Haiphong harbor. After sailing from this sanctuary, the missile-launching boats disappeared.

Intelligence authorities believe the arrival of the new coastal defense missiles is linked to the shipment of 100 MIG-21s to North Vietnam. U.S. officials anticipate they will be used by North Vietnam to safeguard its coastal defenses and missile-armed patrol boats.

The Air Force and Navy are seeking President Johnson's authorization to bomb the five airfields on which the MIGs are based and a number of the "cruise-type" missiles are known to be stored.

SO FAR, White House policy has barred air strikes against these North Vietnamese bases. House Republican leaders have decided to support the growing move to bar rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., chairman of the Labor and Education Committee, from taking his seat in the new Congress.

This unannounced decision was disclosed by House Leader Gerald Ford, Mich., in a conversation with Speaker John McCormack, D-Mass.

HOW TO PLAY
WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Mathematical Fiends May Not Always Pick The Proper Play

Some players take pride in computing that this play is better than that play by one-half of one per cent, or some such margin.

No. 3128 ....Jan. 3, 1967

Opening lead — ♠ 4

The mathematical type would take the first trick with the ace of spades and lead out the ace of diamonds.

His best theoretical chance is to drop a singleton king of diamonds and then decide what to do about the clubs.

SMART PLAY

There is a fine chance that West will not play the king.

From West's point of view, it seems that East has the ace of clubs; and West wants his partner to take the first club and return a heart.

If West refuses the first club, South leads a spade to dummy and takes the diamond finesse. The rest is easy.

Even if West takes the first club, he will probably lead another spade rather than shift to hearts.

CONTINUES CLUBS

Dummy wins with the king of spades, and our practical declarer leads the ten of clubs from dummy.

This time East will probably play low, assuming that his partner has the ace of clubs.

After all, how can either defender assume that South has led the queen of clubs from A-Q-x?

South takes the ace of clubs and must hope for a 3-3 break in clubs. He can lead out the ace of diamonds to see if the king drops.

When it does not, he leads a club to the nine and cashes the last club to get rid of his losing heart.

Very few opponents would make a defensive error if they could see all of the cards.

In actual play, nine opponents out of ten would misdefend this sort of hand.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one diamond, and the next player passes.

You hold:
♠ K 7
♥ Q 6 4 2
♦ 5 4 2
♣ 10 9 4 3

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid one heart with a sensible, sound partner. Pass with the general run of partners.

You have only 5 points in high cards and you may wish to count something for the doubleton as long as you have three-card support for partner's diamonds.

Looking Back To Some Good Novato Happenings In 1966

Another year has started. In nature it started when the sun reached the farthest point south and slowly started returning north, making the days longer. In our outmoded and badly adjusted calendar, it started three days ago. In any event, a new cycle of life is starting, so it is always a good time to take note of a few things which have been accomplished and some that have not.

The North Marin County Water District took a giant stride in living up to its name. It no longer can be said to be just a Novato water district. It annexed an area in West Marin near Marshall. It is moving ahead to supply water and sewage to this area. This will take time, but the district is taking the first realistic steps in that direction by having an accurate engineering survey made of those two problems. This action alone has drawn the attention of another area to the south, and some of the residents of that area have petitioned to get into the North Marin district.

THE NOVATO SANITARY District has adopted a master plan which should serve as an accurate guide on how to develop their system to take care of the needs of the area when it has 200,000 population. It has ordered equipment and plant improvements to start implementing this plan.

The Novato Fire District completed its third fire station and has ordered an aerial ladder truck. The first will give better fire protection to the West Novato area. The second will give a fire fighting ability needed by the city and required by the Board of Fire Underwriters.

The City of Novato, now out of its infancy, is going ahead with a long range street improvement program as evidenced by the Diablo Avenue improvement, Center Road widening and new bridges on Novato Creek and Warner Creek. It has made its most noteworthy strides in the area of parks. The acquisition and improvement of the Arroyo Avichi Park, the Pioneer Memorial Cemetery Park and the Lions Park at Stafford Dam are prime examples.

The water district will probably go on with the annexation of areas in West Marin. With this development, it will push toward developing a dam on Walker Creek, the largest source of water in Marin County. Eventually one of the largest lakes for water conservation and recreation will be placed in the Tomales area.

The sanitary district will continue to develop to meet the needs of the Novato area. It is on a solid engineering start toward doing its share of cleaning up the waters of San Pablo Bay.

The fire district will probably go ahead adding equipment and stations to keep up with the high quality of fire protection which it has been giving the area.

The City of Novato has the largest problems facing it. The needs of the city are tremendous in the areas of street rebuilding and drainage. The council is also looking toward the day when it can buy the land and start a large civic center complex, but with finances in their present shape, it will probably be many years before this is realized.

IT HAS A FEW small projects still uncompleted which it should bring to completion in the near future. One of these is the landscaping of Highway 37 interchange. Another is the landscaping of the small area at the northwest corner of Grant Avenue and Highway 101. It also has a small annexation which it has not made. More than two years ago, the Novato Unified School District trustees voted to have the city annex the Loma Verde School property so that the city police protect all schools in the district. This has not been done yet.

The Novato Unified School District, although it has had setbacks in the past year, will continue to keep pace in its building program with the increase in the school population by the addition of another junior high school and high school.

Anti-Missile Race Seems Much Like A Game Of Liars' Dice

WASHINGTON — The Soviet Union and the United States are reportedly meeting in secret to discuss ways of not spending vast sums of money on anti-missile missile systems. The Russians claim to have developed such a system and in the next few months Secretary Robert McNamara has to decide whether the United States will build a system of its own which would cost billions of dollars.

THERE IS HOPE that some compromise can be worked out.

I happened to be in a Washington restaurant and overheard one of the discussions.

The American diplomat said, "You must understand, Mr. Sergivich, that my country is prepared to go ahead with our anti-missile program if your country goes ahead with yours."

"Aha, Comrade Smith," the Russian replied, "you cannot threaten us, because if you go ahead with your anti-missile missile program, then we will proceed with our anti-anti-missile missile plan, which will knock any anti-missile missile you develop out of the sky."

"I cannot give you the details," Smith said, "but we now have on the drawing boards an anti-anti-missile missile missile, which could destroy your anti-anti-missile missile before it even left the pad."

THE RUSSIAN said, "I'll see your three anti-missile missiles and raise you one. We have a four anti-missile missile that can knock a mosquito out of the sky."

The American looked at the Russian's poker face. "I think you're bluffing. I'll see your four anti-missile missiles and raise you two anti-missile missiles, making it a total of six altogether."

The Russian started to perspire. "Now, let me get this straight. You're betting six antis and seven missiles against my four antis and five missiles?"

"That's correct," Smith said.

"WHAT IF I told you we had an anti - anti - anti - anti - anti-anti-anti-missile-missile-missile - missile - missile - missile missile now in production?" the Russian said.

"And what if I told you that it doesn't bother us because we have an answer to it?" Smith said.

"You're cheating. You didn't say what it was."

"All right, I'll say it. Our answer is an anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile missile."

Smith could hardly catch his breath.

The Russian was smiling. "If you went ahead with that, we would have no choice but to go ahead with a weapon so powerful I hate to even think of it."

"AND JUST WHAT would that be?" Smith said.

"Do I have to tell you?" the Russian pleaded.

"If you don't, we won't believe you."

The Russian took a deep breath. "It's an anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile," he said, gasping for air. The American gave him a glass of water and the color started to return to the Russian's cheeks.

The Russian stared at the American. "Well, what is your response to that?"

"According to my calculations you left out one anti-, so if you fired the missile you would knock down your own weapons, instead of ours."

The Russian said, "It's impossible. I gave you nine antis and 10 missiles."

"I COUNTED," Smith said. "You only had eight antis. Why don't you try it again?"

"No! Not again," the Russia Russian cried. "I'm sure our countries could work out some other solution."

Only Cuts Suffered In Auto Accident

David Griffin, 18, of 10 LaBrea Way, Santa Venetia, suffered a cut nose when his westbound car skidded into a utility pole near 321 North San Pedro Road at 1 a.m. Sunday, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Officers said Griffin's car failed to negotiate a curve and sheared off the pole. Griffin was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Columnist Takes Long View Of It All

The column is entitled "Here Today, Here Tomorrow."

College Youth Reports He's Robbery Victim

A Corte Madera college youth, home for the holidays, told sheriff's deputies Saturday afternoon he was robbed of his wallet containing $40 in cash and $60 in checks by two youths in Marin City.

Brian H. Steadman, of University of California at Santa Barbara, said the two youths, about 17, asked him for 25 cents while he was hitchhiking to Sausalito, just south of the entrance to Marin City.

The youths were on the Marin City side of the fence separating the Highway 101 lateral to Sausalito from Marin City, he said. When he took out his wallet and started to check his change to find 25 cents, one of the youths grabbed the wallet and both ran, Steadman said.

More Expansion Forcast For '67

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Commerce Department has forecast continued expansion by much of American industry during 1967.

At the same time, it said the volume of construction will drop moderately this year.

The annual "outlook" published by the department's Business and Defense Services Administration says 14 of the 78 industries accounting for 60 per cent of all manufacturing will grow by more than 10 per cent during 1967.

Liner Is Loaded With Measles, Mumps

PERTH, Australia (UPI) — Doctors aboard the liner Aurelia on its voyage from Southampton to Fremantle, Australia, had more than their usual share of business during the holiday trip.

At least 99 of the 470 children aboard became sick with measles, chickenpox or mumps.

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Never Point A Weapon Unless You Aim To Kill

In a gay, holiday mood, 7-year-old Denice Marie Sanders ran up to her father and said teasingly: "Shoot me, Daddy."

In the same spirit of play, the father picked up one of two .22 caliber pistols—the one loaded with blanks—and fired in the direction of his daughter. A live bullet hit her in the chest, and the little girl was dead in a few hours. The father had picked up the pistol loaded with live ammunition, thinking it was the one with the blanks.

This holiday tragedy occurred in Griffin, Ga. Similar tragedies involving guns are re-enacted in almost every other community throughout the country.

In Marin County, the number of incidents involving guns usually takes a sudden jump after Christmas. It's the time of year when youngsters are out in force, armed with pellet guns and 22's, which doting parents and a generous Santa Claus brought them for Christmas.

B-B guns and pellet guns are not given the respect they deserve. Pellets can cause blindness or permanent damage if they should strike an eye or shatter eyeglasses and send fragments into the eyeball.

And more important, the lack of respect for and carelessness in the handling of pellet guns is carried over when a youngster graduates into .22 rifles and more high-powered weapons.

That father in Georgia was setting a dismal example for youngsters when he agreed to point a weapon at his daughter, even if the weapon had been a plastic toy. He should have given his daughter a gentle reprimand for even suggesting gun play. Had he taken those precautions, she would undoubtedly be alive today. So would the hundreds of others who are killed and maimed in gun accidents each year.

Even those who play cops and robbers with toy weapons are not too young to be reminded of the dangers of guns.

And certainly, if they are to be entrusted with pellet guns and .22's, their parents should give them specific instructions: Never point the muzzle at any human being; never point toward passing cars, or even in the direction of a highway.

Any infraction of the rules of safety should bring immediate confiscation of the weapon.

A suburban community like Marin cannot afford to permit its young gun handlers to learn by trial and error. In the field of weapons safety, there should be no compromise.

The old Army sergeant's admonition to young trainees is still the soundest approach: "Never point your gun at another person unless you intend to kill him."

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

BOY, 18, SELF-TAUGHT ARTIST

A teen-ager who has never studied art sells his paintings to collectors and his advice is eagerly sought by other artists.

The 18-year-old boy, who has been painting seriously for only three years, found that his landscapes, seascapes and still-life oils are being appreciated by judges of art exhibits and art show patrons in New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

The talented high school senior credits a junior high teacher with developing his interest in art. "When I was 12, my seventh grade teacher gave me a piece of canvas. She was the best teacher I ever had, not only for developing my interest in art, but for opening up a lot of new doors. She was the greatest."

The efforts of teachers, parents and religious leaders to imbue young people with high ideals do pay off, even though direct results are seldom seen.

Cooperate with the Lord by making the most of the opportunities He provides to inspire boys and girls.

"Let us consider how to stir up one another to love and good works." (Hebrews 10:24)

Help me, O divine Master, to open doors of vision and accomplishment for youth.

AFFAIRS OF STATE

Monagan May Push His Plan To Keep Legislators Busy

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — No doubt a very unpopular fellow will be Assemblyman Robert Monagan, R-Stockton, should he pursue his expressed intention of demanding that legislators get to work for a change.

The San Joaquin legislator announced he intends to demand a five-day week, in view of the fact that the people voted legislators a raise in pay from $6,000 a year to $16,000.

For the last couple of years, legislative sessions have been held for the least time possible, in accordance with the rules of the two houses, which permitted recesses normally for not longer than three days.

THIS MEANT the legislature could assemble on a Monday afternoon, hold a brief session and prepare for work on Tuesday and Wednesday.

On Thursday, the general practice was to meet early in the morning, and adjourn for the weekend. This gave the legislators all of Friday, Saturday and Sunday, and the biggest part of Monday and Thursday off, leaving only Tuesdays and Wednesdays for serious work on the floors of the two houses.

IT HAS BEEN common observation around here for some time that the legislative matters affecting the state could be disposed of in a lot less time than normally is taken by the legislature. However, there are arguments both for and against ultra-sonic legislation.

Almost all legislators feel postponements of action are meritorious to give the people of the state, and their advocates at the legislature, sufficient time to offer their opinions on what should be done with proposed new and changed laws.

On the other side, the argument is made that no matter how long a time there is for consideration, the end result will be the same, and it might as well be disposed of immediately.

THE LEGISLATURE has been effective in working out comparison between the two schools of thought, and because of this compromise, better legislation results.

But the fact remains that the course of legislation could be speeded if legislators spent more time in committees and on the floor of the two houses.

In addition to requesting more time, Monagan also plans to request that most of the committee meetings be held here.

In the past, it has been the theory of some committees that the members should meet in various parts of the state to take problems to the people rather than have the people bring their problems to Sacramento.

ACTUALLY, MONAGAN points out, one of the cogent reasons for holding committee meetings in distant places is to collect mileage and expenses, which add to the legislative income.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Heathen Rites Part Of Christmas Lore

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In a workaday world, it is well known that we pause and give thought to reverential things, and celebrate the Nativity of Jesus Christ, a great spiritual leader.

Nobody knows, however, within a span of years, when Jesus was born. Even the ecclesiastics admit this. The Gospels say nothing about the day of Christ's birth, and the early Church did not celebrate it. In time, however, the Christians of Egypt came to regard the sixth of January as the date of the Nativity, and the custom gradually spread, until by the Fourth Century it was universally established in the East.

What led to the change of date from Jan. 6 to Dec. 25? A Syrian, himself a Christian, wrote: "The reason why the Fathers transferred the celebration of the sixth of January to the 25th of December was this. It was the custom of the heathen to celebrate, on the 25th of December, the birthday of the Sun, at which time they kindled lights in token of festivity. In these festivities the Christians also took part. When the doctors of the Church perceived this, they resolved that the true Nativity should be solemnized on that day."

The heathen origin of Christmas was tacitly admitted by Augustine, when he exhorted his Christian brethren not to celebrate that day, as did the heathen, because of the sun, but because of Him who made the sun. There is no doubt that other customs and beliefs of the Christian Church were borrowed from heathen religions, such as the Virgin birth and the Easter resurrection. This holds true of all religions. None had spontaneous birth; all evolved from older faiths. "Nihil ex nihilo" (Nothing comes from nothing).

Civil Liberties Union Cartoon Criticized

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your editorial cartoon of Dec. 22 caricaturing the American Civil Liberties Union as opposing Santa Claus is really inappropriate for a family newspaper. Aside from the blatant misrepresentation of the ACLU position, it would seem to be a negation of the public interest to heap scorn on a defense of the First Amendment to our Constitution. Regardless of intimidation attempts, the ACLU will continue to oppose all attempts to break down this wall of separation between church and state. The founding fathers of our country were fully aware of the corrupting and divisive influence of government intrusion into religious affairs and vice versa.

Despite the passions of the season, far-sighted men of goodwill must realize that bending the Constitution in this area can only serve to erode the civil liberties of all, including the majority.

Abortion Battle Betrayal Is Charged

Editor, Independent-Journal:

To Be Or Not To Be? (Abortion And Distortion!)

This is the burning question that remains unanswered in Marin County after a long and bitter encounter with evil and corruption in high office.

Evilness came into our community, not clandestinely or deceptively, but boldly and defiantly. It rode in well announced by eager trumpeters heralding the cry, 'what makes news makes money'! However, once the evil beast was uncovered for all to see and began to spew forth its fire and death, one of the trumpeters recoiled at this incredible curse and made an attempt to halt its advance by printing an appeal to both the citizens and the authorities to judge the monster as it in fact had asked to be judged—guilty! This warped monster admitted its malevolence, danger and incompatability with the community's laws for safety and decency.

In desperation, an alarmed delegation of citizens went a-knocking at the door of the Lord-High-Prosecutor. At first, he refused to hear the pleas of his electorate. But when a knight (with whom he had recently done battle) appeared at the palace gate to press for entry, the Prosecutor reluctantly admitted him and some few delegates lest a greater battle ensue and the office he held by the vote of his subjects be in jeopardy.

He said he was concerned about the monster in his midst, was shocked at the vulgarity and licentiousness and was amazed at the bold attempts to undermine the community's Hippocratic graduates by blatant quackery. Yet, on the eve of the third onslaught by the evil monster, the Prosecutor had not yet gathered sufficient evidence and/or spent sufficient time to speak to his electorate on the impending doom. This was really inexcusable, since for more than a fortnight he had at his disposal all the services of citizen paid sleuths and auditors. So, the monster moved on and over and in and through the community, gnashing and lashing and jeering while the Lord-High-Prosecutor cowered behind the fortress of his elected office and fiddled while the city was ravaged by the monster . . . Capitulation came, not by consent of the governed, but by betrayal at the hands of the Lord-High-Prosecutor! If the absolute power of this office is so great that it tends to corrupt, should we not act before that power corrupts absolutely?

Easier Abortions—Crime Vs. Nature?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In regards to the abortion issue it has been argued that "the right to control one's own body is a civil right." (In this case it's the right to kill.) The right to life takes precedence over this because it is the most basic right. This is why the law protects the unborn infant. The Supreme Court has acknowledged certain rights of these most helpless humans.

The Beilenson bill, a proposed alternative to the present protective laws provides no age limit as to when the unborn child can be destroyed. Conceivably a few days before birth would not be too late to get rid of this "burden to society."

This is a crime against nature and is against all principles of our culture and as such should be of concern to all segments of our society.

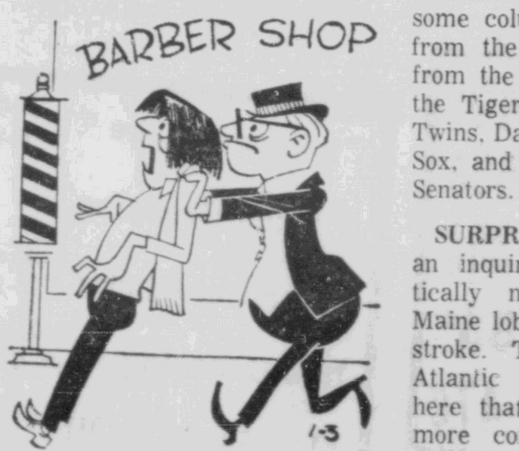
TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

THE FATHER of a teen-age boy, brooding over a double vodka on the rocks, admitted, "I couldn't take it any more, so I finally dragged the kid personally to my barber's and ordered, 'Give him a crew cut.' He did just that and so help me, I found I'D BEEN BRINGING UP SOMEBODY ELSE'S SON!"



RUSSELL HOLMAN has some more candidates for that dream ball team we mentioned some columns back: Prayers from the cardinals, Feathers from the Orioles, Claws from the Tigers, Gurgles from the Twins, Darning from the White Sox, and Doubletalk from the Senators.

SURPRISE DISCOVERY by an inquiring reporter: practically none of the hardy Maine lobstermen can swim a stroke. Their alibi, "The Atlantic is so darn cold up here that if you fall in it's more comfortable to drown than to try and swim or float."

Ike's Proposed Federal Changes Are Exciting And Reasonable

These are not the adjectives which quickly come to mind in trying to describe the most popular and widely esteemed Republican leader of our time.

But how are you going to describe this restless, energetic conservative with humane instincts who calmly advocates a series of exciting proposals to change the Constitution and structure of the Federal government?

IKE APPARENTLY isn't afraid of change. We shouldn't be either. Here's what he proposes:

Make the terms of members of the House of Representatives four years instead of two, the election to be held the same year as the President's.

Put a 12-year limit on the maximum service of both Senators and Representatives.

Service for Federal judges, including the Supreme Court, should be limited to 20 years in the same court, and retirement on full pay should be automatic at 72.

THE NATIONAL elections should be held in late September and the President inaugurated Nov. 1, more than two months ahead of the convening of Congress.

Two new Cabinet posts should be created by Congress—Secretary for International Coordination and Secretary for Business Management, the latter being a more powerful Bureau of the Budget.

In setting out these suggestions in the January Reader's Digest "to make the government work better," General Eisenhower frankly says he is no expert. But he has credentials which only two others possess — President Johnson and former President Truman. Only these three can speak from experience and, as Ike says, he "lived with the problem" for eight years.

IT SEEMS TO ME that, for the most part, these proposals make a lot of sense. Ike's supporting arguments are not theoretical; they are all drawn from the way he found things from inside the White House.

On extending the terms for House members to four years, the two ex-Presidents agree. Mr. Truman made the same proposal a few months before he left the White House and President Johnson also favors it.

Ike's "most important argument" is that electing a four-year House on Presidential years would reduce the danger of divided government with Congress controlled by one party and the Presidency by the other.

SUCH AN arrangement, he contends, "would enhance party responsibility and bring about a far more efficient working relationship between the executive and legislative branches of government."

Ike is apparently alone, as far as the top political leaders of both parties are concerned, in advocating a 12-year limit on Senate and House Service. He believes such a limit would make Congress "more efficient, more realistic, more responsive to the needs of the nation" and he argues that it is better that public office not be viewed as a lifetime livelihood.

On the 20-year limitation on judicial service, General Eisenhower's view is that "when a man is removed permanently from the mainstream of life, his opinions and actions are likely to become inflexible." This is why he would have more judges serve shorter periods.

THE EISENHOWER proposal which is most persuasive of all to me is to advance the national elections so a President can be inaugurated earlier and thus give a new Administration a longer period to orient itself from inside the government, before having to lay out its State of the Union program to Congress. As it is now a new President has only two weeks in office before having to present a budget and a detailed legislative agenda.

Two weeks is woefully inadequate. I would think that the second Tuesday in October would be a good time for the election. This would keep the campaign out of the summer and would also encourage a shorter campaign — which would be a blessing.

You can see why Ike always called himself a "modern Republican." He's open to new ideas.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

U.S. Watches Soviet Buildup Near Hanoi

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—Russia is putting more new missiles into North Vietnam.

In addition to numerous ground-to-air SA-2 missiles for use against U.S. planes, the Soviet is now delivering ground-to-sea coastal defense missiles, and speedy patrol boats armed with guided missiles.

U.S. reconnaissance planes have photographed the unloading of an estimated 50 coastal defense missiles in the past five weeks from Russian freighters at Haiphong, chief North Vietnam port.

One of the Soviet vessels was the Simferopol, a wide-hatch ship that carried missiles to Cuba prior to the 1962 crisis.

THE "CRUISE-TYPE" coastal defense missiles, with an estimated range of 30-40 nautical miles, have a warhead capable of sinking warships of any size with a direct hit.

Radar installations for guiding the missiles are under construction in several coastal areas. The building of similar sites in Cuba preceded by about four weeks the actual deployment of these coastal defense missiles.

The Soviet missile build-up is the reason behind the recent unannounced change in U.S. policy under which warships were barred from bombarding shore targets in North Vietnam unless first fired on.

AT THE URGENT request of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, President Johnson lifted this restriction. Now U.S. destroyers can shell these missiles radar installations in an effort to keep them from becoming operational.

In one attack, the USS John Craig and the USS Hammer fired more than 2,000 5-inch shells at such sites. Since then, there has been no more work on these installations.

In patroling the Tonkin Gulf, U.S. warships also are keeping a close watch for several Russian-built Komar patrol boats earlier spotted in Haiphong harbor. After sailing from this sanctuary, the missile-launching boats disappeared.

Intelligence authorities believe the arrival of the new coastal defense missiles is linked to the shipment of 100 MIG-21s to North Vietnam. U.S. officials anticipate they will be used by North Vietnam to safeguard its coastal defenses and missile-armed patrol boats.

The Air Force and Navy are seeking President Johnson's authorization to bomb the five airfields on which the MIGs are based and a number of the "cruise-type" missiles are known to be stored.

SO FAR, White House policy has barred air strikes against these North Vietnamese bases. House Republican leaders have decided to support the growing move to bar rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., chairman of the Labor and Education Committee, from taking his seat in the new Congress.

This unannounced decision was disclosed by House Leader Gerald Ford, Mich., in a conversation with Speaker John McCormack, D-Mass.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By THERON NEWELL

Looking Back To Some Good Novato Happenings In 1966

Another year has started. In nature it started when the sun reached the farthest point south and slowly started returning north, making the days longer. In our outmoded and badly adjusted calendar, it started three days ago. In any event, a new cycle of life is starting, so it is always a good time to take note of a few things which have been accomplished and some that have not.

The North Marin County Water District took a giant stride in living up to its name. It no longer can be said to be just a Novato water district. It annexed an area in West Marin near Marshall. It is moving ahead to supply water and sewage to this area. This will take time, but the district is taking the first realistic steps in that direction by having an accurate engineering survey made of those two problems. This action alone has drawn the attention of another area to the south, and some of the residents of that area have petitioned to get into the North Marin district.

THE NOVATO SANITARY District has adopted a master plan which should serve as an accurate guide on how to develop their system to take care of the needs of the area when it has 200,000 population. It has ordered equipment and plant improvements to start implementing this plan.

The Novato Fire District completed its third fire station and has ordered an aerial ladder truck. The first will give better fire protection to the West Novato area. The second will give a fire fighting ability needed by the city and required by the Board of Fire Underwriters.

The City of Novato, now out of its infancy, is going ahead with a long range street improvement program as evidenced by the Diablo Avenue improvement, Center Road widening and new bridges on Novato Creek and Warner Creek. It has made its most noteworthy strides in the area of parks. The acquisition and improvement of the Arroyo Avichi Park, the Pioneer Memorial Cemetery Park and the Lions Park at Stafford Dam are prime examples.

The water district will probably go on with the annexation of areas in West Marin. With this development, it will push toward developing a dam on Walker Creek, the largest source of water in Marin County. Eventually one of the largest lakes for water conservation and recreation will be placed in the Tomales area.

The sanitary district will continue to develop to meet the needs of the Novato area. It is on a solid engineering start toward doing its share of cleaning up the waters of San Pablo Bay.

The fire district will probably go ahead adding equipment and stations to keep up with the high quality of fire protection which it has been giving the area.

The City of Novato has the largest problems facing it. The needs of the city are tremendous in the areas of street rebuilding and drainage. The council is also looking toward the day when it can buy the land and start a large civic center complex, but with finances in their present shape, it will probably be many years before this is realized.

IT HAS A FEW small projects still uncompleted which it should bring to completion in the near future. One of these is the landscaping of Highway 37 interchange. Another is the landscaping of the small area at the northwest corner of Grant Avenue and Highway 101. It also has a small annexation which it has not made. More than two years ago, the Novato Unified School District trustees voted to have the city annex the Loma Verde School property so that the city police protect all schools in the district. This has not been done yet.

The Novato Unified School District, although it has had setbacks in the past year, will continue to keep pace in its building program with the increase in the school population by the addition of another junior high school and high school.

Anti-Missile Race Seems Much Like A Game Of Liars' Dice

WASHINGTON — The Soviet Union and the United States are reportedly meeting in secret to discuss ways of not spending vast sums of money on anti-missile missile systems. The Russians claim to have developed such a system and in the next few months Secretary Robert McNamara has to decide whether the United States will build a system of its own which would cost billions of dollars.

THERE IS HOPE that some compromise can be worked out.

I happened to be in a Washington restaurant and overheard one of the discussions.

The American diplomat said, "You must understand, Mr. Sergivich, that my country is prepared to go ahead with our anti-missile program if your country goes ahead with yours."

"Aha, Comrade Smith," the Russian replied, "you cannot threaten us, because if you go ahead with your anti-missile missile program, then we will proceed with our anti-anti-missile missile plan, which will knock any anti-missile missile you develop out of the sky."

"I cannot give you the details," Smith said, "but we now have on the drawing boards an anti-anti-missile missile missile, which could destroy your anti-anti-missile missile before it even left the pad."

THE RUSSIAN said, "I'll see your three anti-missile missiles and raise you one. We have a four anti-missile missile that can knock a mosquito out of the sky."

The American looked at the Russian's poker face. "I think you're bluffing. I'll see your four anti-missile missiles and raise you two anti-missile missiles, making it a total of six altogether."

The Russian started to perspire. "Now, let me get this straight. You're betting six antis and seven missiles against my four antis and five missiles?"

"That's correct," Smith said.

"WHAT IF I told you we had an anti - anti - anti - anti - anti-anti-anti-missile-missile-missile - missile - missile - missile missile now in production?" the Russian said.

"And what if I told you that it doesn't bother us because we have an answer to it?" Smith said.

"You're cheating. You didn't say what it was."

"All right, I'll say it. Our answer is an anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile missile."

Smith could hardly catch his breath.

The Russian was smiling. "If you went ahead with that, we would have no choice but to go ahead with a weapon so powerful I hate to even think of it."

"AND JUST WHAT would that be?" Smith said.

"Do I have to tell you?" the Russian pleaded.

"If you don't, we won't believe you."

The Russian took a deep breath. "It's an anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile," he said, gasping for air. The American gave him a glass of water and the color started to return to the Russian's cheeks.

The Russian stared at the American. "Well, what is your response to that?"

"According to my calculations you left out one anti-, so if you fired the missile you would knock down your own weapons, instead of ours."

The Russian said, "It's impossible. I gave you nine antis and 10 missiles."

"I COUNTED," Smith said. "You only had eight antis. Why don't you try it again?"

"No! Not again," the Russia Russian cried. "I'm sure our countries could work out some other solution."

Only Cuts Suffered In Auto Accident

David Griffin, 18, of 10 LaBrea Way, Santa Venetia, suffered a cut nose when his westbound car skidded into a utility pole near 321 North San Pedro Road at 1 a.m. Sunday, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Officers said Griffin's car failed to negotiate a curve and sheared off the pole. Griffin was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Columnist Takes Long View Of It All

The column is entitled "Here Today, Here Tomorrow."

College Youth Reports He's Robbery Victim

A Corte Madera college youth, home for the holidays, told sheriff's deputies Saturday afternoon he was robbed of his wallet containing $40 in cash and $60 in checks by two youths in Marin City.

Brian H. Steadman, of University of California at Santa Barbara, said the two youths, about 17, asked him for 25 cents while he was hitchhiking to Sausalito, just south of the entrance to Marin City.

The youths were on the Marin City side of the fence separating the Highway 101 lateral to Sausalito from Marin City, he said. When he took out his wallet and started to check his change to find 25 cents, one of the youths grabbed the wallet and both ran, Steadman said.

More Expansion Forcast For '67

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Commerce Department has forecast continued expansion by much of American industry during 1967.

At the same time, it said the volume of construction will drop moderately this year.

The annual "outlook" published by the department's Business and Defense Services Administration says 14 of the 78 industries accounting for 60 per cent of all manufacturing will grow by more than 10 per cent during 1967.

Liner Is Loaded With Measles, Mumps

PERTH, Australia (UPI) — Doctors aboard the liner Aurelia on its voyage from Southampton to Fremantle, Australia, had more than their usual share of business during the holiday trip.

At least 99 of the 470 children aboard became sick with measles, chickenpox or mumps.

THANK YOU FOR 1966

The staff of William Timmer, Realtor, says thank you for 1966. This was a year in which the firm continued to grow and showed a total gross business of almost $8,000,000. For this business we are indeed proud and thankful.

Our team of 17 full time salesmen are experienced and knowledgeable in all phases of the real estate business, making us experts in the sale of homes, lots, businesses and investment properties. Our staff is anxious to meet you and analyze your real estate needs.

We look forward to a great year in sale of properties in 1967. Our reputation as Marin's Action Real Estate Office is borne out by the large number of properties sold last year, and the speed and efficiency in which they were sold. When people think of selling their home or other Real Estate in 1967, we hope that most of them will want William Timmer, Realtor, to sell it for them.

You should know these FACTS about HOME BUYING in today's market . . .

HOME PRICES AND INTEREST RATES WILL PROBABLY GO HIGHER!

Reliable economists are predicting home prices will be up 20% by 1970. Interest rates, which are high now, will surely not go down, but may get even higher. Home ownership is a great hedge against inflation, and there is a good variety of attractively priced homes on the market. This is a GOOD time to buy, and financing is available. Don't let "scare talk" keep you from having a better home.

Call Your Realtor Today!

REMEMBER:

Multiple Listing is the fastest way to find the home of your choice . . . Ask your Realtor.

THANK YOU FOR 1966

The staff of William Timmer, Realtor, says thank you for 1966. This was a year in which the firm continued to grow and showed a total gross business of almost $8,000,000. For this business we are indeed proud and thankful.

Our team of 17 full time salesmen are experienced and knowledgeable in all phases of the real estate business, making us experts in the sale of homes, lots, businesses and investment properties. Our staff is anxious to meet you and analyze your real estate needs.

We look forward to a great year in sale of properties in 1967. Our reputation as Marin's Action Real Estate Office is borne out by the large number of properties sold last year, and the speed and efficiency in which they were sold. When people think of selling their home or other Real Estate in 1967, we hope that most of them will want William Timmer, Realtor, to sell it for them.

SECTION A
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
Bid No. 257-A
(Advertisement)

1. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the San Rafael School District of Marin County will receive bids for the furnishing of all labor, materials, transportation and services for the construction of the 1966 Additions to Coleman School, consisting of one two story building, appurtenant facilities and site improvements, at Rafael Drive and Belle Avenue, San Rafael, California.

2. Each bid to be in accordance with the plans and specifications now on file with Richard C. Marshall, Chester Bowles, Jr., Architects, A.I.A., 1045 Sansome Street, San Francisco, California, where the same may be examined and copies obtained upon deposit of ($25.00) (twenty-five) dollars per set, which deposit will be refunded upon the return of such copies in good condition within five days after the bids are opened.

3. Each bid shall be made on a form to be supplied by the Architect, and must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check in the amount of $7,000.00 or a Bid Bond in the amount of 10% of the total contract price made payable to the order of the San Rafael Clerk of the Board whose address will be Third and E Streets, San Rafael, California, prior to 11:00 A.M., January 10, 1967 at which time they will be publicly opened and declared.

4. The above-mentioned check will be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into a contract if awarded the work and will be retained by the District as agreed and liquidated damages if the successful bidder fails or refuses to enter into said contract or to furnish the necessary bonds after being requested to do so by the Board of Education of the San Rafael School District.

5. The successful bidder will be required to furnish a labor and material bond in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price in accordance with the contract documents.

6. Bidders are hereby notified that pursuant to the Statutes of the State of California, the Board of Education of the San Rafael School Distirct has ascertained the prevailing rate of per diem wages and rates for legal holidays and overtime work in the locality in which this work is to be performed for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute the contract, which will be awarded to the successful bidder.

7. Eight hours shall constitute a work day unless otherwise specified on the union scale. The hourly wage rate prescribed is the per diem rate divided by the aforementioned number of hours constituting a work day.

8. Attention is directed to Section 4100 through 4113 of the Government Code concerning sub-contractors.

9. The wage scale referred to hereinabove is Section I of the Contract Documents.

10. The Board of Education of the San Rafael School District reserves the right to reject any and all bids or any alternate or unit price and/or waive any informality or irregularity in any bid received.

11. A Pre-Bid Conference will be held at the office of the Architects, 1045 Sansome Street, San Francisco, California on January 5, 1967 at 10:00 A.M. The purpose of the Conference is to familiarize each prospective bidder with the plans and specifications. If necessary, addenda will be issued by the Architect following the Conference in accordance with the General Conditions for the work.

12. There shall be no discrimination because of race, color, creed or political affiliation in the employment of persons for work under this contract.

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SAN RAFAEL SCHOOL DISTRICT
Dated: December 23, 1966

You should know these
FACTS about HOME BUYING
in today's market . . .

HOME PRICES AND INTEREST RATES WILL PROBABLY GO HIGHER!

Reliable economists are predicting home prices will be up 20% by 1970. Interest rates, which are high now, will surely not go down, but may get even higher. Home ownership is a great hedge against inflation, and there is a good variety of attractively priced homes on the market. This is a GOOD time to buy, and financing is available. Don't let "scare talk" keep you from having a better home.

No. 2288 Dec. 27, 1966, Jan. 3, 10, 17, 1967.

SECTION A
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
Bid No. 257-A
(Advertisement)

1. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the San Rafael School District of Marin County will receive bids for the furnishing of all labor, materials, transportation and services for the construction of the 1966 Additions to Coleman School, consisting of one two story building, appurtenant facilities and site improvements, at Rafael Drive and Belle Avenue, San Rafael, California.

2. Each bid to be in accordance with the plans and specifications now on file with Richard C. Marshall, Chester Bowles, Jr., Architects, A.I.A., 1045 Sansome Street, San Francisco, California, where the same may be examined and copies obtained upon deposit of ($25.00) (twenty-five) dollars per set, which deposit will be refunded upon the return of such copies in good condition within five days after the bids are opened.

3. Each bid shall be made on a form to be supplied by the Architect, and must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check in the amount of $7,000.00 or a Bid Bond in the amount of 10% of the total contract price made payable to the order of the San Rafael Clerk of the Board whose address will be Third and E Streets, San Rafael, California, prior to 11:00 A.M., January 10, 1967 at which time they will be publicly opened and declared.

4. The above-mentioned check will be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into a contract if awarded the work and will be retained by the District as agreed and liquidated damages if the successful bidder fails or refuses to enter into said contract or to furnish the necessary bonds after being requested to do so by the Board of Education of the San Rafael School District.

5. The successful bidder will be required to furnish a labor and material bond in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price in accordance with the contract documents.

6. Bidders are hereby notified that pursuant to the Statutes of the State of California, the Board of Education of the San Rafael School Disitrct has ascertained the prevailing rate of per diem wages and rates for legal holidays and overtime work in the locality in which this work is to be performed for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute the contract, which will be awarded to the successful bidder.

7. Eight hours shall constitute a work day unless otherwise specified on the union scale. The hourly wage rate prescribed is the per diem rate divided by the aforementioned number of hours constituting a work day.

8. Attention is directed to Section 4100 through 4113 of the Government Code concerning sub-contractors.

9. The wage scale referred to hereinabove is Section I of the Contract Documents.

10. The Board of Education of the San Rafael School District reserves the right to reject any and all bids or any alternate or unit price and/or waive any informality or irregularity in any bid received.

11. A Pre-Bid Conference will be held at the office of the Architects, 1045 Sansome Street, San Francisco, California on January 5, 1967 at 10:00 A.M. The purpose of the Conference is to familiarize each prospective bidder with the plans and specifications. If necessary, addenda will be issued by the Architect following the Conference in accordance with the General Conditions for the work.

12. There shall be no discrimination because of race, color, creed or political affiliation in the employment of persons for work under this contract.

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SAN RAFAEL SCHOOL DISTRICT
Dated: December 23, 1966

SECTION A
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
Bid No. 257-A
(Advertisement)

1. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the San Rafael School District of Marin County will receive bids for the furnishing of all labor, materials, transportation and services for the construction of the 1966 Additions to Coleman School, consisting of one two story building, appurtenant facilities and site improvements, at Rafael Drive and Belle Avenue, San Rafael, California.

2. Each bid to be in accordance with the plans and specifications now on file with Richard C. Marshall, Chester Bowles, Jr., Architects, A.I.A., 1045 Sansome Street, San Francisco, California, where the same may be examined and copies obtained upon deposit of ($25.00) (twenty-five) dollars per set, which deposit will be refunded upon the return of such copies in good condition within five days after the bids are opened.

3. Each bid shall be made on a form to be supplied by the Architect, and must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check in the amount of $7,000.00 or a Bid Bond in the amount of 10% of the total contract price made payable to the order of the San Rafael Clerk of the Board whose address will be Third and E Streets, San Rafael, California, prior to 11:00 A.M., January 10, 1967 at which time they will be publicly opened and declared.

4. The above-mentioned check will be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into a contract if awarded the work and will be retained by the District as agreed and liquidated damages if the successful bidder fails or refuses to enter into said contract or to furnish the necessary bonds after being requested to do so by the Board of Education of the San Rafael School District.

5. The successful bidder will be required to furnish a labor and material bond in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price in accordance with the contract documents.

6. Bidders are hereby notified that pursuant to the Statutes of the State of California, the Board of Education of the San Rafael School Distirct has ascertained the prevailing rate of per diem wages and rates for legal holidays and overtime work in the locality in which this work is to be performed for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute the contract, which will be awarded to the successful bidder.

7. Eight hours shall constitute a work day unless otherwise specified on the union scale. The hourly wage rate prescribed is the per diem rate divided by the aforementioned number of hours constituting a work day.

8. Attention is directed to Section 4100 through 4113 of the Government Code concerning sub-contractors.

9. The wage scale referred to hereinabove is Section I of the Contract Documents.

10. The Board of Education of the San Rafael School District reserves the right to reject any and all bids or any alternate or unit price and/or waive any informality or irregularity in any bid received.

11. A Pre-Bid Conference will be held at the office of the Architects, 1045 Sansome Street, San Francisco, California on January 5, 1967 at 10:00 A.M. The purpose of the Conference is to familiarize each prospective bidder with the plans and specifications. If necessary, addenda will be issued by the Architect following the Conference in accordance with the General Conditions for the work.

12. There shall be no discrimination because of race, color, creed or political affiliation in the employment of persons for work under this contract.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED as follows:

1. The Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, pursuant to Sections 25520, et seq., of the Government Code, does hereby declare its intention to sell said property. A public meeting of the Board will be held at the Chambers of the Board of Supervisors, Civic Center, San Rafael, California, on the 14th day of February, 1967, at 2:00 o'clock P.M., at which time sealed proposals to purchase said property will be received and considered. Said property intended to be sold is generally known as the "COURTHOUSE SQUARE" and is described as follows:

That certain real property situate in the City of San Rafael, County of Marin, State of California, described as follows:

BLOCK 31 as shown on "Plat of the Townsite of the Town of San Rafael," filed October 14, 1873 in Rack 1 of Maps at Pull 4, Marin County Records.

2. A real estate commission shall be paid by the County to a licensed real estate broker, as provided by law, at the rate of five per cent (5%). Fifty per cent (50%) of the commission will be paid upon receipt by County of the first installment of the purchase price on July 1, 1967, and the remainder of the Commission will be paid when title passes. If the purchaser elects to pay the entire purchase price at once, the entire commission will be paid upon close of escrow. If the transaction is not consummated through no fault of the County, no commission whatsoever shall be payable.

3. Minimum acceptable price for said property is Nine Hundred Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($900,000.00).

4. The terms of sale shall be as follows:

(a) All bids must be accompanied by a cashier's or certified check payable to the County of Marin in an amount equal to ten per cent (10%) of the amount bid. Failure to consummate the purchase or make payments when due, will result in forfeiture of this deposit.

(b) Fifty per cent (50%) of the purchase price, including the amount on deposit, must be paid directly to County, on or before July 1, 1967. The remaining fifty per cent (50%) of the purchase price must be paid to County, through escrow, on or before July 1, 1968. The purchaser may, at his option, pay the purchase price in full, in advance of the above dates.

(c) A grant deed to the property will be delivered to escrow by County with instructions to the escrow holder to record and deliver the deed to the purchaser immediately after the County certifies that full payment of the purchase price has been received. County shall pay all escrow charges except title insurance premiums.

(d) Possession of the property shall be delivered to the successful bidder about July 1, 1968. If County is unable to vacate the premises by that date, delivery of possession will be deferred pending completion of the Marin County Hall of Justice. During the period between delivery and recordation of the deed, and delivery of possession, County will pay the purchaser rent at the rate of one per cent (1%) of the purchase price per month.

5. All bidders will be required to submit bids on a form supplied by County. Oral bids will be considered in the manner provided by law, but no oral bids will be accepted from bidders who have not established their responsibility by submission of a written bid and deposit. An additional deposit need not be made for an oral bid, but the successful bidder's original deposit must be increased to ten per cent (10%) of his bid within five (5) days after award.

6. The successful bidder will be required to agree to preserve the exterior of the existing Courthouse and grounds substantially in their present condition for five (5) years from the date of award.

7. The Board of Supervisors reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any errors or irregularities in any bid. No bid may be withdrawn for a period of ten (10) days after submission.

8. The Clerk of this Board shall cause three copies of the within resolution, signed by the Chairman of this Board, to be posted in three public places within the County at least fifteen (15) days before the date of said hearing and the opening of said bids and shall cause notice of the adoption of this resolution to be published once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks prior to the hearing on said matter, in the INDEPENDENT-JOURNAL, a newspaper of general circulation published in the County of Marin.

PASSED AND ADOPTED at a regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, held on the 20th day of December, 1966, by the following vote:

AYES: SUPERVISORS William A. Gnoss, Peter H. Behr, Thomas T. Storer, Ernest N. Kettenhofen, Byron W. Leydecker

University Has Mobile Course For Doctors

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP)—Today's doctors are usually too busy to attend refresher courses so the University of Vermont College of Medicine is bringing the courses to them.

The college has initiated a two-pronged program to keep Vermont's 480 physicians up to date on advances in their fields.

One part of the program consists of a series of early morning television programs. The second is a combination of seminars and symposiums conducted by a rotating team of two physicians, a nurse and various technicians. They use an airplane in reaching every part of the state.

Dr. Welsh said he hopes the Vermont program will lead to a New England-wide effort.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Tuberculosis Outbreaks Have Something In Common

VAN DELLEN

In an analysis of more than a hundred epidemics of tuberculosis in 12 countries, it was found that the outbreaks had certain circumstances in common. In the first place, a large number of those exposed to the germs lacked immunity (tuberculin negative); secondly, the disseminator usually had a large number of tubercle bacilli in his sputum.

The concentration of germs spewed into the air depends not only upon the number expelled in the sputum but upon the fluidity of the discharge and the frequency and forcefulness of coughing. Of equal importance is whether the infected individual covers the mouth when coughing.

THREE OF OF FOUR of the epidemics were in schools, but adults, rather than youngsters were responsible. Teachers usually are the source but epidemics have been traced to a bus driver, custodian, or cook. Older children and adolescents with chronic pulmonary tuberculosis are responsible occasionally

Eight members of a British military band developed active tuberculosis within a short period of time. The source of the infection was a young clarinet player. It was believed that the disease spread rapidly because band players exhale more air than average persons and do so with greater force. The air contains a greater concentration of bacilli in the circumstances.

MOST EPIDEMICS develop within a short time. It is not difficult to pinpoint the source if all in contact with the victims agree to a tuberculin test and chest X-ray. The infected adult or adolescent should be treated in a sanatorium. The adolescent should not return to school until the disease is arrested for three to six months. Young children can be treated at home. Those having no symptoms can return to school provided they are under medical supervision and receive isoniazid or PSA for at least a year.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.)

PAGET'S DISEASE

M. G. writes: Is Paget's disease the same as bone cancer?

REPLY

No. Paget's disease (osteritis deformans) is a chronic disorder of the bone characterized by bowing of the legs and enlargement of the skull. Now and then one bone, such as the thigh shin or the upper arm, is involved. However, as a rule, the skull and several of the long bones are affected. Send a stamed self-addressed envelope for leaflet on Paget's disease.

ASPIRIN AND THE HEART

Mrs. H. N. writes: My husband has valvular heart trouble and arthritis. Would it harm his heart to take aspirin for the joint pains.?

REPLY

No. Aspirin remains one of our best remedies for rheumatic fever and is used frequently in the stage of the disease when the heart is most affected.

VEIN TREATMENT

N. E. writes: Is the injection treatment of varicose veins still used?

REPLY

Yes, but surgery frequently is advised and now and then a combination of the two procedures is required. Send a stamped, self-addessed envelope for leaflet on varicose veins.

STEAM BATHS

G. S. B. writes: What are the benefits and hazards of steam baths?

REPLY

They have no advantages over ordinaly warm tub baths or showers. Healthy people can take steam baths, but the person with heart trouble or high blood pressure may find them too strenuous.

LAW IN ACTION

From the State Bar Of California

Some Debts Are Hard To Collect

A lawsuit may result in a judgment, for money damages. If the judgment-debtor has assets enough, the judgment will soon be paid.

Still, many judgments are hard to collect. Some persons are "judgment proof." They have no assets, or they are protected by law. For example, the debtor will go through bankruptcy and have the judgment discharged as a matter of law.

Some judgments are paid only after perisitent efforts by the creditor. The creditor must get a "writ of execution" from the court. The writ will direct a sheriff, constable, or marshal to seize the debtor's assets to pay the judgment.

The creditor has to locate the debtor's assets and direct the sheriff to them to make his collection. The court usually adds the costs and fees for finding and seizing assets to the judgment. But sometimes the cost of enforcing a judgment is not worth the effort. For example, to seize the debtor's car, the creditor must post enough money to tow the car away, and perhaps pay storage fees. To seize and sell real property, the creditor must post a fee. To make the sale worthwhile, he may have to line up buyers or buy property himself.

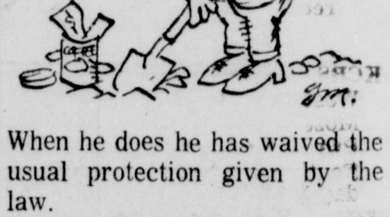
Sometimes the creditor can take steps before judgment to insure collection of his judgement. He can attach or garnish the debtor's assets. As soon as the creditor files his complaint, he can ask the court for permission to seize the debtor's assets.

Because the creditor does not yet have a judgment, he must post a bond for a garnishment or attachment as well as for the costs of enforcing it.

The law protects certain assets from creditor's claims, an interest in a home up to $15,000, life insurance, a small bank account, household furnishings, a car worth less than $250 and some tools and equipment.

Enforcing payment comes quite high. That is why creditors often ask for security beforehand. A car or household item sold on time will be secured by the item itself. The creditor can force return of the goods upon failure to pay as agreed.

A debtor can use protected assets by the law as security.



When he does he has waived the usual protection given by the law.

Note: California lawyers offer this column so you may know about our laws.

Contest Winners Lose On Writing

CHICAGO (AP)—Being disqualified in sweepstakes contests requiring the sending of a label, box-top or brand name to a headquarters is the least of a contestant's worries.

Walter Barry, an advertising director, says the biggest problem is legibility. Names and addresses must be printed or written clearly.

"Out of 1,500 winners of an $80,000 prize contest, there will be a few disqualifications simply because people are careless and don't follow the simple rules," Barry said.

Ancient Human Ashes Discovered By Czechs

BRATISLAVA, Czechoslovakia (AP)—A number of urns with incinerated human remains dating back to 1200 to 1300 B.C. were discovered near Rimavska Sobota, Slovakia, the news agency CTK reported recently.

CTK said the urns contained bronze parts of clothings and bronze needles and small gadgets symbolizing the social position of the dead.

Legal Notices

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DISPOSE OF SURPLUS REAL PROPERTY

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that, on the 20th day of December, 1966, the Marin County Board of Supervisors adopted Resolution No. 9171, declaring its intention to dispose of certain surplus real property described therein, upon the terms and conditions, and in the manner set forth in said resolution, which provides as follows:

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN RESOLUTION NO. 9171 RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN DECLARING ITS INTENTION TO DISPOSE OF SURPLUS REAL PROPERTY.

WHEREAS, the County of Marin is the owner of certain hereinafter described real property not necessary for its use which is hereby declared surplus;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED as follows:

1. The Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, pursuant to Sections 25520, et seq., of the Government Code, does hereby declare its intention to sell said property. A public meeting of the Board will be held at the Chambers of the Board of Supervisors, Civic Center, San Rafael, California, on the 14th day of February, 1967, at 2:00 o'clock P.M., at which time sealed proposals to purchase said property will be received and considered. Said property intended to be sold is generally known as the "COURTHOUSE SQUARE" and is described as follows:

That certain real property situate in the City of San Rafael, County of Marin, State of California, described as follows:

BLOCK 31 as shown on "Plat of the Townsite of the Town of San Rafael," filed October 14, 1873 in Rack 1 of Maps at Pull 4, Marin County Records.

2. A real estate commission shall be paid by the County to a licensed real estate broker, as provided by law, at the rate of five per cent (5%). Fifty per cent (50%) of the commission will be paid upon receipt by County of the first installment of the purchase price on July 1, 1967, and the remainder of the Commission will be paid when title passes. If the purchaser elects to pay the entire purchase price at once, the entire commission will be paid upon close of escrow. If the transaction is not consummated through no fault of the County, no commission whatsoever shall be payable.

3. Minimum acceptable price for said property is Nine Hundred Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($900,000.00).

4. The terms of sale shall be as follows:

(a) All bids must be accompanied by a cashier's or certified check payable to the County of Marin in an amount equal to ten per cent (10%) of the amount bid. Failure to consummate the purchase or make payments when due, will result in forfeiture of this deposit.

(b) Fifty per cent (50%) of the purchase price, including the amount on deposit, must be paid directly to County, on or before July 1, 1967. The remaining fifty per cent (50%) of the purchase price must be paid to County, through escrow, on or before July 1, 1968. The purchaser may, at his option, pay the purchase price in full, in advance of the above dates.

(c) A grant deed to the property will be delivered to escrow by County with instructions to the escrow holder to record and deliver the deed to the purchaser immediately after the County certifies that full payment of the purchase price has been received. County shall pay all escrow charges except title insurance premiums.

(d) Possession of the property shall be delivered to the successful bidder about July 1, 1968. If County is unable to vacate the premises by that date, delivery of possession will be deferred pending completion of the Marin County Hall of Justice. During the period between delivery and recordation of the deed, and delivery of possession, County will pay the purchaser rent at the rate of one per cent (1%) of the purchase price per month.

5. All bidders will be required to submit bids on a form supplied by County. Oral bids will be considered in the manner provided by law, but no oral bids will be accepted from bidders who have not established their responsibility by submission of a written bid and deposit. An additional deposit need not be made for an oral bid, but the successful bidder's original deposit must be increased to ten per cent (10%) of his bid within five (5) days after award.

6. The successful bidder will be required to agree to preserve the exterior of the existing Courthouse and grounds substantially in their present condition for five (5) years from the date of award.

7. The Board of Supervisors reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any errors or irregularities in any bid. No bid may be withdrawn for a period of ten (10) days after submission.

8. The Clerk of this Board shall cause three copies of the within resolution, signed by the Chairman of this Board, to be posted in three public places within the County at least fifteen (15) days before the date of said hearing and the opening of said bids and shall cause notice of the adoption of this resolution to be published once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks prior to the hearing on said matter, in the INDEPENDENT-JOURNAL, a newspaper of general circulation published in the County of Marin.

PASSED AND ADOPTED at a regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, held on the 20th day of December, 1966, by the following vote:

University Has Mobile Course For Doctors

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP)—Today's doctors are usually too busy to attend refresher courses so the University of Vermont College of Medicine is bringing the courses to them.

The college has initiated a two-pronged program to keep Vermont's 480 physicians up to date on advances in their fields.

One part of the program consists of a series of early morning television programs. The second is a combination of seminars and symposiums conducted by a rotating team of two physicians, a nurse and various technicians. They use an airplane in reaching every part of the state.

Dr. Welsh said he hopes the Vermont program will lead to a New England-wide effort.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Tuberculosis Outbreaks Have Something In Common

VAN DELLEN

In an analysis of more than a hundred epidemics of tuberculosis in 12 countries, it was found that the outbreaks had certain circumstances in common. In the first place, a large number of those exposed to the germs lacked immunity (tuberculin negative); secondly, the disseminator usually had a large number of tubercle bacilli in his sputum.

The concentration of germs spewed into the air depends not only upon the number expelled in the sputum but upon the fluidity of the discharge and the frequency and forcefulness of coughing. Of equal importance is whether the infected individual covers the mouth when coughing.

THREE OF OF FOUR of the epidemics were in schools, but adults, rather than youngsters were responsible. Teachers usually are the source but epidemics have been traced to a bus driver, custodian, or cook. Older children and adolescents with chronic pulmonary tuberculosis are responsible occasionally

Eight members of a British military band developed active tuberculosis within a short period of time. The source of the infection was a young clarinet player. It was believed that the disease spread rapidly because band players exhale more air than average persons and do so with greater force. The air contains a greater concentration of bacilli in the circumstances.

MOST EPIDEMICS develop within a short time. It is not difficult to pinpoint the source if all in contact with the victims agree to a tuberculin test and chest X-ray. The infected adult or adolescent should be treated in a sanatorium. The adolescent should not return to school until the disease is arrested for three to six months. Young children can be treated at home. Those having no symptoms can return to school provided they are under medical supervision and receive isoniazid or PSA for at least a year.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.)

PAGET'S DISEASE

M. G. writes: Is Paget's disease the same as bone cancer?

REPLY

No. Paget's disease (osteritis deformans) is a chronic disorder of the bone characterized by bowing of the legs and enlargement of the skull. Now and then one bone, such as the thigh shin or the upper arm, is involved. However, as a rule, the skull and several of the long bones are affected. Send a stamed self-addressed envelope for leaflet on Paget's disease.

ASPIRIN AND THE HEART

Mrs. H. N. writes: My husband has valvular heart trouble and arthritis. Would it harm his heart to take aspirin for the joint pains.?

REPLY

No. Aspirin remains one of our best remedies for rheumatic fever and is used frequently in the stage of the disease when the heart is most affected.

VEIN TREATMENT

N. E. writes: Is the injection treatment of varicose veins still used?

REPLY

Yes, but surgery frequently is advised and now and then a combination of the two procedures is required. Send a stamped, self-addessed envelope for leaflet on varicose veins.

STEAM BATHS

G. S. B. writes: What are the benefits and hazards of steam baths?

REPLY

They have no advantages over ordinaly warm tub baths or showers. Healthy people can take steam baths, but the person with heart trouble or high blood pressure may find them too strenuous.

LAW IN ACTION

From the State Bar Of California

Some Debts Are Hard To Collect

A lawsuit may result in a judgment, for money damages. If the judgment-debtor has assets enough, the judgment will soon be paid.

Still, many judgments are hard to collect. Some persons are "judgment proof." They have no assets, or they are protected by law. For example, the debtor will go through bankruptcy and have the judgment discharged as a matter of law.

Some judgments are paid only after perisitent efforts by the creditor. The creditor must get a "writ of execution" from the court. The writ will direct a sheriff, constable, or marshal to seize the debtor's assets to pay the judgment.

The creditor has to locate the debtor's assets and direct the sheriff to them to make his collection. The court usually adds the costs and fees for finding and seizing assets to the judgment. But sometimes the cost of enforcing a judgment is not worth the effort. For example, to seize the debtor's car, the creditor must post enough money to tow the car away, and perhaps pay storage fees. To seize and sell real property, the creditor must post a fee. To make the sale worthwhile, he may have to line up buyers or buy property himself.

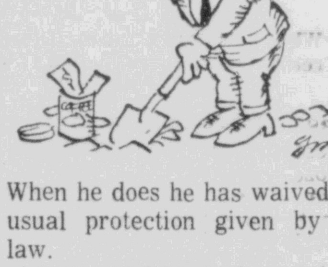
Sometimes the creditor can take steps before judgment to insure collection of his judgement. He can attach or garnish the debtor's assets. As soon as the creditor files his complaint, he can ask the court for permission to seize the debtor's assets.

Because the creditor does not yet have a judgment, he must post a bond for a garnishment or attachment as well as for the costs of enforcing it.

The law protects certain assets from creditor's claims, an interest in a home up to $15,000, life insurance, a small bank account, household furnishings, a car worth less than $250 and some tools and equipment.

Enforcing payment comes quite high. That is why creditors often ask for security beforehand. A car or household item sold on time will be secured by the item itself. The creditor can force return of the goods upon failure to pay as agreed.

A debtor can use protected assets by the law as security.



When he does he has waived the usual protection given by the law.

Contest Winners Lose On Writing

CHICAGO (AP)—Being disqualified in sweepstakes contests requiring the sending of a label, box-top or brand name to a headquarters is the least of a contestant's worries.

Walter Barry, an advertising director, says the biggest problem is legibility. Names and addresses must be printed or written clearly.

"Out of 1,500 winners of an $80,000 prize contest, there will be a few disqualifications simply because people are careless and don't follow the simple rules," Barry said.

Ancient Human Ashes Discovered By Czechs

BRATISLAVA, Czechoslovakia (AP)—A number of urns with incinerated human remains dating back to 1200 to 1300 B.C. were discovered near Rimavska Sobota, Slovakia, the news agency CTK reported recently.

CTK said the urns contained bronze parts of clothings and bronze needles and small gadgets symbolizing the social position of the dead.

TV REVIEW

Let's Have A Commercial Break Please

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) —For the person capable of only so much goodwill during the Christmas season or any other, television is a constant relief. There, even as the last hours tick away before the days of reverence, one is returned to the real world of jazzy new automobiles and bad breath. Has no one ever considered a holiday truce of decent length between video and the home audience?

COMMERCIALS

The only major suspension of commercials I can remember in recent years was during the four days following the assassination of President Kennedy. Yet it would seem that there are days each year in the lives of ordinary persons that have a right to be treated with full — rather than partial —respect, particularly by a medium which, through its influence in reflecting values, can do much good or harm.

Surely television cannot wish to be known as a medium that requires a tragedy to make it act with dignity, or just plain decency.

I suppose I resented more than anything else this past Christmas the automobile dealers who came on full of reverent words about the real meaning of the season, and told how they weren't going to pitch their cars, but then casually mentioned in passing that they would be open after a day or so —or other words along these lines.

WHO ARE THEY?

Who are these people anyway? How dare they intrude on such a holiday? How dare they presume that anyone is interested in their views about the Christmas season, or wishes to hear them sermonize from a used car lot? How dare a station allow such fellows to indulge in such tastelessness — these people who could never get on television unless they bought their way on?

Television also contributed some other choice tidbits to the holiday season. Yesterday morning, for instance, all three of our major networks devoted considerable time to coverage of the Rose Parade.

TV REVIEW

Let's Have A Commercial Break Please

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) —For the person capable of only so much goodwill during the Christmas season or any other, television is a constant relief. There, even as the last hours tick away before the days of reverence, one is returned to the real world of jazzy new automobiles and bad breath. Has no one ever considered a holiday truce of decent length between video and the home audience?

COMMERCIALS

The only major suspension of commercials I can remember in recent years was during the four days following the assassination of President Kennedy. Yet it would seem that there are days each year in the lives of ordinary persons that have a right to be treated with full — rather than partial —respect, particularly by a medium which, through its influence in reflecting values, can do much good or harm.

Surely television cannot wish to be known as a medium that requires a tragedy to make it act with dignity, or just plain decency.

I suppose I resented more than anything else this past Christmas the automobile dealers who came on full of reverent words about the real meaning of the season, and told how they weren't going to pitch their cars, but then casually mentioned in passing that they would be open after a day or so —or other words along these lines.

WHO ARE THEY?

Who are these people anyway? How dare they intrude on such a holiday? How dare they presume that anyone is interested in their views about the Christmas season, or wishes to hear them sermonize from a used car lot? How dare a station allow such fellows to indulge in such tastelessness — these people who could never get on television unless they bought their way on?

Television also contributed some other choice tidbits to the holiday season. Yesterday morning, for instance, all three of our major networks devoted considerable time to coverage of the Rose Parade.

BEST SHOWS FOR TONIGHT

Best bets on television tonight:

KGO (7), KNTV (11), 7:30 p.m.—Margaret O'Brien guest-stars as a French girl trapped in a cave with several GI's on "Combat."

Bride-To-Be Will Be Honored With Fashion Show At Emporium

Honoring the bride-to-be, Emporium, Northgate, will present a showing of spring and summer bridal fashions Wednesday, Jan. 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the bridal salon.

Entitled "Happily Ever After—the Emporium Bride," the show will feature a selection of wedding dresses with accompanying bridesmaid dresses, and a group of dresses suitable for the mother of the bride — and for the flower girl.

TO BE SHOWN—The Emporium has this gown on display for an early wedding. The graceful fall of Bobbin lace is beautifully appliqued in sprays of Venice lace. Two bows accentuate the Empire banding of the cap-sleeved bodice. It is in Emporium's Bride's Room, Northgate Fashion Mall.

The prevailing mood of bridal gowns for spring, 1967 is one of airy lightness, with organza the dominant fabric. The shape of the dresses from the Empire, A-line silhouette to the skimmer and the "cage." There is a great deal of fragile lace trimming the organza, along with bead detailing and ribbon trims. Unusually effective is ivory-color organza with deeper tone lace. Another handsome fabric is English net with Alencon lace appliques.

Sleeves are the accent and may give a romantic look to the shape of the gowns—long sleeves, bishop sleeves, small baby sleeves, flounced and "teacup" sleeves. Trains have an airy illusion look — many lavishly trimmed or framed with lace, and many can double as headpieces.

Bridesmaid dresses follow similar silhouettes, the "cage" being especially beautiful in eyelet sheers and chiffon. Other fabrics include organza, linen, voile and "saki" cloth, with sleeve treatments related to those of the wedding gowns.

Colors are vibrant — with peach to apricot tones leading the fashion parade. Lilac is another shade that is extremely pretty for spring attendants' dresses.

The long bridesmaid dress is still predominant but there is a trend to the short bridal (and attendant) dress, and several will be included in the showings.

Drastic Changes Noted Now In The Design Of Bathrobes

NEW YORK — It's amazing to note the number of developments that have taken place in robes since the birth of the classic belted "bathrobe." To appreciate this, one has only to view the new robe collections with their wealth of diversified styles and fabrics in varied textures and colorations.

One of the most striking developments concerns the fabrics themselves. The range of fabrics is a wide one and includes those designed to appeal to the tactile as well as the visual senses. There are chiffons, jerseys, satiny crepes and many other soft, silky fabrics that feel deliciously soothing when worn next to the skin.

Aside from their beauty and softness of texture, some of the fabrics have the added advantage of easy-care qualities. A perfect example is a fleece of triacetate and nylon that is wonderfully light with a downy softness and cozy warmth. Robes made in this fabric can be tossed in the washing machine, tumble-dried and hung in the closet ready for wearing. No ironing is necessary.

Even though there are varied kinds of robes in this luxuriously soft, fleecy fabric, ranging from simple brunch coats to long elegant "at home" styles, simplicity is the general keynote. Tasteful restraint is shown in use of trimmings, as for example, with satin piping or embroidered borders that emphasize the design of the robes.

Series Of Bridge Lessons Will Start On Jan. 11

A series of bridge lessons will be held at the Emporium in Northgate, starting Wednesday, Jan. 11 and continuing for 14 consecutive Wednesdays.

Jackson taught bridge at the Marin YWCA for two years. In addition to being a "Contract Bridge Life Master," he is a former member of the National Contract Bridge League and the only three-time holder of the far western regional championship in bridge.

The series will be divided into two groups—the first 10 lessons for both persons who have never played and those who have played; the second series or final five lessons for only those who have played. The fee is $1 per class. No advance reservations are necessary.

Lessons will be held in the cloak room, frequently used for public functions and located on the first floor adjacent to the yardage department. Hours are from 1 to 3 p.m. and in the evening from 7:30 to 9:15 p.m.

Anti-Clotting Drugs Don't Offer Heart Patients Too Much Safety

By JUDITH RANDAL
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — A team of Oregon researchers has found that prolonged use of anti-coagulant or anti-clotting drugs offers little future protection to a heart patient and may even do him some harm.

The finding, hedged with numerous qualifications, was reported at a recent meeting of the American Heart Assn. in New York.

According to Dr. Arthur J. Seaman and Dr. Herbert Griswold of the University of Oregon and Portland Veterans Administration Hospital, a 10-year study of several hundred patients showed that those getting anticoagulants over long periods of time were no freer of second heart attacks than those who were not.

In addition, they were more often hospitalized, in part because the drugs sometimes induce bleeding that is hard to control. Drs. Seaman and Griswold spoke for a four-man group. During the study, neither participants or their doctores knew which patients were really getting anticoagulants and which were getting placebos (dummy pills).

Tens of thousands of Americans who have had heart attacks routinely take anticoagulants because it has been thought that the prevention of clots will, in itself, reduce the chance of further trouble. The thinking has been that no attack can take place unless preceded by a clot in one of the blood vessels supplying the heart.

Drs. Seaman and Griswold, however, believe this theory may be wrong. "There is some evidence," Dr. Seaman told reporters, "that we've had this thing backwards. Experiments with animals under stress have shown that some may develop heart attack even in the absence of clots."

Dr. Seaman also cited some experiments in which cows' eyes had been removed from the animals, but kept alive by a nutrient broth. When a blood vessel-damaging chemical was added to the broth, the vessel was injured even though anticoagulants were given at the same time.

These experiments may mean that atherosclerosis — fatty deposits on blood vessel walls — is capable in itself of causing the death of tissue in the heart. Doctors call the area of this tissue death a myocardial infarction. It is the coronary artery that supplies blood to the heart muscle that is involved.

Neither of the Oregon researchers blames doctors for their wide-spread use of anticoagulant drugs. As Dr. Griswold noted, blood-thinning agents were considered beneficial five or six years ago and are definitely needed immediately after a heart attack or stroke and over a prolonged period of time by patients who have a tendency to form clots or have diseased heart valves, as well as by those whose own valves have been replaced by artificial implants.

Furthermore, the situation is not as clear-cut as it seems. Although it is little known by the general public, there are many treatments about which doctors disagree and the prolonged use of anticoagulants is a typical example.

In "Controversies in Internal Medicine," a recently published scientific book, for example, almost two dozen such pros and cons are discussed in regard to disorders ranging from high blood pressure to the treatment of ulcer. In the chapter on heart attacks, the proponents of long-term use of anticoagulants go so far as to say that failure to prescribe the drugs may endanger the life of the patient.

It is interesting to note, however, that in preparing this material, the two authors drew heavily on a paper by Dr. Irving S. Wright, a Cornell University physician who is one of the country's leading heart specialists. Dr. Wright was present at the news conference at which the benefits of anticlotting drugs were disputed. Although he had some minor criticisms of the Oregon researchers' work, he did not basically disagree.

"A patient who has had one myocardial infarction (heart attack) and has had no subsequent complications," he said, "is probably a good risk and may not need lifetime therapy. However, any evidence of recurrent thrombosis (clotting) makes one a candidate for long-term therapy — therapy of one or two years."

Some Tips For Snow Dressing

Are you a man who rejoices in the first snowfall? A ski-man who scurries to the slalom slopes at the first hunt of threatening winter skies?

Or are you a "spectator skier," who simply relishes the clear crisp air of the resorts and the friendly, informal evenings around the fireplaces? In either case, the American Institute of Men's and Boys' Wear gives you some style tips.

For travel to and from resorts as well as for a welcome change during the apre-ski hours, you will want a least one — perhaps more — of those burly tweed or shetland sport coats.

The plaids are big, bold and powerful and make excellent use of the whiskey-tones, the soft "earth" colors and blends of green, claret and honey. Greenish-blue lovat mixes have that "in" sportsman look in both plaids and plain colors, too. Select any color or combination in your favorite sport coat model.

Blazers are the bit everywhere, as much at home at ski resorts as on tropic cruises. Pick from the classic single-breasted or the smart double-breasteds, which have gained rapid universal acceptance. To the standard deep blues now are added medium and light blues, deep greens, grays, rusts and burgundies.

With your bold plaid coats team rugged whipcord, twill, multi-color hopsack or gray flannel slacks. Add new style zip to your blazers with either bold or muted plaid or checked slacks. These "fancy pants" go equally well with solid hopsack or other unpatterned sport coats.

Snow resorts and warm, handsomely styled outerwear are almost synonymous. The outer fabrics of outerwear — the "shells" — find woolens in solid colors, rugged lumberjack plaids, traditional English district checks and club checks, lodens, and tweeds used to fine advantage. Corduroys, particularly in the wider wales, are also on the upswing and the western look takes to the slopes in real shearlings and suedes, man-made versions of the same and in brushed denims.

Double-breasted outerwear shows up in a host of models as the western influence is expressed in short coats and the British bit includes winterized bush coats and outerwear versions of the military short warm.

Think ski and you have to think sweaters! Think sweaters and you will have to think flat knits, double-knits, cable-stitches, combined woven fabrics with knits, brushed knits, turtlenecks, mock-turtles, V-necks, creck-necks, boat-necks, the layered-look, cardigans in classic, double-breasted and alpine styles.

The newest sweater colors include rusty reds, colorful heathers, deep navy blue, reds from bright to burgundy and, of course, the naturals in bone and tan, the pale tans and many grays.

One rarely needs dress shirts at ski resorts so go heavy on sport shirts. Don't overlook new "sweater shirts," knitted of fine wools or of wools blended with other fibers. Other knit shirts include turtlenecks, mock-turtles, fancy patterns, classic polos, layered-look, and continental styles.

Deserving of special mention are the updated corduroy suits. Now in the popular double-breasted styles as well as in the classic single-breasted (some with vests to match), the corduroy suits are practical and handsome in both medium and wide wales. They gain plus benefits from new permanent-press finishes, and have just the right look for after-ski hours when worn with turtleneck shirts or cut-and-sewn sport shirts.

Round out your present woven sports shirts with CPO's in brushed denim, corduroy and wool; lumberjacks in woodsman plaids, button-down-collar wools and brushed cottons and blends of wool with cotton; and all-cotton plaids, tattersalls, checks in deep-tone rusts, browns, blues and bright reds.

Some teen-agers will dig the mod floral prints and polka dots, many of which are made with high band collars in both button-down and plain long-point models.

It is almost trite to remind the experienced snow resorter of the rakish Tyrolean hat. In velours, rough finishes and sueded felts, they serve as a repository of the skiers' many ski badges, resort pins, and whiskery hirschbarts and gemsbarts.

FLUORESCENT HIGH INTENSITY LAMP

Diffused light that is brighter, cooler and softer is provided by this lamp, designed for desk, sewing, hobbies and other precision work. Fluorescent tubes give four times more light per watt than incandescent lamps.

Rival Teams Waging Race To Recover Treasure Ship

ISLES OF SCILLY, England (UPI) —The Royal Navy and a bunch of "landlubbers" are competing against each other here in a gripping seabed race for the loot of a treasure ship sunk on these wreck-strewn rocks almost 250 years ago.

The rival diving teams are searching for H.M.S. Association, flag-ship of Admiral Sir Cloudesley Shovel, which went down in 1707 with an estimated five million pounds, $14 million worth, of Spanish coin and plate in her hold.

The Navy's task force consists of a minesweeper, a helicopter, 19 divers and Women's Royal Navy officer Joan Ireland. The "Blue Sea Buccaneers" are six men and a girl who have hired their own ship and equipment.

Neither side appears to be getting in the other's way, mainly because they have different ideas where the ship went down.

Admiralty records say the Association was returning from the sacking of Barcelona when it hit Gilstone Rock, 40 miles off land's end. As the Soilly Isles have two jagged shiptraps of that name, the rivals have chosen different places to search.

Confusion is increased because both Gilstone rocks have claimed wrecks in the past.

The Navy is treating its competition with heavy, ill-concealed scorn, while the "Buccaneers" boldly announce that the Navy is using government equipment and sounding apparatus in the wrong place.

Whichever team finds the treasure one thing is certain. It will immediately be claimed by the government Receiver of Wrecks, who will hand it over to the Admiralty. The Admiralty will decide how much of the treasure, if any the finders are allowed to keep.

SUITABLE FOR BUSINESS OR PLEASURE

An all time favorite for men and boys is this black oxford available at GallenKamp's in the Northgate Fashion Mall. The low cut style is plain but distinctive because of the single seam stretching from midpoint on both sides around to the toe.

Drinking Water Study Launched

(Special to the I-J)

Is it the fact that it's icy cold? Or slightly mineral in taste? Or a lack of mineral taste? A salty taste? A flat taste? A "soft" taste, like fresh rain water? Or a "hard" taste? Or what you are used to?

Researchers are trying to find out in the Sensory Evaluation Laboratory of the Food Science Department at the University of California at Davis.

The project, sponsored by the federal Public Health Service, seeks data on factors which influence the taste and palatability of water. This information is important as the increasing population demands more drinking water, necessitating use of ground water supplies high in bad-tasting minerals, or, at some future date, the use of desalinized sea water.

Mrs. Rose Marie Pangborn, project director, reports the study already has produced a surprise.

The long held belief that chilling water makes it more palatable does not apply to all water tasted by a panel of trained judges. Experimental waters containing common minerals at concentrations of 1,000 parts per million (ppm), the Public Health recommended maximum, were slightly improved by chilling. But, both tap water and distilled water were more acceptable at room temperature than chilled.

The minerals tested, commonly present in ground water, were sodium, calcium and magnesium sulfates; calcium, magnesium and sodium chloride; sodium carbonate and sodium bicarbonate (baking soda).

These occur singly and in various combinations in natural waters throughout California, ranging in concentration from 85 ppm in Berkeley to over 2,400 in Coalinga.

Mrs. Pangborn pointed out that selected parts of the laboratory experiments are being applied in field studies currently being conducted by the California Department of Public Health in Berkeley. Eventually consumers will be surveyed on their taste preferences and reactions.

An early finding suggests individuals may have acquired preferences for at least some mineral taste in drinking water. Judges found that distilled water was "bitter," "cardboardy," "flat," or "insipid."

Mrs. Pangborn speculates the concentration of minerals in the saliva may influence reaction to the taste of water. Preliminary results show that salivary flow rates are greatly influenced by both the concentration of the minerals and by the temperature of the solution tested.

A detailed study was made on the taste of common table salt at freezing room temperature, body temperature and "as hot as the judges would tolerate it." It was found that salt was easier to detect at room and body temperatures, but difficult to perceive when either hot or cold.

During the remaining two years in this three-year study, the sensory laboratory will continue to investigate effects of temperature, minerals, chlorination, and fluoridation, oxygen and carbonation. Antaste effects of mineralized or treated waters on common beverages, such as coffee, tea and soft drinks.

Eastern Dress Is Influencing Today's Styles

The fashion swing to easy gliding silhouettes is well-timed to the caftan and its variations, the djellaba and the burnoose, soon to be found in all well-rounded leisure wardrobes.

Tops and tights in riotously printed wool jersey or stretch knit are the newest idea in sleepwear . . . right for the young with a yen for comfort (and warmth). These soft, supple companions brightly combine magenta with turquoise or are found in such spirited combinations as red, blue and orange.

Fashions rush to ruffles and lace has found an ideal niche in the leisure world too, forming lithe, lovely night dresses, bed jackets and robes—a far cry from the lace trimmed duster days.

Children And Use Of Aspirins

By California Medical Assn.

Almost every family medicine cabinet contains aspirin and probably no single drug is used so freely by the public.

During the influenza epidemic last winter the advice given by press, radio and TV for the treatment of flu was "stay in bed, drink plenty of fluid, and take aspirin". Unfortunately, some children were given aspirin with such abandon as to account for a significant number of cases of aspirin poisoning.

Aspirin is the most common cause of fatal poisoning among children in this country. Too often it is given in larger dosages than a child can tolerate and is given too frequently and for too prolonged periods of time.

There is no doubt that aspirin is extremely effective in alleviating many types of pain and discomfort in both children and adults.

In certain diseases — such as rheumatic fever and rheumatoid arthritis — it has a specific therapeutic effect. But many parents mistakenly think aspirin should be given to children for the sole purpose of reducing fever.

This may be useful in alleviating the anxiety of the parents, but it is not the best nor the safest way to treat a fever.

When a child has fever, the important first step is not to bring the temperature down to normal, but to find out what is causing the fever. A child's fever may be reduced by repeated dosages of aspirin, but this may obscure an important warning that something is amiss.

Lulled by the drop in temperature, the parents may postpone calling in a physician and thus delay diagnosis and appropriate treatment.

If the physician prescribes aspirin — as he might to relieve the discomfort of influenza or some similar infection — his instructions should be carefully followed.

A single dose is often all that is suggested. Sometimes another dose is permitted in 4 to 6 hours if needed. Within a 24-hour period, the child should not be given more than three doses. If the height of the fever is the only problem, it can be reduced by tepid baths and the use of a fan.

Candy-flavored aspirin tablets, marketed specifically for children, do more harm than good. Many parents mistakenly assume that the drug in this form is completely harmless and make no attempt to limit the child's intake. Young children seek these tablets out because of their tempting flavor.

Rather than stock their medicine cabinet with so-called "baby" aspirin, with its deceptively harmless-sounding name and attractive flavor, parents follow a much safer course if they use portions of the regular five grain aspirin tablet.

This can be divided so that a fraction will represent two and one-half to one and one-fourth or approximately one-half grain. The amount specified by the child's doctor can be softened with a drop or two of water and then mixed with jam or jelly. Presented in this form, it is usually accepted quite well by the small child.

Aspirin should be stored where it cannot be reached by small children. This is a precaution which is equally appropriate for all drugs which have any therapeutic effect. Any drug which is potent enough to be valuable in treatment is probably not devoid of dangerous effects in overdosage, especially for children.

Stories Differ On Source Of Lake Name

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, Minn. (AP)—The true source of the Mississippi River, nearby Lake Itasca, in northern Minnesota, was discovered and named by explorer Henry Schoolcraft in 1832. He combined the last two syllables of the Latin "veritas," meaning truth, with the first of "caput," meaning head or source.

Chippewa legend, however, maintains that I-tas-ka, daughter of Hiawatha, was carried away to the region of darkness by Chebiabo, ruler of the netherworld. Her tears, the Chippewa say, united with springs and rivulets to form the Mississippi.

A FIFTEEN-BALL CORNER POCKET

This is the tale of a cat who likes to hang around the pool table—at home, that is. His owner, Robert Huber of Dubuque, Iowa, allows he's getting "purrrty" good. (AP Wirephoto)

Kiev Remains Steeped In Its Ancient History

KIEV, U.S.S.R. (AP)—Nearly 11 centuries ago in 882, the legend says, Prince Oleg of Novgorod sailed down the Dnieper River to Kiev and proclaimed, "This is to be the mother of Russian cities."

And so it was.

The fortress city looming on steep green hills overlooking the river ruled as the capital of old Rus from the 9th to 13th centuries.

The modern Soviet city of 1,300,000 persons today, largely rebuilt from the ruins of the Nazi occupation during World War II, remains steeped in history.

It was here in 988 that Prince Vladimir marched his subjects down to the Dnieper for a forced mass dunking of baptisms. A statue of Vladimir, bearing a cross, still overlooks the spot. Ancient churches still attest to the city's rich past.

It was here nearly 1,000 years later that Nikita S. Krushchev built a political reputation as Communist party boss of the Soviet Ukraine.

The monument to Vladimir fared better than the one to Krushchev.

The name of the 25,000-seat Krushchev Sports Stadium was changed to Central Sports Stadium after the Soviet leader's ouster in 1964.

The three-story yellow house where Krushchev once lived, shielded by a green fence, is now the residence of Pyotr Y. Shelest, the present Ukranian party leader. Tourists are not permitted to stop and photograh the house.

"Stalin Square" has been changed to "Lenin Komsomol Square," "Tsar Park" to "First of May Park."

The 14-story Moskva Hotel stands on a spot that once housed the colossal mansion of the merchant Ginsburg, the biggest home in Kiev. It was destroyed during World War II.

The old Polish church is now the planetarium. The 11th Century Pechersk Monastery has been turned into a museum of atheism. A former Jewish synagogue is now a movie theater.

Apartment houses are going up at Babi Yar, the ravine where Nazj troops slaughtered some 100,000 Kiev Jews during World War II.

Residents here point out an old church that had a rusty old dome. One day the neighborhood awoke to find the dome golden.

"They gave us some scientific explanation for it," a Russian said referring to civic authorities. "But we never found out how the dome got painted."

Sheriff Locked Out Of Office

MT. VERNON, Ill. (AP)—Former Sheriff Dewey Barton won the race for the Jefferson County clerk's office, but he needed a locksmith to open the door.

Barton, a Republican, replaced outgoing clerk Lester Davis, and when Davis prepared to hand over the keys he discovered he didn't have them. He left the keys in the clerk's office and it was locked.

Police Unite To Help Check Crime Activity

NILES, Ill. (AP) — Criminals operating in some Chicago suburbs are becoming entangled in the consequences of one-for-all and all-for-one crime fighting.

Lt. Edward Dennis, in charge of investigations for the Niles Police Department, is the central figure of the system. It informally bonds together more than 50 suburban police departments, various Chicago detective units, sheriff's offices of Cook and McHenry counties, Illinois State Police and some federal law enforcers.

Each month in the Niles courtroom, Lt. Dennis presides over delegates of member departments who come, some of them 30 miles or more and on their own time, to tell of recent crimes in their own towns and to hear of happenings elsewhere. Dennis describes a typical exchange:

"One guy will stand up and say, 'We picked up a petty thief last night but we found some fur coats in the trunk.' Then somebody else will ask, 'Does he drive a red Ford?'

" 'Yes.'

" 'Well, those furs are from a robbery in our town.' "

Lt. Dennis refers to the operation as a system rather than the more formal term organization.

It is two years old and has 214 members, but no name. It has resulted in the solving of about 300 crimes, Dennis said. Besides the monthly meetings, the system also has files, kept in Lt. Dennis' office.

What it all means is that crime fighting borders have been taken down; each police department worries about crimes occurring outside its borders and cooperates in solving such cases.

The Niles chief, Clarence Emrikson, said Lt. Dennis started the project in 1964 with 10 or 12 policemen from nearby towns. Word-of-mouth kept bringing in more from surrounding areas.

Emrikson said, "It seemed like the surrounding area never stopped." Now these detectives from so many different departments work as if for one municipality. "I have never heard of another such system anywhere else," the chief added.

A big benefit of the system is that policemen from many areas get to know each other. Then, when an officer is trying to track a suspect in another town, he's on a first-name basis with detectives in charge there.

Progress Of Upward Bound Reported Good

WASHINGTON (NS) — Four out of five of the first graduates of Project Upward Bound, the anti-poverty program for low-income high school students, are now in college.

This progress, says Sargent Shriver, director of the War on Poverty, is particularly impressive because most Upward Bound youngsters earned C grades or less in high school.

Once they reached college, however, the Upward Bound graduates showed greater tenacity than their classmates. Only 12 per cent dropped out in freshman year, Shriver says, while the average drop-out rate at many predominately Negro colleges is 30 per cent the first year.

Most of the southern colleges in the program are predominantly Negro.

Upward Bound started in 1965 as a summer program for 953 high school sophomores, juniors and seniors who spent eight weeks on a college campus. The idea was to make them think in terms of attending college themselves.

Shriver told a news conference recently that 80 per cent of these initial youngsters are now in college full time.

The program has expanded to 20,000 youngsters, however, and this high payoff probably won't last.

Upward Bound director Richard T. Frost predicts that the 80 per cent rate may drop to 50 per cent with the increased size, "but that's still a higher college-going rate than anybody else, rich or poor."

By comparison about 48 per cent of all high school graduates last year went on to some form of higher learning.

The budget poses more problems to the future of Upward Bound than any falloff in college attendance.

Shriver says he would need $55 million to finance Upward Bound programs at the 500 colleges and universities which have applied this year. These programs would include 50,000 youngsters.

The budget for the current fiscal year, ending in June, is only $25 million, which is enough for 220 schools and 20,000 youngsters, the same figures as for last year.

Shriver says "there is inadequate money to meet the good programs here," but adds that he will not seek a supplemental appropriation from Congress.

The importance of Upward Bound, Shriver says, "is we are not interested in just helping the very bright child who is poor and probably will get to college on a scholarship anyway.

"We are interested in a vast human potential among the poor whom we have failed to motivate and failed to develop in the educational history of this nation."

Frost adds that "we neither uncovered nor developed spectacular new tecniques. But we did put into practice for the first time a small package of rather tried and true teaching principles which were part of the national rhetoric but were not put into practice."

These include "small classes, teachers who have a respect for these youngsters, a full-time program, the ability to crank in some real freedom for the youngsters, and the use of teaching materials they are interested in."

The program has other side effects—psychological testing of 10 per cent of the students in last summer's program by the Youth Development Center at Syracuse University showed "significant improvement" in six areas.

The areas are motivation for college, possibility of graduating from college, self-evaluation of intelligence, self-responsibility, personal understanding and self-esteem.

"I personally feel that Upward Bound is one of the most promising of all ventures undertaken by this office," Shriver says. "Twice as many colleges want to get into the program now, but we don't have enough money."

Bazaar's Quilt Sale Backfires

WILLIAMSBURG, Mass. (AP) —That was a fine-looking quilt the Congregational Church women sold at their bazaar. Trouble was, it wasn't theirs.

The blanket had been mailed in as a project for a quilting bee and accidentally got mixed up with the bazaar goods.

Now the church women are trying to find the lucky buyer so they can return the quilt to its rightful owner.

Progress Of Upward Bound Reported Good

WASHINGTON (NS) — Four out of five of the first graduates of Project Upward Bound, the anti-poverty program for low-income high school students, are now in college.

This progress, says Sargent Shriver, director of the War on Poverty, is particularly impressive because most Upward Bound youngsters earned C grades or less in high school.

Once they reached college, however, the Upward Bound graduates showed greater tenacity than their classmates. Only 12 per cent dropped out in freshman year, Shriver says, while the average dropout rate at many predominately Negro colleges is 30 per cent the first year.

Most of the southern colleges in the program are predominantly Negro.

Upward Bound started in 1965 as a summer program for 953 high school sophomores, juniors and seniors who spent eight weeks on a college campus. The idea was to make them think in terms of attending college themselves.

Shriver told a news conference recently that 80 per cent of these initial youngsters are now in college full time.

The program has expanded to 20,000 youngsters, however, and this high payoff probably won't last.

Upward Bound director Richard T. Frost predicts that the 80 per cent rate may drop to 50 per cent with the increased size, "but that's still a higher college-going rate than anybody else, rich or poor."

VOL. 106 Glenwood 4-3020 10c PER COPY SAN RAFAEL, CALIFORNIA, TUESDAY, JANUARY 3, 1967 $2.00 A MONTH BY CARRIER No. 244

McInnis Sworn In As New Supervisor

Soon after John F. McInnis took office as supervisor for the first (San Rafael) Supervisorial District today, he asked top priority investigation of the long-troubled data processing department and urged better relations by all county departments with the public.

Other supervisors generally agreed with McInnis, but further discussion was put over until next Tuesday.

McInnis said that from press reports and comments of those familiar with the problem, the operation of the county data processing department "appears to be beyond understanding."

McInnis and Supervisor Ernest N. Kettenhofen are to attend a three-day conference at the International Business Machines plant near San Jose starting tomorrow.

On dealings with the public, McInnis said he has heard of cases where applicants for such things as building permits have been "not only baffled, but also put off and ultimately infuriated." He blamed this on growth of county departments and a resultant independent attitude on the part of the various departments.

He said one of the main goals should be in seeing that members of the public are treated "quietly, pleasantly and effectively."

McInnis, replacing Byron W. Leydecker who did not seek reelection to the board, was appointed today as county representative to the Assn. of Bay Area Governments, replacing Supervisor Peter H. Behr; to thet Bay Area Transportation Study Commission as an alternate delegate, and to the city-county services committee.

Storer New Chairman Of Supervisors

Thomas T Storer was named chairman and Ernest N. Kettenhofer vice chairman of the Marin County Board of Supervisors today.

Soon after taking the chairman's seat, Storer spoke of the things he would like to see accomplished in the new year.

"Above all I would like to see this board set an example in the conduct of public hearings and propriety," he said. Other supervisors agreed, and Supervisor Peter H. Behr urged that members refrain from making personal comments about each other and never question the reason for a man's vote.

Storer cited planning of the airport and settlement of the debate of Bolinas Lagoon among the things he hopes are done in 1967. He said he favored keeping the lagoon as unchanged as possible, with any development in keeping with the surroundings and "at a minimum."

He also hoped for settlement of the Route 17 alignment, saying he would favor something less than freeway standards and a road that did

SUCCUMBS AT DALLAS HOSPITAL

Moved From Jail Three Weeks Ago For Treatment

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jack Ruby, the slayer of accused presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, died today in Parkland Hospital, where he had been suffering from cancer since Dec. 9.

Ruby was moved to the hospital after complaining of an illness which jail doctors had been treating as a bad cold for three weeks.

At the hospital, his illness was first diagnosed as pneumonia and then as cancer which had spread into the lymph glands, lungs and pancreas. X-ray and surgery would do no good, doctors said.

A product of the Chicago slums, Ruby was little known even in Dallas until he stepped in front of the nation's television cameras with a snubnosed revolver and shot Oswald in the Dallas County Jail basement.

That was on Nov. 24, 1963, and the one-time Chicago tough kid had gained the world renown friends said he always had wanted.

He spent the rest of his life behind bars.

In Chicago today, Elmer Gertz, one of his lawyers, said Ruby "looked like a man of 80 years" when Gertz saw him just before Christmas. Ruby was 55.

In Ruby's room when he died were his brother, Earl Ruby of Detroit; his sister, Eva Grant of Dallas, and Eileen Kaminsky, another sister from Chicago.

Visitors were rare after Ruby was jailed. He was inaccessible except to his family, lawyers and investigators.

One visitor in the county jail was Chief Justice Earl Warren, who was present when Ruby was given a lie detector (polygraph) test. In the test, Ruby denied that there was any conspiracy connecting him with the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Ruby denied knowing Oswald, and he denied personally knowing Dallas Police Patrolman J.D. Tippit whom Oswald also was accused of shooting to death on an Oak Cliff Street

Neighboring Aid Refused In Home Fire

Fire gutted a home in the Terra Linda section of San Rafael yesterday, doing damage estimated at $42,000 and adding sparks to the burning question of whether Marin would better be served by a single county-wide fire protection service.

The blaze, which had burned undetected for some time, was well under way when San Rafael firemen got the call at 1 p.m., and the home of the Gerald L. Thompsons at 915 Del Ganado Road was "badly gone" when fire fighters arrived, according to Battalion Chief Robert H. Rogers.

The one-story four-bedroom, Eichler-built house was "gutted from one end to the other," Rogers said. He estimated damage at $28,000 to the building and $14,000 to the contents.

The Thompsons had left home at about 11 or 11:30 a.m. They returned shortly after 2 p.m. to find the interior a charred skeleton.

The fire, of undetermined origin, "burned for some time before it broke out and we got phone calls on it," Rogers said. "It appears to have started in the kitchen area, somewhere near the stove."

A cat and three or four birds perished, but the family dog, which was outside, survived, Rogers said.

Terra Linda Fire Chief George Walser said today that the fire report was first phoned to his station, although the home was within San Rafael city limits by about a block.

"We relayed the report to San Rafael and offered assistance," Walser said. "The assistance was refused by the San Rafael dispatcher."

Walser estimated that his men could have reached the Thompson home in about a minute, and said it took two San Rafael fire trucks six minutes to arrive from San Rafael's station

Red Defection Makes Record

SAIGON, South Vietnam (AP) — U.S. officials announced today that a record 20,242 Viet Cong defected in 1966 with the biggest surge coming in the final two months of the year.

A U.S. spokesman said the 1966 total was nearly double the 11,124 who left the Communist ranks during 1965 and was the highest number in the four years since South Vietnam began the Chieu Hoi — Open Arms — program to win over Viet Cong adherents.

In combat developments, only minor ground skirmishes were reported. In the air there were more bombing strikes against North Vietnam, two raids by B-52 heavy bombers in South Vietnam and a third in the demilitarized zone.

Jubilant U.S. Phantom-jet pilots told a news conference in Saigon how they knocked seven of North Vietnam's fastest MIGs out of the skies north of Ha-

Newly Married Couple Dies In Coast Wreck

Fatalities First Of New Year

A newly married Marin City couple died at the foot of a Stinson Beach cliff on New Year's Day to become the first 1967 traffic victims in Marin County.

The bodies of Walter William and Maria Fleming Keller were not found until 11 a.m. yesterday. Then their wrecked car was discovered at the base of the cliff beside Shoreline Highway by Gregory Sullivan, 20, of 10 Tioga Lane, Greenbrae, whose cousin lost his life when his car went off the same sheer coast line—only a short distance from where the Kellers died—in November, 1965.

Death of the couple orphaned Mrs. Keller's three children by a previous marriage — Dennis Paul Fleming, 13; Linda Marie Fleming, 11, and Daniel Fleming, 7.

TAKE CHILDREN

Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Salcido of 11-A Taylor Street, San Rafael, took the children in their care, and Mrs. Salcido said today they hope to be allowed to keep them. She said she and Mrs. Keller had been close friends for 11 years and "I helped her raise the children."

Keller, 32, and his wife, 35, married only about a month ago.

On Sunday, they and their children and dog called at the Salcidos for a visit. About 11 a.m., they took the children back to their home at 385 Drake Avenue, Marin City, and said they planned to go for a ride.

BECOME WORRIED

When they did not return, the Salcidos became worried and took the children to their San Rafael home. They were there when young Sullivan made his grisly discovery yesterday.

Sullivan's cousin was James Veal of Stinson Beach, whose car went off the cliff Nov. 12,

1966 Traffic Deaths At 28

Marin County traffic claimed its 28th victim of 1966 Saturday with the death of Mrs. Mary Leona Brice of Novato.

Mrs. Brice died in Novato Hospital of injuries suffered in an automobile accident Thursday.

Her death was the 28th and last from Marin County traffic accidents during 1966. The previous year, 31 were killed in traffic in Marin.

Mrs. Brice suffered head and internal imjuries and an arm fracture in a two-car collision on Highway 101 about three miles north of Novato Thursday. According to the California Highway Patrol, she drove onto Highway 101 from a side road and her car was hit by one driven by Aneece Wiley Hassen,

Washed Up Bodies Dakin Family Members

LA PAZ, Mexico (AP)—Officials here said today five bodies have been found washed up on a beach about 20 miles north of this Baja California port, and identified them as those of Richard Y. Dakin, a San Francisco businessman, his wife, their son Roger, Roger's wife and their small son.

One source said that apparently the control tower operator, who does not speak English, misunderstood requests for landing and that the plane then crashed into the sea north of here in bad weather.

Incorrect reports from La Paz officials yesterday said the wreckage of the plane had been sighted in mountains north of here. Later officials confirmed reports from Hamilton Air Force Base, that the plane had crashed in the sea.

The Dakins disappeared Dec. 21 en route from San Diego to a holiday in La Paz aboard a twin-engine Lockheed Lodestar. Aboard were Mr. and Mrs. Roger B. Dakin of 21 Tanfield Road, Tiburon and four of their five children, Alexandria, 16; Zachary, 15; Matthew, 5, and Roger Jr., 4 months. Their ifith child, Samuel Dakin, 12, was on a ski holiday in Switzerland with family friends.

Also aboard were Dakin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Y. Dakin of San Francisco, former Belvedere residents, and pilot Elton C. Stone and co-pilot Dennis Seitz, both of Alameda. The senior Dakin was reported to have been considering purchase of the ill-fated Lodestar for the family importing business.

The five bodies were said to have been washed ashore. Five others are missing — those of three Dakin children and two crew members, including the pilot.

Removal of the bodies was delayed by bad weather, which prevented either fishing boats or those of the Coast Guard from landing, and failure of the agent of the public ministry to give permission for removal of the bodies.

Sources here also said pieces of the plane had been washed ashore on the narrow beach.

Immediately after the six bodies were sighted, a ground party made an unsuccessful attempt to reach the remote beach, but was frustrated by the rugged terrain, where low-lying areas are mostly desert and the only significant vegetation is cactus.

McCarthy Renamed Minority Leader

SACRAMENTO — Sen. John F. McCarthy, R-San Rafael, was named yesterday to serve again as minority leader in the state Senate.

He was also appointed a member of the important Senate Rules Committee.

Marin's First Baby Of '67

Kimberly Ann Majore weighed in at Marin General Hospital at 6 pounds, 11½ ounces at 3:15 a.m. on New Year's Day to become Marin County's first baby of 1967.

The first child of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Majore of 225 Laurel Place, San Rafael, Kimberly was promptly showered with dozens of gifts, ranging from four week's diaper service to a pair of boots for her dad, by radio station KTIM.

Larry Majore, who works at Safeway store in San Rafael, and Linda Majore took their new daughter home from the hospital today, saying "we're thrilled" at having the county's first baby.

Equally thrilled were two sets of parents whose offspring arrived in the nick of time—the last day of 1966—to qualify for a $600 income tax reduction.

Mrs. Janette Stewart of 229 Forbes Avenue, San Rafael, gave birth to a 7 pounds 13 ounce boy at Novato General

Queen Caught In A Crisis

LONDON (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II was caught up in a crisis of conscience today over her first cousin' desire to marry "the mother of his illegitimate son" after his wife divorces him.

Earl Harewood

An announcement yesterday by attorneys for the Earl of Harewood, 43 and 18th in line of succession to the throne, came as a bombshell to the British public and uncovered one of the best-kept royal secrets.

The statement said Harewood's Austrian-born countess is suing him for divorce on grounds of adultery with Patricia Tuckwell, a dark-haired Australian divorcee who once worked as his secretary.

The attorneys said the earl would not defend his wife's suit, that "he and Miss Tuckwell would wish to marry if and when they are legally free to do so," and that Miss Tuckwell had a son by him in July 1964.

Miss Tuckwell

That put the queen in a predicament.

Under the Royal Marriages Act of 1772, all members of the royal family descended from King George II must have the monarch's permission to marry. And the Church of England—of which the queen is temporal head and "Defender of the Faith"—is opposed to the remarriage of anyone whose partner is still living, the key factor in Princess Margaret's decision in 1955 not to marry Group Capt. Peter Townsend.

Sources close to the court believe church leaders may advise the queen against consenting to her cousin's remarriage.

Police Open Fire

MASERU, Lesotho (AP) — Police opened fire early today to drive off an estimatex 50 armed Africans who attacked the police station at Leribe, in northern Lesotho, a senior police officer reported. It was the second attack on a police station within a week by followers of King Meshoeshoe II, 29, who is involved in a power struggle with Chief Leabua Jonathan, the 52-year-old prime minister, who placed him under house arrest last Wednesday.

Lesotho, a tiny nation of only 11,716 square miles and about 880,000 people, is surrounded by South Africa.

On Solo Sail

LAS PALMAS, Canary Islands (AP)— Briton Mike Coles has left the Canary Islands in an attempt to make a solo transatlantic voyage to Barbados in a 5.5-meter single sail fiber glass boat. Coles, a former crew member on the British liner "Athlone Castle," sailed from Las Palmas in his boat "La Paca."

Back To Book

Trial Stated In Slaying

Jury trial for Dorothy Nell Miller, 23, charged with the Sept. 2 murder in Manzanita of Mrs. Bernadine Nettles, was scheduled on the master calendar in Marin Superior Court today for 10 a.m. tomorrow.

The case, before Judge Thomas F. Keating, is expected to last five days. The defendant, of 69 Cole Drive, Marin City, allegedly stabbed Mrs. Nettles to death during an argument at Oaktree restaurant.

Mrs. Nettles, 29, resided at 239 Drake Avenue, Marin City.

George Washington was six feet two inches tall.

'Just Society' Asked By Gov. Rockefeller

Romney gave no inaugural day hint on possible presidential ambitions for 1963. But Rockefeller's inaugural address carried national political overtones.

He, along with several other Republican governors took their oaths yesterday. The other governirs included Don W. Samuelson of Idaho, Harold Levander of Minnesota, David F. Cargo of New Mexico, Warren P. Knowles of Wisconsin, Stan Hathaway of Wyoming and Ronald Reagan of California.

Romney, 59, the first Michigan governor elected to a third term, called for a government directed "by those who put the public trust above all personal consideration."

Then, in what some interpreted as a jab at President Johnson's "Great Society," he said "the people recognize th elimitations of efforts to improve the lives of men and their society by material means alone."

"The people feel the stifling consequences of over-centralization, conformity, manipulated consensus and arbitrary unchecked power, whether public or private," he added at the Lansing ceremony.

Rockefeller, 58, who projected the "Just Society" concept at his Albany, N.Y., inaugural, often has renounced any 1968 presidential ambitions. But he spoke of federal domestic programs he said "raised the aspirations and aroused the hopes of many citizens, only to produce grave disappointments."

"I believe," he said, "it is high time for Congress to take at least a first step in providing unencumbered funds to the states." He explained that states, with their knowledge of local problems, are in a better position to say how federal aid should be spent at the local level.

Rockefeller described his "Just Society" as one in which "government is courageous, power is benign, learning is abundant, prosperity is general, order is serene, law is honored, compassion is practiced and brotherhood is lived."

Ford Meeting 10 Safety Standards

DETROIT (AP) — Ford Motor Co. told the federal government today, as General Motors did Saturday, that it could meet only 10 of 23 proposed safety standards for 1968 cars.

Ford's official position was disclosed in a letter to Dr. William Haddon Jr. the nation's highway safety administrator.

Ford said it could meet seven other standards, if Haddon eased or adjusted his proposed standards, but that the remaining six could not possibly be met in 1968 cars.

The Ford position was almost identical with that taken Saturday by GM, first of the auto companies to issue a formal reply to the Haddon proposals.

Haddon, in making his first 23 proposals in early December, gave the auto industry until today to file any comments, complaints or suggestions before he issued the final standards which become effective Jan. 31 for 1968 cars.

Haddon said Saturday that he would withhold comment on the replies of the various auto companies until all have been received and he has had a chance to study them.

Reagan Appoints New Road Chief

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gorden C. Luce, San Diego savings and loan executive, today was named the $27,500 a year chief of the State Highway Transportation Agency.

Luce will later become one of three top level executive directors if the legislature approves Gov. Reagan's reorganization plan, a spokesman for the governor said.

Bircher Says Sign Ruined By Vandals

Eulon O. Stanley, 100 Montego Key, Bel Marin Keys, reported that vandals ruined a large sign redaing, "Save Our Republic, Impeach Earl Warren," atop his car, sheriff's officers said today.

Stanley, who told deputies he is a John Birch Society member, said the car was parked at the heliport in Manzanita during the weekend when the $70 sign was smeared with black paint.

Driver 74, Treated In Alto Collision

James Barnard Gorman, 74, of 664 Tanbark Terrace, Terra Linda, was treated for minor injuries at Marin General Hospital yesterday after his car collided with another on Alto Hill.

His northbound car drifted on Highway 101 at 4:45 p. m. into one driven by John Paul McHugh, 44, of San Francisco, then veered across two lanes and hit the center barrier, the California Highway Patrol reported.

350 Strikers Dismissed At Two Hospitals

OAKLAND (AP) — Alameda County has dismissed 350 hospital workers who struck two public hospitals for higher wages.

The hospitals, while seeking to fill the vacancies created, have closed some wards and are accepting only emergency and severe cases as new admissions.

The dismissed workers are members of the AFL-CIO East Bay Municipal Employees Union Local 380, which srtuck three days ago in defiance of a court order forbidding any strike action against the public hospitals, Highland in Oakland and Fairmont in San Leandro.

Nelson cited a section of the civil service code which requires that employees reporting sickness must, within three days, present to hospitals a physician's note confirming their illness.

The hospital workers — representing such categories as orderlies, food workers and nurse's aides—continued picketing despite warnings by the district attorney's office that they face possible fines of $500 each and jail sentences of five days.

They declined to say they were on strike, and union officials termed the picket lines merely "peacefui citizens, standing around."

A spokesman at Highland said that since the strike seven wards had been closed and the usual 300-patient load reduced to 90. But he added, "we are experiencing no difficulty."

At Fairmont, a spokesman said, "we are well organized now."

Hospital officials, who said they received a deluge of phone calls from job seekers, told all prospective employees to contact the county civil service commission.

Auto Passenger Treated For Cuts

Nancy Gurley, 28, of San Francisco was treated at Marin General Hospital Saturday for a leg cut suffered in a Sausalito traffic accident.

The California Highway Patrol reported Miss Gurley was riding in a car driven by David Richard Getz, 26, of Lagunitas which collided with one driven by Donald Lee Bellar, 26, of 1 Ebbtide Avenue, Sausalito, at Bridgeway and Gate Six Road at 8:20 p.m.

Arrest Made In Stabbing

A Marin City man, Otis Cleveland Gaines Jr., 30, was arrested by sheriff's officers yesterday for the pocket knife stabbing of his brother, Nick Gaines, 27, of Los Angeles.

The victim was admitted at Marin General Hospital for treatment of a single stab wound of the stomach. His condition today was fair.

Otis Gaines, of 999 Drake Avenue, was booked in county jail for assault with a deadly weapon, released on his own recognizance, to be arraigned in Marin Municipal Court this afternoon.

Sheriff's Capt. Carl Sears said the brothers became involved in a family argument.

Sweeping Hike In Mail Cost Likely In '67

By PETER S. NAGAN
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON—You will probably be paying more to mail your letters before 1967 is over. What's more, publishers will be hit by heavier charges for delivery of magazines, and businessmen for their catalogues and other printed matted.

Higher postal rates have been proposed to President Johnson for inclusion in his new budget for the fiscal year 1968, which goes to Congress in about three weeks.

Postmaster Gen. Lawrence F. O'Brien said recently no definite decision had been made. But the arithmetic supporting increases is hard to refute.

The fact is that the Post Office Department is running $1.2 billion in the red and will need $400 million just to see it through the current fiscal year ending June 30.

Congressmen and other government officials are unhappy about the prospect of higher rates. They don't like to raise mail charges because virtually every voter is aware of the cost of stamps.

But if something is not done about the gap between postal income and outgo the overall federal deficit—already heading for a huge figure—will be even greater. And th administration seeks to avoid this.

Except for parcel post, on which rates were raised in 1966, the contemplated increases would go across the board.

The 5 cent rate on first-class mail would be raised to 6 cents and the present 8 cent charge for airmail would go up to nine. This would remove almost half the department's annual deficit.

Second-class mail, on newspapers and magazines, would have to be raised too, as would third-class rates on catalogues, advertising and "junk" mail. It is a political axiom that if the public's mail cost is raised, so is business's.

The effective date of any increases cannot be pinpointed. Much will depend on the speed of Congress in enacting postal increases.

Toy Weapon's Beam Brings On Police

LEICESTER, England (UPI)—Kim Wainwright, 9, lay abed last night, mowing down Martians with the space gun he got for Christmas. Then came the real invasion.

Four carloads of policemen burst into the house. There was Kim, still firing the toy weapon, which "shoots" a beam of light neighbors had mistaken for a burglar's flashlight.

RUINS TO COME HOME TO—Mrs. Gerald Thompson arrived home at 915 Del Gando Road, San Rafael, yesterday to find these ruins—what was left of the home she had left two hours earlier. Battalion Chief Robert H. Rogers of San Rafael Fire Department sought unsuccessfully in the ruins for a clue to cause of the blaze.

No. 3 on the east side of Highway 101.

Walser said the house was well involved in flame when the first report was made, so the time differential probably would not have been crucial in this case. "Nevertheless," he said, "we think this is a problem."

San Rafael Fire Chief Vance Trivett took sharp issue with Walser's implied criticism of the handling of the situation. Trivett said, "I was on the (Manuel T.) Freitas Parkway, almost to the fire, when I heard Walser broadcast that there was a fire on Del Ganado."

Trivett noted that insurance policies of the county's numerous departments prevent them responding to fires in another jurisdiction unless called by the department having jurisdiction. Trivett said it was the responsibility of the San Rafael Fire Department to decide if it required assistance and in this case there was no need for Terra Linda's help.

Trivett acknowledged that a single county-wide service "would eliminate jurisdictions" in the county which make it impossible sometimes for a fire station nearest a fire to respond.

He said, however, there were excellent arguments for and against the proposed county-wide district. "There are the economic arguments" that districts which have invested heavily in equipment would lose control of it. He also said it can be argued that those who now have excellent service might find it lowered in quality to meet demands of areas now having poor service.

Most incorporated areas have gone on record, through their city councils and other bodies, opposing such a county-wide district.

1965. His body was never found.

Patrolmen found the wreckage of the car—with the bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Keller and their large black dog beside it—between 400 and 500 feet down the steep face of the cliff.

Both Kellers died instantly, said County Coroner Donovan O. Cooke, who descended to the base of the cliff to inspect the bodies on his first day in office. Both had multiple fractures, including fractured skulls.

Among volunteers from the Stinson Beach Fire Department who also descended to the crash scene was Joseph Veal of San Francisco, a brother of the driver who lost his life there in November, 1965.

County Fire Chief Louis J. Bloom and a four-man county fire department rescue squad succeeded in raising the bodies by rope to a point well below the highway which they reached in a rescue truck.

Coroner and highway patrolmen said they believed the bodies had lain on the rocks since about dusk on Sunday.

Keller was a serviceman for J and J Appliance Co. of San Rafael. He has no know relative. Nearest relatives of Mrs. Keller are believed to be in Mexico.

Bill To Repeal Open Housing Act Introduced

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — A bill to repeal the controversial Rumford Open Housing Act was introduced today, the first measure to be offered in the 1967 legislature.

Assemblyman Robert E. Badham, R-Costa Mesa, introduced the one paragraph bill wiping the 1963 act off the statute books and leaving nothing in its place.

The measure was designated Assembly Bill 1.

Badham won the honor of introducing the session's first bill because his name comes first in the alphabetical roll call.

Meanwhile, Reagan was putting the finishing touches on his inaugural address which he plans to deliver Thursday morning on the west steps of the Capitol Building.

In his first speech to the legislature yesterday, Reagan asked for authority to begin a do-it-yourself reorganization of the executive branch of state government, apparently to concentrate more authority in the governor's office. (See swearing in picture on page 8.)

Sen. Jack Schrade, R-San Diego, was named to the powerful Senate Rules Committee, the only change in the membership of the five-man group from the 1966 session.

Hospital at 4:36 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 31.

Her husband, Terra Linda physician Dr. Robert Bruce Stewart, "was thrilled," said Mrs. Stewart. The baby, their second son, is still unnamed. He arrived eight days earlier than expected.

Another late qualifier for the tax reduction was Gary Edward Carlson, first child of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Carlson of 57 Hillcrest Drive, San Rafael. Gary was born Saturday at Marin General Hospital at 2:32 p.m., weighing 9 pounds 15 ounces and two weeks overdue.

"We were very relieved," said Ruth Carlson, "we sure wanted our tax deduction."

Airman Stabbed During Holdup

A Hamilton Air Force Base airman was stabbed in the chest in a holdup early Saturday in San Francisco.

A/3C Manuel M. Holgin and A/2C Phillip Carter, both of the 78th Support Squadron at Hamilton, who live on the base, were in the Filmore District at 3:30 a.m. when they were robbed by four male Negroes, according to San Francisco police.

Carter was knocked unconscious and robbed of $60, and Holgin was stabbed in the chest and robbed of $8, they told police.

Carter was released from Letterman General Hospital today after treatment for the wound.

39, of Santa Rosa. The impact spun the Brice car around and threw her to the highway.

Mrs. Brice, who was 64, was the widow of Norman Brice, a partner in Brice Brothers markets.

A native of Eureka, she lived in Ferndale, Humboldt County, for about 25 years, and moved to Novato following her husband's death in 1962. She resided at 1103 Second Street, next door to her son, James Prater, owner of Novato TV.

She is survived by three sons, James, Earl D. Prater of Point Arena, Mendocino County, and Delbert Lawhead of Rio Dell, Humboldt County; a sister, Elizabeth Stockel of Eureka; two brothers, John C. Kemp of Ferndale and Delos E Kemp of Ceres. Stanislaus County, and 11 grandchildren.

Funeral was scheduled today at Marin Funeral Home in Novato, with burial in Marin Memorial Gardens, Novato.

He also called for a hard look at spending county money to support chambers of commerce, and the possibility of the county department of economic development being moved "into the private sector."

Storer further asked that county departments "tighten their belts" and seek no more in next year's budget than has been allocated in this fiscal year, that joint sessions be held with the planning commission for better understanding and that cooperation and financial support be sought from the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District.

Kettenhofen declared that it would take most of the day to discuss the points that Storer raised and he did not want his silence interpreted as tacit agreement.

Storer replaced last year's chairman Byron W. Leydecker, who did not seek re-election to the board.

Storer was named to the Local Agency Formation Commission and the Marin Economic Opportunity Council, replacing Leydecker in both cases.

Airman Injured; Car Falls On Him

S/Sgt. Albert Ponsock of the 4661st Combat Support Group at Hamilton Air Force Base was in satisfactory condition today in Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco with a head wound received last Friday when his car fell on him, according to officials at Hamilton.

Sergeant Pomsock reportedly was working on his car at his home in Petaluma when the jack slipped and the car dropped, hitting him on the head.

OBITUARIES

Attorney John G. Reisner Dies

John G. Riesner of Corte Madera, a San Francisco attorney who never missed a day's work in his life, died of a heart atack in his sleep at home Saturday. He was 84.

Reisner continued to practice law at his offices in the Grant Building at 1095 Market Street until his death. In recent years he had confined his practice to probates and wills, but was known and respected in courts throughout the country.

Private funeral will be tomorrow under the direction of Harry M. Williams Mortuary, San Rafael. Friends may call at the mortuary until 9 p. m. today.

A native of Illinois, Reisner had lived in California for 60 years, 28 of them in Marin County. His wife of 54 years, Mabel I. Reisner, was a realty-broker until an automobile accident incapacitated her three years ago. The Reisner home is at 50 Redwood Avenue, Corte Madera.

Reisner was a member of the Bar Assn., of California, the Loyal Order of the Moose, Fraternal Order of Eagles, Order of Hermann Sons, and Independent Order of Odd Fellows, all in San Francisco; also of the Republican Central Club of San Francisco, the Pacific Rod and Gun Club, Associated Sportsmen of California, Steuben Society of America, National Congress of Parent-Teacher Assns., and Marin Rod and Gun Club, and was a committeeman for Boy Scouts of America.

He is survived by his wife, two sons, John G. Reisner Jr., of Belvedere and William A. Reisner of San Rafael; a daughter, Mrs. Evelyn Bond of Corte Madera; two brothers, Fred Reisner of Charleston, Ill., and Charles Reisner of Long Beach, Wash.; a sister, Margaret Honey of Rochester, Ill.; a grandson, and two granddaughters.

RENE J. CANONICA

Funeral for Rene J. Canonica, father of Mrs. John F. Maillard of Tiburon, will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Magendie and Malfonti Funeral Home, 1340 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco.

Canonica, 62, founder of Rainbow Painting and Decorating Co. of San Francisco, died Sunday in a San Francisco hospital after suffering a heart attack.

A native of Switzerland, he came to San Francisco in 1927, where he established his Rainbow company. He was a member of the Painting and Decorating Contractors Assn. of San Francisco and other trade organizations.

He was also a member of Il Cenacola, Italian cultural club; La Parfait Union 17, Orient of San Francisco; Islam Temple of the Shrine; California Bodies Scottish Rite; Lafayette Club; Olympic Club; Golden Gate Breakfast Club; Swiss Club of San Francisco, and United Swiss Society.

He is survived by his wife, Maria Canonica of San Francisco; a son, Rene A. Canonica of San Francisco; his daughter, Mrs. Maillard, and one grandson.

Burial will be in Olivet Cemetery in Colma.

PAUL TREANTON

Paul L. Treanton of San Anselmo, a member of one of Marin county's oldest families, died Saturday in a Monterey hospital at 97.

Requeim Mass will be offered Thursday at 9:30 a.m. at St. Raphael's Church, San Rafael. Burial will be in Mount Olivet Cemetery.

Mount Tamalpias Parlor 64, Native Sons of the Golden West, will hold memorial services tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. at the Harry M Williams Mortuary, San Rafael, Rosary will be recited at the mortuary at 8 p.m.

Born in 1869 at Ross Landing (now Kentfield), Treanton was the son of Capt. Paul Treanton, a native of France who settled in Marin in the late 1850s. His father operated barges that hauled bricks and lumber from Marin to San Francisco.

Paul Treanton was a machinist and mining engineer and installed mining machinery in the Mother Lode country and Shasta areas of California for many years.

In 1920 he returned to Marin and opened Kentfield's first service station. In 1923 he joined the San Rafael Police Department and was a night sergeant until 1932. He worked as a master machinist at Marinship during World War II, retiring after the war at 76.

His wife, Ida E. Treanton, died in 1947, and in recent years he had made his home with his son, V. E. (Bill) Treanton at 40 Magnolia Avenue, San Anselmo. He enjoyed good health until he suffered a stroke a year ago.

He had been a member of Mount Tamalpais Parlor 64 of the Native Sons of the Golden West for 79 years, the longest-term member of the order in the state, and last year was named honorary grand marshal of the statewide parade.

He is survivied by his sons, two daughters, Mrs Jane Briley of Marina, Monterey County, and Mrs. Catherine Hauth of Tulsa, Okla.; 11 grandchildren, 31 great-grandchildren, and three great-great-grandchildren.

RALPH W. CHAFFEE

Funeral for Ralph W. Chaffee, founder of the San Francisco packaging company that bears his name and father of Mrs. William W. Hints of Novato, will be held at 1 p.m. tomorrow at Gantner-Felder-Kenny Chapel, 1965 Market Street, San Francisco.

A native of Bison, Kan., he was educated in that state, coming to San Francisco in 1924, where he was manager of Acme Steel Co. until 1941, when he established the Ralph Chaffee Co., which manufactures and sells the plastic package sealing equipment which he invented.

He remained active in the firm until his final illness. His son-in-law, William W. Hints, long in charge of the production end of the business, will assume the presidency of the company.

Chaffee was a member of Far West Lodge 673, Free and Accepted Masons, and a past counselor of Golden Gate Council 80, United Commercial Travelers.

Chaffee is survived by his wife, Bessie Chaffee; his daughter, Mrs. Hints; a brother, Thomas Chaffee of Garden Grove, Orange County; a sister, Fannie Bull of Auburn, Wash., and two grandsons.

Private inurnment will be at Olivet Memorial Park, Colma.

Troops Out After New Bomb Incidents

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Armed troops stood guard outside government buildings in Jordan today after 10 new bomb incidents in the capital of Amman, and reports reaching Beirut said a terrorist ring had been arrested in Saudi Arabia.

Bomb explosions in the two countries signalled increased terrorist activity against the regimes of Jordan's King Hussein and Saudi Arabia's King Faisal, the two moderate monarchs of the Arab world.

Reliable reports said a bomb rocked the government radio station in Amman last Friday, damaging a studio and cutting off transmissions for about five minutes.

Two other explosions damaged the radio station Wednesday, and demolition experts discovered seven mroe bombs planted inside the building on the outskirts of the capital, the reports said.

There were no casualties from any of the explosives, the reports added.

Jordanian soldiers were posted at government buildings. Witnesses said everyone entering them was searched so thoroughly that even women's hairdos were combed out for explosives.

There was no confirmation of reports from the Israeli side of Jerusalem that two explosions went off in the Jordanian sector of the city Sunday night.

Earlier reports from Jordan said the bomb blasts last Tuesday damaged the wall of the Soviet Embassy in Amman and West Germany's Goethe Cultural Institute, and another bomb went off near the Ministry of Information.

In Saudi Arabia, according to unconfirmed reports, 33 members of a Yemeni terrorist ring were arrested after three bomb explosions in Riyadh, the capital. The ring presumably was working against Saudi support for the royalist forces in Yemen's suspended civil war, in which Egyptian troops support the republican regime.

The Socialist regime in Syria and the Palestine Liberation Organization based in Cairo have called for the overthrow of King Hussein. They charge his regime has not fulfilled its commitments to a unified Arab military defense plan against Israel, and the Palestine Liberation Organization demands that its troops be stationed in Jordan. Hussein, with two thirds of his population Palestinian, has refused to admit the PLO for fear Palestinian feelings against Israel will get out of control.

Soldier Taken From Bridge

"Leave me alone. I don't want to go to Vietnam," cried a soldier clinging to the rail of Golden Gate Bridge today as California Highway Patrol officers approached at 1:25 a.m.

Michael Lee Brauntz, 21, of Hayward continued to shout "go away and leave me alone" as officers James L. Smith and Lawrence L. Drudge grabbed him and pulled him away from the railing.

As the bridge office the patrol learned that Brauntz was scheduled to ship out tomorrow to Vietnam. He was turned over to military police.

San Anselmo Aide Is Held Needed

Directors of the San Anselmo Homes Assn. have reaffirmed their belief that San Anselmo needs a city administration, Mrs. Anne West, association president, said today.

Four councilmen expressed uncertainty as to the need for a new city administrator, as Administrator Douglas J. Flautt's resignation became effective Friday.

Association directors feel that a "city administrator is essential to the efficient conduct of the city's business," Mrs. West said.

Helen Nelson Resigns Her Consumer Post

SACRAMENTO (AP) — California Consumer Counsel Helen Nelson of Mill Valley submitted her resignation to Gov.-elect Reagan Saturday and told him she hopes the office is retained by the new administration.

Mrs. Nelson has held the post, paying $18,000 a year, since it was created by the legislature in the fall of 1959.

She submitted the resignation after receiving a letter Friday night from Thomas Reed, Reagan's appointment secretary, asking that she resign effective Monday, when Reagan took office.

Reagan indicated during the election campaign he thought the office might not be necessary. Aides of the Republican governor-elect have been studying the office's operation.

Mrs. Nelson, an economist from Mill Valley, said she has no definite plans, but would like to continue in the field of consumer advice.

The counsel has served as the consumer's watchdog against unscrupulous business practices.

Council Will Fill Several Vacancies

The Corte Madera Town Council will make appointments to the Corte Madera Planning and Park and Recreation Commissions today at 7:30 p.m. at Town Hall.

A proposal from the park and recreation commission that a planner be hired to plan a wilderness park in Mariners Highlands will be considered, and the council will hear plans for use of the Muzzi property as a fill disposal area for flood control.

Teener's Snowball Stops A Train

KEYPORT, N.Y. (UPI)—A snowball thrown by a teen-ager stopped a 69-car freight train, police said yesterday.

Authorities said the snowball hit engineer William Carroll in the face, cutting him above the eye. He instictively slammed on the emergency brake and the train screeched to a stop, snapping a coupling that took 45 minutes to repair. The youth got away.

Driver Hurt When Vehicle Hits Tree

Thomas G. Coffee, 17, of 131 Oak Manor Drive, Fairfax, suffered head cuts when his eastbound car veered off the roadway and struck a tree at 165 Van Winkle Drive, Sleepy Hollow, at 12:25 p.m. Saturday, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Coffee was partially thrown out of his car by the impact, officers said. He was taken to Marin General Hospital where he was reported in good condition today.

Tanker Reports No Present Sinking Danger

NANTUCKET, Mass. (UPI)—The Liberian oil tanker Failiaka, with a 30-man crew aboard, early today reported its "bridge overboard" in gale-whipped high seas about 400 miles east southeast of this resort island. It later radioed there "was no immediate danger of sinking."

Radio communication was lost with the 624-foot tanker shortly after an SOS was sounded but it was resumed several hours later when the ship's radio operator switched to a battery-operated emergency radio.

"They said they were in no immediate danger of sinking," a spokesman at Coast Guard search and rescue headquarters in Boston said. "It appears now they'll just need assistance getting in to port."

One injury was reported. The ship's master, or captain, suffered a broken arm when a mammoth wave rose out of the gale-swept north Atlantic and crashed across the bridge of the tanker.

"It's pretty rough out there. The seas are up to about 20 to 25 feet and there are gale winds," he added. "If a wave hit their bridge—and we can only speculate—it probably had to be 30 to 50 feet high," the spokesman said.

A Coast Guard plane from Quonset Point, R.I., was sent to the scene and a Canadian plane bound from Halifax, Nova Scotia, to England had been diverted to the scene. The destroyer St. Laurent was dispatched from Halifax to join the Coast Guard Cutter Vigilant from Provincetown on the tip of Cape Cod and two merchant vessels in the area.

Returned To Home

Lana A. Aguado, 40, of 417 Bonita Street, Sausalito, returned home Saturday after a stay at Marin General Hospital to recover from an apparent overdose of sleeping pills, taken Thursday night.

Peking 'State Of Union' Report Reveals Big Ideological Split

HONG KONG (UPI)—Militant Red Guard youths marching on Peking by the tens of thousands today claimed to have turned mainland China into a "great school of Mao Tse-tung's thought."

The Red Guard declaration contrasted notably with the Chinese Communist party's surprising new year's admission that a sharp ideological division remains between party and nation as 1967 begins.

A highly unusual and candid "state of the union" report issued by the party's ruling central committee said party Chairman Mao Tse-tung still faces much opposition and indicated the long and bitter power struggle is far from finished. It also confirmed Mao survived a takeover attempt by top aides in early 1966.

Chou Yang, former deputy director of the party's propaganda department, today was singled out as the ringleader of an anti-party plot to oust Mao with a "Hungarian-type revolution."

A massive article published in three of the Peking's regime's leading newspapers, including the Peoples Daily, said Chou "has been arrested."

It was believed the first time Red Chinese authorities have publicly admitted any of Mao's opponents have been formally arrested. Many are known to be under some type of house arrest and some have been vilified by Red Guards.

The article revealed considerable detail of the Chinese power struggle never before disclosed publicly or officially.

It admitted what has been known for years—that a serious party split developed when Mao's "big leap forward" began in 1958.

Chou for several months has been publicly attacked as anti-Maoist more than any other person in Red China. He has been referred to as the chief culprit in the anti-Maoist plot. But today's story said the plotting goes back 15 years.

The editorial outlined a four-part Maoist program for 1967. The last and most significant part called for "elimination of all anti-Mao elements."

The other three include:

Expansion of new "revolutionary groups" under direction of the party's "cultural revolution committee." This apparently is to try to build a new party nucleus while the old organization with anti-Maoist "power holders" is being destroyed.

A directive to intellectuals to comply with Mao's long-standing instructions to go to farms and factories and feel the nation's pulse and to let their works of literature and art conform with party policy.

Wide public debate on key issues with the understanding "different ideas of the people should be debated under the command flag of Mao Tse-tung's thought..."

Hosewife Shot In Richmond Home

RICHMOND (UPI) — Mrs. Willie Leed Davis Jones, 37, a Richmond housewife, was shot to death in her home yesterday and her sister-in-law was arrested and charged with the slaying.

Police said the sister-in-law, Roxie Lindsay, 42, also of Richmond, admitted firing the fatal bullet during an argument with Mrs. Jones.

Heat Used To Make Electricity In Cell

A battery which produces electricity from heat energy was patented last week under patent number 3, 294, 585, by Seymour Senderoff at the Union Carbide Corp., and assigned to that company.

The cell produces current as a result of a difference in temperatures between two inputs of heated gas. The two gas inputs operate at temperatures of 500 and 900 degrees C.

Britain Ignores U.S., Plans Fertilizer Plant For Cuba

LONDON (AP) — The British government is reported ready to guarantee the sale of a $28-million fertilizer plant to Cuba despite pressure from Washington.

Official sources said U. S. authorities had asked London to stop the sale by refusing Fidel Castro's government the five-year credit it needs for the deal.

But the sale is expected to go through despite hints that it might lessen American support for economic sanctions against Britain's rebelious colony, Rhodesia.

A Foreign Office spokesman said: "The government's policy on trade with Cuba is to allow it to proceed normally, free of government interference, except as concerns the export of strategic goods."

Asked about the attitude of the U. S. government to the deal, the spokesman said: "The Americans have from time to time reminded us of their attitude toward trade by Western countries with Cuba — and specifically toward the granting of government-insured credits for such trade."

The United States made a similar, unsuccessful attempt to stop the sale of British buses to Cuba three years ago. Much bad feeling was generated by that deal.

The fertilizer plant is being manufactured by Simon-Carves, an engineering company in Cheshire. A spokesman for the government's Export Credit Guarantee Department said: "There would seem to be no reason why we could not underwrite the deal."

Castro, in a speech in Havana yesterday celebrating the eighth anniversary of his defeat of dictator Fulgencio Batista, expressed belief the British government would go through with the deal despite "much pressure" from the United States.

The Cuban prime minister said other countries also want to sell Cuba fertilizer plants, "and we plan to install at least three during the next four years."

Castro asked European countries "not to be misled by imperialists and monopolists" and said Europeans have "little to lose and much to gain" from revolutions in Latin America.

Castro said that other Cuban officials should play a bigger role in the future, make some of the speeches, conduct some of the ceremonies and carry out other functions that have been left to him.

"Not that I'm tired, but the revolution is of all the people," he said.

Castro's remarks roused some speculation that the regime may be moving away from the personal rule that he has exercised to a collective form of leadership.

Boy, 14, Charged In Three Deaths

ORANGE, Tex. (AP) — A judge may decide today if 14-year-old Ronnie Lee Ozio, accused of three New Year's Day killings, should be declared a juvenile delinquent.

Two witnesses told authorities the 5-foot, 100-pound youth riddled his father, grandmother and stepmother-to-be with blulets from a .22-caliber rifle. One of the witnesses was stabbed in the back with a butcher knife.

Under Texas law, young Ozio could not be tried on a murder charge until his 17th birthday.

Girl Inmates Taken From Home

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—Police today sought two young men who forced their way into the Maricopa County detention home here yesterday and fled with four teen-age girl inmates.

The gunmen confronted the matrons with pistols, secured the girls' release and fled in a raid on the detention home which lasted only five to 10 minutes. No one was injured.

Chief Probation Officer James McLaughlin said both men were armed with .38-caliber pistols.

Hit-Run Reported

Victor H. Rowe, 100 Homestead Boulevard, Homestead Valley, reported Sunday to Mill Valley police that a white 1956 Chevrolet hit his car early in the morning on Miller Avenue, then drove away.

Underground Work Slated By Utilities

Pacific Gas and Electric Co. and Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co. have agreed to underground utilities along the recently widened portion of Lucas Valley Road, complying with a recently adopted county ordinance.

For several months the utility companies challenged the ordinance, which requires the undergrounding where road widening work is done.

Three weeks ago County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney told county supervisors he intended to bring criminal action against the companies if the did not comply, or seek a civil court injunction or restraining order to settle the dispute.

Maloney had letters today from both companies saying they would underground the lines at their own expense.

soon after President Kennedy was killed.

Since being taken to the hospital, Ruby had insisted on another lie detector test in an effort to prove there was no conspiracy. Experts and doctors said the advanced state of his cancer prevented the test from having validity.

Ruby had been only semisuccessful when he shot Oswald and was thrown to the floor by Dallas police.

At 52, Ruby was known as the operator of the Carousel Club, a tough guy who acted as his own bouncer and would throw you out if you "looked at the girls wrong" and a "Damon Runyon type who would give you the shirt off his back."

He usually carried a pistol, friends said, but had never been known to use it until he darted between Oswald's police escorts and shot him once in the abdomen.

Ruby, friends and enemies alike agreed, was a man who wanted to attain "class," a word he used frequently in describing people who impressed him.

George Senator, who shared an Oak Cliff apartment with Ruby when the Oswald killing occurred, said Ruby never took any part in politics. "I doubt if he ever voted much," Senator said.

But when Ruby was asked whey he killed Oswald, he said it was to spare Mrs. John F. Kennedy the anguish of having to go back to Dallas for Oswald's murder trial.

He wanted peace for Mrs. Kennedy, he said.

One of his sisters said, "Jack died peacefully." She said she had visited Ruby at 9 a.m. and at that time he was sleeping peacefully. Mrs. Grant, Earl Ruby and Dallas lawyer Phil Burleson had visited him.

After Ruby made his statement to the Warren Commission representatives, there was still doubt in many minds.

When books and periodicals began dwelling on the point, and some said flatly that Ruby knew Oswald, that Ruby was a friend of Tippit and that the assassination was planned by a huge group of conspirators, Ruby asked the second lie detector test.

Then only over the last weekend, it was revealed that one of Ruby's last acts was to record another statement denying any conspiracy.

Earl Ruby, said Gertz, took a small recorder into the hospital room for Jack to use and tell his story — the story he died with.

A Dallas jury sentenced Ruby to death after a stormy, month-long trial before Dist. Judge Joe B. Brown in March 1964. But the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals overturned the conviction last October.

A new trial was scheduled for Wichita Fallas, Tex., tentatively in February, but from the first day of his hospitalization there had been doubt that Ruby ever again would see a courtroom.

London Renews Bid For Vietnam Peace

LONDON (UPI) — Britain made an urgent new appeal to Hanoi today to join the United States and South Vietnam in three-power talks aimed at bringing a cease fire to Vietnam.

The appeal came in a statement issued by the Foreign Office shortly after Hanoi rejected a weekend peace talk proposal by British Foreign Secretary George Brown.

The foreign office said the government of North Vietnam has the key to peace in its hands. By agreeing to peace talks the Hanoi government will commit itself "simply and solely to joining efforts to lift the burden of war from their country," the foreign office said.

"We still hope they will do so."

Today's statement was issued just 24 hours after a sharp, almost insulting rebuff from Hanoi appeared to have killed the cease fire initiative launched by the labor government on Friday.

The proposal was that Washington, Hanoi and Saigon name representatives at once to cease fire talks to be held in Hong Kong or any other suitable British territory. The United States and South Vietnam accepted.

No formal reply has been received from the North Vietnam government but a broadcast yesterday by Radio Hanoi appeared to kill the proposal. It said Brown's proposal and previous U. S. proposals for talks were "as alike as two peas" and accused Brown of collusion. It also demanded the Viet Cong be included in any talks.

WAR

noi in less than 14 minutes yesterday afternoon.

"We outflew, outshot and outfought them," said Air Force Col. Robin Olds, 44, of Washington, D.C., the husband of former movie star Ella Raines, who led some 80 jet fighters and fighter-bombers in the biggest air battle of the war.

Olds, a veteran of 24 and one-half kills in World War II, said the dogfights "lasted no more than 12 to 14 minutes but covered at least miles of that sky."

Olds led 14 flights of F4-C Phantoms and six flights of F105 Thunderchiefs against a sky full of MIGs above the major MIG air base at Phuc Yen, north od Hanoi.

Pilots' reports indicated all the Communist planes shot down were the advanced-type MIG-21s, the Soviet-designed delta-wing interceptors which can fly 1,500 miles an hour. Lt. Gen. William W. Momyer, commander of the U.S. 7th Air Force, said he believed the North Vietnamese air force of 75 to 100 jets lost about half its supply of MIG-21s Monday. The bulk of the force are older, slower MIG-17s.

LOW BACK AND LEG PAIN

An estimated half million people will be disabled this year by . . . SPINAL DEFECTS WHICH CAUSE LOW BACK AND LEG PAIN.

CHIROPRACTIC RESEARCH . . . indicates that most low back and associated leg pains are caused by truly mechanical defects in the alignment of one or more segments of the spine.

A spinal segment may be displaced by a FALL, ACCIDENT, BACK STRAIN or by CHRONIC POSTURE DECAY. . . . When a spinal segment is displaced the supporting muscles and ligaments may be painfully stretched or torn causing ACUTE and DISABLING BACK PAIN.

The spinal nerves which supply the legs pass through the openings between adjacent segments of the lower spine. . . . When one of the segments is displaced the nerves to the legs might be pinched or irritated. . . . The result is nerve pain which extends down the leg.

Experience has shown that individuals with acute and chronic low back and associated leg pain respond extremely well to the specialized care offered by the Chiropractic profession.

If you find that you are now taking more and more aspirin, if you can't sit in one position for more than a few minutes without your lower back hurting, then now is the time to make a change.

If you or any of your friends are suffering from this condition, I invite you to come into our office for a consultation.

The Hermann Chiropratic Office is equipped with the latest Chiropractic instruments for precision and accuracy and uses the latest modern methods of correction. The efficiency and results of this modern science, when properly employed, will amaze you. If your condition has resisted your efforts to cure it . . . or if you are tired of living with your condition, phone us for an appointment.

Presents

Idaho Roasted Leg of Lamb!

One 5-or 6-lb. Leg of Lamb (Bone In)

- ⅛ CUP MELTED BUTTER
- ¼ CUP OLIVE OIL
- SALT & PEPPER TO TASTE
- ¼ CUP OF WHITE DINNER WINE
- PINCH OF OREGANO, THYME AND ROSEMARY

PREPARATION: Have our butcher loosen aitchbone and tie. Insert spit through leg of lamb (our butcher will show you how). Adjust spit so that meat is close to heat source (med. heat). Combine all ingredients. Let lamb cook approximately 40 minutes, then baste frequently with marinade.

Total cooking time approximately 3 hours or until meat thermometer reads 180 degrees.
Let leg of lamb set 10 minutes before carving.
• Leg of lamb may also be done in the oven using roasting pan and rack! Use same procedure as above!

Serves 6 to 8 people!

Driver Injured As Car Hits Pole

A San Francisco driver suffered multiple cuts and head injuries when his car struck a State Division of Highways pole at Highways 101 and 17, San Rafael, at 2:30 a.m. Sunday, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Injured was John Joseph Cooney, 26, of 575 Crestlake Drive, who was reported in good condition today at Marin General Hospital.

Officers said that Cooney was driving north when his car veered to the right off the roadway and into the pole.

Though there is still time to plant spring flowering, bulbs they will flower somewhat later than those planted earlier in the fall.

Snow, Frigid Temperatures Hit West's Mountain Areas

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Snow and frigid temperatures rode into mountain areas of the West today on 70 mile an hours winds, causing severe drifting and hazardous driving in parts of Montana and Utah.

A group of skiers in the Alta, Utah, area apparently took advantage of avalanche warnings in Little Cottonwood Canyon to extend their skiing vacation, after between 12 and 27 inches fell in the area Sunday night.

Forest service personnel yesterday used 105 mm howitzers and 775 mm recoiless rifles to blast potential avalanches. A spokesman said the skiers at a lodge now trapped by the snow had plenty of opportunity to get out before snow closed the road, but added that a one-way road probably would be cut to the lodge early today.

The cold temperatures were widespread as far south as Texas and Arizona, with usually warm Phoenix recording 47 degrees at 2 a.m. EST.

The thermometer dipped below freezing in much of the mountain area and plummeted to near the zero mark across much of Utah and Nevada.

A cold front stretching from the upper Great Lakes to the southern plains brought snow along that line, with more than an inch reported at Moline, Ill., within a six-hour period ending today.

But the wintry weather appeared to abate somewhat elsewhere in the nation. Rain, heavy in some places, fell in the Southeast.

The rain was expected to move into the middle Atlantic states today while the cold weather moved eastward from the West to the southern plains and Midwest.

More snow was expected from the northern Rockies to North Dakota.

Bayshore Fatality

Four Jump Clear Of Burning Boat

The 48-foot cabin cruiser Barnacle burned and sank off Point San Pablo on the Richmond side of the bay at 9:30 a.m. yesterday.

The four persons aboard jumped clear and were brought by Coast Guard cutter to the Tradewind Yacht Harbor on the San Rafael Canal. They were Fred Manley of Daly City and Edward Regan of San Francisco, co-owners of the boat, and Pat and Ellen Regan of San Francisco.

Cause of the fire was undetermined, according to a Coast Guard spokesman. Value of the craft was not reported, he said.

Consumption of carbohydrates in diets in the United States has declined in the last 30 years, chiefly as a result of a reduction in the use of starchy foods such as potatoes and cereal grains.

Woman Is Treated After Kitchen Fire

Mrs. Helen K. Roberts of 1 Blue Rock Court, Corte Madera, was treated at Marin General Hospital for smoke inhalation after a fire started in her kitchen yesterday at 5:39 p.m.

The cause of the fire, which caused $500 damage to the floor and walls of the kitchen, was not known.

Man Intercepted At Bridge Plaza

Warned by a telephone call from his wife that he had left a suicide note at home, California Highway Patrol intercepted John Joseph Rainford, 61 of Sebastopol at Golden Bridge toll plaza Sunday at 9:30 a.m.

Patrol Officer Donald R. McDaniel said Rainford appeared calm but was held on request of his wife and taken to San Francisco General Hospital for observation.

Institute On Educationally Handicapped Slated Jan. 14

A one-day institute on the application of learning theory to the problems of the educationally handicapped will be held Jan. 14 in Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary auditorium on Strawberry Point.

Sponsored by Fairfax, Larkspur and Mill Valley Elementary, Novato Unified, San Rafael Elementary and High School and Tamalpais High School districts and the Marin County Superintendent of Schools, the institute will feature four lectures.

Ivar Lovaas, associate professor of psychology at University of California at Los Angeles and a consultant to Pacific, Camarillo, Patton and Porterville state hospitals, will speak on "Behavior Therapy Treatment of Psychotic Children."

Frank M. Hewett will address the group on "Public School Application of Behavior Modification Theory." Hewitt is assistant professor of medical psychology in the school of education; director of the neuropsychiatric institute school, and acting chairman of the department of special education at University of California at Los Angeles.

During the lunch hour, two films on "Reinforcement Therapy" and "Autism's Lonely Children" will be shown.

In the afternoon, Robert Schwitzgebel will speak on "Behavior Therapy and Behavior Disorders." Schwitzgebel is assistant professor in the department of psychology at University of California at Los Angeles.

Arnol Lazarus will give the final lecture on "Behavior Therapy and Basic Dimensions." He is director of the Behavioral Therapy Institute in Sausalito. In February, he will become professor of psychology at Temple University Medical School in Philadelphia.

The four speakers will participate in a panel discussion at 4:15 p.m.

India Starvation Figure Estimated

WASHINGTON (UPI) —Rep. Richard L. Ottinger, D-N.Y., says 10 million children in India face starvation by April unless the United States acts to alleviate famine conditions.

He said he will ask President Johnson to take three steps to alleviate critical food shortages in the Indian states of Bihar and Uttar Pradesh.

Rebel Coach Named To Vandy Position

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — Bobby Proctor, defensive backfield coach at Mississippi State for the past three seasons, was named to the Vanderbilt University football coaching staff yesterday.

Bill Pace, who recently came here from Arkansas as head coach, said Proctor, 35, a native of Wynne, Ark., is joining his staff.

Tennis Court Plan Before Board Tonight

The Fairfax Park and Recreation Commission will consider a proposal to build two tennis courts at Fairfax School when it meets at 8 p.m. today at the Farifax Women's Club.

The Fairfax School District board has agreed to allow the city to build the courts on school property, but no agreement has been signed.

The commission will receive letters of application from Roger E. Fields and Roger J. Gaetjen for the seat vacated by former commissioner Frank Salvisberg.

Public Works Director Richard J. Nelson will report on manitenance and planting at the Fairfax Pavilion, and on the cost of creating a putting green on vacant city-owned property off Bank Street near the baseball park.

Pet Pig Shoots 'Hunter,' 16

SIOUX RAPIDS, Iowa (AP) — Richard Haldin Jr., 16, was in a hospital today after he was shot by his pet pig.

Haldin said he saw a rabbit in the farmyard yesterday, got his .22-caliber rifle and started after it.

He stopped to open a gate and leaned the rifle against the fence as his pet pig "Molly" rushed up. The pig brushed against the rifle and it fired, the bullet hitting Haldin in the right shoulder.

He was reported in good condition.

Six Marinites Will Be Aboard Ship Golden Bear

Six Marin County youths will be aboard the training ship Golden Bear when she sails from Vallejo Friday on a three-month training cruise to South America.

Among 250 midshipmen from the California Maritime Academy at Vallejo, the students are preparing for careers as licensed officers in the United States Merchant Marine.

Marin midshipmen include: John R. Murk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rolph H. Murk of 35 Mercury Avenue, Tiburon; Patrick M. O'Flaherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. O'Flaherty of 8 Eucalyptus Road, Belvedere; Paul D. Day, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Day of 561 Idylberry Road, Lucas Valley; Hugh T. Jacks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Jacks of Upper Road, Ross; George B. Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Craig Wallace of 6 Crest Road, Ross; and Michael G. Frideger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Frideger of 175 Prospect Avenue, San Anselmo.

The Golden Bear will visit Galapagos, Ecuador; Valparaiso, Chile; Callao, Peru; Balboa, Canal Zone; Acapulco, Mexico; San Diego and Long Beach, returning to Vallejo on March 14.

Three Killed In Fire In Hotel

LOS ANGELES (UPI) —Fire swept through a pensioner's hotel in the Westlake area last night, killing three men and injuring 10 other persons.

The blaze, which did between $75,000 and $100,000 damage to the old brick and frame Post Hotel also left 80 other residents at least temporarily homeless.

The Red Cross was asked to help shelter the victims, many of them elderly.

New Training Agency Sought

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Two Negro legislators plan to introduce a bill to establish a new department of training that would fight the problem of hardcore unemployment.

Sen. Mervyn M. Dymally and Assemblyman Bill Greene, both Los Angeles Democrats, said yesterday the legislation would not require new funds but would place all money the state spends on training into one pool.

Dymally and Greene said their plan, aimed at getting people off the streets and into jobs immediately, has been endorsed by representatives of private industry.

Boating Accident Body Is Recovered

EUREKA (UPI) — The body of Art Ragsdale, who died in a boating accident at Big Lagoon, was found on a beach yesterday by Humboldt County Sheriff's deputies.

Ragsdale, 60, of Blue Lake, drowned Sunday when his aluminum outboard boat apparently overturned while he was fishing on rough and choppy water.

Homestead School's Plight On Agenda

Housing until summer for two classes at Mill Valley School District's Homestead School will be considered tomorrow by district trustees at a special meeting at 8 p.m. at Homestead School.

The two fourth grade classes at the school started double sessions today, and the fifth grade will meet in the library. A portable classroom has been ordered to house one class, and is expected to be installed by the end of January.

Supt. G. R. McConnell's proposals for temporary housing of the classes range from acquisition of a second portable to transfer of fifth and sixth grade pupils to another school, probably Alto-Edna Maguire.

The unexpected deficiency of two classrooms resulted from an order last Tuesday to close the old two-classroom building at the school. Structural engineers found earlier this month that it failed to meet state earthquake-resistance standards.

Also on the agenda is appointment of three members of a screening committee to help select a new superintendent to replace McConnell, who will leave the district June 30. Final selection will be by trustees.

Trustees have set the minimum salary for a new superintendent at $17,500, and agreed to offer a four-year contract. McConnell's present salary is $19,002.

Driver Suffers Auto Injuries

Harry Irving Diller, 54, of 55 Forbes Avenue, San Anselmo, was treated at Marin General Hospital for minor injuries suffered in a traffic accident at 6:25 a.m. Sunday in San Francisco.

California Highway Patrol reported that Diller, driving south on Funston Avenue, crossed the center divider into the northbound lanes and collided with a car driven by Paul Eugene Hardy, 27, of Albany. Diller was treated for cuts on his scalp and legs and chest bruises.

Girl Is Missing

A 15-year-old Mill Valley girl reported missing Thursday morning, returned home Friday afternoon, police reported today. Janet Carol Walton, 20 Elaine Avenue, returned home voluntarily, police said, after a trip to Santa Cruz.

Annual Tree Burning Set Friday Night

A community Christmas tree burning will be held in Belvedere Friday on Lagoon Road Park across from Maybridge Road beginning at 7 p.m.

Mayor John R. Moore will welcome residents to the Twelfth Night ceremony, which has been a tradition in Belvedere for several years.

Belvedere police and firemen will be on hand to control traffic and flames from dry Christmas trees.

Trees may be left on the site any time before the burning, according to the Belvedere Parks and Recreation Commission.

A choral group from Del Mar School, Tiburon, will sing carols under direction of Hyman Krongard.

Wood Frame House Destroyed By Fire

Fire destroyed a two-room wood frame home at Belvedere Avenue and Shoreline Hoghway in Stinson Beach Saturday evening.

Ed Stice, only occupant of the old house, was uninjured.

Cause of the fire, reported at 6 p.m., was undetermined. About 20 volunteer firemen fought the blaze for about an hour.

LSD Is Linked To Span Incident

A man who appeared under the influence of LSD was taken from the Golden Gate Bridge toll lanes Saturday at 1:25 a. m. by California Highway Patrol officers who feared he might try to jump from the bridge.

Officer George J. Sharp observed Gilbert Gault, 24, in his car starting straight ahead with a dazed look. As patrol officers asked him to step from his car, he stared at them, finally got out. Reaching in his pocket, he pulled out a fistful of money and threw it into the air.

At Mission Emergency Hospital in San Francisco, a doctor said Gault was under the influence of the drug LSD. He was kept at San Francisco General Hospital for observation.

Vandals At School

Vandals entered Coleman School at 140 Rafael Drive, San Rafael, Saturday and scattered stationery equipment around the classroom of Mrs. Norman Erickson. Entry was through an unlicked door, police said.

Economists Urged To Lend Hand In Fight Against Crime World

By SCIENCE SERVICE

WASHINGTON — Economists, concerned with the "upper-world" of respectable business, have neglected the study of the application of economic laws to the criminal underworld.

And their insights might have a radical effect on "crime" and criminals, according to Dr. T. C. Schelling, Harvard University professor of economics.

From the economists' view, "a large part of organized crime is the selling of commodities and services contrary to law. This includes dope, prostitution, gambling, liquor under prohibition, pornography and stolen goods."

"In what is not usually considered the underworld," Dr. Schelling continues, "black markets include gold, rationed commodities and coupons in wartime, loans and rentals above controlled prices, theater tickets in New York."

The law itself forces certain goods into the black market, Dr. Schelling notes. "Essentially the question is whether (the law's) goal of somewhat limiting the consumption of narcotics, gambling, prostitution, abortion or anything else that is forced by law into the black market is or is not outweighed by the costs to society of creating a criminal industry.

In an address before the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science, Dr. Schelling advocated a "strategic" approach to the problems of crime, instead of the current tactical methods aimed at catching and punishing individual criminals.

The black markets, he pointed out, protect criminals from legitimate competitors, provide an incentive to corrupt police, and teach their customers contempt for the law.

"The greatest gambling enterprise in the United States," Dr. Schelling declared, "has not been significantly touched by organized crime. That is the stock market . . . Ordinary gambling ought to be one of the hardest industries to monopolize because almost anybody can compete . . . If ordinary brokerage firms were encouraged to take accounts and buy and sell bets by telephone for their customers, it is hard to see how racketeers could get any kind of grip on it."

Move Launched On Filibusters

WASHINGTON (AP) — Six senators — three Democrats and three Republicans — have launched a move to facilitate ending Senate filibusters.

In a letter to their colleagues seeking support, the senators said a change in Senate Rule 22 "must be secured that, while protecting the right of full debate, will enable a majority of senators ultimately to resolve an issue by voting."

The letter was sent by Democrats Joseph S. Clark of Pennsylvania, Philip A. Hart of Michigan and William Proxmire of Wisconsin and Republicans Clifford P. Case of New Jersey, Jacob K. Javits of New York and Thomas H. Kuchel of California.

Transistor Patent Issued On Zinc Use

A method of producing zinc oxide semiconductor material for transistor applications was patented last week by William D. Kingerly and Reid A. Mickelsen, and assigned to the Atomic Energy Commission, which supported the research. The patent is number 3, 294,660.

The novel material can be used to operate at higher temperatures than the conventional germanium and silicon semiconductors. Because of a greater energy gap between the valence band and the conduction band, currens leakage within the material is decreased.

Cuts Own Salary —Campaign Promise

GALVESTON, Tex. (UPI)—C. Ray Holbrook was sworn in yesterday as county judge. His first official act was to cut his salary from $18,000 to $16,200 a year.

One of his campaign promises was to cut his pay to give the county more money for other things.

Disney Is Mourned

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A resolution mourning the death of showman Walt Disney was adopted by the Senate yesterday. The measure was introduced by Sen. Robert S. Stevens, R-Los Angeles.

Annexation Proposal On Agency's Agenda

The Marin County Local Agency Formation Commission will consider the proposed West Marin annexation to the North Marin County Water District Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at Civic Center.

The Commission executive officer John F. Barrows will recommend approval of the annexation, which includes Olema, Point Reyes Station and Inverness. The territory was within Marin Municipal Water District's sphere of expansion, but residents petitioned for annexation to the North Marin District because of lack of action by MMWD.

Also on Thursday's agenda is consideration of the petition of Ghilotti and Maggiora to annex their 32 acres on the south side of Highway 17 near the San Rafael-Richmond Bridge in the City of San Rafael.

The commission also will consider the annexation of land, including a junior high school site, southwest of Wilson Avenue and Center Road to the City of Novato.

Farmers Injured

PRAGUE (AP) — More than 50,000 cooperative farmers in Czechoslovakia suffered injuries at their jobs last year, missing as many working days as if 4,500 farmers had not worked all year, the Central Commission of Inspection and Statistics reported.

Labor-Management Meeting Scheduled

WASHINGTON (AP) The Federal Mediation and Concilation Service will meet with its mediators Jan. 9 to discuss what it anticipates will be a rough year in labor-management relations.

The National Right-to-Work Committee, meanwhile, announced it will seek this year a federal law requiring labor unions to bargain only for their own members.

A New Year's Bullet Hole

Homer Gray of 442 West Live Oak Drive, Tamalpais Valley, wondered what was going on when he found a bullet hole in the hood of his car and a spent 30 caliber bullet New Year's morning.

After checking, Sheriff's Deputy Ernest Nielsen reported that the bullet had entered from a high angle "almost straight down."

This, he said, indicated a random shot taken into the sky by a New Year's celebrant.

"Due to an overabundance of suspects, no further action was taken," Nielsen reported.

Deadline Near For Astronauts

The academy, recruiting astronauts for the National Aeronautic and Space Administration, says more than 400 scientists and engineers have applied.

Public Hearing Scheduled On San Pedro Road Plans

A public hearing before both the San Rafael City Council and Marin County Board of Supervisors will be held at 8 p.m. next Monday at San Rafael City Hall on the second phase of San Pedro Road widening.

The County Public Works Department has designed two alternate alignments for the job that will widen the present two-lane road to a four-lane, divided road between Porto Bello and a point 300 feet east of Margarita Drive.

Councilmen and supervisors want to find out at the hearing what the public preference is on the alternates.

The first, known as the Central Alignment, would take property from both sides of the present road for widening. Engineer John Baker of the county public works department said this would cost about $625,000 for land acquisition and construction.

This plan would not require relocation of any homes.

The second plan, estimated at $815,000 for acquisition and construction, is called the Southern Alignment. It would take all the necessary land from the southern side of the present route and would require relocation of four homes in Marin Vista subdivision, Baker said.

Maps of both plans went on display in the City Hall foyer today and will remain there until the hearing tomorrow. A county public works department engineer will be at the City Hall from 1 to 5 p.m. and 6 to 8 p.m. to answer questions.

The southern side of the road is within the city limits, while the road itself and land on the north side are in county territory, Baker said.

Red Tourism

PRAGUE (AP)—Over two million persons visited Czechoslovakia this tourist season, the news agency CTK reported recently, saying 1.5 million came from Communist nations and 513,000 from Western countries, an increase of 21 per cent from last year.

Furniture polish has been labeled the most dangerous household item a child can accidentally swallow because it causes severe complications in the lungs and central nervous system.

Newmen's Plane Is Delayed

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Engine trouble delayed for more than an hour last night a Pan American World Airways plane carrying White House reporters to Washington from Texas.

The big DC-9 put into Houston International Airport more than an hour after taking off from Bergstrom Air Force Base at Austin.

Pilot Eugene Monahan cut off the No. 2 engine when it began shooting sparks. He had hoped to land at New Orleans but turned back to Houston because of bad weather.

Several fire trucks met the plane, but Monahan made a smooth landing.

Increased Passenger Cont Is Predicted

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The city Department of Airports predicts a passenger count of 19 million at International Airport during 1967.

A spokesman said yesterday the forecast is based on the figures compiled last year, when the passenger count was about 15.4 million.

How Do Voters Judge Their Candidates For School Boards?

The time has rolled around again when a few citizens begin scurrying about to promote candidates for district school boards. In some counties, in fact, the first aspirants have already taken out nomination papers, for the law sets no opening date for taking out the papers. It can be done any time.

FIRST DATE for filing the completed petitions with county superintendents is Jan. 9. The filing period continues to March 3. Elections will be April 18. These dates apply except for city school boards in chartered cities.

What kind of candidates will be seeking positions on the 1,300-odd school district boards in California, come April 18? And how will the voters be able to judge them?

The California Teachers Assn. a couple years ago published a list of qualifications for "the ideal school board candidate." For what they are worth, here are the things the CTA believes such a candidate would have:

1. An unselfish interest in the public schools, the community and every child.

2. The ability to think independently and objectively about a problem.

3. The ability and desire to work cooperatively with other board members, even when his opinions are at times in the minority.

4. A record of the kind of leadership that will represent the district as a whole rather than a record identifying him with a particular group, cause, or geographical area.

5. A willingness to give the necessary time to this important position.

6. The capability of recognizing and distinguishing the jurisdictional power and functions of the school board and administration.

7. A clear recognition of the close relationship between high quality personnel and excellence of educational quality so that he will stress policies and practices which contribute to high standards and high morale.

8. The courage and ability to explain and enforce a rule which is proper but not popular.

9. An understanding that leadership often involves efforts to re-direct public opinion into more constructive channels.

10. A layman's relationship to education.

11. The habit of withholding judgment on critical issues until all pertinent facts are available.

12. A respect for the knowledge and opinions of those with specialized preparation.

13. The belief that the school professional staff is a partner in the educational enterprise.

14. The ability to carry on cheerfully when public appreciation of his efforts seems to be lacking.

15. A record which has demonstrated consistently that he has a respect for others' opinions and for the dignity of each individual.

Anyone filling all 15 of these qualifications would indeed be a paragon.

He might, however, not be very effective as a school board member.

IT WOULD APPEAR that some understanding of the operation of schools, and of public administration generally, might deserve a place near the top of the list of qualifications for an ideal school board candidate.

School district operations are complicated, and if the newly elected board member must learn them all "from scratch," a great deal of his four-year term is going to be spent in the process. Further, if he has no knowledge of the operation of government at the local level, he may find himself trapped into practices contrary to accepted governmental practices. It has happened to many a school trustee.

THE CANDIDATE who starts acquainting himself by attending board meetings a month or two before election can scarcely be expected to know what it is all about. It would appear that, along with integrity, good intentions, etc., a knowledge of government and schools obtained over the years would be essential for the ideal school board candidate.

It may be, too, that some of the 15 qualifications listed by the CTA are not of overwhelming importance, except in the eyes of the teachers' organization.

Sound-Sealing Used On Plastic

WASHINGTON(SS) — A method of sealing plastic sheets by means of high-frequency sound energy was patented this week by Seymour Linsley and Joseph Di Meglio and assigned to Branson Instruments Inc.

The device—patent 3,294,616—has the advantage of applying the sealing energy continuously to the plastic surfaces to be sealed, rather than being applied intermittently as in previous ultrasonic sealers. It has been used to seal an inner plastic liner through a three-ply kraft paper sack.

Ultrasonic sealing devices are used on plastic which do not join well with heat, such as Mylar and some of the polypropylenes. The process is also being applied to the welding of rigid plastic materials.

F.A. Mesmer, a 19th Century Austrian physician, is considered to be the father of hypnotism, using a method believed to involve animal magnetism.

Montana Boy Dies Of Kidney Ailment

Kenneth Frank, the 17-year-old Montana boy whose life 17 Marin County residents offered to save with their own kidneys, died yesterday in Great Falls, Mont.

Shortly before Christmas, the boy's father, Herman Frank of San Rafael, pleaded through the Independent-Journal for someone to donate a kidney.

Nephritis, a kidney disease suffered by his son for two years, had attacked and destroyed both of Kenneth's kidneys. Doctors gave him only six months to live.

Within two days, 17 Marin residents had called Frank at his 120 Spring Grove Avenue home to offer their kidneys. Countless others called to offer blood or just wish Frank well.

Doctors who worked on Kenneth, though, never examined a prospective Marin donor. "They were just about to start processing the donors when the boy went into a coma. He died six hours later," Frank reported.

He said he does not know why doctors waited so long before looking at prospective donors outside the boy's immediate family "unless they knew something they wouldn't tell us."

Frank said he will attend his son's funeral in Kalispell, Mont., Thursday. He had not seen the boy in four years, but talked with him by telephone the day before he died.

"I want to thank everyone here in Marin for all they did and all they offered to do," Frank said.

New Operator In Data Office Is Turned Down

Marin County Supervisors today rejected a request by the county data processing department for permission to hire another fulltime computer operator at $3,390 for the rest of the fiscal year.

Edward M. Nissen of that department said addition of the operator would save an equal amount of money in overtime and extra hire pay.

Supervisor John F. McInnis told Nissen an emergency would have to be shown before he would vote a change in the budget.

"You come in here with a request for another man but without the data to show the need for that man," he said.

The board tabled the request.

Major Given Medal For His Viet Service

Major Raymond D. Franklin of Marinwood was presented the Legion of Merit today by Maj. Gen. Ernest F. Easterbrook at Presidio ceremonies.

Major Franklin, 34, was cited for exceptionally meritorious conduct while serving as commanding officer of the 17th Aviation Company, Air Mobile Fixed Wing, 1st Cavalry Division (Airmobile) in Vietnam from June 1965 until August 1966.

The citation said he "complete organized, trained and led the first CV-2B "Caribou" company to South Vietnam via the mid-Pacific flight route, planned and supervised around-the-clock flying in support of troops in Vietnam, and directed the smooth and orderly transfer of the Army's "Caribou" operations and assets in Vietnam to the Air Force.

Today's ceremonies were watched by his wife Maggie and their children, Jayne, Scott and Joseph. They live at 427 Miller Creek Road in Marinwood.

Courthouse Restriction May Be Lifted

By RICHARD LYTTLE

Marin County supervisors today appeared ready to lift the restriction written into the courthouse bid agreement two weeks ago that calls for the courthouse building and annex to remain at least five years from time of sale.

The property will go to bid Feb. 14, and the board has until next Tuesday to make changes in the bid document.

Supervisors agreed to discuss the future of the courthouse property with members of the San Rafael City Council at a meeting at the city hall next Monday night. That meeting has been scheduled as a joint hearing by supervisors and councilmen on the second phase of widening of San Pedro Road. The courthouse discussion will come after the hearing.

The courthouse matter came up today when Board Chairman Thomas T. Storer said he would like to see a joint session with the council to improve understanding. Supervisor Peter H. Behr said he would welcome this and would like to lift any restriction on future use in the sales document because San Rafael businessmen had protested any restriction.

Supervisor William A. Gnoss agreed with Behr. Supervisor John F. McInnis, participating in his first session, heartily endorsed a joint meeting.

Several weeks ago Harry H. Heifetz offered to buy the courthouse property for $900,000, saying he would be willing to keep the buildings and lawn as they are in perpetuity.

County Administrator Alan Bruce reported today that Richard Woods, representing another interested buyer, has written to request lifting of restrictions.

Police Probe Shooting Of Larkspur Man

A Larkspur man was shot in the abdomen and the right leg at his home Sunday at 4:26 a.m., according to Larkspur police.

M/Sgt. Donald Allen, 41, of 458 Via Hidalgo, Larkspur, was in good condition today at Letterman General Hospital, San Francisco, and Larkspur police were investigating the circumstances surrounding the shooting.

When officers Alisdair W. MacDonald and Richard Madigan arrived at Allen's home Sunday morning, Allen gave them a .22 caliber pistol and showed them the two bullet wounds on his body, Police Chief Howard Clark said.

Allen said he and his wife, Dolores Allen, 36, had an argument. But he gave several contradictory stories on how the shooting occured, Clark said.

Allen is assigned to the 1151st Special Action squadron at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Auto Returned With $20 Bill

Someone did a little do-it-yourself Rent-A-Car business with Mathew P. Dillingham's $8,000 sports car.

Dillingham's 1966 Cobra disappeared from the garage of his home at 3 Rose Avenue, Mill Valley Sunday. It was returned yesterday, parked 40 yards away—with a $20 bill on the front seat.

Mill Valley police reported the motor still warm, the car undamaged except for the ignition wires which had been hot wired. The borrower had driven 15 miles for his $20.

Mink Coat Taken At Holiday Party

Mrs. Mary B. McBride of 12 Surrey Lane, San Rafael, had a New Year's Eve celebration turn sour.

She told police that, while she was attending a party at the Olympia Club, 919 Lea Drive, Saturday night, someone stole her mink coat from a closet near the club entrance. She valued it at $2,600.

January 3, 1967

Dear Friends:

1966 was a year to remember in the savings and loan business. Tight money, a depressed residential real estate market, highest savings rates in our generation, and lower earnings influenced the Federal government to adopt rate controls, raise insurance of accounts to $15,000, and stiffen supervisory powers.

1966 has been an unusual year for us. Our savings increased 3%, after five years of average 17% gains. Our savings rate jumped from 4.85% to 5.25% while our average loan portfolio rate increased only from 6.24% to 6.30%. The resulting cost squeeze cut earnings, but reduced operating expenses allowed us to end the year with an increase of 4% in our general reserves and surplus.

Already, 1967 looks better to us. Money is less tight. We are taking in more savings, we are making more loans. The real estate market shows signs of picking up as unsold house inventories disappear, and buyers read that costs of new homes may go higher. 1967 should be a more normal year for Citizens. Here is our program going into the first quarter:

- Your savings will continue at 5-1/4% per annum;
- Compounding will be daily;
- Funds received by the 10th will earn from the first;
- Funds received after the 10th will earn from date received;
- Funds withdrawn before the end of the quarter will earn to date of withdrawal if in for three months.

We may remember 1966 most as the year the Federal government established rate controls, bringing stability to the savings market.

Cordially,

WELCOMING THE NEW YEAR

FOR CHIC

Fashion Resolutions For '67

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—It's resolution time and don't forget it, if you would be among among the chic members of your set.

These suggested resolutions for the new year may not land you on that annual international list of best-dressed women that takes great wealth as well as great style, but they'll help to make a prettier, more confident you in '67.

RESOLVED THAT I WILL:

—Be a slave only to those fashions which become me and will not be pushed into purchase of something that deep within me I know is not my type. If the legs and the figure aren't the shapeliest and youngest, I'll let the mini-skirt belong to others.

—Once and for all I will figure out the styles that do become most, draw the most compliments from others, and plan my wardrobe accordingly. But I'll always take a look at the new trends, rather than get in a fashion rut.

—Follow a fad only if I can afford the fun, realizing that elegance comes in part from a well-planned and lasting wardrobe of good quality of cut and fabrics. Occasional indulgence in a new hair color, a new hairstyle, boots or lacy stockings do give a lift and do not splinter the pocketbook.

—Avoid hurried, last minute shopping, the surest way to make a wardrobe mistake, often costly.

—FOLLOW FAITHFULLY the maxim that cleanlinessis next to Godliness and apply it not only to body but all clothes, keeping them carefully cleaned and pressed.

—Never say, "I'm too tired" at the close of the day and fail to cleanse the accumulation of makeup off either with that old fashioned soap and water method or with one of the cleansing lotions or creams. The chemists have done wonders for skin care.

—Worry less about laugh lines and more about those created from the scowl.

—Use makeup with discretion, realizing that cosmetics are to enhance what nature gave me, not make me a caricature.

—Make sure that a sweet tooth or other food longing does not preclude the basics of good diet and good health. We are what we eat and I will include foods balanced to meet the daily needs—milk and cheese, meat, poultry, fish and eggs, vegetables and fruits, breads and cereals.

—NO LONGER PRETEND that the scales are off balance or that the thickening and sagging around the midsection are only temporary. If cutting calories is necessary, I shall begin immediately instead of "I'll really start tomorrow."

—Add some sort of daily exercise to my life, whether of the sitting-up type or a two-mile walk.

—Know that there'll be occasional lapses in the good intentions department, but if most are kept, a more modish '67 awaits.

FROM LEFT, Tony Farrara, Mrs. Vernice Ser Voss and Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Anderson sampled items from the salad bar, set up at the club.

EXTENDING NEW YEAR'S wishes as the midnight approached were, from left, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Backsteht, Mrs. Harold Keaton, Mrs. Ruth Rogers, Harold Keaton and John Winn.

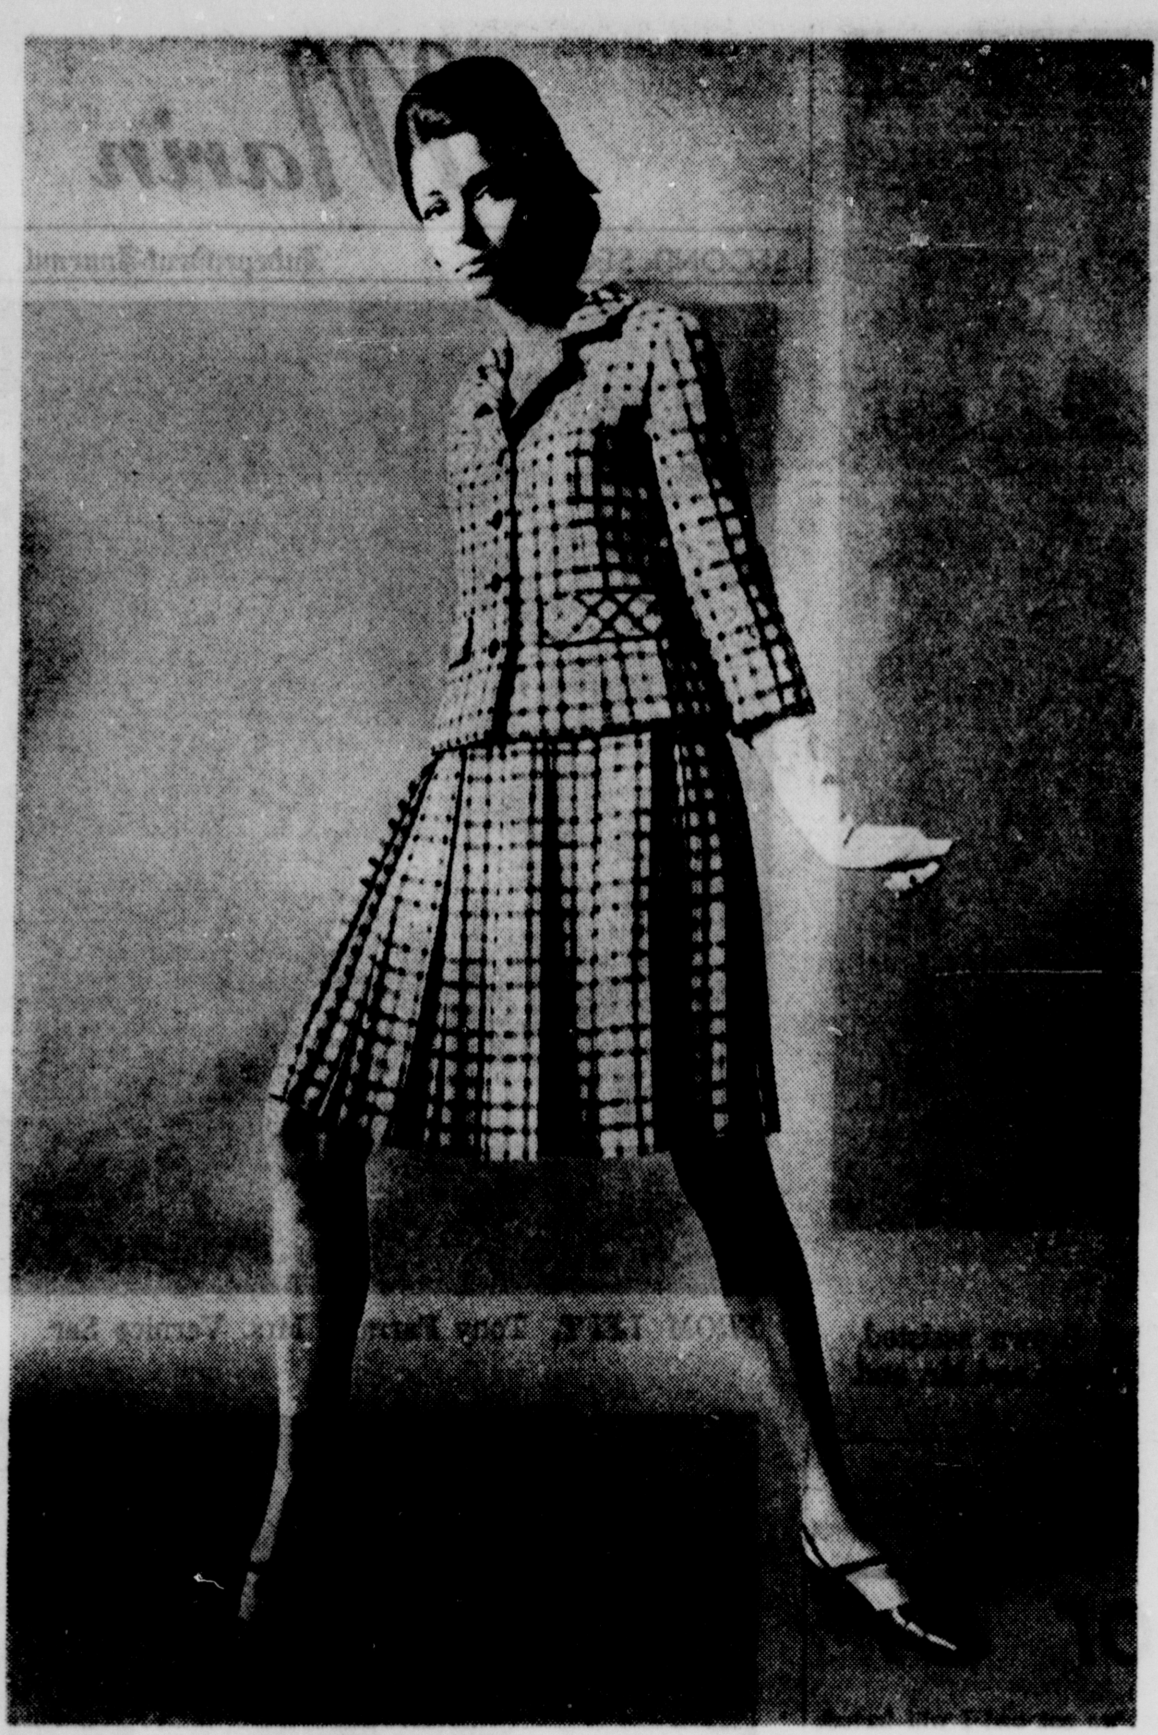
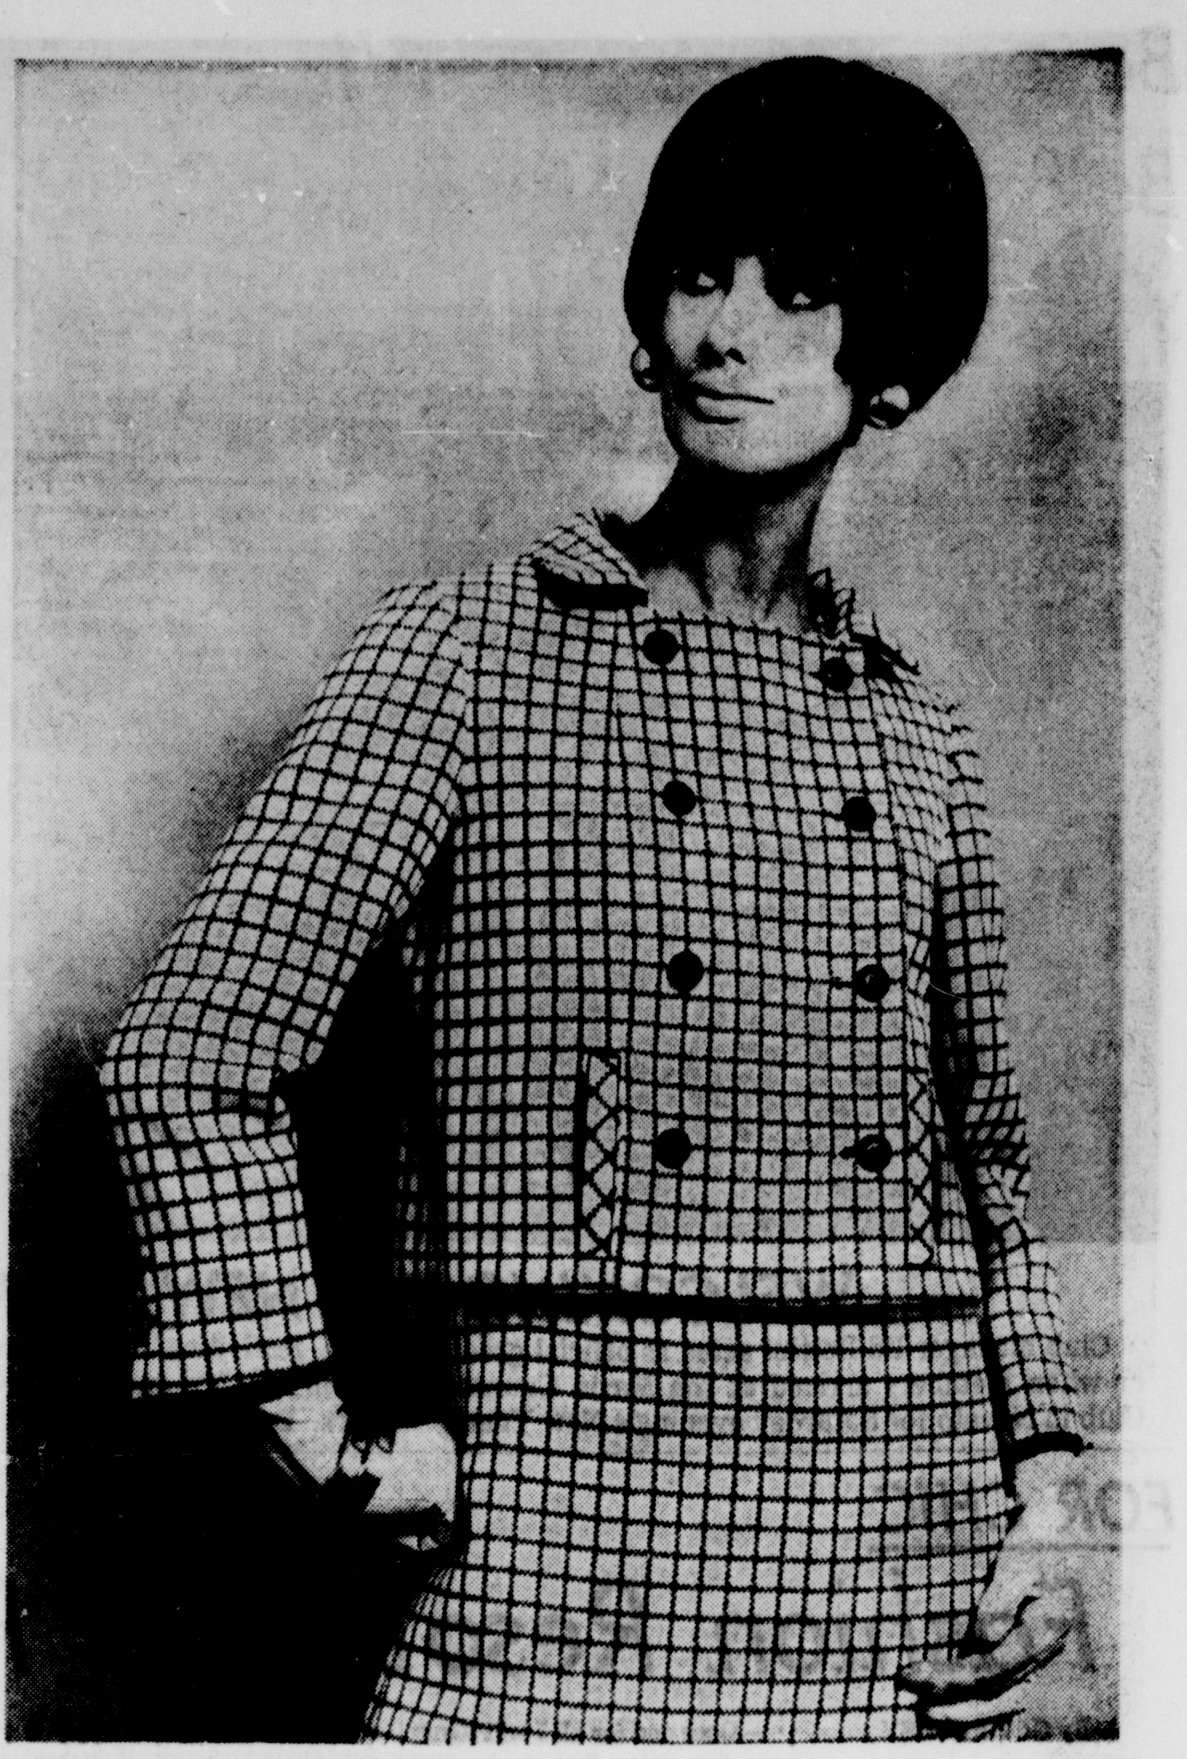
THAT TWINKLER

New York couturier fashions being unveiled this week in New York by Brandell include this completely beaded silk l'organza that glints and glidders from little sleeves to the hem, making a fluidly shaped dance dress. Appreciative audience is Broadway producer David Black.



BEN REIG SAUCY SUIT

An infusion of youth comes to the typical elegance of a Ben Reig suit, done in navy and white shadow plaid wool with trim in-line jacket with notched collar. The skirt is double pleated to give it saucy movement.



WINDOW PANE LOOK

A lively costume in navy and white with a square neckline is a part of the American fashion scene for spring '67 as seen in this Jack Sarnoff design. The slim jacket is double breasted, and worn over a short sleeve skimmer. The A-line skirt allows freedom of movement.

Beverly Jean Sadler Will Be Bride Of Roy W. Prowell

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Sadler of Greenbrae have announced the engagement of their daughter, Beverly Jean, to Roy Walters Prowell Jr. of Pebble Beach at a family gathering at their home.

A SUMMER WEDDING is being planned by Beverly Jean Sadler of Greenbrae and Roy Walters Prowell Jr. of Pebble Beach.

The bride-elect is the granddaughter of Mrs. A. M. Sadler of San Francisco and William S. Ashby of San Francisco, is the sister of Robert N. Sadler of San Jose.

Beverly was graduated from Redwood High School and attended University of California. She is presently attending the University of California Medical Center in San Francisco where she is a member of the California Club and is president of her senior dental hygiene class. She will receive her degree from the School of Dental Hygiene next June.

Walt is the son of Prof. and Mrs. Roy Walters Prowell of Pebble Beach and the brother of Mrs. Jack Arnold of Mill Valley.

The future bridegroom was graduated from Carmel High School after spending his junior year at the U.S. Air Force High School in Ankara, Turkey. He attended University of California at Davis where he was affiliated with Theta Xi fraternity and is now an orthodontics major in the Dental School at the University of California Medical Center, San Francisco. He is also a Regents' Scholar and a member of Psi Omega Dental fraternity.

Wedding plans are being made for next summer.

HELEN HELP US!

By HELEN BOTTEL

Here's A Fellow Who Just Sits Around All Day And Finds Fault

DEAR HELEN:

I know you shouldn't trust everybody, and that being a Pollyanna is corny, but how about people who see the worst in everything?

No matter who it is or what a person has done, this fellow knocks him down. He thinks everybody is out for what he can get and nobody does anything just to be kind or because he likes you. He says the people who join the Peace Corps only want a free tour of the world and something they can talk about to impress people or get themselves a good job later on.

He says all politicians are crooked and all parents "use" their kids one way or another, like pushing them into a big-name college so they can brag. He sneers at the people who aren't in the "in" crowd, and says those who are, are snobs.

He just sits around all day and finds fault. The only person he seems to like is himself. What's with a guy like that? Am I as naive as he tells me I am because I think most people try to do what's right? —SEMI-POLLYANNA.

DEAR S.P.:

You're much more right than your sour friend who, underneath, probably hates himself most of all. Unless someone can change his attitude — it may take an expert counselor — he's headed for a miserable, possibly dangerous, life.

Keep on being a "Semi-Pollyanna," but with your eyes open. I like this observation made by a friend: "If we knew all the facts, we'd find that almost everybody is better than he has any right to be, under the circumstances." Makes a lot of sense, doesn't it? — H.

DEAR HELEN:

Do you get many letters from teens who have thought about committing suicide? I get so depressed and worried and kind of pushed and pulled in my mind that I think about how peaceful it would be if I never again had to fight my parents or wonder why I am disliked, and can never do anything right.

Of course I'd never kill myself because even when I'm "down" I know I'll be "up" again and things aren't really that bad — I'm just dramatizing. But I worry about my thoughts of suicide. Am I normal?—WORRIER

DEAR WORRIER:

Almost everyone has thoughts of suicide at one time or another, especially if he "thinks inward" and can't talk out his problems — or believes no one cares enough to listen. Most such people are like you: temporarily "down" but aware their depressions will lift. You'll get over these feelings much faster if you find someone to discuss them with you.

For that matter, you can handle your depressions a lot better when you learn what really causes them. Try "pouring it out" to a sympathetic adult listener — a relative, your counselor, religious advisor, a wise friend . . . or write it out to an advice columnist. You'd be surprised how this helps, even if you never mail the letter!

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble, let Helen help you. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of the Independent-Journal.

Peterson-Nevil Rite Set In Marin

Trinity Lutheran Church in San Rafael was the setting of Dec. 24 for the 1 o'clock wedding of Barbara Jean Nevil of San Francisco and Roscoe Gilbert Peterson of Berkeley.

The Rev. Dr. A. C. Nitz, church pastor and former pastor of the Nevils in San Francisco, performed the ceremony.

Barbara, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Nevil of San Francisco, wore a gown of pink silk shantung and her sister, Mrs. David L. Towle of San Jose, wore blue silk shantung as matron of honor.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at Forest Hills Clubhouse in San Francisco. The couple left on a wedding trip to Phoenix, Ariz., and will reside in Oakland on their return.

Roscoe, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Peterson of Billings, Mont., was graduated from University of Utah and is an account representative with International Business Machines. He worked on the county government system installed at the Marin Civic Center.

Barbara was graduated from Lincoln High School in San Francisco and University of California where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. She is a systems engineer with IBM.

THE BIG ROSES PARADE PRIZE

This float, entered by South Pasadena, won the sweepstakes prize as the most beautiful of all in the Tournament of Roses parade at Pasadena. It was titled "A Voyage to Atlantis," and featured eight Grecian maidens on bounding porpoises and a giant clam shell in the parade yesterday. (AP Wirephoto)

Lynda, George Believed Hiding In Mexico City

MEXICO CITY (UPI)—Lynda Bird Johnson and actor-boyfriend George Hamilton were believed to be in hiding in Mexico City today.

Lynda and Hamilton left Acapulco, the jet-set resort where they spent a week's holiday, by car late yesterday afternoon. The U. S. Embassy in Mexico City confirmed they were headed for the capital, 250 miles to the north, and expected to arrive some time late last night.

The embassy said it was "not at liberty" to say where the pair will be staying.

But it was believed they were to be guests of U. S. Ambassador Fulton Freeman.

Lynda rang in the New Year with a big kiss for Hamilton at a lavish jet-set rock and roll party in Acapulco. Among the other guests were movie star John Wayne, the Henry Fords, and actor Peter Lawford, former brother-in-law of the late President John F. Kennedy.

They celebrated the New Year with a nonstop 24-hour round of partying. A small party given by their hosts—actress Merle Oberon and her husband Bruno Pagliai—preceded the party at the home of a wealthy Mexican construction tycoon, where Lynda kissed George at Midnight.

State Pay Raise Bill Introduced

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A bill to give state employees pay raises ranging from 6 to 31 per cent was introduced in the Assembly today.

The bill by Assemblyman Edwin Z'berg, D-Sacramento, would appropriate $73.8 million for the raises, which would be effective July 1. The bill was sponsored by the 110,500-member California State Employees' Association.

State nurses and technicians would get the largest increases.

The measure includes $4.6 million for state college nonacademic employes and $6.7 million for University of California nonacademic employes.

A similar bill was introduced in the Senate today.

There are about four million beef cattle in California.

Cuban Exile Reports Invasion Plan Killed

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — A Cuban exile said today that a vest-pocket invasion of Haiti, designed to eventually lead to a war against Fidel Castro, was squelched by the arrest of a heavily armed band of Latin exiles and American adventurers.

However, the chief of the operation, Rolando Masferrer, controversial onetime aide of Cuban dictator Fulgencio Batista, said 50 commandoes got away in a boat before customs agents made the arrests in a raid at a beachfront home in the middle of the Florida Keys last night.

But one of the company commanders said he escaped the roundup by crawling away in the darkness and hitching a ride to Miami.

The commander, Aton Constanzo Palau, later detailed the battle plans, which he said involved about 75 Cuban exiles, 30 Haitian exiles and 28 Americans.

He said 20 exiles already had been sneaked into Haiti and were supposed to attack and seize the airport at Cape Haitian this week.

Five propeller-driven planes would then use the airport as a base to bomb the garrison adjacent to the presidential palace at Port-au-Prince, Constanzo said.

The remainder of the little army was to land at Port-au-Prince, rally the rebels already in Haiti and replace dictator Francois Duvalier with Father Jean Baptiste Georges, Constanzo said.

Within 30 days the invaders hoped to build an army strong enough to strike across the narrow Windward Passage and overthrow Prime Minister Fidel Castro, Constanzo said.

The marshal's office listed 19 in custody in Key West—including a woman—and 51 in custody in Miami.

Among those in Key West was Father Georges, a former Haitian priest who was once education minister under Duvalier.

Customs agents, who had staked out the staging area in the Keys for days, moved in last night about 8:30 p.m.

Four to a car, 15 agents raced down a lonely road from Key Vaca, just north of Marathon, to Cocoa Plum Beach.

Poland Plans No More Flammable Dolls To U.S.

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — The director of the Polish firm that shipped in flammable dolls to the United States says the U.S. market in the future will get only dolls made with materials that won't burn.

Jan Ziemski of the Polish Coopexim Foreign Trade Trust said yesterday that the dolls have been shipped to the United States for 12 years and no complaints were received until late last year.

He said it was only recently and after "repeated requests" that the Polish Ministry of Chemical Industry has been able to supply non-combustible synthetics to the cooperative toy workshops.

Samples of the new, nonflammable materials which are used for the face and hair of the dolls, have been sent to New York for inspection, he said.

Marin firemen reported a total of 59 of the dolls turned in to them since the danger was revealed last week.

San Anselmo and Terra Linda led with 12. Corte Madera firemen received six, and Novato, Tiburon, Fairfax, and Marinwood, five each. Three each were turned in to Larkspur and Tamalpais Valley firemen, and one each to Alto-Richardson Bay, Ross and Kentfield firemen.

Terra Linda Fire Chief George Walser said that his men tell the doll owners they have two choices, either taken them back to the store where they were purchased to get a refund or else leave them with firemen to be destroyed.

When the dolls have been sent as presents from out of state, the owners usually decided to have them destroyed, Chief Chief Walser said.

In 1872, Thomas Edison became the first man to patent an electric typewriter.

Child Beating Charge Draws Plea Of Guilty

Eugene A. Boehm, 21, pleaded guilty in Marin Superior Court today to a felony charge of child beating in the Aug. 18 death of the 16-month-old son of his common-law wife.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson then dismissed a charge of murder, on recommendation of Dist. Atty. Bruce B. Bales. The judge said the recommendation was justified in view of the other plea.

He scheduled sentencing for Feb. 6.

Boehm, originally scheduled for jury trial Jan. 16 on the two charges, beat Timothy Wayne Buckley, son of Mrs. Roberta Marie Buckley, at 70 Lucky Drive Greenbrae, where the trio lived.

Dr. Arthur R. Ablin, one of three physcicians at Marin General Hospital who attempted to save the child's life, described it as the worst beating of the kind he had ever seen.

Boehm, an unemployed furniture finisher, had claimed the child was injured in falling from a table in the home and from the seat of a car.

A felony complaint against Mrs. Buckley, charged with failure to inform police of the beating, was dismissed in Marin Municipal Court because she had been granted immunity in Marin Superior Court from prosecution on testimony she gave at Boehm's preliminary hearing.

DRAMA REVIEW

Company Captures Moliere Just Right

By KARL BARRON

SAN FRANCISCO — In the minds of some theater people, Moliere has taken on almost the halo of Shakespeare—that is, there is a cult which feels that Moliere can be played only with a sort of dandified reverence.

Praises be that the National Repertory Theater and director Jack Sydow are not of this cult. In the Miles Malleson adaptation of "The Imaginary Invalid," which opened NRT'S season at the Curran last night, the great French playwright is presented with no holds barred, and its a great evening of theater.

The play is a farce, satirizing the doctors of Moliere's period (and ours?) who prey upon the hypochondriacs—who are always with us. Not even Monsieur Argan, the invalid, is fooled as he describes the medical men: "They cling together like the leeches they are."

Around Argan's non-existent illness is built a silly plot to marry his daughter to a doctor she doesn't wish to marry, and her step-mother's desire to leech Argan's wealth away from him.

In lesser hands than NRT, the play can be a huge bore. Here it is fantastically good theater which sings with the joy of living and loving.

The reason for the stellar company is a paradox. Unlike last year's company, there are no stars, but instead a tightly knit group of excellent actors, almost all with repertory background, and all with obvious theatrical dedication and tremendous enjoyment of what they're doing.

Argan, who is on stage for all but a few seconds of the show, is portrayed zestfully by G. Wood. From the opening scene of toting up his apothecary bills to the closing dance with the entire cast in absurd costumes, he is a joy to watch. Whether taking his own pulse, thwacking at Toinette, the maid, with his cane, or sagging dolefully into his chair with an imminent (and always imaginary) heart attack, Wood maintains a character to his very fingertips.

Running him a close second is Sloane Shelton as Toinette. Miss Shelton bounces about the stage as though she she rubber balls in her shoes, stirs his medicine with a finger turns gestures behind his back into frantic gnat-chasing when detected, and tops it playing a whole scene with herself in disguise. She's completely delightful.

Other outstanding work comes from Danholm Elliott and Gededeth Smith as Dr. Diaforus and his son; Jeanne Hepple as Argan's avaricious wife; Louis Turenne as Bonnefoy the lawyer, and Joan Bassie and John Church as the young lovers.

Drawing a well deserved hand for his single frenetic scene was Geoff Garland as Dr. Purgon. Garland plays him as sort of strutting penguin who never ceases to move, yet never allows the movement to pall.

Others contributing to the fine ensemble work are Patricia Guinan, John Straub, and Les Barkdull.

Ingenious use of original music by Dean Fuller to introduce new characters adds to the pace of the play, and the single set by Will Steven Armstrong, which features row upon row of medicine bottles, is charming.

Sydow has directed with acute tightness, seizing on every opportunity for comedy which Moliere offers, and adding a good bit of his own.

Other plays in this season's bill are Eugene O'Neill's "A Touch of Poet" and Noel Coward's "Tonight At 8:30." The one-acters from Coward's nine play gem are "Ways and Means," "Still Life," and "Fumed Oak."

They will be presented in repertory nightly except Sunday at 8:30, with matinees at 2:30 on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday, through Jan. 21.

Battery Is Stolen

A battery valued at $20 was stolen from her car parked in the garage of her home at 116 Mission Avenue, San Rafael, Marion W. Nichols told police Friday.

Every year, 100,000 cubic miles of water is evaporated from the earth's surface.

Annual Show Held For Prison Inmates

About 2,800 San Quentin Prison inmates sat for five and one-half hours in the institution's north dining hall yesterday as Bay Area performers presented the prison's 52nd annual New Year's Day "Show of Stars."

The show, organized by San Francisco entrepeneur William Van Ornum, ran from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.

"There were no headliners," according to Associate Warden James W. L. Park, "just good entertainment."

Treated For Overdose

Barbara Ann Gonzales, 32, of 44 Jade Court, At. 4. Novato, was treated yesterday at Novato Hospital from an overdose of sleeping tablets, according to Novato police.

AUDUBON FRIEND—Richard Miller of San Anselmo displayed a few of the stamp books collected by his 4-H Club to buy land for the Audubon Canyon Ranch.

Ross Valley 4-H Club Contributes Audubon Land

When the Audubon Society achieves debt-free ownership of its 567-acre Audubon Canyon Ranch near Bolinas early this year, two of those acres will have been contributed by the enterprising Ross Valley 4-H Club.

Under the leadership of its 17-year-old president, Richard Miller of San Anselmo, the club has collected enough Blue Chip stamps over the past two years to make the $800-an-acre gift to the society.

"We were going for a third acre," Richard said yesterday, "but the society has all its land now. Instead, we'll use the stamps we collect to help build, maintain and staff the society's planned nature-education center at the canyon."

Richard, a senior at Sir Francis Drake High School and a 4-H'er for seven years, said the project got started two years ago, when he and fellow club members were on a "forage field trip" and visited the canyon. "We learned they were buying the land, and it seemed a worthy cause," he said.

It was the club's leader, Mrs. Brian Youngclaus of Fairfax, who solved the problem of raising money, suggesting the stamps which Blue Chip Stamp Co. will redeem at $2 a book for charitable organizations. At $800 an acre, the club members collected 800 books to make its two-acre gift, a total of 960,000 stamps.

Everyone who has sent in a book, or even a few stamps has received a thank-you letter from the club. That's "not only good manners, it's good business," said Richard. "It encourages people to send more." Some, he said, have sent in about 10 or 12 times. The biggest contributor was the one who sent 30 books worth about $60, he said.

With the land-buying project behind them, the club members are even more enthusiastic about the society's nature-education center, which Richard described as "a place for school kids and others to go and learn."

The $215 banked last month from redemption of 107.5 books is now earmarked for the center. Anyone interested in helping the club with this project, Richard said, may send their Blue Chip stamps to the Ross Valley 4-H Club, c/o the Marin County Agriculture Department, Civic Center, San Rafael.

Crash Kills Two Near Vallejo

VALLEJO (UPI) — A Vallejo couple was killed last night in a three-car collision on Highway 37 just west of here.

Julius Salner, 64, concertmaster of the Vallejo Symphony Orchestra, and his wife, Ruby, 65, were killed when their car veered across the center of the highway.

Highway patrolmen said Salner's car collided head-on with a vehicle driven by Frederick Hansen, 30, Palo Alto. Hansen and his wife, Marilyn, 27, suffered serious injuries and were hospitalized. A third car plowed into the vehicles, but the driver was not hurt.

The Hunters Point Naval Shipyard in San Francisco has the only dry-dock on the West Coast capable of handling the Navy's largest aircraft carriers.

Utility Use Reported Up, Rates Down

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A state Public Utilities Commission report for the last fiscal year showed the number of utility users increased as utility rates decreased.

In the report released yesterday the PUC said rates to customers had been reduced by more $13.7 million during the period ending last June 30.

Increases of $4.9 million were granted to some utility companies including Pacific Telephone which won a $3.6 million chunk. However, much of Pacific Telephone's rate increase was for directory advertising which does not affect most customers.

Telephone companies in general were the most active of the major utilities, according to the report. A 6.2 per cent increase in the number of phones raised the state's total to 10.5 million.

The gas customers increased 2.8 per cent to 5.2 million while electricity customers increased 3.7 per cent to 4.85 million.

The PUC's decisions to maintain the present level of train service in the state were also recorded in the report. The commission refused to allow Southern Pacific to eliminate the Lark, the overnight train between Los Angeles and San Francisco. A request to terminate the San Joaquin Daylight at Bakersfield instead of Los Angeles was also refused.

The commission also ordered the Northwestern Pacific to resume passenger service between Willits and Eureka.

Light For Dog Costly For Home

LEVELLAND, Tex. (UPI)—It cost Martin Alsup $2,000 to put an electric light in a dog house to keep his Chihuahua warm.

Defective wiring started a fire which spread to Alsup's home and caused $2,000 damage. The dog, found hiding under a bed, was revived by firemen.

Cartoon With Sgt. Mike Starts In Today's Edition Of The I-J

"First I fire warning shots; then I fire at them."

So wrote Mike Hodgson of a Vietnam skirmish. His cartoon feature, With Sgt. Mike, starts today in the Independent-Journal.

SGT. MIKE HODGSON
His cartoons start

Hodgson is a typical American boy — he was under 18 when he enlisted in the Marines—who suddenly found himself in Vietnam along with a lot of other American boys.

He went to high school in Sacramento where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hodgson, live with two other children, a younger brother and sister.

His schoolmates recall him as a quiet, reserved youth who didn't drink or smoke. He was just a normal American kid with a regular haircut and sports trousers that were neither too baggy nor too tight. His hobbies were racing slot cars, collecting stamps and fishing the American river with time out to sing in the school glee club and his church choir.

As a boy Hodgson was always rather handy with a pen and sold some sketches to businessmen in Sacramento. He had a girl and he wanted to be married so he persuaded his parents to let him join the Marines in 1964 as a means of saving the necessary money.

Boot camp was followed by special training at California's Camp Pendleton and the wedding date was set during leave in February, 1965. Three weeks before the ceremony was scheduled his fiancee and childhood sweetheart was killed in an automobile accident.

He was still grief stricken when he arrived in Vietnam after a training stopover in Okinawa. An expert rifleman he was advanced to corporal in Okinawa and a few weeks ago was given an on-the-spot sergeancy in Vietnam.

Although Hodgson has been in four major operations in Vietnam he turned to cartooning — to help him forget what was not to be. He did his cartoons on scratch pads and turned them out wherever he happened to be —a pup tent or a fox hole. He enclosed them in letters home to prove to his parents, as much as anything, that he was on the beam.

The rest is history. Other people saw them and soon several syndicates were asking for the privilege of handling them.

Hodgson's strongest following is among the fighting men of his company. They tell him their gripes — enlisted men always have plenty — and he depicts them, and they love what he does.

Race Tradition To Be Preserved

BALTIMORE (AP) — The jockey-and-horse weathervane which topped the Members' Clubhouse at Pimlico Race Course for almost a century, will be preserved when a new structure is built to replace the clubhouse razed by fire on June 6.

The jockey on the weathervane was painted in the colors worn by the Preakness winner.

The blue-and-white colors of Mike Ford, carried by Kauai King in the 1966 Preakness, were still discernible on the weathervane after the blaze destroyed the Baltimore landmark.

Youth Found Safe In Cave

GLENNVILLE (UPI) — A Bakersfield youth, reported missing while hiking with friends at caves in a desolate area of Tulare County, was found early today in good condition.

Kern County sheriff's deputies launched a search for Maurice Maixner, 18, when his companions reported him missing at 11 p.m. yesterday. They had been exploring the Crystal Caves, 40 miles northeast of here, earlier.

School Delay Report Is Due

Fairafx School District trustees will receive a report on rain-caused delays in site development at the new White Hill School when the board meets at 7:45 p.m. today in the district offices at 58 Park Road.

The board will receive a request from music director J. D. Nichols to approve plans for Fairfax students to participate in three Bay Area music festivals in April. Nichols wants to take a clarinet quartet and a woodwind quartet to Sebastopol April 1, a chorus to Tiburon April 22, and a band to Napa April 29.

Trustee Fay Jensen will report on the California School Boards Assn. conference Dec. 7-10 in San Diego.

Appropriation Bill Introduced

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — An urgency appropriation bill has been introduced in the legislature to extend education aid to about 1,000 widows and children of dead and disabled veterans who have been denied benefits because of a shortage of funds.

Sen. J. Eugene McAteer, D-San Francisco, yesterday introduced the measure, which he said would add $457,000 to the current budget.

Packers Eye Jackpot In Jan. 15 Super Bowl Game

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — The Green Bay Packers, apparently sound of wind and limb after winning their fourth National Football League championship in six years, relaxed today amid the whiteness of Wisconsin's winter wonderland.

But the thoughts of some members were green:

—The green of the turf in Los Angeles Coliseum where they will meet the Kansas City Chiefs, champions of the American Football League, in the Super Bowl Jan. 15.

—The green of $15,000 guaranteed each man on the winning team in that game while each loser gets $7,500.

Each Packer earned an estimated $8,500 for defeating the Dallas Cowboys 34-27 in a thriller at Dallas Sunday for the NFL crown.

Packer Coach Vince Lombardi has called a meeting of the team for tomorrow. A club spokesman said workouts for the Super Bowl game will start Thursday.

The Packers plan to leave next Monday for the West Coast for practice sessions at a site which has not been announced.

The title game at Dallas, as exciting a contest as any in NFL annals, began with the Packers apparently headed for a rout and ended with Cowboys storming the goal line in an effort to push the game into sudden death overtime.

Green Bay took the opening kickoff and marched down the field, scoring on a 17-yard pass from Bart Starr to Elijah Pitts—the first of Starr's four touchdown aerials of the day. On the following kickoff Jim Grabowski picked up a Dallas fumble and galloped 18 yards for another touchdown.

The Cowboys, not losing their poise, tied the score at 14 in the first quarter and the grueling game proceeded on about even terms until the Packers worked to a 34-20 lead with only five minutes before the final gun.

But Dallas quarterback Don Meredith fired a 68-yard touchdown bomb to Frank Clarke and it was a new game.

Dallas gained momentum and

Chiefs Shrug Off The Underdog Role

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Kansas City Chiefs were beginning to come down out of the clouds today, but still were savoring the way they grabbed the American Football League championship.

"We'll meet this afternoon to look over the Buffalo game film," said Coach Hank Stram.

A study of that 31-7 victory for the title is necessary because the Chiefs must shape up for the Super Bowl against Green Bay Jan. 15.

There were some mistakes in the Buffalo game, and Stram said at the time the errors would wait a while with the score 31-7.

The waiting period is over The Chiefs can't afford mistakes against the Packers.

The Packers plan to start workouts Thursday and wait until Monday to go to the West Coast.

The Chiefs won't dally that long.

"We'll leave for Long Beach Wednesday morning and work out Wednesday afternoon at Veterans Field," Stram said. "I've talked to George Allen (Los Angeles Rams' coach) and he says the facilities there are fine."

The Chiefs wil live at the Edgewater Inn.

When told that oddsmakers had established the Chiefs as eight-pointed underdogs in the big money game, Stram brushed it off.

"I have no particular interest in such things," he said.

He said he had talked to Coach Vince Lombardi of the Packers.

"We agreed to exchange three films," Stram said. "We had our choice of the ones we wanted."

Stram chose Green Bay's games against Cleveland, Minnesota and the championship battle against Dallas. He said he had a special reason for the selections, but wouldn't reveal it.

Lombardi picked films of the Chiefs' games with New York, San Diego and the championship tilt in Buffalo.

The Chiefs are all in good shape except Fred Arbanas, all-league tight end, and Denny Biodrowski, relief guard.

X-rays yesterday showed Arbanas suffered a slight separation

ALONG MARIN'S SPORTS TRAIL

A Rough Weekend For The West; East Had Three-Hour Head Start

ENOUGH!—Phew! Pardon my videosyncrasies today but I've had enough football to last me for the rest of the year. And the frightening thing about it is that there are still two more weekends of bowl games; and the 1967 hasn't even started yet!

I never thought I'd see the day that I would be bowled over by too much football but early in the third quarter of last night's Orange Bowl—by that time up to my navel in reverses, draw plays, quick openers, traps, blitzes, etc—I snapped off the idiot box, retired to the Hay Bowl under living covers, and dreamed I went to the Nightmare Bowl in my Maidenform shoulder pads.

I STARTED off the long weekend innocently enough by attending the East-West game and spent the rest of the weekend trying to scheme a way to divert the Mississippi River. The boys from East of that geographical dividing line were so superior that at halftime I tried to switch channels until it dawned on me I was there. Then I went home and hid my 10-gallon hat, chaps, six-shooters and other western toys that Santa had left in my stocking.

San Francisco's presentation of How The West Was Lost, played under a brilliant sunShrine, was so disappointing that everyone went out that night and got drunk. It was a good thing it was New Year's Eve.

THE WEST scored its first down at 3:41 p.m., which isn't bad except the game started at 1:45. The visitors looked like they were playing in the Eastern Standard Time zone because they were about three hours ahead of us.

Busiest guy in Kezar was Michigan State's Dick Kenney, the bare-foot place kicker by way of Hawaii, who toed the ball 15 times, counting kickoffs, conversions and field goals.

I TRIED to scout 49er draftee Don Parker, the fine defensive end from Virginia, but the East spent so much time on offense the poor guy developed bottom bunions from warming the bench. However, I can report he had a very dirty uniform at the end of the game, which is always a good sign.

SUNDAY'S NFL championship proved to be the weekend's most exciting game as the Packers barely escaped a mighty upset. But, like their city's police department, the Dallas Cowboys made too many mistakes.

NEXT BEST game was yesterday's Rose Bowl in the tiny Hamlet of Pasadena which developed into a modern day version of Two-Be-Or-Not-Two-Be, That-Is-A-Thorny-Question. USC Coach John McKay's decision to gamble for the two-point conversion rather than settle for a tie showed a lot of class. That's the ONLY way to die, and besides, a tie just wouldn't look good on those maroon jerseys.

The Trojans, by the way, deserve an apology from every columnist who ridiculed their selection for the bowl. Today's luncheon menu in sports departments across the land is crow. Make mine Old.

MOST IMPRESSIVE college team over the weekend was Alabama in the Sugar Bowl. The 'Bammies also were the politest gridders for helping the outclassed Nebraskans to their feet after each tackle. But, then again, Alabama has a woman governor.

For sheer beauty on the Color Boob Tube, the Orange Bowl was the juiciest spectacle and I hated to quit before the end.

But like I said before, by that I'd had it. And I can hardly wait for the upcoming Hula, Senior, Playoff and Super Bowls. I'm a glutton for pun-ishment.

Purdue Winner By 14-13

By FRANK O'REILLY

PASADENA (AP — Purdue and Southern California, undistinguished throughout the season, remained consistent to the end, playing an undistinguished 60 minutes before 101,455 in the Rose Bowl.

Purdue won, 14-13 but USC provided the dramatics yesterday, scoring with 2:28 remaining and going for a two-point conversion, only to miss and lose the gamble.

Purdue Coach Jack Mollenkopf, whose Boilermakers were making their first start in the Rose Bowl, said: "This was my most satisfying victory."

But at the same time, Mollenkopf conceded: "We have moved the ball better."

Purdue, with star quarterback Bob Griese failing to baffle the rugged USC defense, compiled only 244 yards in total offense. Griese hit for 10 of 18 passes and 139 yards, but four completions came on a first-quarter drive stopped on the USC five-yard line.

Griese later directed Purdue touchdown marches of 57 and 37 yards, and fullback Perry Williams plunged across from the one and two yard lines.

Said Griese: "It was a great win, a great thing for the team, but I don't think I played a particularly good game."

Purdue came to Pasadena with an 8-2 record, including losses to the two outstanding teams it faced — Notre Dame and Michigan State.

Michigan State dominated an abnormally weak Big Ten, but the Spartans were here a year ago and Big Ten teams are ineligible to repeat in the Rose Bowl.

Southern California lost three of its last four regular season games, climaxing the year with a 51-0 humilation by Notre Dame. The Trojans' 14-7 loss to UCLA cast a shadow on their bid, granted because USC had one more Pacific-8 Conference win than the Bruins.

GRIESE CONTAINED

The Trojan defense contained Griese and the Purdue running game for the most part, but the offense, despite 323 total yards, failed on two critical occasions within sight of the goal line.

USC scored on halfback Don McCall's one-yard run and quarterback Troy Winslow's 19-yard pass to flanker Rod Sherman in the final minutes.

Said USC Coach John McKay: "I told my team I was proud of them. I think we played about as well as we can play."

But McKay conceded: "I can't say I'm satisfied. We were playing to win."

With Purdue's margin 14-13, McKay called a pass for the deciding two-point attempt. Winslow rolled to his right and threw toward halfback Jim Lawrence in the end zone. But Purdue back George Catavolos cut in front of the receiver and picked off the crucial throw.

McKay has no second thoughts: "I talked to the kids

Warriors In For A Tough Home Stand

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco Warriors begin a tough round of home games tonight and the pivotal point seems to be the still-questionable status of injured Rick Barry.

Coaches of the top team in the Western Division of the National Basketball Assn. did not say today whether Barry would play against the Boston Celtics tonight, 8:30 o'clock, at Civic Auditorium.

The high-scoring Barry has been out with injuries to both ankles, although he is reported to be improving rapidly.

The Celtics, although trailing Philadelphia by seven games in the Eastern Division, have a 27-9 season record and are 3-0 this year over the Warriors.

Thursday the Warriors will grapple with the improving Los Angeles Lakers at the Oakland Coliseum Arena. The Warriors are 4-0 over Los Angeles this season but may have a tougher time now that Elgin Baylor and Jerry West are completely healthy.

Friday the Warriors return to Civic Auditorium to play the St. Louis Hawks, second in the Western Division. And Saturday it's the Celtics again.

The Warriors currently have a fat 6½-game bulge in the Western Division.

GRAND PRIX CHAMP

Fast '67 Start For Mexico's Rodriguez

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP) — Pedro Rodriguez avoided problems that forced out his chief competitors and three former world champions and held on to win the South African Grand Prix yesterday.

The steady driving Mexican, in his Cooper Maserati, thus picked up nine points in the world championship standings in the first event of the 1967 racing season.

Rodriguez was one of only eight of the 18 Formula One starters to finish the 80-lap, 203.5-mile race on the Kyalami circuit. His time was two hours, five minutes 45.9 seconds, an average speed of 97.095 miles per hour.

John Love of Rhodesia, who relinquished the lead with seven laps remaining because of a fuel stop in his Coventry Climax, finished 26.4 seconds behind. John Surtees of England was third in a Honda.

Denny Hulme of New Zealand was fourth in his Repco Brabham after leading into the 60th lap before forced to stop for a brake fluid leak.

Defending world champion Jack Brabham of Australia finished sixth in his Repco Brabham after ignition trouble put him in the pits in the 41st lap when he trailed only Hulme.

Two other former champions, Graham Hill of England and Jim Clark of Scotland, both failed to last 22 laps because of mechanical trouble.

Bantam King Retains His World Title

NAGOYA, Japan, (AP) — Masahiko (Fighting) Harada of Japan made his third successful defense of his world bantamweight boxing championship today, pounding out a close but unanimous decision over Jose Medel of Mexico in a 15-round fight.

There were no knockdowns but Harada pressed the action most of the way, opening cuts over both the challenger's eyes. Medel cut Harada over the left eye in the fourth round and then was penalized one point for thumbing the cut in the 10th

That, however, did not affect the decision. Without deducting the penalty point, Japanese Ref-

Soph Sensation Paces Florida To Orange Bowl Win

By RON SPEER

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Coach Ray Graves says Florida's football team finally has proven it belongs in the big time, and the Gators have a young halfback who should be able to keep them there for the next couple of years.

The Gators have had only one losing season in seven years under Graves, but they never have won a Southeastern Conference title and until last night never had won in a big bowl except at the Gator Bowl.

"A lot of people wondered if Florida was a big enough team for this kind of a bowl game, and I think we showed we are," Graves said after the Gators whipped Georgia Tech 27-12 in the Orange Bowl.

The victory gave Florida a 9-2 record for the season, and although the Gators lose Heisman Trophy winner Steve Spurrier, they have a youngster who may be able to take his place.

Smith rushed for a record 187 yards and raced 94 yards for the winning touchdown on the longest run from scrimmage in Orange Bowl history.

"Smith has been a good runner for us all year," Graves said after the victory. "About 15 times he has been within one shoe of going all the way, and this time he finally did it.

"That run couldn't have come at a better time," added Graves, who said that Spurrier had a sore arm and had missed practice because of distractions brought on by his Heisman award.

"Steve is still a great ball player, and he put that ball in the end zone for us just before the half when we really needed to get on that scoreboard," Graves said.

Trailing 6-0, Spurrier sent the Gators on a 66-yard drive capped by Graham McKeel's one-yard scoring plunge which tied the score, and Wayne Barfield kicked the point to put the Gators in front to stay.

Smith contributed his record touchdown dash in the third quarter, and the Gators wrapped it up in the last period with McKeel scoring again on a plunge and Harmon Wages passing five yards for a touchdown to Jack Coons.

Georgia Tech, which scored in the first quarter on a surge capped by Kim King's 10-yard scoring toss to Craig Baynham, cut the gap in the fourth quarter when reserve quarterback Larry Good scooted 25 yards for the last Tech touchdown.

Graves and Tech Coach Bobby Dodd both praised the Gators' defenses, which picked off four passes.

"Our defense played a great game," Graves said. "The pass rush was tremendous, and the secondary play was the best we have had in a long time."

Dodd, whose team completed only four of 22 passes for a total of 128 yards, said, "Florida's defense hurt us. It's a lot better than people thought.

"But I've said all along Florida's defense was the best part of their game."

Dodd, who was Graves' former teacher when the Florida coach worked at Tech, said the running of Smith was what beat the Yellow Jackets.

"Smith hurt us more than Spurrier did. Smith was terrific," Dodd said, "and he will be great later on."

Graves, whose teams were blanked the last three times they played Tech, said he thought the Gators' rugged pregame workouts paid off.

"I think we were in better condition," he said. "We got stronger as the game went on, and we came back to win."

The Gators had double workouts several days last week in secret drills.

Dodd, whose loss was only the fourth in 13 post-season games, said he was not yet ready to retire as Tech coach, although he left the impression he may step down in the future.

Asked about speculation that the game might be his last after 22 seasons at Tech's head coach, Dodd said, "When I decide to retire it will be properly announced."

The defeat left the eighth-ranked Yellow Jackets with a 9-2 mark for the season.

Medel Loses Nod In World Title Bout

eree K. Kato scored the bout 74-68 for Harada, and both Japanese judges, Haruo Ishiwatarido and K. Kashiwagi, had it for Harade 73-68 and 72-69.

The Associated Press had Harada the winner 72-71 without the one point penalty.

Both Lopez Sanchez, the Mexican's manager, and Medel agreed with the decision while questioning the penalty.

"Harade won without question on points," said Sanchez. "We didn't like the penalty point but that's the way the referee saw it and it can't be helped."

Medel, who at first secluded himself in his dressing room, finally came out and indicated satisfaction with the decision, saying simply, "It's okay."

As for the penalty point, Medel said, "I don't know why this was done."

When told it was for thumbing, Medel said that Harade had done the same.

Harada, forcing the action, opened a cut over Medel's left eye in the eighth round, but Medel's handlers were able to close the wound. However, a cut over the right eye bled from the 10th round on.

Harada, who wrested the 118-pound title from Brazil's Eder Jofre May 18, 1965, brought his record to 46-3-3 with his third successful title defense. Medel weighed 117¼ pounds, Harada 117¾.

Super Star Sparks Alabama

Perkins Is Hero In Sugar Bowl

By BEN THOMAS

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Nebraska's roly-poly Bob Devaney is going to have nightmares for a long time about Alabama's All-America end Ray Perkins.

The superb Alabama athlete — Bear Bryant calls him a "superstar" — spoiled not one but two bowl trips for Devaney and his Cornhuskers.

Perkins' last game as an amateur came yesterday in the 33rd Sugar Bowl Classic. Bryant's tiny Crimson Tide, outweighed 25-35 pounds per man, uncorked an awesome offense and a devastating defense to crush Nebraska 34-7.

Only one time in his 10 years as a college coach did a team ever score more points on a Devaney club.

Oklahoma State defeated Devaney's Cornhuskers 34-7 in 1962-his first season at the Nebraska helm. Devaney's 1957 Wyoming team, his first year there, was defeated 39-6 by Oklahoma State.

"Perkins hurt us more than anyone else," said Devaney after the crushing defeat.

On 'Bama's first play after receiving the kickoff, Perkins hauled in an aerial from Kenny (Snake) Stabler that covered 45 yards. It put the third-ranked Red Elephants on the Nebraska 27 and seven plays later Alabama had its first touchdown.

"We felt like we wanted to test them deep right away," said Stabler, a left-handed junior quarterback. "So I sent Ray down the left side on what we call a go route.

"He just ran under control for about 10 yards, faked inside and took off. I just laid the ball up there."

Devaney said it was no surprise because he had warned his players to expect the bomb on the first play and had 6-foot-1 Kay Carstens, a 190-pounder, covering Perkins man-for-man.

"Carstens is our fastest defensive back," said Devaney. "He let Perkins get a step on him and Stabler happened to throw a perfect pass."

WANTED REVENGE

A year ago, in Miami's Orange Bowl, the 6-1, 188-pound Perkins snared nine passes for 195 yards as Alabama whipped Nebrasks 39-28. Devaney and his Big Red wanted revenge in the Sugar Bowl match this year.

After the Sugar Bowl Perkins — told once by doctors he would never play again after a head injury as a freshman — signed a contract to play with the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League.

Perkins is ticketed to be the eventual replacement for the aging Raymond Berry.

"We don't give out information about how much Johnny Unitas makes and we don't give it out about our new signees," said Don Kellett, executive vice president of the Colts.

But a reliable source said the pact calls for Perkins to receive $250,000 and a three-year no-cut contract.

Perkins, redshirted his sophomore year because of the head injury, was drafted by the Colts and the American League Boston Patriots a year ago as a future.

He collected seven passes-all from Stabler — in the Sugar Bowl and accounted for 178 yards.

MOST VALUABLE

The slender Stabler nosed out Perkins for the most valuable player award. Stabler accounted for 218 yards passing, completing 12 of 18 tosses, and was also the game's rusher with 38 yards.

Bryant let senior Wayne Trimble, his reserve signal-caller, play much of the game.

" I thought it was my best game," said Stabler. "I think we could have beaten Notre Dame today."

Alabama wound up the regular season as the nation's only major college eleven with an unbeaten, untied record. But the Tide was denied its third consecutive national championship in The Associated Press poll.

Alabama finished third behind Notre Dame No. 1, and Michigan State, No. 2, the teams that played a 10-10 tie.

That means the Bear thinks they're better than his 1961, 1964 or 1965 squads, which won the national championship.

The Bryant legend was given another boost when his team came on the field for the kickoff. After three days of rain, it stopped minutes before game time and the sun actually peeked through the overcast for a few minutes.

"We prayed for rain," said Devaney. "We should have prayed for a driving rain."

Here's how the scoring went:

—Les Kelley ran in from the one after Perkins' 45-yard catch got the first Tide drive going.

—Stabler skirted left end for 14 yards and a touchdown after a 42-yard strike to Perkins.

—Steve Davis kicked a 30-yard field goal after Nebraska's Harry Wilson fumbled and Charles Harris scooped the ball up for 'Bama. This gave the Tide a 17-0 lead when the first quarter ended.

—Trimble drove the Tide 71 yards in 10 plays and raced around left end for the final six and a touchdown.

—Nebraska, faced with its first shutout in 56 games, got on the scoreboard on the first play of the fourth quarter when Churchich passed nine yards to Dick Davis.

—Stabler passed to Perkins for 45 yards and a touchdown to wrap up the scoring and Davis kicked his third extra point-giving him 10 for the day, the most by a single player in the game.

Not to be overlooked was the defensive play of Johns, a 6-1, 175-pound junior defensive back. He intercepted three passes to equal the record by Mississippi's Raymond Brown in the 1958 Sugar Bowl.

AND HOW WAS YOUR DAY?—Nebraska quarterback Bob Churchich's day was just miserable as he and the Cornhuskers were thoroughly demolished by unbeaten and untied Alabama 34-7 in the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans yesterday. Alabama's Louis Thompson (76) completes the wrecking job on Churchich by belting him for a loss during the long afternoon. (AP Wirephoto)

Georgia '11' Overpowers SMU Squad

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Georgia's football team, rated the best seen in Dallas in the collegiate season, flew home Sunday with a check forthcoming for $125,000 because the Bulldogs blasted Southern Methodist 24-9 in the Cotton Bowl.

Coach Vince Dooley said SMU made a fine game of it Saturday byt Coach Hayden Fry of Southern Methodisr had a different version—"They whipped us in every phase of the game."

Since Georgia led by as many as 15 points most of the time, Fry's version seemed to hit the nail more on the head.

The Southwest Conference, which furnishes its champion each year, wasn't exactly happy about it. It was the second straight year the conference lost in its own game.

Arkansas took a 14-7 thumping from Louisiana State a year ago.

The two teams each got $230,000. Georgia keeps $115,000 and then distribution of the remainder among members of the Southeastern Conference.

Southern Methodist retained $100,000 and figured in a split of the remainder with other members of the Southern Conference.

Stram Denies He Degraded Packers

KANSAS CITY (AP)—A statement quoting him as saying the Kansas City Chiefs would tear the Green Bay Packers apart in the pro football super bowl is "ridiculous," Coach Hank Stram of the Chiefs said today.

"I didn't say that to anyone," Stram said. "Obviously, I would never say such a thing."

GATOR BOWL

Little Strengthens His Draft Status

The bow-legged Sayracuse halfback was the individual star of the game and the most frequent topic of conversation, although Tennessee's smaller but quicker team won 18-12.

When the professionals hold their draft, Little is certain to be a high selection. So will Gary Bugenhagen, a all-America tackle from Syracuse who led blocking for the 330-yard combined production of Little and fullback Larry Csonka.

One of Tennessee's stars, end Austin Denney, already has joined the pros. He was a future selection last year-reflecting his redshirt status which put him one season behind his college class. Denny signed with the Dallas Cowboys an hour after the Gator Bowl.

But some of the stars of the Gator Bowl, which thrilled a record 60,312 crowd plus a national television audience, will be back to give their teams a nucleus for next season.

The most notable is Dewey Warren, Tennessee quarterback who threw touchdown passes of 24 yards to Kennedy and two yards to wingback Richmond Flowers, completing 17 of 29 for 244 lards.

Tennessee loses end Johnny Mills, who caught eight passes for 86 yards, and all-America linebacker Paul Naumoff in addition to Denny.

For Syracuse, Csonka, the pile driving fullback, has another year. So does quarterback Rick Cassata, hobbled by a knee injury in the game.

Little's rushing record of 216 yards erased a Gator Bowl mark that stood since 1948, when Lu Gambino of Maryland ran 175 yards in a 20-20 tie against Georgia.

Another record was broken Gary Wright kicked two field goals for Tennessee's first six points. Four players had kicked one field goal each in a Gator Bowl game and shared the old record.

Fullback Undergoes Surgery On Knee

Strong Russ Dominate World Hockey

WINNIPEG, Manitoba (AP) — "The way the Russians were shooting at me you'd think we were at war," sighed a perspiring Carl Wetzel.

The 28-year-old ex-professional, who tried out with Detroit in the National Hockey League in 1964, turned aside 43 shots by the precision-passing Russians in their first game of the centennial world hockey tournament yesterday.

But seven got by and the defending champion Soviets had an easy 7-1 victory and a tie for first place with Canada in the four-team, round-robin tournament.

Canada beat Czechoslovakia 5-3 Sunday and is the next opponent of the United States today.

"The Russians opened up strongly and they showed a good control of the puck," said Wetzel, who stopped 21 of 24 first period shots and 37 of 44 in the first two stanzas.

"I had a busy night, but I am still not happy with my performance. When you let seven goals go by you, you just don't feel happy about the way you're doing your job."

U.S. Coach John Mariucci called his opponents the strongest Russian team he had ever seen. He felt they would "hold their own in the National Hockey League."

The Mrs. Was Fed Up With TV Football . . .

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — After three consecutive days of televised college and professional football bowl games, this want ad appeared in today's issue of the Nashville Tennessean:

of the left shoulder, but Stram said he will be able to take part in the workouts and will be ready for the game.

"I'll play if Lamar Hunt (Chiefs' owner) has to buy me a new shoulder," Arbanas delared.

Biodrowski has lame ankles, just as he did two weeks before the Buffalo game. But he was ready for the title ontest and is expeted to be set for the Packer game.

While Green Bay had to fight off the determined Dallas Cowboys for a 34-27 victory and the NFL title Sunday, the Chiefs made a surprising rout of their battle at Buffalo.

The Buffalo Bills gained only 40 net yards rushing and were not inside the Chiefs' 48 in the second half.

Kansas City's Jerrell Wilson grabbed a Buffalo fumble on the opening kickoff and three plays later the Chiefs had a touchdown. That set the tempo.

Buffalo kept its poise and was driving for a touchdown that would have tied the score at 14-14 in the last minute of the first half.

From the 11, quarterback Jack Kemp fired a pass toward Bob Crockett, wide open in the end zone after defender Willie Mitchell slipped and fell.

That set up a field goal that made the halftime score 17-7, instead of 14-14. The Chiefs went on from there.

Stram put some new wrinkles in his offense and defense for Buffalo but he doesn't think he will for Green Bay.

"We changed against Buffalo because they've played against us so long they can read our formations as soon as we line up," Stram said. "We won't have the same problem against the Packers."

Green Bay Eyes Green Jackpot

with 2½ minutes remaining had a first down on the Packer two-yard line.

It was fourth down, 28 seconds and still two yards to go after Green Bay's defense held firm. Meredith rolled out to pass but Dave Robinson broke through and got a hand on Meredith, who managed to pull away and get rid of the ball.

Tom Brown, a former major league baseball player, leaped high and intercepted for the Packers in the end zone.

That was the money play of the game, and Green Bay ran out the clock.

"It was the biggest play I ever made," Brown said. "Don had to throw the ball. It was fourth down . . . when I saw that ball coming on that pass, it looked, oh, so nice . . ."

The Kansas City Coach Hank Stram was quoted as saying his team will "tear apart" the Packers on Jan. 15.

Told of this, Lombardi said, "Good for Stram. If he said anything else, I wouldn't have any respect for him."

When the Packer plane landed at Green Bay early yesterday someone in a welcoming crowd carried a sign reading, Lombardi For President In '68.

Guard Jerry Kramer summed things up in this fashion: "Every year you think winning this game can't get any bigger. Yet it does.

"With the Super Bowl ahead of us, winning this game was more important than ever. The money is unquestionably a big thing. But it's really more than that.

"We wanted to be in it. We like to think that we've been the symbol of the NFL over the last few years. And we want to win it for the NFL."

Great Quotes Of 1966: Durocher, DeWitt, Etc.

(With apologies to colleague Art Buchwald who beat me to the idea in print—but since I'm fresh out of interviews with lady bowlers or Egyptian hammer-throwers, I can't afford to throw away the notes—I bring you today "Great Quotes of 1966." If they didn't say them, they should have!)

Buzzie Bavasi, Dodgers: "Koufax quit? Don't make me laugh! What's he gonna do, drive a truck?"

ARNOLD PALMER, at the National Open: "Never mind Casper's score. He can't catch me. What was Hogan's record in this thing?"

LEO DUROCHER, Cubs: "No, no, you guys got it all wrong! What I said was, 'WISE guys finish last.' "

ART MODELL, Cleveland Browns: "Jim Brown turn actor? That's a hot one! What's he gonna play—British prime ministers? How many parts they got for a guy carrying a football?"

BILL DE WITT, Cincinnati Reds: "They'll give me Milt Pappas for Frank Robinson? Quick! Before they change their minds! They must be outta their heads!"

CLEVELAND WILLIAMS: "I may not beat Clay but I'll tell you one thing: he'll know he's been in a fight!"

UNNAMED UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS ALUMNI GROUP: "Look, you slip the kids a few bucks to play football. Big deal! Who's gonna find out about it?"

CASEY STENGEL, PATRIARCH: "I am asked to define the World Series, well, you have one team which is able to run which is all they can do, only you can't commence to run till you get to first base which everyone has forgotten, and now you have this other team which is the only thing they are able to do is to hit home runs which is a play where you can walk if you want to and Babe Ruth never broke no clocks and—what? The 1966 World Series? I'm talking about the 1913 World Series. Now, if you'll excuse the interruption which Edna does all the time only now I am on second base and it's the third inning and Masterson is hiding the ball—what? Christy Masterson, the great pitcher, the Big Eight . . . don't you know nuthin?"

ANY ONE OF A DOZEN LATE SPRINT CAR DRIVERS: "Whattaya mean 'danger?' Look, I'm safer in that thing than you are on the freeway any day in the week."

STARTER AT THE INDIANAPOLIS 500: "A 13-car pileup at the start? Are you kidding? There's 33 of the best and safest drivers in the world out there on that track! What are ya, a Communist?"

PRESS BOX "EXPERT": "I tell ya, there's NO way SC can go to the Rose Bowl. UCLA beat 'em fair and square. So what if they're conference champions? A technicality. Besides, what if Notre Dame beats 'em 20-0 next week? How would THAT look in the Rose Bowl?"

FIGHT "EXPERT": "Well, I don't know about Dempsey and Louis, but when you rate the great champions you got to put Sonny Liston right up there. And don't overlook Primo Carnera."

DAN REEVES, RAMS: "Waste a draft choice on Mike Garrett? Why? He's too little for pro ball. We saw the pictures."

WELLINGTON MARA, NEW YORK GIANTS: "A merger between the two leagues? Never! Not so long as I draw breath! We worked too hard to get this game where it is. Right, George? And don't try to bribe me with a first draft quarterback. This is a matter of principle!"

MAURY WILLS: "Look, Walter, you seen one Japanese shrine, you seen 'em all. Just tell the Emperor I got homesick for some poi. Why make a big thing out of it?"

BASEBALL COMMISSIONER WILLIAM D. ECKERT: "The grand old game continued to make outstanding progress during the old year and it is in this spirit that I want to wish each and every one of you a happy and prosperous 1897!"

And so I wish you all—a New Year!"

East Shrine Hero Talbott Favors Pro Baseball Life

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"We were told he wasn't much of a passer," related West coach John Ralston who received a big surprise when he watched North Carolina's Danny Talbott.

The quarterback hit the first 11 passes he threw, five each on two touchdown drives and another which led to a field goal, as the East jumped into a 17-0 lead en route to a 45-22 victory over the West at Kezar Stadium Saturday.

Even Duffy Daugherty, who coached the East, was surprised.

"We couldn't separate our quarterbacks in practice sessions and I told both Talbott and Benny Russell Louisville they would have an equal chance in the first half," Duffy said. "They did, but that Talbott connected for his first 11. That's a pretty good percentage, isn't it?"

The North Carolinian, who feel's he too small at 180 pounds for a pro football career so leans toward baseball, completed 18 of 24 throws for 211 yards and three touchdowns.

Point production for the East was the highest in the 42-year history of the Shrine charity game and the total of 67 also set a new record. Talbott's three touchdown tosses equaled the most ever for an East-West game.

He hit on plays covering 25 yards to Michigan State's Gene Washington, nine yards to Minnesota's Ken Last, and 14 to Michigan's Jack Clancy.

Notre Dame's Nick Eddy scored on two plays covering 49 yards each, the first a pass from Russell and the second a dash from scrimmage.

The West didn't get a first down until only five minutes were left in the third quarter and didn't score until the final period. East passers and runners piled up 513 yards for a record total and dominated the action before the crowd of 56,000 in Kezar Stadium.

Talbott received the William M. Coffman Trophy as the outstanding offensive player, Michigan State linebacker George Webster was awarded the Spaulding award as the best on defense even though he missed much of the second half with a rib injury.

"I don't think I deserved that much credit," said Talbott. "But I came here knowing I had my work cut out for me."

Daugherty termed the East squad the best he has ever coached in an all-star affair. Many of the players, but not including Talbott, now go to Hawaii for Friday night's Hula Bowl game.

Schollander Has Irish Swim Mark

BELFAST (AP) — Don Schollander of Santa Clara, Calif., competing in an international meet, set an Irish 400-meter freestyle swimming record yesterday in 4:29.7. The Olympic champion bettered the old mark by 16.1 seconds to beat Alan Kimber of England by two yards.

NEW

DEEP STEAM Wall to Wall Carpet Cleaning

This unique new process cleans deep and yet treats the finest carpet with loving care . . .

NEW

DEEP STEAM removes soil from both the pile of the carpet and the carpet backing. Since no brushes or scrubbing action are used, there is no distortion of the carpet pile. The powerful extraction action of the DEEP STEAM process lifts matted pile to "like new" appearance. The need of frequent professional cleaning is reduced because deeply embedded soil is removed and leaves no residue in the carpet fibers to collect dirt.

OLD

The old equipment with brushes, using liquid detergent or powder, scrubs the soil DEEPER into the fabric . . . and even with the help of a vacuum fails to remove soil or residue. The detergent or powder left in the fabric soon attracts more soil and it is not long before the soil works back to the surface. Soon your carpets appear more soiled than before!

THIS DEEP STEAM PROCESS IS GUARANTEED TO BE COMPLETELY SAFE ON ALL FABRICS UNDER ALL CONDITIONS!

The advantages of DEEP STEAM CLEANING are obvious!

MARIN LEAGUE OPENS FRIDAY

Ring-A-Ding Cage Race Is Predicted

Some of the pieces to what is beginning to look like a ring-a-ding jigsaw puzzle will start to fall into place this weekend as Marin County Athletic League conference basketball action starts in earnest with three loop battles on tap.

With no clear-cut favorite in sight, at least judging from pre-season records, MCAL foes will get an idea of how they'll fare against each other when pre-season favorite Tamalpais hosts surprising San Rafael, Marin Catholic takes on Novato and Terra Linda hosts Redwood.

Defending champion Drake takes a first-week bye from conference action but has two practice games to continue the sharpening up process.

Drake looms as a solid contender after back-to-back impressive victories over Salesian and Poly. The Pirates meet Santa Rosa at Santa Rosa today and tackle Salesian again at Drake Thursday.

Today is the last general warmup day for the remainder of MCAL teams as San Rafael visits high-scoring Petaluma, Terra Linda is at dangerous Vallejo and Novato takes on El Molino at Forestville.

Redwood travels to Westmoor for a non-conference clash tomorrow.

The three conference lid-lifters should at least answer several questions. Tam should find out if its role as conference favorite is something more than just a sham and if its pre-season showing of 1-8 is nothing more than prolonged growing pains. The Indians will get a good test from San Rafael, owner of a 6-4 pre-season mark and one of the top defenses in the league.

Up-and-down Redwood, which was down in its most recent outing, could be in for trouble against a deceptive Terra Linda squad that has three scorers in double figure averages. The Giants have a 7-5 record to the Trojans' 3-6 but it could be a lot closer than records might indicate.

Marin Catholic's youthful go-go gang should have an easy time of it against Novato, which is experiencing a very off year with a 2-7 record. The Wildcats, with four starters in double figures, lack only height and not much else. They are 6-4 on the season.

This week's cage schedule:

Today

Drake at Santa Rosa, 4 p.m.

San Rafael at Petaluma, 4 p.m.

Terra Linda at Vallejo, 3:45 p.m.

Novato vs. El Molino at Forestville, 4 p.m.

Wednesday

Redwood at Westmoor, 3:15.

Thursday

Salesian at Drake, 3:45.

Friday

College of Marin vs. Siskiyous at Weed, 8 p.m.

Marin Catholic at Novato, 8:15 p.m.

San Rafael at Tamalpais, 8:15 p.m.

Redwood at Terra Linda, 8:15 p.m.

Saturday

College of Marin vs. Shasta at Redding, 8 p.m.

A TESTIMONIAL FOR THE GYM CUSTODIAN

Pete Camporelli, San Rafael High School gymnasium custodian who retired last November after 18 years on the job, will be honored Jan. 14 with a testimonial dinner.

The testimonial will be at Nave Lanes, with no host cocktails followed by dinner at 7:30 p.m. Price is $6 and includes dinner, tax, tip and gift. Wives of friends are welcome, but reservations must be called to Nave Lanes.

Serving on the committee are Sam DiVito, Dr. William Cook, Dick Read, Pete Limm, Bob Muster, Paul Miller, Ang Colombo, Carl "Red" Brown, and Bill and Rich Nave.

Camporelli, who started working at San Rafael High in 1948, never missed a Bulldogs' football game, and would watch and cheer from the sidelines. He also was a timer for the school's basketball games.

Marin Catholic Has Best Practice Mark

Marin Catholic High School's basketball team, with four starters averaging 10 points per game or better, has the best non-league win-loss percentage among Marin Athletic League teams.

The Wildcats have won six of their nine games so far this season.

Top scorer so far is Redwood High School's Andre Horn with 191 points in 11 games, an average of 17.3 per game. Next in line are Drake's Chet Carlisle, 15.7 average, and Redwood's Jack Fitzhenry, 15.3.

Santa Clara Succumbs To Creighton '5'

SAN JOSE (AP)—Santa Clara built up a nine-point second half lead, but then saw it chipped away as visiting Creighton from Nebraska scored a 79-78 college basketball victory last night.

A 15-foot hook shot by Creighton's Jim Powers sealed the Apaches' eighth win of the season against two losses. Santa Clara is now 4-5.

Creighton jumped to an 8-2 early lead, held a 39-36 half time advantage, before Santa Clara rallied to build a 60-51 lead with 11:44 remaining in the game. Then Creighton took over again and Wally Anderzunas' 20-foot jumper with 2:14 to go closed the gap to 78-77, setting up Powers' winning shot.

Powers and Anderzunas led Creighton scorers with 20 points each. Bud Ogden of Santa Clara led all scorers with 24 points and teammate Ron Lane added 18.

Kansas Runner Nabs 5,000-Meter In Brazil

SAN PAULO, Brazil (AP)—John Lawson of Kansas won the 5,000-meter run in 14.39 flat last night in an international track and field meet sponsored by the Federation Paulista de Atletismo.

Lawson beat Bernard Marroquin of France by about 50 yards.

Novato Five May Surprise A Few Teams

(Sixth in a series of Marin Athletic League basketball prospects.)

By RALPH CHATOIAN

Novato High School's basketball team isn't about to win any championship this year but new coach Bill Aires feels his boys may come up with a surprise or two before the race is over.

Aires, who coached the Hornets' Class B team last year, is trying varsity competition for the first time. He's replacing John Panagakis who now is assistant cage coach at College of Marin under Cal Riemcke.

There isn't a returning starter for Novato this year and the inexperience, then improvement, shows. After losing their first seven practice games, the Hornets came back with two straight wins.

"Our big problem has been shooting," said Aires. "We didn't crack 25 per cent in the first six games and barely 50 per cent from the free throw line. Since then we have been around 40 or 41 per cent from the floor."

STARTING FIVE

Two players on last year's varsity team, both reserves then, will be among the starting five, 6-3½ center Tom Herrnberger and 5-10 guard Harold Fain, both seniors. The other guard, 5-10 John Howard is also a senior but had to sit out most of last season with a broken arm. Joining Herrnberger up front will be forwards Bob Tait, a junior transfer student from El Camino High in San Francisco, and Steve McNally, a sophomore up from the "B" team. Tait is 6-2 and McNally 6-1.

Howard is doing most of Novato's scoring, averaging about 12 points per game.

The sixth man on the squad is guard Frank Perachiotti, a senior who sat out last year after playing "B" basketball as a sophomore. Aires was counting on guard Bob Anderson, No. 2 scorer in last year's MCAL Class B division, but he has been advised not to play by his physician because of a skin ailment.

HORNETS IMPROVING

"I'm glad we're playing a lot of practice games," said Aires. "We're improving quite a bit. We'll be better in the league than we were in the Drake Tournament." The Hornets lost all three of those tourney games, to Balboa, Drake and Terra Linda.

Aires feels it will be a well-balanced league, but picks Marin Catholic, Redwood, San Rafael and Tamalpais to fight it out for the title. "A team will be able to win it with as many as three losses," said Aires.

Novato winds up its practice slate today with a game against El Molino High in Forestville, then opens the league slate Friday night against Marin Catholic, at Novato.

Novato's practice game record:

Novato		Opponent
37	Hogan	55
45	Vallejo	80
45	Sonoma	65
42	Balboa	66
37	Drake	42

A. P. BASKETBALL RATINGS

UCLA Still No. 1; Three New Teams Join Top 10

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The top two teams in college basketball — UCLA and Louisville — held onto their positions by winning tournaments while three other teams — Providence, Kansas and Bradley — climbed into the Top 10 by doing the same thing.

The latest Associated Press poll — based on games through Saturday night and announced today — shows Providence in seventh place, Kansas in ninth and Bradley tied for 10th with another addition to the select group Mississippi State.

They replace St. John's, N.Y., and Vanderbilt, which each lost once last week, and Michigan State, which lost twice.

UCLA received 38 of the 39 first-place votes cast by a national panel of sports writers and broadcasters. The Bruins extended their record to 8-0 with three victories in the Los Angeles Classic.

Louisville won three games in the Quaker City tournament for an 11-0 mark while North Carolina, which received the other vote for first, remained third with two non-tournament triumphs for a 9-0 record.

The Top Ten, with first place votes in parentheses, season records and total points on a 10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis:

1.	UCLA (38) 8-0	389
2.	Louisville 11-0	339
3.	North Carolina (1) 9-0	309
4.	New Mexico 0-1	215
5.	Houston 11-1	168
6.	Texas Western 8-2	108
7.	Providence 8- 2	93
8.	Cincinnati 8-1	92
9.	Kansas 9-2	51
10.	Bradley 9-2	44
	Mississippi State 8-0	44

NORTH CAROLINA SURPRISED

Princeton's Mighty Upset

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

The fastest guns in the East belong to Princeton and Coach Bill Van Breda Kolff has them firing on target.

The Tigers shot an amazing 65.5 per cent last night and knocked off third-ranked North Carolina 91-81 at Chapel Hill.

"This is a better team than the one Bill Bradley led to the NCAA finals two years ago," said Van Breda Kolff. "We have better balance than that team. Our kids like to shoot. They can shoot with anybody."

Princeton showed it could do that against the Tar Heels, who had won nine straight without a loss. The Tigers canned 35 of 55 shots from the floor and even North Carolina's 50 per cent average wasn't enough to keep up.

John Haarlow led the amazing accuracy show, hitting on 11 of 13 shots and finishing with 24 points. Joe Heiser added 19 and Chris Thomforde had 17.

Two other members of the Associated Press Top 10 won impressively while another was beaten.

Houston, ranked fifth, walloped Tennessee Tech 95-69 and New Mexico, fourth in the ratings, drubbed Denver 65-43.

Mississippi State, which made its debut in the poll by tying Bradley for No. 10, was beaten by Florida 63-54.

Larry Miller led North Carolina with 31 points but the Tar Heels missed the rebounding strength of 6-foot-11 sophomore Rusty Clark, who played only nine minutes because of intestinal flu.

Elvin Hayes poured in 26 points and grabbed a dozen rebounds, leading Houston to its romp over Tennessee Tech. The Cougars, who won their 10th straight and 12th in 13 starts, led by as many as 33 points and breezed to the victory.

New Mexico's aggressive defense limited Denver to 17 points in the second half and the Lobos ran their record to 10-1. Ben Monroe led the winners with 18 points and Mel Daniels added 16.

Previously unbeaten Mississippi State, which had won eight straight, couldn't handle Florida's height and the taller Gators beat the 10th ranked Bulldogs off the boards.

Florida snared 56 rebounds to 30 for the losers and David Miller's 19 points led the Gators' attack.

Dayton got 58 points from Glinder Torain and Don May in a 100-78 romp over Harvard. Torain scored 30 and May had 28 and 19 rebounds for the Flyers, who ran their record to 10-1.

Marquette shot a hot 58 per cent from the Floor and out-rebounded taller Brigham Young in an 81-70 victory. Bob Wolf led Marquette with 22 points while 6-foot-11 Craig Raymond had 20 for the losers.

"I never expect any team to beat us off the boards like that," said BYU Coach Stan Watts. Marquette grabbed 34 rebounds to 25 for the losers.

Wayne Huckle, a sophomore topped Virginia 75-71. Chip Chase led the losers with 20.

In other games, Rhode Island whacked Brown 81-59, Vanderbilt squeezed past Alabama 84-81, Georgia topped Mississippi 85-78 and Oklahoma City topped Texas Christian 92-83.

Market Shuts High In Debut Of 1967

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed higher today as it made its debut for 1967.

The market, however, was much stronger at the start than at the end. Trading began with a burst of buying which sent the list sharply higher. Then the pace slackened.

Prices held at high level for a while then slipped, cutting the gain considerably.

Volume for the day was estimated at 5.5 million shares compared with 11.33 million Friday.

Prices rose at the opening in a burst of heavy trading then kept the better part of their gains as dealings slowed considerably.

The removal of yearend tax-loss selling took the brakes off prices which had been declining for the last four sessions of 1966. The 1967 market struck a bright note at the start.

Boeing loomed as the most active stock, boosted by an opening block of 100,000 shares on which it advanced 3⅛ to 68¾. The company's design for the supersonic air transport (SST) was chosen above Lockheed's. Boeing trimmed its rise by about a point. Lockheed sank about 4 points.

General Electric, picked to produce the engine for the SST, was up nearly 2. Fairchild Hiller, a major subcontractor for the SST, made a similar gain.

Beckman Instruments was off a fraction, recovering partially from a 1-point loss on a 55,500-share block.

Steels widened early gains. U.S. and Republic Steel advanced about 2, Bethlehem about 1½, Jones & Laughlin more than a point.

Xerox gained 7, Polaroid 4 and Du Pont 3.

Up about 2 were Zenith, Anaconda, Union Carbide, Control Data and Liggett & Myers.

M-G-M gained 1 at 38½ on a block of 16,200 shares.

Prices were mostly higher in active trading on the American Stock Exchange.

Baltimore was the first American city to replace its horse-drawn trolleys with electric streetcars, a change made in 1885.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

Long-Term Stocks Among The Best

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Q. "We are in our early 60s with plenty of cash reserves. We bought Gillette in 1951 and through stock splits we now own 1,200 shares. Should we add to this holding? Should we buy more stock now, such as Minnesota Mining & Mfg. and Flying Tiger? Our objective is both growth and income." A. A.

A. I congratulate you on your strong position in Gillette. Your 900 per cent gain in this stock shows very clearly why buying for long-term growth is the best policy for most investors. You mention no other holding, so I assume that Gillette represents your entire portfolio. If that is so, I would not add more shares, but would gradually lessen my dependence on a single issue.

For this purpose, I suggest Cnsolidated Foods and American Home Products. Since the market outlook at present is pretty uncertain, I would not dip too heavily into cash reserves. Flying Tiger is too dependent on military business and is a stock for speculative gains rather than growth. Instead, I recommend Plough, Inc., a consumer stock.

Q. "I am a widow looking for more income. What do you think of Public Service Electric & Gas; Columbia Gas and Seaboard Air Line?" M. L.

A. I believe your first two choices are excellent income stocks. Their growth rate has been moderate, but Public Service and Columbia provide stability, safety and a good return. Both utilities provide satisfactory yields. Although Seaboard's dividend looks secure and a proposed merger with Atlantic Coast Line is encouraging, I would rather see you in a stronger, more stable situation such as Union Pacific, currently offering a substantially higher return.

Glass Containers Show Price Decline

NEW YORK (UPI) —The U.S. Department of Labor's price index for glass containers stands at 99.2, compared with 100 for the base period of 1957-59. During the intervening years the level has never exceeded 102 and has been as low as 96.5. In this same period the cost-of-living index rose 14 per cent.

According to Richard L. Cheney, executive director of the Glass Container Manufacturers Institute, industry advances in production machinery and technology have kept the bottle and jar highly competitive in the packaging market and made possible the record of price stability.

For Builders, 1966 Was Year Of Ups, Downs

By DAVE SMITH

NEW YORK (AP)—For builders, 1966 was the best of times and the worst of times. The construction industry as a whole set records, while one sector — home-building — entered its worst slump in two decades.

The U.S. Commerce Department estimated outlays for all construction at a record $75.9 billion, a sizable gain over the $68.5 billion spent in 1965.

But privately financed housing construction, expected to jump from 1965's 1,425,000 units to 1,515,000 in 1966, plummeted instead. The year's total of 1.2 million housing starts was that low only once before since World War II—in the 1957 recession.

And in October, the seasonally adjusted rate of housing starts dropped to 848,000, a 20-year low. The previous lowest annual rate of starts since World War II was 957,000, in November 1964.

The 1966 growth in dollar volume was larger than expected, despite the housing sag, partly because of a 32 per cent expansion in industrial construction, but also because of climbing building costs, economists said.

For 1967, they predict a slight boost to $76.1 billion in dollar volume but cuts in physical volume in building. In all, considering government efforts to bolster the housing market and cutbacks in public building, the Commerce Department says, "both private and public outlays will level off in the coming year."

The home-building recession was created, economists said, as a somewhat ironic by-product of a generally booming U.S. economy. Savings and loan firms, which normally underwrite about one-third of the nation's building mortgages, found safer investments elsewhere than among the smaller, higher-risk builders who normally form a large part of their clientele.

Scores of smaller builders went out of business as credit tightened on them, and the National Association of Home Builders estimated late in the year that one of every six contractors in the nation would be engaged in other work before the tight money situation eased in 1967.

Finland's Austerity Balances Its Trade

The trade deficit was cut 61.4 finnmarks (more than $20 million) in the first nine months of 1966. The export total for the period was 3.6 per cent over the corresponding period of 1965, while imports rose only 1.7 per cent.

Roy Peterson Opens Personal Service Co. In San Rafael

A new enterprise of Roy J. Peterson of Novato is Personal Service Co., handling a line of products such as rug cleaners, deodorants and sanitary preparations for sale direct to the consumer.

Peterson has set up an office at 503 D Street, San Rafael, from which point he expects to have representatives covering the entire county. And eventually he intends to spread his service throughout the Bay Area.

This is quite a departure from his previous activities as a blasting contractor. He has done blasting in Greenbrae, San Rafael, Marin County Civic Center and many other Marin areas and has worked with the government on atomic explosions.

LIGHTS OF SAN RAFAEL, INC., 118 Jacoby Street, San Rafael, has been appointed Marin County distributor for Virden Lighting Co., one of the largest firms of its kind in the country, and is now displaying table lamps in addition to other electrical fixtures. The firm is also featuring original paintings by Mary Ellen Wehrli and Judith Peyrat.

A. LESLIE PALMER of Mill Valley has been appointed branch manager for P and O Lines in Miami. He has been the steamship company's tour and interline manager — in service with the firm for 12 years. After his tour of duty in Florida he plans to return to Mill Valley where he has lived for the past three years. His appointment is effective Jan. 9. His wife and family will join him in Florida in March.

PAUL C. HOLTER of Kent Woodlands has been appointed executive vice president of Drake Publications, San Francisco, which plans to open another office soon in Los Angeles. Holter was previously western sales manager of the NBC Radio network and before that was affiliated with KCBS, San Francisco and Avery-Knodel, Inc.

W. R. DAVENPORT of Lucas Valley has been appointed Northern California sales coordinator for Metro Transit Advertising. He was previously sales manager in San Francisco.

A SEMINAR for executives of companies planning or conducting business operations in Mexico will be presented by University of California Extension on Friday and Saturday, Jan. 20-21, at the Fairmont Hotel in San Francisco. The conference will feature three panels of Mexican business leaders and technical experts who will survey Mexico's economy, markets and resources. Meetings will be held all day Friday and through lunch on Saturday—both days from 9 a.m. Registration is $125 and should be made as early as possible through the U.C. Extension's business administration department in Berkeley, as the size of the class is limited.

A REPORT from the Better Business Bureau of San Francisco notes that there has been unauthorized billing in the North Bay area for "renewal" of an advertisement in a building trades directory. Union officials of the AFL-CIO Construction and Building Trades Council say there is no agreement with them to publish a directory. Check out any such billing before you pay it. I seem to recall that this has happened in Marin before.

THE PENNEY STORY

"One eye on quality; one on price"

By ROBERTA NASH

More often than not, in a store's newspaper advertising, the emphasis is on the price of merchandise, for this is the news that readers want to know.

But the Penney people want to be sure you understand that this emphasis on price in advertising does not represent the thinking within the Penney organization. The thing that makes Penney wheels go round is value, or what you get for that low price.

"We have to keep one eye on quality and the other on price," one of our buyers said to me. "Every sale we make today is designed to bring the customer back tomorrow."

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

Mathematical Fiends May Not Always Pick The Proper Play

Some players take pride in computing that this play is better than that play by one-half of one per cent, or some such margin.

The practical player disregards such slight differences: he gives the opponents their best chance to make a mistake.

Opening lead — ♠ 4

The mathematical type would take the first trick with the ace of spades and lead out the ace of diamonds.

His best theoretical chance is to drop a singleton king of diamonds and then decide what to do about the clubs.

SMART PLAY

The practical player takes the ace of spades and immediately returns the queen of clubs.

There is a fine chance that West will not play the king.

From West's point of view, it seems that East has the ace of clubs; and West wants his partner to take the first club and return a heart.

If West refuses the first club, South leads a spade to dummy and takes the diamond finesse.

The rest is easy.

Even if West takes the first club, he will probably lead another spade rather than shift to hearts.

CONTINUES CLUBS

Dummy wins with the king of spades, and our practical declarer leads the ten of clubs from dummy.

This time East will probably play low, assuming that his partner has the ace of clubs.

After all, how can either defender assume that South has led the queen of clubs from A-Q-x?

If dummy's ten of clubs holds, declarer switches to diamonds.

At worst, East will cover the ten of clubs with the jack.

South takes the ace of clubs and must hope for a 3-3 break in clubs. He can lead out the ace of diamonds to see if the king drops.

When it does not, he leads a club to the nine and cashes the last club to get rid of his losing heart.

Very few opponents would make a defensive error if they could see all of the cards.

In actual play, nine opponents out of ten would misdefend this sort of hand.

DAILY QUESTION

Partner opens with one diamond, and the next player passes.

What do you say?

ANSWER: Bid one heart with a sensible, sound partner. Pass with the general run of partners.

You have only 5 points in high cards and you may wish to count something for the doubleton as long as you have three-card support for partner's diamonds.

This is just about enough for a borderline response with a conservative partner.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, Jan. 3, the third day of 1967 with 362 to follow.

The moon is in its last quarter. The morning stars are Jupiter and Mars. The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

Comedian and pianist Victor Borge was born on this day in 1909.

On this day in history:

In 1777, troops led by George Washington defeated three British regiments at the battle of Princeton, N.J.

In 1938, the March of Dimes campaign to fight infantile paralysis was organized.

In 1966, Marguerite Higgins, U.S. woman war correspondent, died at the age of 45, as the result of a "bug" she picked up in Vietnam.

A Thought for the Day — Humorist James Thurber said: "Humor is emotional chaos remembered in tranquility."

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey, Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

The column of heights gives the elevation in feet of each tide above or below the plane of Coast Survey chart soundings. The depths are always additive to the chart depths unless preceded by a minus sign (-), when the numbers are subtracted from the depth given in the chart. Never Point A Weapon Unless You Aim To Kill

In a gay, holiday mood, 7-year-old Denice Marie Sanders ran up to her father and said teasingly: "Shoot me, Daddy."

In the same spirit of play, the father picked up one of two .22 caliber pistols—the one loaded with blanks—and fired in the direction of his daughter. A live bullet hit her in the chest, and the little girl was dead in a few hours. The father had picked up the pistol loaded with live ammunition, thinking it was the one with the blanks.

This holiday tragedy occurred in Griffin, Ga. Similar tragedies involving guns are re-enacted in almost every other community throughout the country.

In Marin County, the number of incidents involving guns usually takes a sudden jump after Christmas. It's the time of year when youngsters are out in force, armed with pellet guns and 22's, which doting parents and a generous Santa Claus brought them for Christmas.

B-B guns and pellet guns are not given the respect they deserve. Pellets can cause blindness or permanent damage if they should strike an eye or shatter eyeglasses and send fragments into the eyeball.

And more important, the lack of respect for and carelessness in the handling of pellet guns is carried over when a youngster graduates into .22 rifles and more high-powered weapons.

That father in Georgia was setting a dismal example for youngsters when he agreed to point a weapon at his daughter, even if the weapon had been a plastic toy. He should have given his daughter a gentle reprimand for even suggesting gun play. Had he taken those precautions, she would undoubtedly be alive today. So would the hundreds of others who are killed and maimed in gun accidents each year.

Even those who play cops and robbers with toy weapons are not too young to be reminded of the dangers of guns.

And certainly, if they are to be entrusted with pellet guns and .22's, their parents should give them specific instructions: Never point the muzzle at any human being; never point toward passing cars, or even in the direction of a highway.

Any infraction of the rules of safety should bring immediate confiscation of the weapon.

A suburban community like Marin cannot afford to permit its young gun handlers to learn by trial and error. In the field of weapons safety, there should be no compromise.

The old Army sergeant's admonition to young trainees is still the soundest approach: "Never point your gun at another person unless you intend to kill him."

THREE MINUTES A DAY

By JAMES KELLER

BOY, 18, SELF-TAUGHT ARTIST

A teen-ager who has never studied art sells his paintings to collectors and his advice is eagerly sought by other artists.

The 18-year-old boy, who has been painting seriously for only three years, found that his landscapes, seascapes and still-life oils are being appreciated by judges of art exhibits and art show patrons in New Jersey and Pennsylvania.

The talented high school senior credits a junior high teacher with developing his interest in art. "When I was 12, my seventh grade teacher gave me a piece of canvas. She was the best teacher I ever had, not only for developing my interest in art, but for opening up a lot of new doors. She was the greatest."

The efforts of teachers, parents and religious leaders to imbue young people with high ideals do pay off, even though direct results are seldom seen.

Cooperate with the Lord by making the most of the opportunities He provides to inspire boys and girls.

Monagan May Push His Plan To Keep Legislators Busy

By HENRY C. MacARTHUR

SACRAMENTO (CNS) — No doubt a very unpopular fellow will be Assemblyman Robert Monagan, R-Stockton, should he pursue his expressed intention of demanding that legislators get to work for a change.

The San Joaquin legislator announced he intends to demand a five-day week, in view of the fact that the people voted legislators a raise in pay from $6,000 a year to $16,000.

For the last couple of years, legislative sessions have been held for the least time possible, in accordance with the rules of the two houses, which permitted recesses normally for not longer than three days.

THIS MEANT the legislature could assemble on a Monday afternoon, hold a brief session and prepare for work on Tuesday and Wednesday.

On Thursday, the general practice was to meet early in the morning, and adjourn for the weekend. This gave the legislators all of Friday, Saturday and Sunday, and the biggest part of Monday and Thursday off, leaving only Tuesdays and Wednesdays for serious work on the floors of the two houses.

IT HAS BEEN common observation around here for some time that the legislative matters affecting the state could be disposed of in a lot less time than normally is taken by the legislature. However, there are arguments both for and against ultra-sonic legislation.

Almost all legislators feel postponements of action are meritorious to give the people of the state, and their advocates at the legislature, sufficient time to offer their opinions on what should be done with proposed new and changed laws.

On the other side, the argument is made that no matter how long a time there is for consideration, the end result will be the same, and it might as well be disposed of immediately.

THE LEGISLATURE has been effective in working out comparison between the two schools of thought, and because of this compromise, better legislation results.

But the fact remains that the course of legislation could be speeded if legislators spent more time in committees and on the floor of the two houses.

In addition to requesting more time, Monagan also plans to request that most of the committee meetings be held here.

In the past, it has been the theory of some committees that the members should meet in various parts of the state to take problems to the people rather than have the people bring their problems to Sacramento.

ACTUALLY, MONAGAN points out, one of the cogent reasons for holding committee meetings in distant places is to collect mileage and expenses, which add to the legislative income.

Heathen Rites Part Of Christmas Lore

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In a workaday world, it is well known that we pause and give thought to reverential things, and celebrate the Nativity of Jesus Christ, a great spiritual leader.

Nobody knows, however, within a span of years, when Jesus was born. Even the ecclesiastics admit this. The Gospels say nothing about the day of Christ's birth, and the early Church did not celebrate it. In time, however, the Christians of Egypt came to regard the sixth of January as the date of the Nativity, and the custom gradually spread, until by the Fourth Century it was universally established in the East.

What led to the change of date from Jan. 6 to Dec. 25? A Syrian, himself a Christian, wrote: "The reason why the Fathers transferred the celebration of the sixth of January to the 25th of December was this. It was the custom of the heathen to celebrate, on the 25th of December, the birthday of the Sun, at which time they kindled lights in token of festivity. In these festivities the Christians also took part. When the doctors of the Church perceived this, they resolved that the true Nativity should be solemnized on that day."

The heathen origin of Christmas was tacitly admitted by Augustine, when he exhorted his Christian brethren not to celebrate that day, as did the heathen, because of the sun, but because of Him who made the sun. There is no doubt that other customs and beliefs of the Christian Church were borrowed from heathen religions, such as the Virgin birth and the Easter resurrection. This holds true of all religions. None had spontaneous birth; all evolved from older faiths. "Nihil ex nihilo" (Nothing comes from nothing).

Civil Liberties Union Cartoon Criticized

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Your editorial cartoon of Dec. 22 caricaturing the American Civil Liberties Union as opposing Santa Claus is really inappropriate for a family newspaper. Aside from the blatant misrepresentation of the ACLU position, it would seem to be a negation of the public interest to heap scorn on a defense of the First Amendment to our Constitution. Regardless of intimidation attempts, the ACLU will continue to oppose all attempts to break down this wall of separation between church and state. The founding fathers of our country were fully aware of the corrupting and divisive influence of government intrusion into religious affairs and vice versa.

Despite the passions of the season, far-sighted men of goodwill must realize that bending the Constitution in this area can only serve to erode the civil liberties of all, including the majority.

Abortion Battle Betrayal Is Charged

Editor, Independent-Journal:

To Be Or Not To Be? (Abortion And Distortion!)

This is the burning question that remains unanswered in Marin County after a long and bitter encounter with evil and corruption in high office.

Evilness came into our community, not clandestinely or deceptively, but boldly and defiantly. It rode in well announced by eager trumpeters heralding the cry, 'what makes news makes money'! However, once the evil beast was uncovered for all to see and began to spew forth its fire and death, one of the trumpeters recoiled at this incredible curse and made an attempt to halt its advance by printing an appeal to both the citizens and the authorities to judge the monster as it in fact had asked to be judged—guilty! This warped monster admitted its malevolence, danger and incompatability with the community's laws for safety and decency.

In desperation, an alarmed delegation of citizens went a-knocking at the door of the Lord-High-Prosecutor. At first, he refused to hear the pleas of his electorate. But when a knight (with whom he had recently done battle) appeared at the palace gate to press for entry, the Prosecutor reluctantly admitted him and some few delegates lest a greater battle ensue and the office he held by the vote of his subjects be in jeopardy.

He said he was concerned about the monster in his midst, was shocked at the vulgarity and licentiousness and was amazed at the bold attempts to undermine the community's Hippocratic graduates by blatant quackery. Yet, on the eve of the third onslaught by the evil monster, the Prosecutor had not yet gathered sufficient evidence and/or spent sufficient time to speak to his electorate on the impending doom. This was really inexcusable, since for more than a fortnight he had at his disposal all the services of citizen paid sleuths and auditors. So, the monster moved on and over and in and through the community, gnashing and lashing and jeering while the Lord-High-Prosecutor cowered behind the fortress of his elected office and fiddled while the city was ravaged by the monster . . . Capitulation came, not by consent of the governed, but by betrayal at the hands of the Lord-High-Prosecutor! If the absolute power of this office is so great that it tends to corrupt, should we not act before that power corrupts absolutely?

Easier Abortions—Crime Vs. Nature?

Editor, Independent-Journal:

In regards to the abortion issue it has been argued that "the right to control one's own body is a civil right." (In this case it's the right to kill.) The right to life takes precedence over this because it is the most basic right. This is why the law protects the unborn infant. The Supreme Court has acknowledged certain rights of these most helpless humans.

The Beilenson bill, a proposed alternative to the present protective laws provides no age limit as to when the unborn child can be destroyed. Conceivably a few days before birth would not be too late to get rid of this "burden to society."

This is a crime against nature and is against all principles of our culture and as such should be of concern to all segments of our society.

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Ike's Proposed Federal Changes Are Exciting And Reasonable

WASHINGTON — Dwight D. Eisenhower — radical, innovative, downright unorthodox?

These are not the adjectives which quickly come to mind in trying to describe the most popular and widely esteemed Republican leader of our time.

But how are you going to describe this restless, energetic conservative with humane instincts who calmly advocates a series of exciting proposals to change the Constitution and structure of the Federal government?

IKE APPARENTLY isn't afraid of change. We shouldn't be either. Here's what he proposes:

Make the terms of members of the House of Representatives four years instead of two, the election to be held the same year as the President's.

Put a 12-year limit on the maximum service of both Senators and Representatives.

Service for Federal judges, including the Supreme Court, should be limited to 20 years in the same court, and retirement on full pay should be automatic at 72.

THE NATIONAL elections should be held in late September and the President inaugurated Nov. 1, more than two months ahead of the convening of Congress.

Two new Cabinet posts should be created by Congress—Secretary for International Coordination and Secretary for Business Management, the latter being a more powerful Bureau of the Budget.

In setting out these suggestions in the January Reader's Digest "to make the government work better," General Eisenhower frankly says he is no expert. But he has credentials which only two others possess — President Johnson and former President Truman. Only these three can speak from experience and, as Ike says, he "lived with the problem" for eight years.

IT SEEMS TO ME that, for the most part, these proposals make a lot of sense. Ike's supporting arguments are not theoretical; they are all drawn from the way he found things from inside the White House.

On extending the terms for House members to four years, the two ex-Presidents agree. Mr. Truman made the same proposal a few months before he left the White House and President Johnson also favors it.

Ike's "most important argument" is that electing a four-year House on Presidential years would reduce the danger of divided government with Congress controlled by one party and the Presidency by the other.

SUCH AN arrangement, he contends, "would enhance party responsibility and bring about a far more efficient working relationship between the executive and legislative branches of government."

Ike is apparently alone, as far as the top political leaders of both parties are concerned, in advocating a 12-year limit on Senate and House Service. He believes such a limit would make Congress "more efficient, more realistic, more responsive to the needs of the nation" and he argues that it is better that public office not be viewed as a lifetime livelihood.

On the 20-year limitation on judicial service, General Eisenhower's view is that "when a man is removed permanently from the mainstream of life, his opinions and actions are likely to become inflexible." This is why he would have more judges serve shorter periods.

THE EISENHOWER proposal which is most persuasive of all to me is to advance the national elections so a President can be inaugurated earlier and thus give a new Administration a longer period to orient itself from inside the government, before having to lay out its State of the Union program to Congress. As it is now a new President has only two weeks in office before having to present a budget and a detailed legislative agenda.

Two weeks is woefully inadequate. I would think that the second Tuesday in October would be a good time for the election. This would keep the campaign out of the summer and would also encourage a shorter campaign — which would be a blessing.

You can see why Ike always called himself a "modern Republican." He's open to new ideas.

INSIDE WASHINGTON

U.S. Watches Soviet Buildup Near Hanoi

By ROBERT S. ALLEN
and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON—Russia is putting more new missiles into North Vietnam.

In addition to numerous ground-to-air SA-2 missiles for use against U.S. planes, the Soviet is now delivering ground-to-sea coastal defense missiles, and speedy patrol boats armed with guided missiles.

U.S. reconnaissance planes have photographed the unloading of an estimated 50 coastal defense missiles in the past five weeks from Russian freighters at Haiphong, chief North Vietnam port.

THE "CRUISE-TYPE" coastal defense missiles, with an estimated range of 30-40 nautical miles, have a warhead capable of sinking warships of any size with a direct hit.

Radar installations for guiding the missiles are under construction in several coastal areas. The building of similar sites in Cuba preceded by about four weeks the actual deployment of these coastal defense missiles.

The Soviet missile build-up is the reason behind the recent unannounced change in U.S. policy under which warships were barred from bombarding shore targets in North Vietnam unless first fired on.

AT THE URGENT request of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, President Johnson lifted this restriction. Now U.S. destroyers can shell these missiles radar installations in an effort to keep them from becoming operational.

In one attack, the USS John Craig and the USS Hammer fired more than 2,000 5-inch shells at such sites. Since then, there has been no more work on these installations.

In patroling the Tonkin Gulf, U.S. warships also are keeping a close watch for several Russian-built Komar patrol boats earlier spotted in Haiphong harbor. After sailing from this sanctuary, the missile-launching boats disappeared.

Intelligence authorities believe the arrival of the new coastal defense missiles is linked to the shipment of 100 MIG-21s to North Vietnam. U.S. officials anticipate they will be used by North Vietnam to safeguard its coastal defenses and missile-armed patrol boats.

The Air Force and Navy are seeking President Johnson's authorization to bomb the five airfields on which the MIGs are based and a number of the "cruise-type" missiles are known to be stored.

SO FAR, White House policy has barred air strikes against these North Vietnamese bases. House Republican leaders have decided to support the growing move to bar rep. Adam Clayton Powell, D-N.Y., chairman of the Labor and Education Committee, from taking his seat in the new Congress.

This unannounced decision was disclosed by House Leader Gerald Ford, Mich., in a conversation with Speaker John McCormack, D-Mass.

Looking Back To Some Good Novato Happenings In 1966

Another year has started. In nature it started when the sun reached the farthest point south and slowly started returning north, making the days longer. In our outmoded and badly adjusted calendar, it started three days ago. In any event, a new cycle of life is starting, so it is always a good time to take note of a few things which have been accomplished and some that have not.

The North Marin County Water District took a giant stride in living up to its name. It no longer can be said to be just a Novato water district. It annexed an area in West Marin near Marshall. It is moving ahead to supply water and sewage to this area. This will take time, but the district is taking the first realistic steps in that direction by having an accurate engineering survey made of those two problems. This action alone has drawn the attention of another area to the south, and some of the residents of that area have petitioned to get into the North Marin district.

THE NOVATO SANITARY District has adopted a master plan which should serve as an accurate guide on how to develop their system to take care of the needs of the area when it has 200,000 population. It has ordered equipment and plant improvements to start implementing this plan.

The Novato Fire District completed its third fire station and has ordered an aerial ladder truck. The first will give better fire protection to the West Novato area. The second will give a fire fighting ability needed by the city and required by the Board of Fire Underwriters.

The City of Novato, now out of its infancy, is going ahead with a long range street improvement program as evidenced by the Diablo Avenue improvement, Center Road widening and new bridges on Novato Creek and Warner Creek. It has made its most noteworthy strides in the area of parks. The acquisition and improvement of the Arroyo Avichi Park, the Pioneer Memorial Cemetery Park and the Lions Park at Stafford Dam are prime examples.

HERE ARE SOME predictions and listing of unfinished projects:

The water district will probably go on with the annexation of areas in West Marin. With this development, it will push toward developing a dam on Walker Creek, the largest source of water in Marin County. Eventually one of the largest lakes for water conservation and recreation will be placed in the Tomales area.

The sanitary district will continue to develop to meet the needs of the Novato area. It is on a solid engineering start toward doing its share of cleaning up the waters of San Pablo Bay.

The fire district will probably go ahead adding equipment and stations to keep up with the high quality of fire protection which it has been giving the area.

The City of Novato has the largest problems facing it. The needs of the city are tremendous in the areas of street rebuilding and drainage. The council is also looking toward the day when it can buy the land and start a large civic center complex, but with finances in their present shape, it will probably be many years before this is realized.

IT HAS A FEW small projects still uncompleted which it should bring to completion in the near future. One of these is the landscaping of Highway 37 interchange. Another is the landscaping of the small area at the northwest corner of Grant Avenue and Highway 101. It also has a small annexation which it has not made. More than two years ago, the Novato Unified School District trustees voted to have the city annex the Loma Verde School property so that the city police protect all schools in the district. This has not been done yet.

The Novato Unified School District, although it has had setbacks in the past year, will continue to keep pace in its building program with the increase in the school population by the addition of another junior high school and high school.

Anti-Missile Race Seems Much Like A Game Of Liars' Dice

WASHINGTON — The Soviet Union and the United States are reportedly meeting in secret to discuss ways of not spending vast sums of money on anti-missile missile systems. The Russians claim to have developed such a system and in the next few months Secretary Robert McNamara has to decide whether the United States will build a system of its own which would cost billions of dollars.

THERE IS HOPE that some compromise can be worked out.

I happened to be in a Washington restaurant and overheard one of the discussions.

The American diplomat said, "You must understand, Mr. Sergivich, that my country is prepared to go ahead with our anti-missile program if your country goes ahead with yours."

"Aha, Comrade Smith," the Russian replied, "you cannot threaten us, because if you go ahead with your anti-missile missile program, then we will proceed with our anti-anti-missile missile plan, which will knock any anti-missile missile you develop out of the sky."

"I cannot give you the details," Smith said, "but we now have on the drawing boards an anti-anti-missile missile missile, which could destroy your anti-anti-missile missile before it even left the pad."

THE RUSSIAN said, "I'll see your three anti-missile missiles and raise you one. We have a four anti-missile missile that can knock a mosquito out of the sky."

The American looked at the Russian's poker face. "I think you're bluffing. I'll see your four anti-missile missiles and raise you two anti-missile missiles, making it a total of six altogether."

The Russian started to perspire. "Now, let me get this straight. You're betting six antis and seven missiles against my four antis and five missiles?"

"That's correct," Smith said.

"WHAT IF I told you we had an anti - anti - anti - anti - anti-anti-anti-missile-missile-missile - missile - missile - missile missile now in production?" the Russian said.

"And what if I told you that it doesn't bother us because we have an answer to it?" Smith said.

"You're cheating. You didn't say what it was."

"All right, I'll say it. Our answer is an anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile missile."

Smith could hardly catch his breath.

The Russian was smiling. "If you went ahead with that, we would have no choice but to go ahead with a weapon so powerful I hate to even think of it."

"AND JUST WHAT would that be?" Smith said.

"Do I have to tell you?" the Russian pleaded.

"If you don't, we won't believe you."

The Russian took a deep breath. "It's an anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - anti - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile - missile," he said, gasping for air. The American gave him a glass of water and the color started to return to the Russian's cheeks.

The Russian stared at the American. "Well, what is your response to that?"

"According to my calculations you left out one anti-, so if you fired the missile you would knock down your own weapons, instead of ours."

The Russian said, "It's impossible. I gave you nine antis and 10 missiles."

"I COUNTED," Smith said. "You only had eight antis. Why don't you try it again?"

"No! Not again," the Russia Russian cried. "I'm sure our countries could work out some other solution."

Only Cuts Suffered In Auto Accident

David Griffin, 18, of 10 LaBrea Way, Santa Venetia, suffered a cut nose when his westbound car skidded into a utility pole near 321 North San Pedro Road at 1 a.m. Sunday, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Officers said Griffin's car failed to negotiate a curve and sheared off the pole. Griffin was treated at Marin General Hospital.

Columnist Takes Long View Of It All

The column is entitled "Here Today, Here Tomorrow."

College Youth Reports He's Robbery Victim

A Corte Madera college youth, home for the holidays, told sheriff's deputies Saturday afternoon he was robbed of his wallet containing $40 in cash and $60 in checks by two youths in Marin City.

Brian H. Steadman, of University of California at Santa Barbara, said the two youths, about 17, asked him for 25 cents while he was hitchhiking to Sausalito, just south of the entrance to Marin City.

The youths were on the Marin City side of the fence separating the Highway 101 lateral to Sausalito from Marin City, he said. When he took out his wallet and started to check his change to find 25 cents, one of the youths grabbed the wallet and both ran, Steadman said.

Steadman said he was visiting his mother at 100 Edison Avenue, Corte Madera.

More Expansion Forcast For '67

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Commerce Department has forecast continued expansion by much of American industry during 1967.

At the same time, it said the volume of construction will drop moderately this year.

The annual "outlook" published by the department's Business and Defense Services Administration says 14 of the 78 industries accounting for 60 per cent of all manufacturing will grow by more than 10 per cent during 1967.

At least 99 of the 470 children aboard became sick with measles, chickenpox or mumps.

THANK YOU FOR 1966

The staff of William Timmer, Realtor, says thank you for 1966. This was a year in which the firm continued to grow and showed a total gross business of almost $8,000,000. For this business we are indeed proud and thankful.

Our team of 17 full time salesmen are experienced and knowledgeable in all phases of the real estate business, making us experts in the sale of homes, lots, businesses and investment properties. Our staff is anxious to meet you and analyze your real estate needs.

We look forward to a great year in sale of properties in 1967. Our reputation as Marin's Action Real Estate Office is borne out by the large number of properties sold last year, and the speed and efficiency in which they were sold. When people think of selling their home or other Real Estate in 1967, we hope that most of them will want William Timmer, Realtor, to sell it for them.

You should know these FACTS about HOME BUYING
in today's market . . .

HOME PRICES AND INTEREST RATES WILL PROBABLY GO HIGHER!

Reliable economists are predicting home prices will be up 20% by 1970. Interest rates, which are high now, will surely not go down, but may get even higher. Home ownership is a great hedge against inflation, and there is a good variety of attractively priced homes on the market. This is a GOOD time to buy, and financing is available. Don't let "scare talk" keep you from having a better home.

Call Your Realtor Today!

SECTION A
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
Bid No. 257-A
(Advertisement)

1. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the San Rafael School District of Marin County will receive bids for the furnishing of all labor, materials, transportation and services for the construction of the 1966 Additions to Coleman School, consisting of one two story building, appurtenant facilities and site improvements, at Rafael Drive and Belle Avenue, San Rafael, California.

2. Each bid to be in accordance with the plans and specifications now on file with Richard C. Marshall, Chester Bowles, Jr., Architects, A.I.A., 1045 Sansome Street, San Francisco, California, where the same may be examined and copies obtained upon deposit of ($25.00) (twenty-five) dollars per set, which deposit will be refunded upon the return of such copies in good condition within five days after the bids are opened.

3. Each bid shall be made on a form to be supplied by the Architect, and must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check in the amount of $7,000.00 or a Bid Bond in the amount of 10% of the total contract price made payable to the order of the San Rafael Clerk of the Board whose address will be Third and E Streets, San Rafael, California, prior to 11:00 A.M., January 10, 1967 at which time they will be publicly opened and declared.

4. The above-mentioned check will be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into a contract if awarded the work and will be retained by the District as agreed and liquidated damages if the successful bidder fails or refuses to enter into said contract or to furnish the necessary bonds after being requested to do so by the Board of Education of the San Rafael School District.

5. The successful bidder will be required to furnish a labor and material bond in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price in accordance with the contract documents.

6. Bidders are hereby notified that pursuant to the Statutes of the State of California, the Board of Education of the San Rafael School Distirct has ascertained the prevailing rate of per diem wages and rates for legal holidays and overtime work in the locality in which this work is to be performed for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute the contract, which will be awarded to the successful bidder.

7. Eight hours shall constitute a work day unless otherwise specified on the union scale. The hourly wage rate prescribed is the per diem rate divided by the aforementioned number of hours constituting a work day.

8. Attention is directed to Section 4100 through 4113 of the Government Code concerning sub-contractors.

9. The wage scale referred to hereinabove is Section I of the Contract Documents.

10. The Board of Education of the San Rafael School District reserves the right to reject any and all bids or any alternate or unit price and/or waive any informality or irregularity in any bid received.

11. A Pre-Bid Conference will be held at the office of the Architects, 1045 Sansome Street, San Francisco, California on January 5, 1967 at 10:00 A.M. The purpose of the Conference is to familiarize each prospective bidder with the plans and specifications. If necessary, addenda will be issued by the Architect following the Conference in accordance with the General Conditions for the work.

12. There shall be no discrimination because of race, color, creed or political affiliation in the employment of persons for work under this contract.

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SAN RAFAEL SCHOOL DISTRICT
Dated: December 23, 1966

SECTION A
NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
Bid No. 257-A
(Advertisement)

1. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT the San Rafael School District of Marin County will receive bids for the furnishing of all labor, materials, transportation and services for the construction of the 1966 Additions to Coleman School, consisting of one two story building, appurtenant facilities and site improvements, at Rafael Drive and Belle Avenue, San Rafael, California.

2. Each bid to be in accordance with the plans and specifications now on file with Richard C. Marshall, Chester Bowles, Jr., Architects, A.I.A., 1045 Sansome Street, San Francisco, California, where the same may be examined and copies obtained upon deposit of ($25.00) (twenty-five) dollars per set, which deposit will be refunded upon the return of such copies in good condition within five days after the bids are opened.

3. Each bid shall be made on a form to be supplied by the Architect, and must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check in the amount of $7,000.00 or a Bid Bond in the amount of 10% of the total contract price made payable to the order of the San Rafael Clerk of the Board whose address will be Third and E Streets, San Rafael, California, prior to 11:00 A.M., January 10, 1967 at which time they will be publicly opened and declared.

4. The above-mentioned check will be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into a contract if awarded the work and will be retained by the District as agreed and liquidated damages if the successful bidder fails or refuses to enter into said contract or to furnish the necessary bonds after being requested to do so by the Board of Education of the San Rafael School District.

5. The successful bidder will be required to furnish a labor and material bond in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price in accordance with the contract documents.

6. Bidders are hereby notified that pursuant to the Statutes of the State of California, the Board of Education of the San Rafael School Distirct has ascertained the prevailing rate of per diem wages and rates for legal holidays and overtime work in the locality in which this work is to be performed for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute the contract, which will be awarded to the successful bidder.

7. Eight hours shall constitute a work day unless otherwise specified on the union scale. The hourly wage rate prescribed is the per diem rate divided by the aforementioned number of hours constituting a work day.

8. Attention is directed to Section 4100 through 4113 of the Government Code concerning sub-contractors.

9. The wage scale referred to hereinabove is Section I of the Contract Documents.

10. The Board of Education of the San Rafael School District reserves the right to reject any and all bids or any alternate or unit price and/or waive any informality or irregularity in any bid received.

11. A Pre-Bid Conference will be held at the office of the Architects, 1045 Sansome Street, San Francisco, California on January 5, 1967 at 10:00 A.M. The purpose of the Conference is to familiarize each prospective bidder with the plans and specifications. If necessary, addenda will be issued by the Architect following the Conference in accordance with the General Conditions for the work.

12. There shall be no discrimination because of race, color, creed or political affiliation in the employment of persons for work under this contract.

BY ORDER OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION OF THE SAN RAFAEL SCHOOL DISTRICT
Dated: December 23, 1966

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO DISPOSE OF SURPLUS REAL PROPERTY

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that, on the 20th day of December, 1966, the Marin County Board of Supervisors adopted Resolution No. 9171, declaring its intention to dispose of certain surplus real property described therein, upon the terms and conditions, and in the manner set forth in said resolution, which provides as follows:

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN
RESOLUTION NO. 9171
RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF MARIN DECLARING ITS INTENTION TO DISPOSE OF SURPLUS REAL PROPERTY.

WHEREAS, the County of Marin is the owner of certain hereinafter described real property not necessary for its use which is hereby declared surplus;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED as follows:

1. The Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, pursuant to Sections 25520, et seq., of the Government Code, does hereby declare its intention to sell said property. A public meeting of the Board will be held at the Chambers of the Board of Supervisors, Civic Center, San Rafael, California, on the 14th day of February, 1967, at 2:00 o'clock P.M., at which time sealed proposals to purchase said property will be received and considered. Said property intended to be sold is generally known as the "COURTHOUSE SQUARE" and is described as follows:

That certain real property situate in the City of San Rafael, County of Marin, State of California, described as follows:

BLOCK 31 as shown on "Plat of the Townsite of the Town of San Rafael," filed October 14, 1873 in Rack 1 of Maps at Pull 4, Marin County Records.

2. A real estate commission shall be paid by the County to a licensed real estate broker, as provided by law, at the rate of five per cent (5%). Fifty per cent (50%) of the commission will be paid upon receipt by County of the first installment of the purchase price on July 1, 1967, and the remainder of the Commission will be paid when title passes. If the purchaser elects to pay the entire purchase price at once, the entire commission will be paid upon close of escrow. If the transaction is not consummated through no fault of the County, no commission whatsoever shall be payable.

3. Minimum acceptable price for said property is Nine Hundred Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($900,000.00).

4. The terms of sale shall be as follows:

(a) All bids must be accompanied by a cashier's or certified check payable to the County of Marin in an amount equal to ten per cent (10%) of the amount bid. Failure to consummate the purchase or make payments when due, will result in forfeiture of this deposit.

(b) Fifty per cent (50%) of the purchase price, including the amount on deposit, must be paid directly to County, on or before July 1, 1967. The remaining fifty per cent (50%) of the purchase price must be paid to County, through escrow, on or before July 1, 1968. The purchaser may, at his option, pay the purchase price in full, in advance of the above dates.

(c) A grant deed to the property will be delivered to escrow by County with instructions to the escrow holder to record and deliver the deed to the purchaser immediately after the County certifies that full payment of the purchase price has been received. County shall pay all escrow charges except title insurance premiums.

(d) Possession of the property shall be delivered to the successful bidder about July 1, 1968. If County is unable to vacate the premises by that date, delivery of possession will be deferred pending completion of the Marin County Hall of Justice. During the period between delivery and recordation of the deed, and delivery of possession, County will pay the purchaser rent at the rate of one per cent (1%) of the purchase price per month.

5. All bidders will be required to submit bids on a form supplied by County. Oral bids will be considered in the manner provided by law, but no oral bids will be accepted from bidders who have not established their responsibility by submission of a written bid and deposit. An additional deposit need not be made for an oral bid, but the successful bidder's original deposit must be increased to ten per cent (10%) of his bid within five (5) days after award.

6. The successful bidder will be required to agree to preserve the exterior of the existing Courthouse and grounds substantially in their present condition for five (5) years from the date of award.

7. The Board of Supervisors reserves the right to reject any or all bids or to waive any errors or irregularities in any bid. No bid may be withdrawn for a period of ten (10) days after submission.

8. The Clerk of this Board shall cause three copies of the within resolution, signed by the Chairman of this Board, to be posted in three public places within the County at least fifteen (15) days before the date of said hearing and the opening of said bids and shall cause notice of the adoption of this resolution to be published once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks prior to the hearing on said matter, in the INDEPENDENT-JOURNAL, a newspaper of general circulation published in the County of Marin.

PASSED AND ADOPTED at a regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin, State of California, held on the 20th day of December, 1966, by the following vote:

University Has Mobile Course For Doctors

BURLINGTON, Vt. (AP)—Today's doctors are usually too busy to attend refresher courses so the University of Vermont College of Medicine is bringing the courses to them.

The college has initiated a two-pronged program to keep Vermont's 480 physicians up to date on advances in their fields.

One part of the program consists of a series of early morning television programs. The second is a combination of seminars and symposiums conducted by a rotating team of two physicians, a nurse and various technicians. They use an airplane in reaching every part of the state.

Dr. Welsh said he hopes the Vermont program will lead to a New England-wide effort.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Tuberculosis Outbreaks Have Something In Common

VAN DELLEN

In an analysis of more than a hundred epidemics of tuberculosis in 12 countries, it was found that the outbreaks had certain circumstances in common. In the first place, a large number of those exposed to the germs lacked immunity (tuberculin negative); secondly, the disseminator usually had a large number of tubercle bacilli in his sputum.

The concentration of germs spewed into the air depends not only upon the number expelled in the sputum but upon the fluidity of the discharge and the frequency and forcefulness of coughing. Of equal importance is whether the infected individual covers the mouth when coughing.

THREE OF OF FOUR of the epidemics were in schools, but adults, rather than youngsters were responsible. Teachers usually are the source but epidemics have been traced to a bus driver, custodian, or cook. Older children and adolescents with chronic pulmonary tuberculosis are responsible occasionally

Eight members of a British military band developed active tuberculosis within a short period of time. The source of the infection was a young clarinet player. It was believed that the disease spread rapidly because band players exhale more air than average persons and do so with greater force. The air contains a greater concentration of bacilli in the circumstances.

MOST EPIDEMICS develop within a short time. It is not difficult to pinpoint the source if all in contact with the victims agree to a tuberculin test and chest X-ray. The infected adult or adolescent should be treated in a sanatorium. The adolescent should not return to school until the disease is arrested for three to six months. Young children can be treated at home. Those having no symptoms can return to school provided they are under medical supervision and receive isoniazid or PSA for at least a year.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request to the I-J.)

M. G. writes: Is Paget's disease the same as bone cancer?

REPLY

No. Paget's disease (osteritis deformans) is a chronic disorder of the bone characterized by bowing of the legs and enlargement of the skull. Now and then one bone, such as the thigh shin or the upper arm, is involved. However, as a rule, the skull and several of the long bones are affected. Send a stamed self-addressed envelope for leaflet on Paget's disease.

ASPIRIN AND THE HEART

Mrs. H. N. writes: My husband has valvular heart trouble and arthritis. Would it harm his heart to take aspirin for the joint pains.?

REPLY

No. Aspirin remains one of our best remedies for rheumatic fever and is used frequently in the stage of the disease when the heart is most affected.

VEIN TREATMENT

N. E. writes: Is the injection treatment of varicose veins still used?

REPLY

Yes, but surgery frequently is advised and now and then a combination of the two procedures is required. Send a stamped, self-addessed envelope for leaflet on varicose veins.

STEAM BATHS

G. S. B. writes: What are the benefits and hazards of steam baths?

REPLY

They have no advantages over ordinaly warm tub baths or showers. Healthy people can take steam baths, but the person with heart trouble or high blood pressure may find them too strenuous.

LAW IN ACTION

From the State Bar Of California

Some Debts Are Hard To Collect

A lawsuit may result in a judgment, for money damages. If the judgment-debtor has assets enough, the judgment will soon be paid.

Still, many judgments are hard to collect. Some persons are "judgment proof." They have no assets, or they are protected by law. For example, the debtor will go through bankruptcy and have the judgment discharged as a matter of law.

Some judgments are paid only after perisitent efforts by the creditor. The creditor must get a "writ of execution" from the court. The writ will direct a sheriff, constable, or marshal to seize the debtor's assets to pay the judgment.

The creditor has to locate the debtor's assets and direct the sheriff to them to make his collection. The court usually adds the costs and fees for finding and seizing assets to the judgment. But sometimes the cost of enforcing a judgment is not worth the effort. For example, to seize the debtor's car, the creditor must post enough money to tow the car away, and perhaps pay storage fees. To seize and sell real property, the creditor must post a fee. To make the sale worthwhile, he may have to line up buyers or buy property himself.

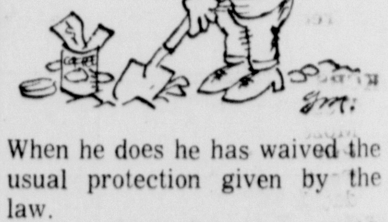
Sometimes the creditor can take steps before judgment to insure collection of his judgement. He can attach or garnish the debtor's assets. As soon as the creditor files his complaint, he can ask the court for permission to seize the debtor's assets.

Because the creditor does not yet have a judgment, he must post a bond for a garnishment or attachment as well as for the costs of enforcing it.

The law protects certain assets from creditor's claims, an interest in a home up to $15,000, life insurance, a small bank account, household furnishings, a car worth less than $250 and some tools and equipment.

Enforcing payment comes quite high. That is why creditors often ask for security beforehand. A car or household item sold on time will be secured by the item itself. The creditor can force return of the goods upon failure to pay as agreed.

A debtor can use protected assets by the law as security.



When he does he has waived the usual protection given by the law.

Note: California lawyers offer this column so you may know about our laws.

Contest Winners Lose On Writing

CHICAGO (AP)—Being disqualified in sweepstakes contests requiring the sending of a label, box-top or brand name to a headquarters is the least of a contestant's worries.

Walter Barry, an advertising director, says the biggest problem is legibility. Names and addresses must be printed or written clearly.

"Out of 1,500 winners of an $80,000 prize contest, there will be a few disqualifications simply because people are careless and don't follow the simple rules," Barry said.

Ancient Human Ashes Discovered By Czechs

BRATISLAVA, Czechoslovakia (AP)—A number of urns with incinerated human remains dating back to 1200 to 1300 B.C. were discovered near Rimavska Sobota, Slovakia, the news agency CTK reported recently.

CTK said the urns contained bronze parts of clothings and bronze needles and small gadgets symbolizing the social position of the dead.

TV REVIEW

Let's Have A Commercial Break Please

By RICK DU BROW

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) —For the person capable of only so much goodwill during the Christmas season or any other, television is a constant relief. There, even as the last hours tick away before the days of reverence, one is returned to the real world of jazzy new automobiles and bad breath. Has no one ever considered a holiday truce of decent length between video and the home audience?

COMMERCIALS

The only major suspension of commercials I can remember in recent years was during the four days following the assassination of President Kennedy. Yet it would seem that there are days each year in the lives of ordinary persons that have a right to be treated with full — rather than partial —respect, particularly by a medium which, through its influence in reflecting values, can do much good or harm.

Surely television cannot wish to be known as a medium that requires a tragedy to make it act with dignity, or just plain decency.

I suppose I resented more than anything else this past Christmas the automobile dealers who came on full of reverent words about the real meaning of the season, and told how they weren't going to pitch their cars, but then casually mentioned in passing that they would be open after a day or so —or other words along these lines.

WHO ARE THEY?

Who are these people anyway? How dare they intrude on such a holiday? How dare they presume that anyone is interested in their views about the Christmas season, or wishes to hear them sermonize from a used car lot? How dare a station allow such fellows to indulge in such tastelessness — these people who could never get on television unless they bought their way on?

Television also contributed some other choice tidbits to the holiday season. Yesterday morning, for instance, all three of our major networks devoted considerable time to coverage of the Rose Parade.

Bride-To-Be Will Be Honored With Fashion Show At Emporium

Honoring the bride-to-be, Emporium, Northgate, will present a showing of spring and summer bridal fashions Wednesday, Jan. 18 at 7:30 p.m. in the bridal salon.

Entitled "Happily Ever After—the Emporium Bride," the show will feature a selection of wedding dresses with accompanying bridesmaid dresses, and a group of dresses suitable for the mother of the bride — and for the flower girl.

TO BE SHOWN—The Emporium has this gown on display for an early wedding. The graceful fall of Bobbin lace is beautifully appliqued in sprays of Venice lace. Two bows accentuate the Empire banding of the cap-sleeved bodice. It is in Emporium's Bride's Room, Northgate Fashion Mall.

The prevailing mood of bridal gowns for spring, 1967 is one of airy lightness, with organza the dominant fabric. The shape of the dresses from the Empire, A-line silhouette to the skimmer and the "cage." There is a great deal of fragile lace trimming the organza, along with bead detailing and ribbon trims. Unusually effective is ivory-color organza with deeper tone lace. Another handsome fabric is English net with Alencon lace appliques.

Sleeves are the accent and may give a romantic look to the shape of the gowns—long sleeves, bishop sleeves, small baby sleeves, flounced and "teacup" sleeves. Trains have an airy illusion look — many lavishly trimmed or framed with lace, and many can double as headpieces.

Bridesmaid dresses follow similar silhouettes, the "cage" being especially beautiful in eyelet sheers and chiffon. Other fabrics include organza, linen, voile and "saki" cloth, with sleeve treatments related to those of the wedding gowns.

Colors are vibrant — with peach to apricot tones leading the fashion parade. Lilac is another shade that is extremely pretty for spring attendants' dresses.

The long bridesmaid dress is still predominant but there is a trend to the short bridal (and attendant) dress, and several will be included in the showings.

Drastic Changes Noted Now In The Design Of Bathrobes

NEW YORK — It's amazing to note the number of developments that have taken place in robes since the birth of the classic belted "bathrobe." To appreciate this, one has only to view the new robe collections with their wealth of diversified styles and fabrics in varied textures and colorations.

One of the most striking developments concerns the fabrics themselves. The range of fabrics is a wide one and includes those designed to appeal to the tactile as well as the visual senses. There are chiffons, jerseys, satiny crepes and many other soft, silky fabrics that feel deliciously soothing when worn next to the skin.

Aside from their beauty and softness of texture, some of the fabrics have the added advantage of easy-care qualities. A perfect example is a fleece of triacetate and nylon that is wonderfully light with a downy softness and cozy warmth. Robes made in this fabric can be tossed in the washing machine, tumble-dried and hung in the closet ready for wearing. No ironing is necessary.

Even though there are varied kinds of robes in this luxuriously soft, fleecy fabric, ranging from simple brunch coats to long elegant "at home" styles, simplicity is the general keynote. Tasteful restraint is shown in use of trimmings, as for example, with satin piping or embroidered borders that emphasize the design of the robes.

Series Of Bridge Lessons Will Start On Jan. 11

A series of bridge lessons will be held at the Emporium in Northgate, starting Wednesday, Jan. 11 and continuing for 14 consecutive Wednesdays.

Frank Jackson, a popular bridge columnist, will teach the classes.

Jackson taught bridge at the Marin YWCA for two years. In addition to being a "Contract Bridge Life Master," he is a former member of the National Contract Bridge League and the only three-time holder of the far western regional championship in bridge.

The series will be divided into two groups—the first 10 lessons for both persons who have never played and those who have played; the second series or final five lessons for only those who have played. The fee is $1 per class. No advance reservations are necessary.

Lessons will be held in the cloak room, frequently used for public functions and located on the first floor adjacent to the yardage department. Hours are from 1 to 3 p.m. and in the evening from 7:30 to 9:15 p.m.

Anti-Clotting Drugs Don't Offer Heart Patients Too Much Safety

By JUDITH RANDAL
Advance News Service

WASHINGTON — A team of Oregon researchers has found that prolonged use of anti-coagulant or anti-clotting drugs offers little future protection to a heart patient and may even do him some harm.

NOT LIKE THE TWENTIES! — Double-breasted suits are making their bow again this season and promise to increase in popularity. Boldly striped, this contemporary model is a four-button style with pared down shoulders and moderately wide lapels.

According to Dr. Arthur J. Seaman and Dr. Herbert Griswold of the University of Oregon and Portland Veterans Administration Hospital, a 10-year study of several hundred patients showed that those getting anticoagulants over long periods of time were no freer of second heart attacks than those who were not.

In addition, they were more often hospitalized, in part because the drugs sometimes induce bleeding that is hard to control. Drs. Seaman and Griswold spoke for a four-man group. During the study, neither participants or their doctores knew which patients were really getting anticoagulants and which were getting placebos (dummy pills).

Tens of thousands of Americans who have had heart attacks routinely take anticoagulants because it has been thought that the prevention of clots will, in itself, reduce the chance of further trouble. The thinking has been that no attack can take place unless preceded by a clot in one of the blood vessels supplying the heart.

Drs. Seaman and Griswold, however, believe this theory may be wrong. "There is some evidence," Dr. Seaman told reporters, "that we've had this thing backwards. Experiments with animals under stress have shown that some may develop heart attack even in the absence of clots."

Dr. Seaman also cited some experiments in which cows' eyes had been removed from the animals, but kept alive by a nutrient broth. When a blood vessel-damaging chemical was added to the broth, the vessel was injured even though anticoagulants were given at the same time.

These experiments may mean that atherosclerosis — fatty deposits on blood vessel walls — is capable in itself of causing the death of tissue in the heart. Doctors call the area of this tissue death a myocardial infarction. It is the coronary artery that supplies blood to the heart muscle that is involved.

Neither of the Oregon researchers blames doctors for their wide-spread use of anticoagulant drugs. As Dr. Griswold noted, blood-thinning agents were considered beneficial five or six years ago and are definitely needed immediately after a heart attack or stroke and over a prolonged period of time by patients who have a tendency to form clots or have diseased heart valves, as well as by those whose own valves have been replaced by artificial implants.

Furthermore, the situation is not as clear-cut as it seems. Although it is little known by the general public, there are many treatments about which doctors disagree and the prolonged use of anticoagulants is a typical example.

In "Controversies in Internal Medicine," a recently published scientific book, for example, almost two dozen such pros and cons are discussed in regard to disorders ranging from high blood pressure to the treatment of ulcer. In the chapter on heart attacks, the proponents of long-term use of anticoagulants go so far as to say that failure to prescribe the drugs may endanger the life of the patient.

It is interesting to note, however, that in preparing this material, the two authors drew heavily on a paper by Dr. Irving S. Wright, a Cornell University physician who is one of the country's leading heart specialists. Dr. Wright was present at the news conference at which the benefits of anticlotting drugs were disputed. Although he had some minor criticisms of the Oregon researchers' work, he did not basically disagree.

"A patient who has had one myocardial infarction (heart attack) and has had no subsequent complications," he said, "is probably a good risk and may not need lifetime therapy. However, any evidence of recurrent thrombosis (clotting) makes one a candidate for long-term therapy — therapy of one or two years."

Some Tips For Snow Dressing

Are you a man who rejoices in the first snowfall? A ski-man who scurries to the slalom slopes at the first hunt of threatening winter skies?

Or are you a "spectator skier," who simply relishes the clear crisp air of the resorts and the friendly, informal evenings around the fireplaces? In either case, the American Institute of Men's and Boys' Wear gives you some style tips.

For travel to and from resorts as well as for a welcome change during the apre-ski hours, you will want a least one — perhaps more — of those burly tweed or shetland sport coats.

The plaids are big, bold and powerful and make excellent use of the whiskey-tones, the soft "earth" colors and blends of green, claret and honey. Greenish-blue lovat mixes have that "in" sportsman look in both plaids and plain colors, too. Select any color or combination in your favorite sport coat model.

Blazers are the bit everywhere, as much at home at ski resorts as on tropic cruises. Pick from the classic single-breasted or the smart double-breasteds, which have gained rapid universal acceptance. To the standard deep blues now are added medium and light blues, deep greens, grays, rusts and burgundies.

With your bold plaid coats team rugged whipcord, twill, multi-color hopsack or gray flannel slacks. Add new style zip to your blazers with either bold or muted plaid or checked slacks. These "fancy pants" go equally well with solid hopsack or other unpatterned sport coats.

Snow resorts and warm, handsomely styled outerwear are almost synonymous. The outer fabrics of outerwear — the "shells" — find woolens in solid colors, rugged lumberjack plaids, traditional English district checks and club checks, lodens, and tweeds used to fine advantage. Corduroys, particularly in the wider wales, are also on the upswing and the western look takes to the slopes in real shearlings and suedes, manmade versions of the same and in brushed denims.

Double-breasted outerwear shows up in a host of models as the western influence is expressed in short coats and the British bit includes winterized bush coats and outerwear versions of the military short warm.

Think ski and you have to think sweaters! Think sweaters and you will have to think flat knits, double-knits, cable-stitches, combined woven fabrics with knits, brushed knits, turtlenecks, mock-turtles, V-necks, creck-necks, boat-necks, the layered-look, cardigans in classic, double-breasted and alpine styles.

The newest sweater colors include rusty reds, colorful heathers, deep navy blue, reds from bright to burgundy and, of course, the naturals in bone and tan, the pale tans and many grays.

One rarely needs dress shirts at ski resorts so go heavy on sport shirts. Don't overlook new "sweater shirts," knitted of fine wools or of wools blended with other fibers. Other knit shirts include turtlenecks, mock-turtles, fancy patterns, classic polos, layered-look, and continental styles.

Deserving of special mention are the updated corduroy suits. Now in the popular double-breasted styles as well as in the classic single-breasted (some with vests to match), the corduroy suits are practical and handsome in both medium and wide wales. They gain plus benefits from new permanent-press finishes, and have just the right look for after-ski hours when worn with turtleneck shirts or cut-and-sewn sport shirts.

Round out your present woven sports shirts with CPO's in brushed denim, corduroy and wool; lumberjacks in woodsman plaids, button-down-collar wools and brushed cottons and blends of wool with cotton; and all-cotton plaids, tattersalls, checks in deep-tone rusts, browns, blues and bright reds.

Some teen-agers will dig the mod floral prints and polka dots, many of which are made with high band collars in both button-down and plain long-point models.

It is almost trite to remind the experienced snow resorter of the rakish Tyrolean hat. In velours, rough finishes and sueded felts, they serve as a repository of the skiers' many ski badges, resort pins, and whiskery hirschbarts and gemsbarts.

VACATIONING IN THE SNOW?—Boldly plaided wool outwear makes a bright scene for winter weather. Here, in tones of rust, brown and gold, it takes on the guise of a tow coat-bench-warmer with attached hood and giant patch flap pockets.

Rival Teams Waging Race To Recover Treasure Ship

ISLES OF SCILLY, England (UPI) —The Royal Navy and a bunch of "landlubbers" are competing against each other here in a gripping seabed race for the loot of a treasure ship sunk on these wreck-strewn rocks almost 250 years ago.

The rival diving teams are searching for H.M.S. Association, flag-ship of Admiral Sir Cloudesley Shovel, which went down in 1707 with an estimated five million pounds, $14 million worth, of Spanish coin and plate in her hold.

The Navy's task force consists of a minesweeper, a helicopter, 19 divers and Women's Royal Navy officer Joan Ireland. The "Blue Sea Buccaneers" are six men and a girl who have hired their own ship and equipment.

Neither side appears to be getting in the other's way, mainly because they have different ideas where the ship went down.

Admiralty records say the Association was returning from the sacking of Barcelona when it hit Gilstone Rock, 40 miles off land's end. As the Soilly Isles have two jagged shiptraps of that name, the rivals have chosen different places to search.

Confusion is increased because both Gilstone rocks have claimed wrecks in the past.

The Navy is treating its competition with heavy, ill-concealed scorn, while the "Buccaneers" boldly announce that the Navy is using government equipment and sounding apparatus in the wrong place.

Whichever team finds the treasure one thing is certain. It will immediately be claimed by the government Receiver of Wrecks, who will hand it over to the Admiralty. The Admiralty will decide how much of the treasure, if any the finders are allowed to keep.

Drinking Water Study Launched

(Special to the I-J)

DAVIS—What makes a "good" drink of water?

Is it the fact that it's icy cold? Or slightly mineral in taste? Or a lack of mineral taste? A salty taste? A flat taste? A "soft" taste, like fresh rain water? Or a "hard" taste? Or what you are used to?

Researchers are trying to find out in the Sensory Evaluation Laboratory of the Food Science Department at the University of California at Davis.

The project, sponsored by the federal Public Health Service, seeks data on factors which influence the taste and palatability of water. This information is important as the increasing population demands more drinking water, necessitating use of ground water supplies high in bad-tasting minerals, or, at some future date, the use of desalinized sea water.

Mrs. Rose Marie Pangborn, project director, reports the study already has produced a surprise.

The long held belief that chilling water makes it more palatable does not apply to all water tasted by a panel of trained judges. Experimental waters containing common minerals at concentrations of 1,000 parts per million (ppm), the Public Health recommended maximum, were slightly improved by chilling. But, both tap water and distilled water were more acceptable at room temperature than chilled.

The minerals tested, commonly present in ground water, were sodium, calcium and magnesium sulfates; calcium, magnesium and sodium chloride; sodium carbonate and sodium bicarbonate (baking soda).

These occur singly and in various combinations in natural waters throughout California, ranging in concentration from 85 ppm in Berkeley to over 2,400 in Coalinga.

Mrs. Pangborn pointed out that selected parts of the laboratory experiments are being applied in field studies currently being conducted by the California Department of Public Health in Berkeley. Eventually consumers will be surveyed on their taste preferences and reactions.

An early finding suggests individuals may have acquired preferences for at least some mineral taste in drinking water. Judges found that distilled water was "bitter," "cardboardy," "flat," or "insipid."

Mrs. Pangborn speculates the concentration of minerals in the saliva may influence reaction to the taste of water. Preliminary results show that salivary flow rates are greatly influenced by both the concentration of the minerals and by the temperature of the solution tested.

A detailed study was made on the taste of common table salt at freezing room temperature, body temperature and "as hot as the judges would tolerate it." It was found that salt was easier to detect at room and body temperatures, but difficult to perceive when either hot or cold.

During the remaining two years in this three-year study, the sensory laboratory will continue to investigate effects of temperature, minerals, chlorination, and fluoridation, oxygen and carbonation. Antaste effects of mineralized or treated waters on common beverages, such as coffee, tea and soft drinks.

Eastern Dress Is Influencing Today's Styles

The fashion swing to easy gliding silhouettes is well-timed to the caftan and its variations, the djellaba and the burnoose, soon to be found in all well-rounded leisure wardrobes.

Tops and tights in riotously printed wool jersey or stretch knit are the newest idea in sleepwear . . . right for the young with a yen for comfort (and warmth). These soft, supple companions brightly combine magenta with turquoise or are found in such spirited combinations as red, blue and orange.

Fashions rush to ruffles and lace has found an ideal niche in the leisure world too, forming lithe, lovely night dresses, bed jackets and robes—a far cry from the lace trimmed duster days.

Children And Use Of Aspirins

By California Medical Assn.

Almost every family medicine cabinet contains aspirin and probably no single drug is used so freely by the public.

During the influenza epidemic last winter the advice given by press, radio and TV for the treatment of flu was "stay in bed, drink plenty of fluid, and take aspirin". Unfortunately, some children were given aspirin with such abandon as to account for a significant number of cases of aspirin poisoning.

Aspirin is the most common cause of fatal poisoning among children in this country. Too often it is given in larger dosages than a child can tolerate and is given too frequently and for too prolonged periods of time.

There is no doubt that aspirin is extremely effective in alleviating many types of pain and discomfort in both children and adults.

In certain diseases — such as rheumatic fever and rheumatoid arthritis — it has a specific therapeutic effect. But many parents mistakenly think aspirin should be given to children for the sole purpose of reducing fever.

This may be useful in alleviating the anxiety of the parents, but it is not the best nor the safest way to treat a fever.

When a child has fever, the important first step is not to bring the temperature down to normal, but to find out what is causing the fever. A child's fever may be reduced by repeated dosages of aspirin, but this may obscure an important warning that something is amiss.

Lulled by the drop in temperature, the parents may postpone calling in a physician and thus delay diagnosis and appropriate treatment.

If the physician prescribes aspirin — as he might to relieve the discomfort of influenza or some similar infection — his instructions should be carefully followed.

A single dose is often all that is suggested. Sometimes another dose is permitted in 4 to 6 hours if needed. Within a 24-hour period, the child should not be given more than three doses. If the height of the fever is the only problem, it can be reduced by tepid baths and the use of a fan.

Candy-flavored aspirin tablets, marketed specifically for children, do more harm than good. Many parents mistakenly assume that the drug in this form is completely harmless and make no attempt to limit the child's intake. Young children seek these tablets out because of their tempting flavor.

Rather than stock their medicine cabinet with so-called "baby" aspirin, with its deceptively harmless-sounding name and attractive flavor, parents follow a much safer course if they use portions of the regular five grain aspirin tablet.

This can be divided so that a fraction will represent two and one-half to one and one-fourth or approximately one-half grain. The amount specified by the child's doctor can be softened with a drop or two of water and then mixed with jam or jelly. Presented in this form, it is usually accepted quite well by the small child.

Aspirin should be stored where it cannot be reached by small children. This is a precaution which is equally appropriate for all drugs which have any therapeutic effect. Any drug which is potent enough to be valuable in treatment is probably not devoid of dangerous effects in overdosage, especially for children.

Stories Differ On Source Of Lake Name

INTERNATIONAL FALLS, Minn. (AP)—The true source of the Mississippi River, nearby Lake Itasca, in northern Minnesota, was discovered and named by explorer Henry Schoolcraft in 1832. He combined the last two syllables of the Latin "veritas," meaning truth, with the first of "caput," meaning head or source.

Chippewa legend, however, maintains that I-tas-ka, daughter of Hiawatha, was carried away to the region of darkness by Chebiabo, ruler of the netherworld. Her tears, the Chippewa say, united with springs and rivulets to form the Mississippi.

Kiev Remains Steeped In Its Ancient History

KIEV, U.S.S.R. (AP)—Nearly 11 centuries ago in 882, the legend says, Prince Oleg of Novgorod sailed down the Dnieper River to Kiev and proclaimed, "This is to be the mother of Russian cities."

And so it was.

The fortress city looming on steep green hills overlooking the river ruled as the capital of old Rus from the 9th to 13th centuries.

The modern Soviet city of 1,300,000 persons today, largely rebuilt from the ruins of the Nazi occupation during World War II, remains steeped in history.

It was here in 988 that Prince Vladimir marched his subjects down to the Dnieper for a forced mass dunking of baptisms. A statue of Vladimir, bearing a cross, still overlooks the spot. Ancient churches still attest to the city's rich past.

It was here nearly 1,000 years later that Nikita S. Krushchev built a political reputation as Communist party boss of the Soviet Ukraine.

The monument to Vladimir fared better than the one to Krushchev.

The name of the 25,000-seat Krushchev Sports Stadium was changed to Central Sports Stadium after the Soviet leader's ouster in 1964.

The three-story yellow house where Krushchev once lived, shielded by a green fence, is now the residence of Pyotr Y. Shelest, the present Ukranian party leader. Tourists are not permitted to stop and photograh the house.

"Stalin Square" has been changed to "Lenin Komsomol Square," "Tsar Park" to "First of May Park."

The 14-story Moskva Hotel stands on a spot that once housed the colossal mansion of the merchant Ginsburg, the biggest home in Kiev. It was destroyed during World War II.

The old Polish church is now the planetarium. The 11th Century Pechersk Monastery has been turned into a museum of atheism. A former Jewish synagogue is now a movie theater.

Apartment houses are going up at Babi Yar, the ravine where Nazi troops slaughtered some 100,000 Kiev Jews during World War II.

Residents here point out an old church that had a rusty old dome. One day the neighborhood awoke to find the dome golden.

"They gave us some scientific explanation for it," a Russian said referring to civic authorities. "But we never found out how the dome got painted."

Sheriff Locked Out Of Office

MT. VERNON, Ill. (AP)—Former Sheriff Dewey Barton won the race for the Jefferson County clerk's office, but he needed a locksmith to open the door.

Barton, a Republican, replaced outgoing clerk Lester Davis, and when Davis prepared to hand over the keys he discovered he didn't have them. He left the keys in the clerk's office and it was locked.

When the key couldn't be found to unlock the door, a locksmith managed to open it.

Police Unite To Help Check Crime Activity

NILES, Ill. (AP) — Criminals operating in some Chicago suburbs are becoming entangled in the consequences of one-for-all and all-for-one crime fighting.

Lt. Edward Dennis, in charge of investigations for the Niles Police Department, is the central figure of the system. It informally bonds together more than 50 suburban police departments, various Chicago detective units, sheriff's offices of Cook and McHenry counties, Illinois State Police and some federal law enforcers.

Each month in the Niles courtroom, Lt. Dennis presides over delegates of member departments who come, some of them 30 miles or more and on their own time, to tell of recent crimes in their own towns and to hear of happenings elsewhere. Dennis describes a typical exchange:

"One guy will stand up and say, 'We picked up a petty thief last night but we found some fur coats in the trunk.' Then somebody else will ask, 'Does he drive a red Ford?'

" 'Yes.'

" 'Well, those furs are from a robbery in our town.' "

Lt. Dennis refers to the operation as a system rather than the more formal term organization.

It is two years old and has 214 members, but no name. It has resulted in the solving of about 300 crimes, Dennis said. Besides the monthly meetings, the system also has files, kept in Lt. Dennis' office.

What it all means is that crime fighting borders have been taken down; each police department worries about crimes occurring outside its borders and cooperates in solving such cases.

The Niles chief, Clarence Emrikson, said Lt. Dennis started the project in 1964 with 10 or 12 policemen from nearby towns. Word-of-mouth kept bringing in more from surrounding areas.

Emrikson said, "It seemed like the surrounding area never stopped." Now these detectives from so many different departments work as if for one municipality. "I have never heard of another such system anywhere else," the chief added.

A big benefit of the system is that policemen from many areas get to know each other. Then, when an officer is trying to track a suspect in another town, he's on a first-name basis with detectives in charge there.

A BRAND NEW HOME

Vicious moray eels at Marineland of the Pacific at Palos Verdes have a brand new home. The popular apartment house is said to be America's first underwater condominium. The honeycomb-like structure housing the eels is made of pipe, allowing the eels to hide in the shadows and yet be completely visible in the display. (UPI Telephoto)

Progress Of Upward Bound Reported Good

WASHINGTON (NS) — Four out of five of the first graduates of Project Upward Bound, the anti-poverty program for low-income high school students, are now in college.

This progress, says Sargent Shriver, director of the War on Poverty, is particularly impressive because most Upward Bound youngsters earned C grades or less in high school.

Once they reached college, however, the Upward Bound graduates showed greater tenacity than their classmates. Only 12 per cent dropped out in freshman year, Shriver says, while the average drop-out rate at many predominately Negro colleges is 30 per cent the first year.

Most of the southern colleges in the program are predominantly Negro.

Upward Bound started in 1965 as a summer program for 953 high school sophomores, juniors and seniors who spent eight weeks on a college campus. The idea was to make them think in terms of attending college themselves.

Shriver told a news conference recently that 80 per cent of these initial youngsters are now in college full time.

The program has expanded to 20,000 youngsters, however, and this high payoff probably won't last.

Upward Bound director Richard T. Frost predicts that the 80 per cent rate may drop to 50 per cent with the increased size, "but that's still a higher college-going rate than anybody else, rich or poor."

By comparison about 48 per cent of all high school graduates last year went on to some form of higher learning.

The budget poses more problems to the future of Upward Bound than any falloff in college attendance.

Shriver says he would need $55 million to finance Upward Bound programs at the 500 colleges and universities which have applied this year. These programs would include 50,000 youngsters.

The budget for the current fiscal year, ending in June, is only $25 million, which is enough for 220 schools and 20,000 youngsters, the same figures as for last year.

Shriver says "there is inadequate money to meet the good programs here," but adds that he will not seek a supplemental appropriation from Congress.

The importance of Upward Bound, Shriver says, "is we are not interested in just helping the very bright child who is poor and probably will get to college on a scholarship anyway.

"We are interested in a vast human potential among the poor whom we have failed to motivate and failed to develop in the educational history of this nation."

Frost adds that "we neither uncovered nor developed spectacular new tecniques. But we did put into practice for the first time a small package of rather tried and true teaching principles which were part of the national rhetoric but were not put into practice."

These include "small classes, teachers who have a respect for these youngsters, a full-time program, the ability to crank in some real freedom for the youngsters, and the use of teaching materials they are interested in."

The program has other side effects—psychological testing of 10 per cent of the students in last summer's program by the Youth Development Center at Syracuse University showed "significant improvement" in six areas.

The areas are motivation for college, possibility of graduating from college, self-evaluation of intelligence, self-responsibility, personal understanding and self-esteem.

"I personally feel that Upward Bound is one of the most promising of all ventures undertaken by this office," Shriver says. "Twice as many colleges want to get into the program now, but we don't have enough money."

Bazaar's Quilt Sale Backfires

WILLIAMSBURG, Mass. (AP) —That was a fine-looking quilt the Congregational Church women sold at their bazaar. Trouble was, it wasn't theirs.

The blanket had been mailed in as a project for a quilting bee and accidentally got mixed up with the bazaar goods.

Now the church women are trying to find the lucky buyer so they can return the quilt to its rightful owner.
